JNO. PENNINGTON DEAD IN FRANCE

PNEUMONIA TAKES MACON YOUNG MAN

While in the Service in France—A Singer of Ability, He Made Many Friends and Admirers.

Word was received Saturday afternoon by his grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Austin, and other Tecumseh relatives of the death of John Pennington, of Macon. He had died in France December 16 after a short illness of pneumonia, so the message stated.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bacon Pennington, of Macon first received the dispatch and were completely crushed, as for weeks they have been worrying over the younger son, Kenneth, whom they knew was in a hospital in France suffering from injuries received when he was thrown from his motorcycle beneath a great truck. This news of John's death comes the more unexpected as Mrs. Austin had received a letter only the other day from him dated November 27 and stating he was feeling fine.

John was 26 years old October 31st, was born in Macon and outside of a few years spent here in Tecumseh, and a few months in Detroit has always lived in that village. He had attended school here and was well known and popular in this part of the county. He was possessed of a splendid baritone voice which had been well trained, he [illegible] years received his musical instruction under Prof. Straub of Detroit. He was generous in allowing his friends the enjoyment of his unusual talent. He was in great demand for commencement exercises, lodge entertainments, receptions, church programs and sang several times at our Wednesday evening programs, each time being welcomed by the pleased applause of his audience, showing his popularity with the people.

Mr. Pennington answered the call of his country, going to Camp Custer April 29th. Several times during the following few weeks he made the trip from Detroit to Baltimore with trucks. At last, on August 11th, he reached France, being in Co. B. 310 Supply Train, of the Medical corps. All through his service his talent has been greatly enjoyed by his comrades. While enroute to the coast the troops were being entertained at Chambersburg, Pa., by a famous opera singer, when at the close of her program calls were made all over the room for "Pennington." John was carried by his enthusiastic comrades to the platform and there sang so beautifully that the lady was delighted and graciously asked our boy to join her in several duets which they sang to the supreme pleasure of the soldiers. He also sang in Y. M. C. A. huts at the camps where his voice was more than appreciated.

The hosts of friends in Tecumseh and Macon extend their sympathy to the family in their great sorrow and anxiously await any tidings from the other son, Kenneth.

Mrs. Alva Spayde

DEATH OF PROMINENT TECUMSEH LADY

Wife of Retired Merchant Taken Sunday Evening—Had Been in Poor Health for Several Years.

It was at 7 o'clock Sunday evening that the life of Mrs. Alva Spayde "passed on" as quietly as it had been lived. She had been in poor health for several years, a sufferer from asthma and a bronchial trouble, and for the past few weeks had been seriously ill, but Sunday was able to see a number of close friends who called, so the end came quickly at the last—and unexpectedly by most of her friends.

Her maiden name was Lovina Elizabeth Ritter. She was born in 1850 near Ft. Wayne, Ind. In her girlhood her home was at Salem, O., moving with her people to Atwood, Ind., in 1867. It was there in 1869 she became the wife of Alva Spayde. Their first home was in Bourbon, Ind., then they came to Michigan where Mr. Spayde was in business in Homer from 1883 to 1887. A fine opportunity opened in a business way for them in Tecumseh as they came here in 1887 and during these years Mrs. Spayde has made for herself a circle of dear friends.

In the immediate family are the husband and only daughter, Miss Bess, the first born, a son, dying in infancy.

Mrs. Spayde was a member of the M. E. church of Bourbon, Ind., and the Tecumseh chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, but her home was her kingdom. The little circle of three were very close, even closer than is usual in families and although keenly interested in all the good things for the church and town, her first thought was of her home and the two who have partially repaid her love by their tender care through her long illness.

The funeral was held privately from the home on Chicago street Tuesday afternoon, Rev. W. A. Rex officiating. Mrs. E. C. Heilman sang two beautiful hymns. The bearers were close friends: Thomas Elliott, Fred Teachout, Chas. Culbertson, John Ladd, Guy Nemire and Frank Avery. They laid carefully away the remains in Brookside, our city of the dead. And so we record the close of the life a lovely character, a loyal friend.

WIFELY WELCOME NOT FOR HIM

RETURNED SOLDIER FINDS STRANGERS IN HOME.

Wife Gone, Babe in Orphan Asylum, When Claud Cooper Returns From Overseas Service.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper were delighted Tuesday evening when their son, Claud, of the battleship Florida, just from French waters, arrived home and more than glad to welcome the little year old babe he carried in his arms.

When Claud left with his boat in October he left his wife and their little baby in Norfolk, Va., and so as soon as the boat pulled into harbor and he could get leave he gladly made his way to the little home to greet his loved ones. He found it occupied by strangers. His glad hopes all gone, he began to search for his family. Inquiry revealed the fact that the wife had placed the baby in an orphan asylum and left the city.

Thinking of the dear parents away off in Michigan, he took his baby from the institution, and that young man who probably never held a baby more than five minutes in his life, carried the little one clear to his good mother where he knew he and the wee one were certain of a welcome.

TECUMSEH BOYS IN AUTOMOBILE BUSINESS

McIntyre Brothers Open Garage and Sales Room in Adrian.

It will interest our Tecumseh and Holloway readers who follow the success of the young men with appreciation to know that William and Charles McIntyre, sons of Mrs. Lydia McIntyre, of this village, have opened a Dodge sale-room and garage on East Maumee street, Adrian. These men have been in the automobile business for some ten years. Will located in Dundee and Charlie in Monroe, together running a joint Dodge agency, making one of the largest auto firms in Southern Michigan. Will moves his family to Adrian at once, while Charles remains at Monroe, they holding the Dodge agency for the two counties. Mrs. Will McIntyre is the daughter of Mrs. Jas. Wood, of Tecumseh.

Card of Thanks.

We wish in this manner to show our appreciation for the many kindnesses of Mr. Whiting, the cigar makers, Modern Woodmen, Pythian Sisters and Royal Neighbors during our affliction. We also wish to thank the friends who sent flowers.

NEW YEAR'S EVE FRIENDS CHURCH

COMMUNITY SERVICE CLOSING DAY OF YEAR

Good Sized Congregation Enjoys Inspiring Song Service and Interesting Meeting.

The cozy little Friends' church was comfortably filled with worshippers Tuesday evening for the New Year's eve service. Rev. Edw. Escolme had charge and conducted a truly inspiring song service at the beginning, with Miss Alma Muhn at the organ. The devotional service he turned to Rev. Rex who read his scripture lesson from Mark 11, following with a discussion on prayer, the attitude of mind we must be in before presenting our petition to our Maker, that petition to be for the good of our souls rather than for temporal blessings. One fact he gave during his short address impressed his hearers. That had we not been so slack, so careless, so stingy in sending so few missionary doctors into foreign fields we need not be going through the throes of this awful epidemic. That it did not come from Spain at all but from Northern China where it has raged for ten years and not enough doctors to quell it. Then troops were sent from Northern China to help the Allies in France and thence it made its way to America.

Rev. Thompson of the M. E. church had charge of the next phase of the meeting, that of testimony. Rev. Thompson said that was the first service he had ever attended, in his long ministry, in a Friend's church. He was glad at the feeling of unity in the churches in the village and suggested a series of union evangelistic services for the town this winter. He spoke for the defense of, attestation or witness of the spirit which is an important feature of the Methodist prayer service.

Many spoke in testimony of Christ's love and saving grace and they were from the many churches showing each works and believes in the same basic theories, even if in minor belief we may differ.

Rev. Escolme, after another song, gave a splendid New Year address taking for his theme "Press toward the mark of the high calling of Jesus." Said the year just closing will never be forgotten as long as time runs. Was so glad it closed as it did in victory for the allies, as that means furtherance of Christ's cause. He is greatly in favor of New Year resolutions, for the school, the business, the home, the church, but resolutions do not atone for the past, only the blood of Christ can atone, yet much good does come from resolutions and we need the grace of God to help us keep them. He told of Paul, proud of his lineage, his morals and zealous in his pursuit of the Jews, but in the end surrendering to the love of the Man who in the eyes of the Romans died as a traitor and in the eyes of the Jews as a blasphemer. Right at Paul's surrender was the minute he turned about, and atoned for his cruel persecutions of the past in a life of work for Christ ever "pressing toward the mark"—and so should our life in this year be an atonement for our mistakes of the past years.

After one more song and the benediction by Rev. Thompson the meeting closed amidst the well wishes for the New Year from one to another all over the audience and a general hand shaking among these from all the different churches.

SOMEWHAT SCATTERED

Are the Boys in the Eighty-Fifth Division.

A dispatch from Camp Custer says that it is now known where every unit of the Eighty-fifth division is located over seas and is surprised at the way the organization has been scattered.

The 339th (Detroit Infantry) the first battalion of the 310th engineers, the 337th field hospital, the 337th ambulance company are in Russia.

In France, the 328th machine gun battalion is at Lesaix, the 329th at Avbinges, and the 330th at Riams. The 310th ammunition train is at Andelot and the 310th supply train and 310th mobile ordnance repair shop are at Poulty, as well as the 339th and 310th field hospital outfits. Congressman Glass, being in the limelight, will have to endure the shafts of 50,000 or maybe 60,000 punsters. It's awful to be a target, but he has no business with such a brittle name, anyhow.

TECUMSEH GIRL HEAD OF BIXBY HOSPITAL

Miss Minnie Smith, Graduate of Our High School, Superintendent

Miss Minnie Smith, formerly of Tecumseh and a graduate of our high school in the class of 1910, is now superintendent of the Emma Bixby hospital, Adrian. Until three months ago she was assistant superintendent there for some time, going to Detroit then as head nurse at the Michigan Mutual Working man's compensation hospital.

Miss Smith, it will be remembered, made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bird in her girlhood with her brother, Gordon, and has hosts of friends here who are proud of her success in this best of all callings.

HOME RELIEF BY WOMEN

ORGANIZATION FORMED TO LOOK AFTER SICK

Church, Lodge and Club Women Co-operate—Sick and Needy to be Fed and Nursed.

During these terrible weeks in which the epidemic of influenza has held sway in Tecumseh, frequently have families and individuals laid without care or food. Realizing the need of relief from this condition one of our physicians has asked the ladies of the town to form themselves into an organization for home relief. Later this may be worked through the Home Relief Committee of the Red Cross, but until then the work is urgent, so Tuesday afternoon a group of ladies, quick to see the appalling need, met with Mrs. Paul Bowen and sure the other ladies of the town will back them in the laudable effort made [illegible] for the relief of the sick both as regards nurses and food. They have asked the heads of the different ladies' organizations of the town both of churches and lodges, whom they could reach and in every instance have been assured loyal support.

They plan to serve one hot meal a day to the sick and send nurses. This assistance is to be paid for wherever possible, but whenever the family is unable to do so the assistance is to be forthcoming just the same. The organizations are to serve a week each, being subject to call, are to furnish the food and see that it is prepared in their own lodge or church kitchens. These meals are to include soup, rice, custards and other things necessary for the sick.

The committees appointed are as follows:

Executive committee — Mrs. Paul Bowen, Mrs. Joseph H. Smith, Mrs. Geo. A. Rathbun.

Emergency food committee—Mrs. H. S. Temple, Mrs. Paul Bowen, Mrs. G. A. Rathbun, Mrs. W. L. Jones, Mrs. R. T. Meade, Mrs. J. H. Smith.

Supply committee—Mrs. W. A. Rex chairman.

Emergency Nurse committee—Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. G. E. Nemire.

The schedule for the organizations to hold themselves ready for call is the following:

Next week, beginning January 5—Westminster Guild, Mrs. R. B. Stuckey, chairman.

Week beginning Jan 12.—O. E. S., Mrs. Geo. Field, chairman.

Jan. 19—Research Circle, Mrs. John McIntyre, chairman.

Jan. 26—Pythian Sisters, Mrs. Floyd Freeman, chairman.

Feb. 2nd—Monday club, Mrs. J. H. Smith, chairman.

Feb 9th—M. E. Ladies' Aid, Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, chairman.

Feb. 16th Lady Maccabees, Mrs. Geo. Cole, chairman.

Feb 23rd. Baptist Ladies' Aid, Mrs. Jay Morse, chairman.

March 2nd—Rebekahs, Mrs. Geo. Zimmerman, chairman.

Owing to the short time in preparing this work, other committees and plans will be announced later.

During the recent registration of the women, 64 registered as willing to act as practical nurses. Will these ladies notify Mrs. Bowen of the days and hours they can give to the work. If they do not they are liable for call when necessary.

All donations of vegetables can be left at the homes of Mrs. J. H. Smith or Mrs. Paul Bowen.

RED CROSS NEWS.

The American Red Cross is issuing an urgent appeal to all its workers not to let up on the work. Unfortunately through the influenza epidemic work has been unavoidably suspended, and many of the old workers who have faithfully done their part since the war broke out are sick, or have sickness in their own family, and are therefore unable to continue. Yet we still have millions of men at the front, particularly our troops in Russia who are in immediate need of our work. Because we are not ourselves in immediate danger from German invasion, shall we forget the men who have given us our safety? The Tecumseh branch is urgently asking for workers to fulfil its quota.

Workers are badly needed to make the paper lined vests for the men in Russia, who are fighting in the arctic winter. Mrs. W. T. Eccles has taken charge of this department. Volunteers please apply to her.

Mrs. John Nyland has a great quanity of yarn on hand to be made into sweaters. Fifty is the number assigned to Tecumseh for January. She is urgently soliciting help.

Some lady is also needed to take charge of the pajama department. The lady who had this in charge has given up and is giving her service as nurse in the influenza epidemic. Is there no one who will volunteer? Please apply to Chas. Burridge, Tel. 77.

Think of what France, Belgium and Serbia are still suffering. Do not let the world ever get the impression, that we, who have suffered nothing from the war, are going to shirk our part. Let America always lead.

Editorial Comment

NINETEEN NINETEEN

Don't forget to write it "1919" for the next twelve months.

Keep your physical condition healthy by taking care of your body. Health is essential to happiness.

If you have a contagious disease at your home don't spread it to your neighbor. Remain at home until the danger is over.

Don't die ahead of time because you didn't have time to live right.

Form the habit of exercising, take time to eat properly, think properly and rest properly.

Practice self-improvement and after becoming efficient you may have license to look for a job on others.

Don't fight community spirit by living for your own selfish ends. Give the other fellow a chance and work together for community welfare.

Be kind to animals. If you own a dog that you value don't forget that he must wear a license tag to avoid the graveyard of dogdom.

Humans also appreciate kindness. A kind word or act during life is appreciated more by the recipient than a ton of beautiful flowers on his grave.

If you like The Herald don't neglect to renew your subscription. Quite a number expire with the old year. Make us happy soon.

If you don't attend church get acquainted with your favorite preacher and form the habit. The church is a community as well as character builder. You can learn more by hearing the other man talk than by talking yourself.

Get into the habit of doing your bit for your community. Stop knocking and start lifting.

Follow some of above suggestions for a few months and watch results. If your nature doesn't grow and expand and give you more happiness in 1919 it is already full grown—in the wrong direction.

We wish you all a Happy, Prosperous New Year.

The advertisment of the Wm. Hayden Milling Co., in this issue reminds us that food restrictions have been removed and the housewife can return to pre-war methods of cooking and the brain-racking task of figuring how to make substitutes come out evenly with the original is eliminated. While the war food rules caused some annoyance, especially the privation of sugar and flour, the housewife found it an educational process. Many new uses for products of cereals were learned, wasteful methods were abolished to a great extent and economy was practiced more than most of us are aware of.

The lifting of food restrictions does not mean that we can go back to old wasteful ways. Economy must still be practised, even though mother can now use white flour exclusively for the family baking. Hoover tells us that out of 420,000,000 people of Europe only 40,000,000 have food enough without imports and the United States must furnish 20,000,000 tons of food during 1919.

It is still up to the farmer to produce to the utmost, but there is one consolation — the boys are coming home by the thousands, and among them many tillers of the soil. The help question will not be as burdensome as it was last year.

Starting with the New Year many more names have been added to The Herald's mailing list. The home paper has answered as a Christmas gift not only for distant friends and relatives, but plate, he appeared satisfied and dropped complacently back in his seat. Those two pieces disappeared as if by magic.

A Christmas tree, handsomely and heavily adorned, filled one corner of the room and after supper the presents were distributed by Mrs. J. F. Rector. These gifts caused gales of laughter as all were funny—toys, bottles of hair restorer, and the like. Later, the usual games and stunts had to be called off as some had to attend the practice of the ladies band and other a meeting of the church trustees, so after an hour's visiting the party dispursed.

BRITTON

(Editor's note:—Due to holiday rush and abbreviation of the Christmas mail service, the following letter from Britton did not reach us in time for last week's issue. We regret this very much as we wish to keep the news from Britton up to date, but under the conditions the delay could not be avoided.)

MRS. CLARENCE GILSON

Britton Friends Regret the Death of Former Resident.

Friends here were very much grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Clarence Gilson, who passed away Saturday evening, Dec. 21, at her home in Blissfield, death being due to pneumonia following an attack of the "flu."

Mrs. Gilson, formerly Miss Leta Hoagland, grew to womanhood in this place, where she has many relatives and friends. Her mother, Mrs. T. V. Hoagland, moved to Blissfield only a few weeks ago, so as to be near her children. The deceased is survived by her husband and four small children, mother and brother, L. C. Hoagland. The last sad rites were held Tuesday p. m. with burial at Blissfield.

WILFORD BEASLEY

Fine Young Man Victim of Influenza Epidemic.

People of this vicinity experienced another shock Sunday morning when it was announced that Wilford Beasley had passed away the evening previous, death resulting to an attack of pneumonia following the "flu" from which he had been ill but a few days. He was the third son of Wm. Beasley and was only 19 years, 10 months and six days old. He was an exemplary young man, well spoken of and liked by all who knew him, and it seems so sad that a young life like this one must come to a close so suddenly His mother died when he was an infant and he was taken into the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lister, where he was cared for as tenderly as was their own and where he will be sadly missed. He is survived by his father and two brothers, Lenard Beasley of this place, and Leonard Beasley of this place, and grandmother, aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lister and their daughters, Mrs. Chas. Spreeman of Ridgeway and Miss Mabel Lister at home.

The funeral services were held privately Tuesday morning at the home, Rev. Samuel Tamblyn, of the M. P. church of which he was an attendant and member of the Loyal Lifters class, officiating. Burial was in Ridgeway cemetery.

Miss Reta Hindes Passes Away.

Miss Reta Hindes passed away Monday night, Dec. 23, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas Hindes, north of town She was but 20 years old and death came after an illness of several weeks of tuberculosis.

Britton Lady Marries.

A wedding that will interest many here took place last Tuesday p. m. at the M. E. parsonage, in Adrian, when Miss Lydia Price became the bride of David Houseman, Rev. G. W. Olmstead performing the ceremony. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Price of this place, is among our popular young people and a talented musician. How Epidemics Start.

It might seem that epidemics of various diseases were born full-fledged over night. Disease epidemics, however, usually have their source in one or a few isolated cases. Simply because the danger of contagion is not recognized or guarded against, it spreads rapidly.

Many diseases of this character are contracted from germs which enter the nose or mouth. Danger of infection and the further transmitting of the diseases can largely be prevented by the use of an antiseptic gargle or nose spray made by dissolving two tablespoonfuls of 20 Mule Team Powdered Boric in a pine of hot water. An excellent gargle for sore throat, often the first symptom of approaching illness, is made by dissolving one teaspoonful each of salt and Boric in a pine of hot water.

Brunson, Secretary of the Michigan Railroad Commission, do hereby certify that I have compared the annexed copy of order of hearing, in the matter of the application of the Tecumseh Telephone Co. for authority to revise its rental rates for telephone service at Tecumseh, Michigan, with the original order recorded in Journal 2, and that it is a true and correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole of such original.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the Commission, at Lansing, this 24th day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred eighteen.

The family are quarantined.

This is the way of the "flu": Saturday Lloyd Whelan of Tecumseh came down with it. Sunday Mrs. Whelan was taken with the "flu" and there was no one to answer the 'phone but the four year old baby. Monday the baby came down and Mrs. LeClair Whelan went down to care for the family. Thursday, Mrs. Whelan was taken and Mrs. Addie Lewis became their nurse. Friday Channing Beebe was assisting in caring for Lloyd and Sunday he, too, came down with the "flu". At last account they were better. Lloyd sitting up, but Mrs. Lewis was feeling badly. A nurse had been procured.

Gentlemen:—

Acknowledging receipt of your letter of December 13, relative to the allotment of Anthracite coal for the town of Tecumseh:

In response to that part of your letter relative to the percentage of allotment, wish to advise that we decreased the amount as allotted for the current year, largely because of Tecumseh's population. The State Gazetteer shows Tecumseh's population to be 2500 and we allotted to that community 1138 tons which is nearly one-half ton per capita, and as you can see, this is a much larger percentage than was given to other communities in Lenawee county.

For instance, Adrian, with a population of nearly 12,000, received fourteen thousand tons of Anthracite, and this seems sufficient to take care of their requirements.

For instance, Adrian, with a population of nearly 12,000, received fourteen thousand tons of Anthracite, and this seems sufficient to take care of their requirements.

In view of the fact that we have no additional Anthracite coal with which to provide additional tonnage, we would suggest that you buy some coke.

We are prepared to enter your order for immediate shipment and can assure you that this fuel will work most satisfactorily in any type of heating equipment.

Very truly yours,
W. K. Prudden,
Federal Fuel Administrator.

Gentlemen:—

In answer to your letter of December 24, we note that you are giving Tecumseh 1138 tons. If you have the population of the township where we supply coal, you will find that we should have more hard coal.

We think it only fair that Tecumseh and township have enough so that all base burners will be able to have some. Thanking you for an early reply, we remain,

Yours truly,

The complete outfit includes over sea caps and leggings and, best of all, are all paid for by the boys themselves.

George Adamson is at home, having received his discharge from military duties. He has been in the naval branch of the aviation service, going first to Pensacola, then ordered to New York, where he remained in camp until his discharge. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ahrens were pleasantly entertained at six o'clock tea last Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. George Harriott. After the toothsome repast the guests were regaled with selections by the new $285 Edison phonograph, a Christmas gift to Mrs. Harriott by her husband, music by the player piano and some old time tunes on the violin by Mr. Harriott, with the piano accompaniment by his wife.

Miss Esther Pratt entertained a party of young ladies at a slumber (?) party Saturday evening. In the group were the Misses Edna Taylor, Kathryn Reed, Florence and Margaret VanWinkle and Miss Ella McNeil of Ann Arbor. Sunday the girls were guests of Miss Kathryn at dinner.

Miss Bertha Taylor accompanied her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Simmons home from Alburquerque, N. M., last week. She stood the journey well, far better than her friends dreamed possible, and is now about the home at her sister's, able to call up her Tecumseh and Tipton friends.

There has been much criticism expressed the past week because our Tecumseh ladies, always excepting the faithful few, are falling off in their Red Cross work. There are yet 50 sweaters to be made on our quota. Many seem to have forgotten that they promised to knit as soon as they were through with their Christmas work. There is also work at the headquarters, plenty of it. Don't stop! Our boys need the goods.

The young folks of St. Peter's Episcopal Sunday school enjoyed the time of their lives Monday evening at the annual Christmas entertainment at the Parish house. Games were played with a vim, after which refreshments consisting of cocoa, cake and sandwiches were served. Pictures were shown upon the screen by Rev. Widdifield and his stereopticon, presenting "Jack and the Bean Stalk," "Mother Goose," and the like. An interesting feature was the originality of Miss Camilla Hayden in graphically telling the story of "Jack and the Bean Stalk" to the accompaniment of the slides. The young ones doted on the telling of the tale and will never forget it.

We've a choice bunch of hoodlums who need to run real hard against Marshal Mominee's big club. When it reaches the pass that a party of young ladies, or even one, cannot walk along our streets down town in the early evening without insult by this crowd of smart alecks we better increase the police force. Our marshal does well but these boys take their opportunity when he is otherwise busy. Three high school girls were overtaken by this mob Tuesday evening within a block from this office and brutally treated. They rushed into one of the nearby houses and asked protection, which, be assured, they received. A fine reputation this burg will have if these young men are not brought to time.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

Westminster Guild hold Pleasant Function.

Friday evening was the date for the annual Christmas party of the Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church. These events are always jolly affairs and this evening's party was more interesting as the gentlemen were the guests. A splendid picnic dinner was served, the tables being set in the form of a great hollow square. The food, even the coffee pot, was all set on the table and everyone ate their fill. Mr. Rex was noticed rambling around but when a couple of the good sisters, who apparently knew his fondness for pie, heaped two nice fat wedges of the kind mother makes on his plate, he appeared satisfied and dropped complacently back in his seat. These two pieces disappeared as if by magic.

A Christmas tree, handsomely and heavily adorned, filled one corner of the room and after supper the presents were distributed by Mrs. J. F. Rector. These gifts caused gales of laughter as all were funny—toys, bottles of hair restorer, and the like. Later, the usual games and stunts had to be called off as some had to attend the practice of the ladies band and other a meeting of the church trustees, so after an hour's visiting the party dispursed.

Y. M. C. A. WORK AT CAMP CUSTER

REV. W. R. CURTIS AT COMMUNITY SERVICE

Rev. Dr. Fruit, President of West Detroit District, Speaker Next Sunday Evening at Methodist Church.

The attendance at the community service at the Baptist church last Sunday evening was not as large as has been the custom of previous Sundays, undoubtedly due to the holiday season and sickness But the service was interesting nevertheless, and those present enjoyed the talk by Rev. W. R. Curtis and the singing.

Rev. Edward Escolme of the Friends church was in charge of the service Sunday evening. After the singing of three hymns, Rev. C. M. Thompson of the Methodist Episcopal church led in prayer.

Rev. Thompson announced that Rev. Dr. Fruit, president of the West Detroit district, would be speaker for the community service to be held at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday.

Rev. Escolme announced the community service at the Friends church New Year's eve (Tuesday) and invited all to attend.

Rev. W. A. Rex of the Presbyterian church read as the scripture lesson the closing portion of the 25th chapter of St. Matthews.

The offering was taken during the singing of a hymn, when Rev. W. R. Curtis, the speaker of the evening, arose to give his message. Before beginning his address he called attention to the annual meeting of the Baptist church to be held Thursday, Jan. 2, and urged all to be present, as he surmised the board had "something up its sleeve."

"Experiences of Y. M. C. A. Secretary in the war camps," was the subject of the speaker, who stated that he would modify that as he had experience only at one—Camp Custer. The churches, he said, were limited as to young men in the Christian work. In Camp Custer they had the young men. When he asked if any of the congregation had friends at Camp Custer or relatives in the service across he received quite a response in raised hands. Picking up a seven pound shell, he explained its construction and use.

The speaker pointed out the importance of a Christian home and the great value of training boys and girls at home, teaching them to thank God for the many blessings they are enjoying. Many think the boys in khaki are perfect, especially in the larger cities but the soldiers are not perfect. The boys we have been sending across are messengers of peace, as are also the shells, bullets and other war material. We have said to Germany she cannot propagate.

Rev. Curtis then gave a good description of Camp Custer, situated four and one-half miles west of Battle Creek, giving the length of the camp as four miles and describing the groups of barracks, with a cement road through the entire length of the camp.

Soldiers arriving at camp are first sent to the depot brigade where a record is made of what each can do, and from this place men are drawn for every service needed.

Today there are from 30,000 to 35,000 men at Camp Custer, which fact will seem surprising to many since peace has come. Many have come to Camp Custer to be discharged. In the battalion development department all have been discharged as have also those incapable for overseas service. Kept in camp are the infantry, machine gun corps, signal corps and artillery, and these are going through their practices just as if they were going across. The hospital detachment is also kept there; many of the men are there because of their desire to be noncombatants. There are 600 patients in the hospital now, which seems a great many. At one time there were 6,000. It was during the epidemic when 1,200 boys were taken sick in one day that hearts were full.

We cannot say too much for the boys who have given themselves to this war. Their greatest problem is at home. It is not hard for them to go to France and face the cannon, but its hard to leave mothers, said the speaker. He gave an instance when the boys were singing, the song of "Home Sweet Home" was proposed. "Nothing doing here!" exclaimed some twenty of the boys. They had steeled their hearts to leave home and did not want anything to weaken them. Since the signing of the armistice, however, the song is hailed with pleasure. The greatest dissatisfaction expressed now is that they have been denied to go across to finish up the job right.

Rev. Curtis then told of the work of the Y. M. C. A., how good wholesome entertainment was furnished the boys, besides the religious work. Among the soldiers there is no class or race distinction—the boys are Americans. In religion there is no denominational sect, all are working for the great good, and the christian spirit is developing in those boys.

Stories of boys in the hospital accepting Christ were numerous and pathetic. Especially interesting was the story of a bunch of fellows in quarantine, who upon their release all signified their intention of leading a christian life.

The congregation was dismissed with benediction by Rev. Escolme.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

Extracts from Letters from Dr. H. H. Hammel to His Wife

Nice, France, Nov. 26.

Just returned from a 36-hour trip to the Italian border. Visited Menton and Monte Callo on our way. I went with an American captain from Key West, Florida. I "stepped over" into Italy and sent you some cards.

The walks around the beautiful villas are covered with flowers, all kinds, lots of the most beautiful roses I have ever seen—and fragrant, you can smell them for a mile!

The view of the Alps is surely wonderful, and the sea is a beautiful blue, just like the sky. At some points the mountains go straight down to the water, and the foot paths are carved out the rocks. In some places the cliffs are so near perpendicular that the road is tunnelled through the rocks. I saw the villa where Empress Eugenie lived and others where various princes come to spend the winter.

All my life I have read of this country, but it certainly is as the "Prince of Monaco" has been quoted as saying, "A portion of Paradise itself." One thing I have missed and you would expect to see and hear, are birds. I haven't heard a song bird since I've been here.

When the "tram car" was going around the edges of a cliff yesterday, I thought of the trail that we took over Veijo Pass in the Rim Rock.

One of the old French families here has invited some of us Americans for a big Thanksgiving feast, but I expect to be back in Paris on that date.

Rouen, Dec. 3.

I've got a lot to tell and a short time to tell it for I am on the move again. When I got back last night I found movement orders awaiting me. I am to go to a base depot for disposal.

Now about Paris. I arrived there Thanksgiving noon, had dinner at "Maxim's." I saw King George and the Princess parade in Paris. Wonderful! Then Friday I went to a show "Casino de Paris." Then as I was walking down the street Rue de L'Opera who should I meet but Miss W—— and two nurses, the very first of our old bunch I've seen since I struck France.

On Sunday I went with the three of them to Madelaine church. It was a wonderful service. Then went to "Pruniers" for dinner. After we took a walk along the Seine river and up Champ Elysees and across Place de Concorde and then back to the hotel. The new place I go to is Etaples, south of Bologna in the channell. I won't be there but a few days and will find out whether I go home or back to some other section of France.

France, Nov. 21, 1918.

Dear Friend Oley:—

Just received that most welcome letter of yours and in answering I hope this will find you in as good health as yours found me. Continued health is the only thing now necessary to insure our return to the good old Yankee land and those things we left so abruptly last spring. The sad part is that some will not be able to do so, and our sympathy is sure all with their ones at home.

What a fine finish though to the big scrap! And since you wrote your letter, too. Just the actual signing remains, and, we expect, will start a lot of us homeward. Naturally, that is uppermost in the boys' minds now and it will be a joyous trip. Press reports and rumors favor the early return of our outfit, but reports flourish in the army, so we don't figure on anything definitely until it happens.

No doubt it is quiet around the old town, but the mustering out of the boys in the states will sort of put the finishing touches on it.

Say, Oley, we have time now, too much of it, to think of those good times and things we had the privilege of enjoying at home, and it will sure be an appreciative bunch, these boys of the A. E. F., when they return. France, as we see it certainly does not make a hit with a Yankee, although it has been a great experience. Am not making any plans whatever, but waiting to see what the conditions are on my return. I will, however, have considerable traveling around to do at first.

Can't give you any information as to the whereabouts of the Tecumseh boys, except that Fagan is in my company.

We have seen considerable of Eastern France, at least it seems so to us, besides going clear across it and saw many things of interest. The old canal boats drawn by mules on a tow path still flourish here. On one trip I saw an old castle built by Caesar, standing alone on the top of a big hill. We have just stopped at one of those walled cities, much heard of in this war, and the only entrances are over the old draw bridges at the openings.

Must close and hit the hay, for "hay" it is. Remember me to the boys — and girls: also to Mr. and Mrs. Ahrens at the Herald office.

Sincerely yours,
Sgt. Karl A. Braman,
Co. B., 328th M. G. Bn, American E. F., France.

Russel A. Blesing to His Father, John J. Blesing.

My Dear Father:

Will take advantage of the first few minutes of spare time I have had since my arrival here and write you a letter. I have been here about two weeks, but have been so busy in the office, seeing some of the sights and celebrating the downfall of the Huns that I couldn't find time to write to any one.

I am very well pleased with my present home. Who wouldn't be with one of the best barracks in France, even better than we had back in Camp Hancock? Our food is fine, though, of course, we don't have the variety that was obtainable back in the states, and there are lots of interesting things to see in Tours and the surrounding country. Tours has a population of around 100,000 and is situated on the banks of the Loire River and about 125 miles southwest of Paris.

However, what appeals to me most is the fine beds we have (I am great on the sleep-stuff, as you already know), for I had just about given up hopes of seeing another real bed until getting back home, having been sleeping on the ground at Brest and Mehun.

Well, dad, it s all over but the shouting with the Hun and, believe me, there has been a whole lot of shouting going on over here for the past week and a half. You should have seen these French people go on the evening the armistice was signed. I think every person in the city was on the streets. At 6 o'clock it was impossible to get a seat in any cafe and get served. Everyone got "lit up." French girls were every where embracing and kissing the Americans who, of course, didn't object in the least. Gray-haired majors and colonels walked arm in arm down the streets with privates.

Along [illegible] lock of that first evening [illegible] fun began when the boys began to "feel" the sparkling wine they had partaken of and started a hunt for the male civilians who were of military age and still not in the service. Everyone found was thrown into a large fountain. I imagine they were a sore bunch next day and were wishing they had joined the army.

I have visited several places of interest since arriving, but there are lots more. Among the places the easiest to tell you about are the cathedral and the museum. This cathedral was started to be built in the 11th century and was not completed until sometime in the 15th. Really I can't begin to describe all its beauties. Perhaps when I return and show you some pictures you will understand. There are some very pretty pictures in the museum, painted by some of the most famous artists, also some fine statuary.

By the looks of things I may be back home to help you before the end of the coming summer. Sincerely hope so, at least. Hope you and all the folks have entirely escaped the influenza epidemic. Don't believe I told you that I had a touch of it coming over on the boat. I am in the best of health now and expect to continue so.

Guess I forgot in the first part of the letter to tell you what I am doing here. I am at present working in the office of the chief ordnance officer. My particular duties are in the cables section of the requirements division. Three other boys and myself handle and record all cablegrams sent from Washington to these headquarters or are sent from here.

With all my love and wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, I am forever,

Your affectionate son,
Russel A. Blesing.

November 24, 1918.

My Dear Father:

"Dad's Xmas Victory Letter," this is what I am endeavoring to write you. Surely there has never been a Christmas in all the years gone by that can come anywhere near being as joyful as this one will be, not only to a few people or a majority either, but to the whole world, Germany included, for had not they, with a few exceptions, ought to be as joyous as the Allied nations that this world strife is over and their men are coming back to take up the vocations cast aside when the Kaiser decreed that he should be the ruler of the world by force of arms.

Never can there be greater Christmas gifts passed [illegible] the ones this year, the millions of sons returning home to the loved ones left behind, the ones who have given up most of the pleasures that was their's that they might lend their money to Uncle Sam to keep his boys in the running. Perhaps you folks at home don't know it, but every loan has been breathlessly watched by the boys in khaki to see if it were a success, thus showing them that the folks were with them and were not falling down.

How I wish I might be at home with you and the girls and help make this a more joyous holiday. Just came into my mind that I have been in the service for the last three Christmas, first on the Mexican border in 1916, in Columbus Barracks in 1917 and this one over here, quite a distance between the three places.

I must give you as briefly as possible my experiences taken from my diary since the day I first boarded the ship that brought me across.

Oct. 4. Entrained at 1:30 a. m. for Hoboken, N. J., which is to be our port of embarkation. Arrived at Long Island City at 6:30 a. m. and took a ferry boat, landing at Pier No. 2, Hoboken, an hour later. Boarded our ship, the U. S. S. Siboney, at 7:30 a. m. and were assigned to our billets. On account of the efficiency of our company in being the first ones lined up and at the gang-plank, we were sent to the bottom deck, in this case "E" or the fifth one down. This is a new boat only being put into commission last April. We have on board about 3,500 troops and a crew of 600. They are loading an immense amount of supplies today so I guess we sail tomorrow.

Oct. 5. Our boat left the docks at 9 p. m. under her own steam and now we are at the beginning of the trip that will probably prove long and tedious. Passed the Statue of Liberty at 10:15 and the lights were turned out on her just as we went by. We only go as far as the submarine nets tonight.

Oct. 6. Woke up this morning out of sight of land. The sea is very choppy and about two-thirds of the boys are seasick. I was alright until I went out on the extreme forepart of the ship. There the motion of the ship made me as sick as I never was before and never hope to be again. The second time I tried to feed the fishes I found there was nothing left in my stomach that would come up, and you talk about your unpleasant sensations, just imagine trying to do this stunt and every time thinking your whole insides were coming up. We have in our convoy our sister ship, the Anzac, and a French freighter of which I do not know the name. We have with us two U S. destroyers for submarine protection.

Oct. 7. Still seasick. Believe me I never want to cross this water again only to get back to the good old U. S. A. and then, if there were any possible way of walking back I would surely do it in preference to this.

Oct. 8. Still seasick. We have life boat drill twice every day and will have until we land, once in the morning and at dusk, when they say the subs get in most of their work. Every light on the ship is put out with the exception of a few blue lights on the stairs. To go out on deck and light a cigarette is a court martial offense.

Oct. 9. Feel a little better this morning. The sun is shining for the first time. Gee, the water looks blue. Very quiet day.

Oct. 10. The captain sent me to the infirmary this morning and they kept me in the hospital. Guess I have a touch of the influenza. Feel pretty bum.

Oct 11. Feel a little better today and have been out on deck all day. The sea is as calm and smooth as a piece of glass. Just a few swells rolling.

Oct. 12. Temperature is normal this morning and I will probably be discharged from the hospital ths afternoon. Saw a big bunch of porpoises this morning. They sure look funny jumping out of the water, some of them as high as five or six feet in the air. Two more destroyers joined us this morning, making four with us now. Will soon be in the War Zone proper. Was discharged from the ship's hospital this afternoon.

Oct. 13. Life is not so bad aboard ship when one is feeling right.

Oct. 14. Seven more destroyers joined us this a. m., making 11 in all. Guess it would be a pretty hard job for a sub to get anywhere near us now. We arrive at our destination sometime late this evening or in the morning.

Oct. 15. Land Ho. First sight of land about 8 o'clock this morning and it sure looks good to me. The coast is very rugged and presents a very pretty picture. We are going into Brest. First view of Brest and a very beautiful city it looks to be from the boat. There are thirty or forty large boats anchored in the harbor and about a million smaller ones. Among them is the huge ex-German liner Vaterland. Started raining. Unloaded into a lighter for the depth of the harbor does not permit our boat going into a dock at about 4:30 p. m. Arrived at Pontenezan Barracks after hiking five miles in the rain. These barracks were formerly used by Napoleon in training his armies. Pitched our "puptents" and went to bed on the wet ground, a tired and weary bunch, but happy to be again on land.

Oct. 16. Saw my first German prisoners this morning, about a hundred of them, all working on the roads. Changed $173.00 of American money for 917 francs.

Oct. 17. It is still raining, it rains for about fifteen minutes and then lets up for half an hour. It has done this ever since we arrived. We are getting the large conical squad tents today which will make things a little better. We are cautioned to be careful what we say around here especially, for Brest is said to be the center of German spies in this country and that the majority of the information received by them has been traced back to this city. following are some of the prices at the French canteen: Cheese, $1.20 per lb.; smoked ham, $1.20 lb.; bologna, $1.40 lb.: grapes, 40c lb.: shelled nuts, $1.00 lb.: candy, 15c and 20c a bar and bananas 15c each.

Oct. 18. Saw a big dirigible balloon this morning. It sure has some speed. Life is pretty soft for me here for the company clerical duties are very limited. All I do is to make out the morning and sick reports.

Oct. 19. Nothing important today. Guess we move in a few days.

Oct. 20. Hasn't rained for about 36 hours, a record for this part of the country, I think. Had to walk guard for two hours owing to all of the boys either having just returned from the docks or the rest of them down there now.

Oct. 21. Rained all last night and most of the day. They sure are working everyone around here. Where they get the stuff that this is a "rest camp" I can't for the life of me see. What don't work daytimes are on the job at night.

Oct. 22. Entrained and left Brest at 8 a. m. We are traveling in box cars and it sure is a job. These cars are about a third the size of our U. S. ones. Our speed is about 12 miles an hour and the train run to the left. It will take us about three days to get to our destination.

Oct. 23. Enroute. Passed through Tours at 12:30 p. m. This is the only large city that we have ran into. Purchased a bottle of champange from a boy. It wasn't so bad.

Oct. 24. Arrived at Camp U. S. troops, APO 714, Atelier de Mehun sur Yevre, early this morning and went into our quarters which is a part of the huge shops that are either already completed or under construction. We probably won't stay here long. Some will be sent to the front for salvage work. Others will go to Tours and some will remain here. Hope I either go to the front or Tours, the American base.

Oct. 25. Had me working over in the personnel office today, helping to interview the men to see what they are best qualified to do.

Oct. 26. Same thing as yesterday.

Oct. 27. Went to Mehun and visited the castle of King Charles VII of France. It is all in ruins now. It is said that it was here that Jeanne de Arc received her inspiration that she was sent to lead the French armies to victory over the British at Orleans.

Oct. 28 to Oct. 31. Nothing important except that we signed the pay rolls.

Nov. 1. Transferred from 5th Co., Ord. Repair Detachment per SO 227, Par 41, Hos SOS, A. E. F. Left camp and hiked to town

Help The Fuel Administration!

The fuel administration is doing all it can to keep you warm next winter. But it needs your cooperation. If everyone does his share there will be no coal shortage—and there will be no discomfort. To get the most out of all coal used, every house should be properly equipped.

The Director of conservation of the fuel administration says:

"The National Fuel Administration realize that a large amount of coal can be saved by the installation of storm doors and storm windows," and advocates such installation as a patriotic duty.

STORM DOORS and WINDOWS

cut down coal bills from one-third to one-half—a saving that pays for their cost in one or two seasons.

But still more important, they increase the comfort of your house by eliminating cold floor drafts, by making it possible to keep the home warm during the severest weather, and by permitting perfect ventilation.

DO NOT DELAY! Place your order before the rush. Phone 57 and we will call, take measurements and tell you what the cost will be.

We also have a complete line of building material—and if you want to see some nice lump coal just drop down to the yard and look over our stock

Biliousness

WHEN you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. There is nothing better.

Letter From Soldiers

about three miles at 1 p. m. and had to wait until 8:30 before we could entrain. We are bound for Tours to report to the office of the chief ordnance officer for duty.

Nov. 2. Arrived at Tours at 11:30 p. m., it taking us 27 hours actual time on the train to cover a distance of about 65 miles and we were without rations, too. We bought plenty, though.

Nov. 3. Arrived at Beaumont Barracks, which is to be our home for the remainder of our stay, and was assigned to the 1st Company for quarters. I was assigned to the cable section of the Requirements Division for duty.

Nov. 4. Started to work and will probably be here for the remainder of the war.

Believe I have told you everything that has happened since I arrived here in my other letter so I won't take the time and space to repeat it, besides the censor may get tired of reading all of this junk and just throw it into the waste basket. Here's hoping he doesn't. I can tell you better what I have seen when I arrive home.

Again wishing you and all the folks a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year and sending you lots of love, I am

Your affectionate son,
Russel A. Blesing.
Hos S. O. S., A. P. O. 717
Am. Ex. Forces, France.

Bourron, France, Nov. 24, 1918.

My Dear Mother:

Today has been set aside as "Father's Letter Day," to be observed throughout the entire American E. F. by writing a letter to our fathers, so of course I will send more to you. For this they have lifted the censorship so we can tell practically everything that we have been doing and the places we have been, so perhaps can write of more interesting things this time than the past letters have been.

To begin with, we landed at Liverpool, nearly four months ago, traveled by train across England to South Hampton where we stayed at a "rest camp" for a short time. Then one night they packed us onto a boat so crowded there was hardly room to lay down on the floor and by morning we had crossed the English channel and landed at L'Havre, France. We marched about three miles with our heavy packs to another camp.

One night while here the alarm was given about 12:30 a. m. for an air raid. We all scrambled out of our tents and ran for the trenches, but we did not see any of the excitement.

On leaving this camp we traveled by freight train in box cars into Central France.

At about 10:30 of the second night of traveling this way orders suddenly came to leave the train. It was the height of confusino in those dark cars for the men to get their belongings together and in shape to carry, but they finally got their companies formed in order and we marched until 1:00 a. m. and arrived here in Reclose so dead tired that we just dropped down in barns and sheds, anywhere, and slept until the middle of the next forenoon. We rested for three days before taking up regular work again.

We were the first American troops to be billeted in this place, and I have written to you in previous letters of the work we did to put this old village in shape to accommodate 1,000 soldiers, as that is about the number in this unit. It is a complete battalion of four companies.

You can imagine the difficulties of feeding that many men while traveling, but as soon as we got permanently settled here we began to eat better and then started in our real work. At first it was almost entirely digging trenches. We used an area about two miles square and dug front line trenches, supporting trenches and communicating trenches, as this was to be used as an instruction center for the allied officers to learn how the infantry and tanks were used together in making an attack.

As soon as the fields were ready the tanks came on. We worked with all kinds, but mostly the largest type of English tank, and the small speedy French tanks. The English major who was in charge always spoke of a real battle as a "show" and the work we did were "assault problems." In other words, we have been doing sham battles and attacks most of the time since. At first we did lots of rehearsing with only our own officers supervising, but then the real shows began, and from 60 to 100 officers would be out every day to get the demonstration of how to use the tanks in action. We showed to some of the highest officers in the allied armies, but of course mostly the French, English, American and Italian officers.

Our company finally had its special days for this kind of work after we had learned all the "problems" and did not need the rehearsals any more. Some times we worked with other companies of our own battalion and some times with French and Italian troops, as both were billeted here at times. Also the English tank corps was in this village, so we had a veriety of soldiers all the time.

Interspersed with this work were long hikes, close order wheels, bayonet practice and rifle range work and we never got through digging trenches. We could always go out to the field and work in the trenches, making them deeper or fixing the parapets because at the first digging we only made them a couple of feet deep for demonstration and continually worked at them to make them like the real thing.

One of our "problems" captured territory for an advance of about two miles. Can hardly describe it, but a row of tanks start out from the cover of the woods first, followed by the infantry men spread all across the front with never more than one squad of eight men together and thus they advance in small groups. When the machine guns opened fire the infantry flop down on the ground and the tank advances and cleans out the machine gun nest. When one company has taken its objective another line of tanks and infantry come up from the rear, passes where the first ones are entrenched and take up the attack from there. We have had all the training and experience of actual warfare except the bullets as our machine guns attack us with "blanks."

As a battalion we have reason to be proud of our work though, as we won the recognition of the highest commanders.

We were directly under the command of Gen. Foch. On November 4th Gen. Pershing wrote him requesting the release of this battalion from this instruction center to be moved to the front as our training would be particularly valuable in the tank fighting at this time. Gen. Foch granted this request and we received orders to move at an hour's notice on Nov. 11th the same morning the armistice was signed, so we only missed the real thing by hours and although suppose we should consider ourselves very fortunate yet after all this preparation we would have liked one chance at least to see what we could do with real "Boche" in front of us.

About the only difference we find now that the war is over is 45 minutes more sleep every morning and we are rapidly filling in the trenches that we had previously dug.

Our main topic of conversation used to be how soon we would be transferred to the front lines, but now all interests are centered on how quick they will send us back home. Our hopes are that we will be among the fortunate ones to are sent back early although there is a possibility of our being sent into the occupied territory and then it would be a long time before we get back across.

I have a copy of the orders from Gen. Foch and Gen. Pershing concerning this Battalion as our officers obtained permission to post this on our bulletins so we could get it for a souvenir.

About three miles from here at Bourron, the station we arrived at is a big repair camp for the tanks that are sent back from the front with shell holes in them and damaged in every conceivable manner. There are thousands of "disabled" tanks there at times.

A few weeks ago a couple of hundred German prisoners were sent to Bourron. I have been there to see them two different times. They are as anxious to get back to their homes as we are.

Glenn and I are still together and in the best of health. There has been no Spanish "flu" in our camp, another thing for which we [illegible] very thankful, I [illegible] considering the reports we get from other places.

Hoping to be with you again in the very near future, I am as ever

Your loving son,
Percy.

Camp D'Auvours, LeMans, France
Dec. 1, 1918

Dear Aunt Fannie and All:—

I must tell you I am out of the hospital. I left the hospital, which was located at Tours, by rail November 22 and arrived at a evacuating camp at LeMans on that evening. A beautiful city it was, and left there by foot on the 27th for this camp, a distance of about ten kilometers from LeMans. I don't know where I'll go from here or when I'll go or a thing about it—will just have to await results. But there is one thing sure and that is I'll soon be on my way to good old U. S. A. This is an old French and Belgium camp —a large one and up to date in every respect.

As we can write a little more now than in the past I will tell you upon what fronts the old 32nd division did their great work. We landed on this side of the pond in February and pulled onto the Alsace front in May. It was our Michigan and Wisconsin division that first planted "Old Glory" on German soil in Alsace. From Alsace we swung over the Chateau Thierry front and from there to Soissons and [illegible] Verdun. Were in the Versle and Muese. It was on Verdun that we smashed through the old Hindenburg line, something the French tried to do for about three years. They told us we couldn't turn the trick, but the khaki clad boys walked right in, broke it and were on their way to Germany within three hours. Don't you think Uncle Sammy has some fighters? I guess we simply got old Bill's goat; he couldn't stand the pressure any longer. Now that we have all done our bit we are waiting for the word to go home.

In LeMans, where I was from November 22 to 27, the old Notre Dame cathedral is located—over 1,000 years old. There are several of the most beautiful, quaint old buildings and it certainly is a beautiful city. If I get a pay day before leaving camp I am going to get some post card views of different buildings there and bring them home.

I will tell you a few of the cities and towns I have been through and if you have a map you will enjoy looking them up: Paris twice, Brest, Tangres, Schilandia, Vic Sur Aisne, Joinville, Troyes, Sens, Montargis, Les Aubrais, Tours, LeMans, Chateau Thierry, Mausoveux, Lauw, Guevenheim, Fountain, LaChapple, Belfort, Vesoul, Couloisy, St. Diezer, Soissons, Verdun. These are only a few of the many larger ones. Crossed the Marne, Aisne and Versle rivers.

I haven't received any mail since leaving the company and I hear they destroy all old casual mail and as report says we will not get back to our outfits I will request you, as I have others, not to write to me any more here. As I expect to get home in January or thereabouts you can write to me at my home address in January. Then when I arrive home I'll have a letter or so to read.

Will try and write again before leaving France. Am in hopes of moving coastward soon. Love and best wishes to all. A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

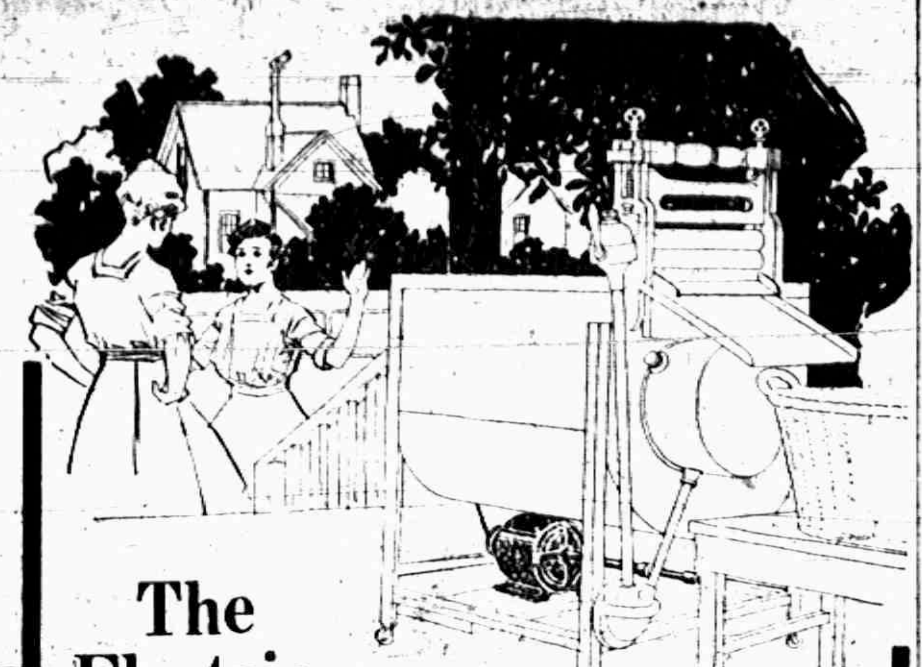
CIRCULARS VS. NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

A 20-inch advertisement in The Herald costs $3.00. Here the cost ends as far as the advertiser is concerned, because The Herald places this announcement before the eyes of at least 5,000 persons within trading distance of Tecumseh. Since taking over the list of the Britton Messenger The Herald enters 1500 homes. A conservative estimate gives four readers to every paper, making 6,000 readers altogether.

Take the $3.00, the cost of a 20-inch advertisement, invest it in circulars and see how many people you can reach. If circulars are mailed you can reach only 300 people instead of the thousands the newspaper reaches. It takes three dollars to reach 300 people by mail. To send the same circular to 1500 homes it would cost $15. This is for postage only. Add the cost of circulars and labor in mailing and see where you are at. The total, if invested in newspaper space would place in 1500 homes a page advertisement.

SEE THE POINT? THE HOME PAPER IS THE CHEAPEST, SAFEST AND BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM.



The Electric Washer

is the greatest labor saver for the housewife ever invented—unless it would be the Electric Iron; the two go together.

It takes away all the drudge—leaves nothing to do but handle the clothes.

I[illegible] the clothes from that [illegible] rubbing on the washboard. It does not tear or wear the most filmy, dainty pieces.

Does the work in a fraction of the time. Takes very little electric current to run it (among the least of all Electrical Appliances).

We can positively show you that the Electric Washer will pay for itself in your home.

It will start to save from the very first day you use it—no matter whether you do your own washing or have it done!

We are willing to submit the actual facts and leave the matter of decision entirely up to you.

For the first time in the history of Michigan residents of our metropolitan cities — Detroit, Grand Rapids and others—were obliged to watch the old year out and the new in without intoxicating liquor in public places. It must have been a strange experience for many Detroiters. Liquor was not entirely eliminated in the celebration, but it had to be used on the quiet. This year will usher in the greatest victory of the temperance cause—a dry nation.

AUCTION!

Farmers contemplating Auction Sales cannot afford to hold same without placing their sale before the readers of The Tecumseh Herald.

The sale must be properly advertised to make it the best success. How extensively such sale should be advertised depends upon the grade of stock to be disposed of. If you have high bred stock—stock that is in universal demand—advertise it big, for $1.00 spent in advertising will earn from $50 to $100. If one dollar spent in advertising will earn you two you would be foolish to pinch that dollar.

If you have nothing to offer that will draw persons from other counties and states, you would be foolish to pay an exhorbitant price for a circulation that did not benefit the sale.

Advertising rates in The Herald are not high and a good sized space is bound to bring results, because The Herald circulates over a territory immediately adjoining Tecumseh and covers that field better than any other one newspaper.

YOU CAN ADVERTISE YOUR AUCTION SALE WELL AND CHEAPLY BY USING THE COLUMNS OF THE TECUMSEH HERALD. TRY IT.

PRESIDENT FISHER ASKS OBSERVANCE OF LAW

Fire Truck Receives Investigating Discussion at Council Meeting Monday Night.

The six village trustees—Pulver, Rogers, Kemp, McIntyre, McCoy and Barrett—were all present at the monthly meeting of the Council Monday evening. President Fisher presided and Trustee Rogers acted as clerk until the arrival of Clerk Service.

The usual routine of business was disposed of when several matters came up for discussion in an informal manner. The fire truck—is it new or rebuilt? This is a question that the city dads are not entirely satisfied upon. Several of the trustees think that the truck is an old one dolled up to pass on to Tecumseh, a proceeding they are not willing to countenance. Some think the machine distinctly bears the ear marks of a second hand truck, while others are of the opinion that the machine is a new one, but all feel that they don't want to have sellers put one over on them. Birmingham has a similar machine and the clerk was instructed to get into communication with the fire chief of that village and learn what he can of the machine. No steps were taken toward accepting the fire truck, and none will be taken until the councilmen are convinced that everything is according to specifications.

President Fisher informed the council that he had taken it upon himself to warn owners of pool rooms against allowing school boys and boys under age who do not attend school frequent their places of business. He found proprietors of the pool rooms willing to observe the law, one of them asking Supt. Reed to assemble the school boys and inform them that they are not wanted in his pool room. The opinion was expressed that it was in or about these places that the boys meet to concoct their plans of mischief. It was mentioned that several citizens had lost barrels of cider in process of transformation and the theft is traceable to boys without occupations.

One trustee remarked that Tecumseh had no place for boys to go evenings with the stores closed and picture show open only on Saturday evening. Another said boys of 18 or under should be at home and that no club or pool room is necessary for them.

President Fisher also stated that he had instructed village officers to arrest boys using profane or indecent language, especially when such is used in the presence of ladies.

Additional voting booths for women voters were also discussed and it was thought the engine room could be prepared for such purpose.

On motion council adjourned.

Annual Meeting St. Peter's Parish

VESTRY ELECTED. REPORTS READ AND ADOPTED

Good Attendance at Annual Business Meeting of the Parish Tuesday Evening.

The annual parish meeting of St. Peter's Episcopal church, held at the parish house, Tuesday evening, was well attended.

Rev. J. G. Widdifield, rector of the parish presided, Wm. E. Bly occupying the secretary's chair. The meeting opened with prayer, followed by the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting by the secretary.

Rev. Widdifield read an interesting report, which contained the number of families and individuals affiliated with the church and also the number of losses by removal and deaths. He commended the good work in the church school and thanked those who worked so faithfully during his absence overseas.

Rev. Widdifield recommended the reduction of the vestry from twelve to six members, and also recommended the procuring of a suitable memorial tablet or roll of honor for a permanent place in the church in honor of those members who entered the service of their country. The names of those who entered the service were given as follows: Col. A. S. Cummings, Lieut. R. K. Anderson, Lieut. Perry C. Satterthwaite, Nurse Anna Ferguson, Sergt. Louis Schneider, Private Karl Schneider, Private Howard J. Hand, Private Herman Seitz, Private John L. McCaughen and Seaman Richard Winton St. John.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were next read and on motion accepted.

Mrs. Mary Ives submitted the report of the Ladies' Guild, which showed much good work accomplished by that society. A motion to accept the report and thank the ladies for their good work was carried.

W. E. Bly reported for the church school, showing a good average attendance and the treasury with a balance after all obligations had been met.

On motion the rector's recommendation that the vestry be reduced to six members was adopted.

The procuring of a permanent honor roll for those in service was left to the vestry.

The election of the vestry resulted in the selection of Lester Rogers, Wm. E. Bly, C. F. Patterson, Tom. W. Mingay, Geo. Hines and E. H. Ahrens.

After adjournment of the parish meeting the vestry organized as follows:

Senior Warden—Lester Rogers.
Junior Warden—Tom W. Mingay.
Secretary—Wm. E. Bly.
Treasurer—Lester Rogers.

Messrs. Mingay and Bly were chosen as delegates to the diocesan convention to be held at Flint in May.

Vestry meetings will be held the first Tuesday evening of each month at 7:30 o'clock.

America's Foremost Citizen Called to the Great Beyond

© BY UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD N.Y.
THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Oyster Bay, N. Y.—Monday morning, at 5:14, marked the passing of America's great citizen, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, the twenty-sixth president of the United States. Death was painless and was due directly to a blood clot in one lung, the result of inflammatory rheumatism.

"Put out the light, please," were the former president's last words. They were addressed to his personal attendant, James Amos, a young Negro, who had been in his service since he left the White House and who was sitting at the foot of his bed.

Some time later Amos noticed that the patient was breathing heavily and became alarmed. He left the room to call the nurse who had been summoned from Oyster Bay. When they returned Col. Roosevelt had breathed his last.

They called Mrs. Roosevelt, the only member of the family who was at home. There had been a family gathering Christmas day, but as no alarm was felt over the colonel's condition, the children who were able to spend the holiday with their parents had gone to different parts of the country.

Cable messages were sent to Major Theodore Roosevelt, jr., and Captain Kermit Roosevelt, who are in the service in France, and telegrams to Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, to Captain Archie Roosevelt, who left with his wife for Boston, where his father-in-law died Saturday, and to Mrs. Ethel Derby, who is in Aiken, S. C., with her two children.

Mrs. Roosevelt telephoned to her husband's cousin, Colonel Elmer Roosevelt, New York, who started immediately for Oyster Bay, and to the colonel's secretary, Miss Josephine Stricker, who also was in New York.

Colonel Roosevelt was visited twice Sunday evening by Dr. J. A. Faller of this village. At 10:30 o'clock, when the second visit was made, the patient explained to the physician: "I felt as though my heart was going to stop beating."

Dr. Faller had no reason to believe, however, that Mr. Roosevelt was in any immediate danger. So certain was he that this was true that Mrs. Roosevelt and the nurse retired.

Cable messages and telegrams of condolence, not only from fellow countrymen of high and low degree, but from distinguished citizens of many nations poured into Oyster Bay by the hundreds. All expressed heartfelt grief at the passing of a great man and deepest sympathy for Mrs. Roosevelt, always devoted to her distinguished husband, and one of his most trusted advisers.

The widow is bearing up bravely under the shock of his sudden death, coming so soon after that of their youngest son, Lieutenant Quentin Roosevelt, who lost his life in a battle with a German airman last July.

The death of Colonel Roosevelt is believed by the physician who attended him to have been hastened by grief over Quentin's death, coupled with anxiety over the serious wounds suffered by Captain Archie Roosevelt, while fighting in France.

He was proud of his soldier sons and their heroism, but he was a devoted father and he grieved for the one who gave his life for his country as well as for the other who was wounded. He hid his suffering from the world, however, in the hope that he might set an example for other fathers and mothers who had given their sons to the nation.

To the last Colonel Roosevelt had been preaching "Americanism" and few realized that his health had been shattered. It was believed that the rugged constitution which had stood him in such good stead through so many years of "strenuous" life would not fail him and that he would regain his usual health. His messages of late, however, had been delivered through the medium of editorials or public statements instead of addresses.

Even to his neighbors in Oyster Bay it seemed impossible that life had ended so suddenly for the Rough Rider hero of Spanish American war days; the statesman who was governor of New York and president, had wielded the "big stick" so fearlessly; the big game hunter of tropical jungles; the citizen who preached preparedness long before his country entered the world conflict.

In the words of his clergyman, "America's most typical American," known in every corner of the earth, goes to his grave as a "quiet, democratic, Christian country gentleman, beloved by his neighbors."

By request of Mrs. Roosevelt the funeral held yesterday was the simple Episcopal service, with no pomp, eulogy or music.

"LORD TEACH US HOW TO PRAY"

SERMON SUBJECT BY DR. WALTER R. FRUIT

Rebuild the World on the Foundation of God—Next Community Service at Presbyterian Church.

"Lord teach us how to pray," was the subject for an excellent sermon preached by Dr. Walter R. Fruit, president of the West Detroit district of the Methodist Episcopal church, at the Community service held at the Tecumseh Methodist church Sunday evening.

Dr. Fruit, in his introductory remarks, said he believed, with a Detroit newspaper man, that the people like to have a little religion in a sermon. This newspaper man had been a periodical drinking man, who since his acceptance of Christ has done some preaching. The responsibility for his text he laid to a statement in a recent editorial in one of the city dailies.

During the great war people looked to congress, to science and to education to save the world, but idol after idol has fallen. Science has only added to the bloodiness of the war and the others also failed in saving the world.

Now that we have come to the reconstruction period we must rebuild on the foundation of God. We must know the plans of God, and how are we to know His plans unless we ask Him. We must have the building material to work out His plans.

The speaker referred to President Wilson, to whom he was absolutely loyal, stating that he would go down in hstory as the greatest statesman of the world. He liked the Welchman, Lloyd George, and Gen. Foch, the grey man of [illegible], but these would all go, while Christ came out of the war the real, practical man. Caesar and Napoleon sought to conquer the world but they fell down and their influence is gone; Jesus Christ, the ideal, real, practical man, died two thousand years ago winning the world.

The miracles performed by Jesus during his ministry were great and wonderful, but His disciples did not ask Him to teach them how to perform miracles. They were ambitious men and recognized Jesus Christ as the greatest preacher, the master of them all, yet they did not ask Him to teach them how to preach. One thing only they asked Him—to teach them how to pray. They knew that if they ever wished to perform miracles like Jesus they must learn to pray like Jesus.

Dr. Fruit gave many practical illustrations showing the value of preparation before attempting to perform a given task and closed his talk with a leaf out of his own life telling how he was drawn from a gang of boys on the way down and rescued through the combined prayers of mother, sisters and the group of people in the home church.

The service opened with the customary singing followed with prayer by Rev. W. A. Rex. Rev. Edward Escolme read for the scripture lesson the first fourteen verses of the 18th schapter of St. Luke.

Features of the service were a splendid vocal solo by Mrs. Geo. Witherall and a pleasing selection by the popular Temple quartet.

The next community service will be held in the Presbyterian church, the subject to be "When the boys come home." Rev. Rex, who made the announcement, said he expected some of the boys there to tell how glad they were to come home.

MERGING OF ORGANIZATIONS

WOMAN'S HOME RELIEF WITH RED CROSS.

Expected to Assure Systematic and Organized Relief and Community Welfare Work.

The Woman's Home Relief organization, recently established by the ladies of Tecumseh, has merged itself with the local branch of the Red Cross and hereafter will take care of, not only the local relief work which it originally intended to, but also the home service and civilian relief work of the Red Cross. This creates a most desirable situation and assures Tecumseh of a condition wherein all kinds of necessary relief work and community welfare work may have systematic and organized attention.

As a department of the Red Cross this organization will have the financial support of the local branch and the county chapter, also the benefit of assistance to be given by the county chairman of home service work who will instruct the ladies as to details of their activities and advise them of the different directions in which they may operate.

According to Red Cross regulations, Red Cross funds may be used for the relief of local disasters or emergencies and the dividing line between these conditions and others requiring relief will be drawn by the executive committee of the local branch. Meanwhile, funds have already been donated for carrying on other relief work and additional contributions for this purpose are invited. Cash donations of this character may be handed to G. E. Nemire at the Tecumseh State Savings bank.

The executive committee of the organization consists of Mrs. Paul Bown, chairman; Mrs. Jos. H. Smith and Mrs. G. A. Rathbun. The food supply committee is in charge of Mrs. W. A. Rex and the nurse committee is under the direction of Mrs. R. N. Lowe.

Cases in need of relief should be reported to Mrs. Bowen.

Another of those good cafeteria suppers at the Methodist church Thursday, January 16, 5:30 until all are served. Roast beef, roast pork, chicken pie, mashed potatoes, baked beans, macaroni, salad, squash, turnips, hot rolls, [illegible] pie, coffee, cake and doughnuts. [illegible] welcome.—Adv.

Editorial Comment

In the death of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt the nation mourns the passing of one of America's greatest citizens—a typical representative American, a thorough patriotic citizen, a statesman of unusual ability, a persistent and aggressive fighter and a man forceful with pen and speech. Colonel Roosevelt not only had a large following admirers, but even his political enemies had a wholesome respect for his characteristic, forceful nature. His last message to the American people, read Sunday night at an all American concert benefit in the Hippodrome, New York, was characteristic of this great man's aggressiveness in the American cause he has so widely espoused since the beginning of the world war. His message follows:

"I cannot be with you and so all I can do is wish you God speed. There must be no sagging back in the fight for Americanism just because the war is over.

"There can be no divided allegiance here. Any man who says he is an American but something else also, isn't an American at all. We have room for but one flag, the American flag, and this excludes the red flag which symbolizes all wars against liberty and civilization, just as much as it excludes any foreign flag of a nation to which we are hostile.

"We have room for but one language here and that is the English language, for we intend to see that the cruicible turns out people as Americans, of American nationality and not as dwellers in polyglot boarding house; and we have room for but one soul loyalty, and that is loyalty to the American people."

Beginning with the new year Henry Ford ceased to be president of the Ford Motor Co., resigning the office to enable him to devote his time to his newly acquired newspaper, the Dearborn Independent, and to his tractor plant in Dearborn. Coincident with the resignation of Mr. Ford, the board of directors of the company have increased the wages of 28,000 employees from $5.00 to $6.00 per day—a handsome New Years gift to the wage earners.

Evidently the Ford factories were not as seriously affected by the sudden change from war to peace work. Many of the plants that have been working day and night on war work were obliged to stop business suddenly and readjust their plants on the peace work basis. This let loose thousands of working men and women proving a serious hardship on many for a time. But American business is bound to boom, the confusion will subside and things generally will be righted.

The thousands daily of returning soldiers also adds to the confusion of the return to peace time work. City factories are giving back jobs to the boys who left for the front and plans are being arranged to take care of all. In Michigan Gov. Sleeper has instructed war boards to look after the jobs of returning soldiers in their home towns.

It is the intention of the war preparedness board to supplement work now being done in New York with letters to war boards in each county and possibly in each township informing them that the soldier is on his way back, what condition he is in, and that he wants work immediately. In that way the governor and the members of the board figure that the soldiers can get to work as soon as they want to.

An appeal to women throughout the country who hold positions formerly filled by men, to give them up to returning soldiers has been issued by Mrs. Ella A. Boole, recently commissioned by the Women's Christian Temperance union to represent it at the peace conference. She declared it was "the patriotic duty of every woman" to do this unless her position was essential to earning her own living. Mrs. Boole's suggestion was made in a speech at a Brooklyn meeting of the W. C. T. U., of which she is the New York state president.

In regard to President Wilson's visit in Europe, the General Welfare Bulletin of December 28, a publication for editors, contained the following: "While Americans pride themselves on being the freest people on earth, there is one bond — that of precedent — which holds them so securely as to constitute, at times, a very serious interference with the exercise of rights and the performance of duties necessary for the public welfare.

"It was this, and this alone, which caused such widespread delirium throughout the country a few weeks ago when President Wilson announced his purpose of going to Europe. Everyone admitted the fact that he had a perfect right to go, but thousands of our leading citizens protested vigorously against such course largely because the thing had never been done by any other occupant of the White House.

"The President is now in Europe and has been there for over two weeks; moreover he has been absent from the United States for nearly a month, and still none of the dire calamities predicted by those who opposed his trip have come to pass; while, on the other hand, it is becoming more and more apparent to every one who keeps in touch with the march of events that it is very fortunate that we have in Woodrow Wilson, at least one citizen who declines to let the silly American superstition that a thing not yet done should never be done, interfere with the full exercise of the right and duty to follow the dictates of one's conscience and best judgment rather than senseless rules of precedent.

"Long before the war closed, it was apparent that, when the end came, the terms of the armistice would be based largely, if not entirely, upon the ideas of justice outlined by our President in his messages to Congress and his notes to the Central powers; and ever since the signing of the armistice it has been equally clear that the final peace terms will be molded very closely along the lines which President Wilson considers best for the world's welfare. This is true both because he represents the greatest of all nations and one which, although it has been the deciding factor in the war, has no selfish interests to promote at the peace table, and also because he has become through his public utterances and official acts the recognized and universally trusted premier of the world. And, if the proposed league of nations were now in existence, and the proposition of electing a president of that league were pending before the nations of the world, Woodrow Wilson would undoubtedly be chosen for that exalted office without opposition.

"Our President, then, is in a position which makes it incumbent upon him to become, with the least possible delay, thoroughly familiar with the many delicate and complicated international problems which must be dealt with in the framing of the final peace terms. This information he is getting at first hand by his close contact with the people whom he meets and the conditions which he views, not only in Paris and London, but throughout the devastated regions of France and Belgium. It may be easy enough here in peaceful and prosperous America—no matter how much one may desire to be just—to say that the war should end without indemnities and without the infliction of punishment upon those responsible for it, but to be really just in the matter to all concerned one should see with his own eyes (at least so far as that course is now possible) just what the Germans and their allies have really done. And, in order to be in a position to determine what is necessary to prevent a repetition of this great crime, it is important to see and to understand just how near Germany came to the accomplishment of her purpose to conquer and enslave the world.

"These facts were undoubtedly realized by President Wilson before he announced his intention to visit Europe, and they are not only sufficient to justify his course but, if he had failed to see and perform his duty in the matter, they would have constituted, in the minds of future generations, a serious indictment against him."

TRAVEL NIGHT

Wit and Wisdom club Entertained at Presbyterian Manse.

The Wit and Wisdom club were delightfully entertained Monday evening at the Presbyterian manse, by Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Rex, at their "Travel Night." The first feature on the program which, be assured, was not forgotten, was a bountiful pot luck supper. That over, a short business session was held and Rev. Rex took charge as leader of the program and he gave a fine travelogue, with Syria and Palestine his subjects. This he illustrated with the stereopticon. He also exhibited a number of puzzle slides which the audience enjoyed hugely. At roll call the topic, "Hobbies, my own and others," caused much amusement.

The next meeting will be held January 20, with Supt. W. L. Reed, when the topic will be "The Czecho-Slovaks," with the roll call humorous war stories.

PACKED HOUSES AT RUSSELL THEATRE

"Honeymoon Limited" Makes Great Hit in Ottawa.

Tecumseh will not have many "regular road attractions" this year owing to many actors being drafted into either the army or the navy, poor railroad facilities and other reasons, so when a real attraction is booked into Tecumseh this season patrons of the Bradley should take advantage of the opportunity. The following item was clipped from the Ottawa, Ont., Herald where the "Honeymoon Limited" was playing a matinee and night performance on Christmas day. "The Honeymoon Limited" we understand will undoubtedly be presented at the Bradley on Thursday January 16th.

"Record audience packed the Russell Theatre Christmas afternoon and night to witness "The Honeymoon Limited" the new musical comedy produced by Charles F. Yale. The play filled every expectation and there was not a dull moment in the two acts. The music was of high degree and the dancing excellent.

"During the first act a number of the specialties were introduced and these formed a play in themselves. Bennie Norris, a black faced comedian, was a big laugh. His partner, Oce Hamilton, was an all round entertainer full of wit. Hamilton is an unusually good pianist and his comedy creation, "The Piano Salesman," was the cause of many hearty laughs. Miss Patsy Conroy, in the role of a gypsy violinist, showed careful musical training. Two society entertainers, Fred and Alleen Vance with George Hunter completed the bill of specialties.

"The story of the play is much like all musical comedies. A girl inherits $2,000,000 and according to the will of the deceased relative, is given six months in which to marry a Spanish nobleman.

"Oce Hamilton as Duke Smixture made a very presentable pseudo nobleman. The three premier roles taken by Misses Vance, Hays and Conroy were well acted. The chorus composed of twenty pretty girls was good, while the dancing and costumes left nothing to be desired."

Keep Baby Comfortable.

There is an old grandmother's saying that "A well baby never cries."

This cannot be accepted literally, of course. Most of the crying of babies can be attributed, however, to discomfort of some sort.

A baby's skin is extremely tender. It is quickly irritated by conditions which would have no effect upon the tougher skin of an adult.

Next time baby cries or frets, examine it carefully for redness and chafing, and wherever they are found sprinkle gently with 20 Mule Team Powdered Boric. The irritation will subside very quickly and baby will be comfortable again.

20 Mule Team Boric is better for such purposes than the many talcum or baby powders, and less expensive.

THE RED CROSS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Postponed Campaign Takes Place Week of January 13-20.

The campaign for Red Cross membership, which has been going on throughout the U. S. recently, was postponed in Lenawee county on account of the prevailing epidemic, but, conditions having now become more favorable the drive will be made during the week of January 13th to 20th.

The prevailing idea that the war is over and Red Cross effort is no longer required is far from correct for there still remains much important work to be done, both at home and over seas. Every loyal citizen should come forward with his support and take out a renewal membership and there should be many willing to assist in making the house to house canvass, which will be required to properly complete the drive within the time specified.

Volunteers who are willing to assist in this work will please call telephone No. 77 and leave their names, and they will be notified as to where to receive their instructions.

Tecumseh has always done her full share of Red Cross work. Let us not fail to continue.

SCHOOL NEWS

Several of the first grade children, who have been absent on account of influenza, have returned to school since the holidays.

The ninth grade citizenship class have been struggling with the intricate method of electing the President and vice president as named in the constitution.

Miss Marjorie Taylor of Sault Ste. Marie has taken up the commercial course.

The commercial classes have been having tests, so that Miss Cooley could find out how much they did not know.

Miss Cooley: "Mr. Meads, what is a Knight Templar?" Mr. Meads: "He is a guy that takes care of the temple at night."

There was certainly a bunch of stiff fingers in type class after Christmas vacation. But, who cares after a week of solid pleasure!

Mrs. Rathbun, (assistant teacher) "Who can give me a noun that forms its plural irregular?" Mr. Meads, after a few moments of deep thought said: "The plural of cat is kittens."

Mrs. Rathbun: "Mr. Murphy will you please give me a sentence using the word eaves?" After a moments pause Mr. Murphy replied: "Heaves is a very bad disease."

Lillian Shepherd of Toledo has entered the fourth grade.

Little Wilma Pyle, who has been very ill with influenza, resumed her studies at school this week.

Second grade teacher asked: "What does an Indian mother call her baby?" "I know." said a bright little boy. "a caboose."

If you see an eighth grader intently observing you, do not be alarmed. He is merely gathering material for his description in English class of some well known person. Neither should you condemn him if he gazes into his mirror, for he is just learning to know himself.

The seventh grade physiology class is studying the respiratory system. They had been told several times to observe voices.

In class one girl remarked, to the teacher. "I think you have a good voice." Immediately. one of the boys raised his hand, "I've always heard, that after a person reaches twenty-five their voice is good."

The seventh grade girls were delighted when they found out that they were going to make their bungalow aprons on the sewing machines.

The Senior class in sewing have begun their dresses. This will be the last garment that they will make, because they take up the science of cooking at the beginning of the next semester.

The English classes are studying the following:—English I, Ivanhoe; English II, Silas Marner: American Literature, House of Seven Gables; English Literature, Macbeth.

Heard in the Junior class, "A centipede is a four-legged quadrupede."

The high school basket and base ball teams were defeated by the town teams.

A number of young people met at the home of Thomas Hanley Wednesday evening in honor of his 79th birthday. The evening was spent in games and music, followed by a supper. The company left at a late hour all having had one "grand old time."

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Allison, Mrs. J. W. Wilson and Milo Sells were in Dundee Sunday attending the funeral of Arthur Derby, a brother of Mrs. Allison and Mrs. Wilson. Mr. Derby had lived in this vicinity the larger part of his life, leaving here about 15 years ago. He died Thursday at the home of his son, Earl, in Monroe.

"Sold any of your furniture yet? shouted Wade Jones as he passed The Herald office last Friday. "My dining room table is gone," he contnued. Mr. Jones placed an adlet in the want column and the object was accomplished in less than 24 hours. Mrs. Ahrens advertised some goods and made a sale within six hours after The Herald was printed. That's the way the want column in The Herald works for those who use it. Many more quick results could be related.

We were most pleasantly surprised last Thursday by a visit from Preston Grandon, who is associated with his father, D. W. Grandon, and brother, George Grandon, in giving Sterling, Ill., a first class daily newspaper. The Grandons are well konwn in Lenawee county, as Mr. Grandon is in a large measure responsible for the present success of the Adrian Daily Telegram, which he nursed from infancy and built it into a handsome property. From Adrian the family went to Ann Arbor, where Mr. Grandon was associated with the Ann Arbor Times-News Going from the university city father and sons established the Hillsdale Standard Herald, giving that county its first daily newspaper. This venture proved successful, but an opportunity came to dispose of the business, and the family finally landed in Sterling, Ill., where, after an up-hill fight, a successful business was built up. The Grandons, however, still have their old love for Lenawee county and think there is no better place to live. We enjoyed a very interesting and profitable visit with Preston and hope to see him again before his return home. Mr. and Mrs. Grandon are visiting relatives in Blissfield.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brazee are having a most delightful winter with their children in the west. They have visited their son, Alvin, and family in their prairie home in Montana and find such a change in scenery at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Ralph Pieper, at Orifino, Iraho, where there is heavy timber and it is mountainous.

A group of ladies gathered at the Red Cross rooms yesterday and made masks for the use of the home service committee. Mrs. R. N. Lowe has been appointed chairman of the emergency nurse committee. LAWRENCE OSBORN

Young Man of 28 Years Victim of Influenza.

Lawrence Osborn, aged 28 yrs., passed away at his home just east of Adrian Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, after but a week's illness with influenza, followed by pneumonia. He was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Osborn and lived at the family home, some four miles southwest of Tecumseh until his marriage in March, 1914, to Miss Florence Keyser, also of this village.

They purchased a store at Palmyra and remained there until a couple of years ago when they sold the business to John Nemire and bought his property near Adrian.

The wife and two small children, Harold and Gervais, the latter but 11 months old, are left to mourn; also the parents, a sister, Mrs. Maud Taylor of Adrian, and four brothers, Raymond of Ridgeway, Garland of Tecumseh and Vearl and Milford of North Adrian.

The funeral services were held Wednesday morning at the home, with burial at Brookside cemetery, Tecumseh.

The death is the second in the immediate family of Mr. and Mrs. Milburn Keyser since the epidemic began, the second daughter, Mrs. Blanche Wheadon, having been taken in November.

Mr. Osborn was very well known among the young people of this vicinity, both he and Mrs. Osborn having hosts of friends, and to her and the stricken parents goes the sympathy of the community.

WELCOME RECEPTION

Mrs. C. A. Wright Entertains, Honoring Mrs. D. F. Wright.

To meet Mrs. D. F. Wright, some 85 ladies were delightfully received by Mrs. C. A. Wright Thursday afternoon at her home on East Pottawatamie street. In the receiving line with the hostess and guest of honor was Mrs. Wright's sister, Mrs. Allan Bell. As the guests arrived they were met at the door by Miss Eleanor Caldwell, gowned in pink silk, who was assisted by Master William Wright. The guests were ushered to the dining room by Mrs. R. N. Lowe and Mrs. Chas. Burridge. There Mrs. Harry Temple of Britton and Mrs. H. S. Temple poured tea and the guests were waited upon by Mrs. R. T. Mead, Mrs. R. K. Anderson and Mrs. D. J. Hodges.

The dining room was beautified by potted cyclomen and flowers, with an unusual center piece on the table of a Japanese bowl holding marsh plants and tiny water fowl. The effect was beautiful.

The guests enjoyed the event greatly and welcome Mrs. D. F. Wright into the town most heartily.

HOWE'S TRAVEL FESTIVAL

Beautiful, Instructive and Amusing Pictures Combined in Program.

A good sized audience was present at the Bradley opera house Friday evening to enjoy the semi-annual visit of Lyman H. Howe's famous travel festival.

Some of the prettiest scenery shown on the screen here was that of the Kaieteur falls in British Guiana, and among the thrillers were the maneuvers of the aeroplanes, the perilous canoe ride through rapids and torrents and the capturing alive of wild animals in the Rockies.

Patriotic pictures and the famous Howe comic animated cartoons combined to make altogether a very interesting entertainment.

HOW I TACKLED MY THREE BIGGEST PROBLEMS

By John North Willys, President The Willys-Overland Company.

(Reprinted from "System," the Magazine of Business.

Did you ever succeed in getting together a fine bunch of orders? And then find that the corporation for whom you were selling was about to go to the wall—leaving you, your orders, and your commissions adrift on the commercial sea?

Such was the exact situation which I faced in the panic year of 1907. I had gathered a splendid lot of orders for automobiles, but the factory which had undertaken to make the automobiles had hoisted the white flag and was about to center its activities in the bankruptcy court. I saw the profits which I had expected—which I had almost reinvested—fading into thin air. But I was never good at fading; I made the instant decision that if the owners of the factory could not pull it out of the mire, I would. That factory was going to fill my orders before it died.

Within the course of a few weeks I found myself a manufacturer; I shall some day tell the whole story of the financing of those few weeks—of the money borrowed and how it was borrowed to hold off creditors, of the shifts and schemes that I had to plan and execute here, there, and everywhere. Most days it was a toss of a penny whether we would go on or quit. But we went on.

Red Figures and Black on the First Balance Sheet.

I was a manufacturer; I was president, treasurer, general manager—everything from the Lord High Executioner down. As assests I had a sheaf of orders, health, energy, enthusiasm, and a factory which was notable chiefly for the things that it lacked. On the other side of the sheet I had an uncommonly large list of firm creditors and the stigma of near failure. I had no personal debts and I did have considerable personal credit. Neither the new firm nor myself had much of any cash.

Can you imagine a finer setting in which to stage experience? The setting was almost too perfect.

The only way that we could do business was to make the interval between the receipts of the raw material or parts and the outgoing of the finished product as short as possible. Our working capital was in the motor cars in process.

"Working capital" is rather a dignified term for our [illegible] dollars, but, whatever it was, it was certainly working. When a finished machine left the factory we needed the cash at once—sometimes we needed the cash long before the machine left, but, being without bank credit, the only way to get cash was on the machines as fast as they went out of our doors.

I had orders in plenty for motors cars—I could always get orders beyond the capacity of the plant; but working on a sort of penny-in-the-slot basis, we had to get out cars to drop in that slot. Otherwise the orders were only interesting evidences of sales ability.

It was in this situation that I evolved the maxim: "Profits are in goods delivered—not in orders." No manufacturer ever made a profit on his orders; he might as well go out of business as to have a vast pile of orders without corresponding deliveries.

It is a perfectly simple proposition, but how many manufacturers are really running "order museums" instead of factories? Every day that you delay in the filling of an order, unless your plant is already running to capacity, is making that order less valuable to you; your overhead is running along just as merrily as though the order had been changed into a bill of goods. That overhead is eating into your profits.

The point impressed itself on me when I discovered that we were being held up by the lack of certain malleable iron parts. We had been using malleable iron because it was cheap and durable—in fact, not only the best, but also the cheapest, material that we could find. But there was a delay from three to four weeks in the receipt of the parts; they came in from one shop and then had to go out to be machined at another—they traveled around quite a bit before they were finally ready for use.

We had anything but a self-contained factory; we were little more than an assembling room. The building of the cars was always being halted; we could have deliveries in time on everything but these iron parts. I had a quantity of ready money orders to fill—and how we did need that money!

I called my heads together and suggested that we make parts out of manganese bronze.

"Can you get quick deliveries on manganese bronze?" I asked.

"Yes, but we are going to knock out our profits it we do; the bronze will make just as good an axle—maybe a little better. But you can't put that kind of material into the cars and still make a profit." This was from the man who kept his eye on the cost sheets.

Manganese bronze was then selling at thirty cents a pound, while the iron came to us at about three or three and one-half cents. The difference in cost was about four dollars an axle.

"I will worry about the profits; you get the parts and get them here as fast as you can. Freight is too slow; use express. We must get out these cars," was my final order—I wanted finished cars.

All the practical men kicked; expressage meant about two and one-half dollars more added to the fancy price of the bronze and they could not see where we were going to "get off." But I saw that the overhead expense while we were waiting for the iron was the important cost to avoid.

The bronze was high and the credit short; in addition, we had an express bill of fifty or sixty dollars a day to meet and that was a big sum to be forced to dig up in ready cash while the expressman stood guard. But we sent out the finished cars!

But what was the result? We turned out 465 cars that year and 4,000 cars the following year; these cars pulled us out of the financial woods and left a splendid profit. The previous high record in the six years of business of that factory had been 47 cars! They had been looking only at the near costs—they hesitated to spend money in order to make money.

The motto which I adopted through force of circumstances is simple — it is self-evident when you look at it in cold type, but many people become so mixed in their immediate costs that they lose sight of the main object of manufacturing—to turn raw material into a cash bringing commodity. Often when you are debating a small added cost, the overhead will have ticked along past the difference you were discussing. I do not mean to depreciate the importance of warily watching little sums, but I do say that, when delay means money, you must take a broad view of the expenditure of the moment.

These finished cars were our only means of financing the making of more cars. I could not wheedle a penny of credit from the bank; I put my case before the bank officers—I laid all my cards on the table. I told them what I was doing and could do. But talk as I would I could not establish my credit.

The automobile industry in those days was looked upon as a sort of mushroom growth and bankers expected it to pass as the bicycle craze had passed. I knew what was ahead, but others—and especially the others who had the money—would not see my vision. I was leading a day-to-day hand-to-mouth existence as a manufacturer, but only because I knew that I could win out if I kept going.

The bank believed in me—but they did not believe in my line. I never told the officers an untruth about the condition of the business; they knew my orders, my costs and my balance sheet. They were impressed by my frankness and caught by my enthusiasm, but they would not discount my company's notes. They compromised on discounting drafts with a bill of lading attached. They wanted something tangible.

I cannot say that this method of financing is a satisfactory one; it is too wearing on the nerves. Today one cannot realize how great a victory I had won over over the bank in causing them to the bank in causing them to relax even that far.

I made them discount these drafts by always being frank with them and always keeping every promise that I made to them. If I thought that I could not do something they wanted me to do, I did not make the promise and then trust to luck. I told them what I could do, and what I could not do, and when they wanted something beyond me I not only refused, but told them why I refused. That is, we got on a mutual basis of confidence. Which brings me to the second lesson:

Tell only the truth to your banker and make him believe in you. Bluffs to your banker mean ruin. And as a corollary, deal only with a bank whose officers appreciate the truth when they hear it; some bankers regard every statement, oral or written, as untrue until it is proved true.

Let me say in passing that, once I had this banking concession, I played it for all that it was worth. No sooner had a freight agent a bill of lading that the document was on its way to become bank collateral. I made some incredibly fast trips between the railroad station and the banking house.

Dealing frankly with the bank does not mean that you are to let them manage your business. The banking relation is purely one of purchase and sale; it differs from the ordinary sale only in the fact that you are dealing in money instead of goods representing money.

The mere fact that you offer yourself as collateral does not change the situation; if you do [illegible] yourself as the best collateral in the world, you have not enough confidence in yourself to warrant borrowing money. But banks do not always realize the true situation—or rather they did not; now banking competition is becoming so keen that few institutions can afford to maintain the old self-sufficient attitude. My bank was a business bank and the officers understood business men, but even then they would shut off on my drafts now and again. Automobile building was just getting out of the fly-by-night stage.

Perhaps You Have Been in the Same Position, Too.

I remember vividly one instance when the bank answered no to a draft secured by an extra large consignment of cars. Whenever the consignees were slow in taking up their paper, the bank ran up a danger signal which read: "Drafts for collection only."

I needed the money badly; the buyer was my bestrated customer—he was also a friend. I set forth all these facts to the cashier with considerable eloquence—one can be eloquent when he needs money. But the "no" was final.

While extending myself in the argument to prove that the bank should cash the drafts, I had also been thinking what I would do if I could not get the cash. When I found a discount impossible. I reluctantly put the drafts in "for collection" and tried to look satisfied. But once out of that bank I hit for the first telegraph office and wired my friend to take up the drafts immediately upon presentation. I told him that I needed the money quickly. He took up the drafts at once; the amount was credited to my account and I was able to get by.

I may say that there were several surprised bank officers when that draft was paid so promptly, but I had told them that the drafts would be paid on presentation. What I did over the wire was only a demonstration that I had been right in asking for the discount and they had been wrong in refusing. I had less trouble with my drafts after that incident

All these things took place not merely through the first three years of business, but almost during the first three months. I had fully taken over the plant in January of 1908, and I told the bank that on the fifteenth of August the place would be clear of debt.

They did not laugh at me—I was far too earnest for that—but, with the exception of one man, they were somewhat more than skeptical. They were afraid not to believe me, for I had made them sit up; at the same time they were afraid to believe me because the task seemed impossible.

On August fifteenth I had all the debts paid! My inventory showed a net worth of $58,000—and I know that inventory was correct: I took it myself.

The result of that inventory gave me the happiest moment of my life; with my financial head above water, I could see clearly the success that was ahead.

That inventory was the start toward big business. The next year, on this capital of $58,000, we made and sold 4,065 cars and cleared a profit of more than a million dollars.

Otto H. Kahn not long since asked me what I had considered the biggest thing that I had ever done and I answered unhesitatinglyly, "Make a million dollars on a capital of fifty thousand dollars."

It was a big thing—and it was done by keeping moving.

I have said that I knew nothing of manufacturing when I took over the factory. I had been a selling agent and I had managed my hours on the selling plan; in New York I had been accustomed to reach my office about half-past nine in the morning, because an agent can do little or nothing until a customer has started his day.

It did not occur to me to alter my habits when I went to Indianapolis. I sauntered into my office somewhere between nine and ten, although the factory hands came on at seven. Several weeks went and it seemed to me that not so much was being done as might be done—that the day did not get under way with the speed that a busy day should attain at the crack of the gong. I did not know what was the matter, but I sensed something wrong.

I first examined myself—when you find things are not going just as they should, it is not a bad idea to look yourself over before you start out after someone else. I found that my late arrival had not a little to do with the delay.

My employees had the idea that I was not working hard—employees cannot dissociate effort and office hours; they never think of the hours that one spends through the night, planning and scheming. They have the notion that you also quit business when you quit the office.

They looked on me as something of a drone. I woke up to that.

I made up my mind that I should be the first man down. I had apartments with my sales manager and the night that I made my decision he happened to say:

"Don't let me disturb you tomorrow; I am leaving on an early train and am getting out at six."

"You have nothing on me," I returned. "I am going to get up at six every day after this."

I was at the office before seven the next day, walking around the shop as the men were coming in. And every day thereafter I saw to it that I was in the shop before the men—I went to the shop before I went to the office.

The improvement in work and output was noticeable at once; if I was on the job, the men thought that they also should be on the job. And they were.

And from this I deduced: "Let your men know that you work harder than they do." If you expect to get any real work done—be there yourself.

The Job of the "Boss" and of His Men.

As a business grows, the head executive is entitled to more leeway, but in a little business the boss should always be around. When the business does grow and detail after detail is delegated, make sure that whoever takes over the duties which you performed, or any part of them, is also always about.

You will never have the right team work unless each man is looking after all his own job—and all the others know that he is.

Here, then, are my three business truths:

Profits are in goods delivered—not in orders.

Tell the truth to your banker—and make him believe in you.

Let your men know that you work harder than they do.

I think these three points impressed me more than any others during the first years of my education as a manufacturer. I did not learn them out of books; in fact, I imagine that if anyone had told me these simple truths as business guides I should have laughed to think I was not aware of these elements of business.

Maxims do not count for much unless you know how to use them. It is one thing to voice a nice copybook expression, and quite another to put it into practice—to see that an apparently complicated problem can be brought down to a commonplace rule. Perhaps I already knew these truths—but I learned how to use them.

KIDNEYS WEAKENING?

LOOK OUT!

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow slowly but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1696 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. POUNTRY NOTES

In most localities the poultry house should face the south, as this insures the greatest amount of sunlight during the winter. Proper ventilation and sunlight mean a dry house and healthy birds.

Mites and lice frequently sap the vitality of the foul and prevent growth or lessen the egg production. A thorough cleaning of the house, regular applications of disinfectants to the roosts and nests, and a frequent dusting of the fowls will control these pests.

Cull out and prepare for market all fowls, old or young, which appear weak, slow or dull; fowls with drooping tails, rough plumage or crowshaped heads; all scrubs except those which have laying points; all hens which moult early; and all males except those strong, vigorous, and of a pure type desired for breeding.

To Ward Off Illness.

If you are bloated, languid or lazy, have "the blues" headaches, palpitation, biliousness, bad breath gas, constipation or indigestion, you will feel better in the morning if you take a Foley Cathartic Tablet tonight. This is a wholesome laxative and cleansing physic that acts without inconvenience, griping or nausea. Sold everywhere in Tecumseh. adv.

Why Meat Prices Vary in Different Stores

Prime steers	$19.90@20.35
Good to choice steers	17.00@19.85
Common to medium steers	10.75@16.75
Yearlings, fair to fancy	16.90@19.90
[illegible] cows and heifers	8.85@15.[illegible]
Canning cows and heifers	7.25@ 8.25
Bulls, plain to best	6.50@12.50
Poor to fancy calves	8.75@16.75
Western range steers	10.00@18.00

These newspaper quotations represent live cattle prices in Chicago on December 30th, 1918.

The list shows price ranges on nine general classified groups with a spread of $13.85 per cwt. —the lowest at $6.50 and the highest at $20.35.

Why this variation in price?

Although the quotations shown are in nine divisions, Swift & Company grades cattle into 34 general classes, and each class into a variety of weights and qualities.

As a result of these differences in cattle prices, (due to differences in weights and meat qualities), there is a range of 15 cents in Swift & Company's selling prices of beef carcasses.

These facts explain:

1—Why retail prices vary in different stores.

2—Why it would be difficult to regulate prices of cattle or beef.

3—Why it requires experts to judge cattle and to sell meat, so as to yield the profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound—a profit too small to affect prices.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

From Earl B. Rector to His Aunt, Mrs. J. F. Rector.

Bourron, France,
December 8, 1918.

Dear Aunt Fanny:

In McClure's Magazine, I don't reacll which month, is a story, "Tomorrow, I Fly" Friday night when I went to bed I was thinking "Tomorrow I go to the front" and I'll admit I was quite a bit excited over it. So yesterday morning, early Sergeant Baker and I started out, riding on trucks, beyond Mont Le Tour beyond Berncourt, where we first saw the effects of shell fire, where a well directed shot had blown the large bell out of a church steeple and where a good many of the buildings had ugly holes in them, beyond Flirey—or rather, where Flirey used to be—for I'm telling you there is nothing, absolutely nothing, left of the town. It was completely wiped off the map. Beyond Essey which is little better than Flirey, but where a few French, a very few, have made pitiful attempts to come back and reclaim their homes. Beyond where the great St. Michiel drive started the sixth of last September. Through over and beyond "No Man's Land" where hardly a tree or a stump or a pole is left standing. Beyond the incourt which shows only too well the effects of the well directed American shells and where the colored detachments have someway succeeded in shoveling the debris, stone and plaster to one side far enough to allow the trucks to pass through. Beyond Jaulay where the Americans stopped when the armistice went into effect and which boasts of hardly a whole building. Beyond Rembercourt where the Huns quit their running and on, over to a great Boche supply station where we stopped. How shall I tell you more of what I saw when, in my mind, is one great picture of confusion and chaos—a confusion of graves, French, American and Hun. (In one little place roped off I counted forty-six laid in neat rows), shells and shrapnel, exploded and unexploded, one inch, three inch, six inch, eight inch, great gaping holes in walls, great piles of debris where a town once was; great iron bridges torn and twisted and fallen, railroad tracks with the ties blown out and standing on end, the ties cut and warped, the hill side scarred with shell holes, literally alive with dugouts and old machine gun nests, the country everywhere lined with trenches with miles and miles of barb wire before them, in some places strung on iron posts, in some places on wooden stakes and often just dragged out—one untangible mass through which nothing coud pass.

I've seen the front, Aunt Fanny, —not as thousands of our men saw it—but I've seen it—and now I'm ready to come home.

I enjoyed your letter which arrived this past week. I always enjoy them and find myself looking forward to them. Thanks for the clippings.

Love to all.
Your nephew, Earl.

Ralph Emerson Wood to His Mother, Mrs. M. C. Wood.

Bordeaux, France,
December 10, 1918.

Dear Mother and All:—

As I have some time this morning thought I would write you a few lines. I am certainly feeling fine, the best since being in the service and I hope this will find you all at home in likewise condition. Have you heard from Ray lately and does he say much about coming home? The first time I get off I am going to see him, that is if he has not left. The last time I heard from him he was only 35 miles from me. I suppose Tecumseh is pretty dead by this time. Is there much work there this winter? We had a fine time coming over the ocean. It took us 10 days to come from New York to Bordeaux but we laid in the Bay of Biscay one day waiting for the tide to come that would raise the water. I was on the largest passenger steamer that travels to Bordeaux.

I would not mind France if it wasn't for the weather. The sun only shines about twice a month and it rains nearly all the time. The water we have to drink is very poor. You can't buy any sweets, like candy or ice cream; about all they have here is wine. If you go into a restaurant to buy a meal it will cost you two dollars and it is slim at that. We are going to have a good time Christmas, all kinds of good eats and all kinds of music. I have got a peach of a job in the office, while the rest of the crew are on police duty all over the town.

Well, I will have to close wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a happy New Year, with love and best wishes to all.

JOHN J. SAXTON

Death of Former Tecumseh Man at Farwell, Mich.

The following, taken from the Clare Sentinel, will be of interest to many of our readers, because John J. Saxton, the subject of the sketch was a former resident of Tecumseh and favorably known here:

"Again the grim Reaper has taken toll and with the passing of John J. Saxton, Farwell has lost one of her most respected citizens and friends—friend because he has been so closely associated with the history and development of Farwell during the past thirty-three years, having always been active in public affairs and interested in the improvement of the town and the upbuilding of the community around. Mr. Saxton was not a man to shirk responsibility and has served faithfully and well in various offices, having been village clerk, village treasurer and was for many years a member of the board of education. In 1897 he was appointed post master and filled that office faithfully for sixteen years.

"In 1907 he took up the undertaking business which he followed until his death, which came as a blow to the community on Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

"Of late years Mr. Saxton suffered much from poor health yet he was always cheerful and had a pleasant word for everyone. During his last illness, which was a complication of diseases, he was confined to his bed about four weeks but his condition was not considered serious until a few days before his death.

"John J. Saxton was born in Tecumseh, Lenawee Co., Michigan, in 1859, a son of John and Dorinda Saxton. Left fatherless at the age of five years he was given only such educational advantages as the village school afforded, and at the age of fourteen years he began his life as a wage earner in the paper mill where he worked for eight years. Desiring more remunerative employment, he tried various lines of business until he first came to Farwell in 1882, leaving again for a couple of years before he made his permanent home here. He was an active member of the F. & A. M. and also of the Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, and a Knight of the Maccabees.

"Mr. Saxton was married in 1889 to Alice Foster, an English lady who passed to the beyond in 1900, having borne him five children three of whom died in infancy. The living are Ethel Gertrude, now Mrs. Roy D. Carl living in New Haven, and Percy Webster, now a member of the 85th Division U. S. A. now stationed in France.

"In 1901 Mr. Saxton was again married to Adella Barritt Hammond, who survives him. He was a kind husband, a loving father and his familiar figure will be sadly missed on the street. All that loving hands could do was done and his daughter and sisters and near relatives with the exception of Percy were with him to the end."

He Knows Whereof He Speaks.

J. F. Harper, 416 Navarre St., San Antonio, Tex., writes: "I consider Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely the best cough remedy on the market. I know whereof I speak, having tried it in my own family. Your remedy acts quickly and relief is permanent." Good for colds, coughs, croup. Contains no opiates. Sold everywhere in Tecumseh. adv

Sometimes It Is.

"Henry, said Mrs. Peck, reading a magazine article on marriage customs in remote lands, "what does monogamy mean?"

"Er," without looking up from the first page news, "or, oh, sure! Why, er, it comes from the Greek 'monacle,'" meaning 'one,' and the Latin 'agnus,' meaning 'agony' —therefore 'one agony.'"

"Oh, yes, thank you, Henry," breathed Mrs. Peck doubtfully, as she turned to the dictionary.—Kansas City Star.

CIRCULARS VS. NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

A 20-inch advertisement in The Herald costs $3.00. Here the cost ends as far as the advertiser is concerned, because The Herald places this announcement before the eyes of at least 5,000 persons within trading distance of Tecumseh. Since taking over the list of the Britton Messenger The Herald enters 1500 homes. A conservative estimate gives four readers to every paper, making 6,000 readers altogether.

Take the $3.00, the cost of a 20-inch advertisement, invest it in circulars and see how many people you can reach. If circulars are mailed you can reach only 300 people instead of the thousands the newspaper reaches. It takes three dollars to reach 300 people by mail. To send the same circular to 1500 homes it would cost $15. This is for postage only. Add the cost of circulars and labor in mailing and see where you are at. The total, if invested in newspaper space would place in 1500 homes a page advertisement.

The Electric Washer

is the greatest labor saver for the housewife ever invented—unless it would be the Electric Iron: the two go together.

It saves the clothes from that terrific rubbing on the washboard.

It does not tear or wear the most filmy, dainty pieces.

Does the work in a fraction of the time.

Takes very little electric current to run it (among the least of all Electrical Appliances).

We can positively show you that the Electric Washer will pay for itself in your home.

It will start to save from the very first day you use it—no matter whether you do your own washing or have it done!

We are willing to submit the actual facts and leave the matter of decision entirely up to you.

WHEN THE BOY COME HOME

TITLE OF MOST SUCCESSFUL COMMUNITY SERVICE

Navy and Army Represented With Talks by Seaman Leon McLachlin and Private Horace Gray—Presbyterian Church Filled Sunday Evening.

"When the Boys Come Home" community service at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening was the largest in attendance of any of the series held thus far. The largest church auditorium in Tecumseh was completely filled, even to the gallery.

The service in nature was patriotic and when our high school military company, in uniform, marched up the aisle to take their places in the choir loft a burst of applause was elicited from the audience. A strain of "The Star Spangled Banner" in the organ prelude brought the vast audience to its feet and again later as the two speakers, Seaman Leon McLachlin and Private Horace Gray and the ministers, Revs. Rex, Curtis, Thompson, and Escolme took their places on the rostrum.

Rev. Rex, who had charge of this service, had prepared leaflets upon which were printed the hymns and songs appropriate for the evening and also the responsive reading.

"O, That Will Be Glory for Me," was the title of the first song which was followed by responsive reading led by Rev. W. R. Curtis, who, it was hinted by Rev. Rex in his introduction, may continue to preach at the Baptist church.

Another hymn, "Blow Ye the Trumpet, Blow," was followed with scripture reading by Rev. Edward Escolme, who read from the 14th to 30th verses of the 20th chapter of Matthew.

In his prayer Rev. Thompson thanked God for the boys that have come home and more that are coming, pleading that those that never come back will find an eternal home.

Rev. Rex announced that the service was named "When the Boys Come Home," and a song, inspired by a woman's remark, "We'll be happy when the boys come home," was written for this service by him. This song was sung by the high school military company, directed by Fred Dickinson. The song was repeated by the congregation, when the offering was taken.

Rev. Rex announced that W. H. Older of Adrian college would preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and also at the community service in the evening. He then introduced the first speaker, Seaman Leon McLachlin and he was greeted with applause.

Mr. McLachlin gave an interesting and instructive talk, telling some of his experiences as seaman and the work of the navy. When the submarines were at their worst volunteers were called for to fight the u-boats, and that was the main job of the navy. The fighting against these under sea craft was largely done with depth bombs. These he explained weighed 400 pounds, would explode 100 to 300 feet under the surface and prove destructive for a distance of 500 yards.

He was stationed on the U. S. S. Great Northern and it was their duty to see that the boys got to France. The life was anything but pleasant—it was a hard, rough life. He explained the difference between navy and army transports, the first being manned by a navy crew, the latter by civilians. There were 64 transports in operation under the U. S. flag and from 50 to 55 in continuous service. The Great Northern was in the first class and carried guns, and while one of the smallest it was a fast boat. The round trip was made in 14½ days.

When leaving New York harbor the troops were a sad looking bunch of fellows, for they did not know when they would return. The speaker described the bunks, which were three and four tiers high. When the weather is favorable the men prefer to sleep on deck, as the air in their quarters is not of the best.

When the submarine zone was reached extra precautions were taken, no-lights were allowed and the men kept on their clothes night and day. It was not unusual to be without sleep for 80 hours. Troops in fair weather enjoy the trip but in rough weather many eat their last meal in New York harbor and get the next meal on the shores of France. The difficulty of eating when the ship rolls was also described.

Of the boys coming back, he said, one would first want to cry and then not, for you never saw a cheerier bunch. The Red Cross always had something for the boys and the books and magazines sent over are greatly appreciated. It was a sight to see the boys' faces when they reached New York harbor and see the Statue of Liberty—then they are a happy lot.

Amid applause Seamen McLachlin retired and Rev. Rex, stating that it was high time Tecumseh gave suitable honor to Horace Gray, who had been banquetted in Adrian and Toledo, introduced our first returned wounded, Private Gray received an ovation, the congregation standing and cheering as he arose to deliver his talk.

Private Gray told of his experiences when he thought he wasn't coming home. After his ship left New York harbor and reached the submarine zone every ship changed its course except the one he was on. It was noticed that the ship on the right was coming closer and closer and it looked like a collision. At 7 o'clock at night the two came together and when the searchlight was flashed to take in the situation an order came from the other ship to put out that light or be blown out of the water. The next night at 6 o'clock a torpedo was sighted 15 feet in front of the boat. In Belleau Woods he bade goodbye to France and everything. These were some of the times when he thought he wouldn't come home.

After a sojourn of several months in hospitals and a doctor told him he would soon be ready to go home, he couldn't for the life of him think of coming home. The sentiment over there was "We won't come home until it's over over there."

Another time when he thought he wasn't coming home was when out of the harbor of Brest a shock of a depth charge from an American destroyer after subs was experienced. The trip back he said, was fine. There were no shells bursting, no airmen sighting them and there was no danger of gas to worry about. It took 8 days to make the trip home. When the boys see New York their spirits go up, up, up. He described the electric lights of the city at night as about as pretty a sight as can be seen. He expected to see more boys of the 126th coming home. They are in Germany now, he thought, and conditions are better. He concluded with "We'll all be glad when the boys come home," and took his seat amidst enthusiastic applause.

Rev. Rex wound up the meeting with a fiery talk, taking for his text the words spoken the night before the Son of Man went through Gethsemane "And maketh a reckoning with them."

Rev. Rex very forcibly brought out the fact that we must do more than have bon fires, etc., when the boys come home. We must give and sacrifice. He called attention to the Red Cross drive now on and urged the people to join. Every one of the boys was willing to lay down his life. There is not one in the audience who would change places with Horace Gray. We cannot be possessors and not be responsible and we would be contemptible beings if we are not willing to be good stewards. Not one man can die for you and you not be responsible. There are one million white crosses over there. We should not be concerned about shouting, but we should be concerned about how we feel. Letters from the boys are evidence that they will come back right. They have changed mightily and we must change. The boys will come home with a trophy of victory and belief in a great liberty. They'll all move out when they find the same old rotten Tecumseh they left. Self sacrifice is the key to heaven; most of us have not given much. We should think seriously; we should see what Gray saw when he went over the top. It is none to soon to get ready for the boys that are coming home.

Rev. Curtis dismissed the audience with benediction.

Meeting of Church Officials.

A meeting of pastors and officials of the various churches was held at the close of the service, when the matter of holding union revival meetings was brught up for discussion. As the Baptist pulpit is not yet regularly supplied no definite action in the matter was taken.

BASKET BALL GAMES BECOMING POPULAR SPORT

Townspeople Much Interested in Contests at High School Gymnasium.

The basket ball games played last Friday evening between the local high school boys and North Adrian Grangers, and the locals and clerks from town were well attended. The local boys were defeated by the score of 41 to 29 by the Grangers and 11 to 10 by the clerks.

The seventh and eighth grades of Britton were expected to play the same grades of Tecumseh school, but failed to appear.

The townspeople are beginning to appreciate that some good times are to be enjoyed at the high school "gym" and for Friday night's games the gallery was full. Then, too, the young people find the evening much more delightful if their elders are interested.

The line up of the local teams for Friday night was as follows: Clerks—Glen Tansley, Hugh Hanna, jr., Lee McAdams, Ralph Hunt, Will Coller.

High school—John Baker, Homer Hanham, Harley VanVleet, Herbert Murphy, Leslie Abbott.

Second High school — Emery Hanham, Malcolm Waring, Earl Becker, Glen Crittenden, Lawrence Harrington.

New Fire Truck Behaves Handsomely in Answer to Alarm Tuesday.

The new fire truck made its first run to a real fire Tuesday morning, when it answered the alarm from the residence of Mrs. Sylvia Davidson.

Mrs. Andrew Wilson and daughters live in a portion of the house and that morning noticed the soot around her kitchen stove pipe in the chimney afire. She ran out of doors and there the siding the full height of the second story was afire.

The firemen were on the scene almost immediately and put the fire out with chemicals, not turning on the water.

LOSES LIFE BY ACCIDENT

CHAS. LANGTHORNE FOUND IN HIS YARD.

Trimming Branches From Felled Tree When Trunk Slipped From Stump, Striking His Head.

On Wednesday Charles Langthorne, who last spring bought the Tenney property on Mill street, and his brother-in-law, John Kempf, cut some large trees at the rear of Mr. Langthorne's residence, just down the hill. One was still lodged on the stump when darkness came and Mr. Kempf asked if he shouldn't help shove it to the ground before he went home. Mr. Langthorne said he was certain he could manage it, so it was left.

Thursday morning Mr. Langthorne renewed his labors and some time later Mrs. R. W. Puffer, a neighbor, saw him lying near the fallen trees. She summoned her husband from the Webster Anderson Co.'s store and other neighbors and they found Mr. Langthorne dead.

He had cut several great limbs from the tree which had lodged on the stump and apparently the jar of chopping had loosened the butt of the tree and it flew around, striking Mr. Langthorne on the head, killing him instantly.

Coroner H. W. Stevens was summoned, but deemed an inquest unnecessary, as the evidence clearly indicated accidental death.

The funeral was held from the home Sunday, with Rev. W. A. Rex officiating. The remains were laid to rest in Brookside cemetery.

Among the relatives coming for the funeral were Will Langthorne of Jonesville, Miss Minnie Langthorne and Mrs. John O'Brien of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Calhoun, Mrs. Hannah Smith of Leslie and Wallace Langthorne of Ridgeway.

Chas. Langthorne was born in Macon township 67 years ago last August of English parentage, his parents being among the early pioneers, taking their farm from the government. He sold his home farm in Saline township last spring, just before buying the property here.

He leaves to mourn six children, Will of Jonesville, Mrs. Edith O'Brien and Miss Minnie of Detroit, Mrs. Jennie Calhoun of Leslie, Mrs. Sylvia Powers of Lapeer and Wallace of Ridgeway. There are several grandchildren, one of whom, little Rose, has made her home with him. A sister, Mrs. (Dr.) John Murphy, of Tecumseh and a brother, James Langthorne, of Macon also survive.

BILLETED WITH GERMAN FAMILY

Esli Marsh, With the Army of Occupation, Living With Germans.

Ovid Marsh has received a letter from his brother, Esli, with the army of occupation, written from Miedbach, Germany, saying he is billeted with a German family who have two of their sons in the German army. They use him splendidly, and are glad the war is over. He also wrote that on Thanksgiving he had roast beef. He had become so tired of the canned goods that he promised himself a treat of roast beef and hunted until he found a small piece, just one serving, for which he paid $5. The town is just north of Verdun.

Prof. Wallace, having invented an electric tube for killing the germs of influenza and pneumonia and pain anywhere in the body, will be in Tecumseh on Tuesday and Friday at second door south of the Catholic church.—adv. 1-16

THE FESTIVAL OF EPIPHANY

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE GREAT DAY

Explained in Splendid Sermon by Rev. J. G. Widdifield of St. Peter's Church.

Evidently the epidemic is gradually releasing people from its grip, as Sunday afternoon the congregation at St. Peter's church was a little larger than heretofore. Those present were treated to a fine sermon on the great festival of Epiphany, the rector taking his text from St. Matthew 2:1-2: "Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the King, behold, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, saying, 'Where is He that is born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East and are come to worship Him'."

Following we give an outline of the sermon:

The festival of Epiphany, which is one of the greatest festivals of the Christian year, and which fell on Monday last, receives today very little attention from Christians. Christmas we remember, and we remember the great event it commemorates. But Christ was born a Jew, and the glorious message of the first Christmas morning was proclaimed to Jews. Had we nothing more we would not know whether He had come as the Saviour of the Jews, or whether His salvation was to embrace all man kind, the epiphany reassures us. The visit of the wise men from their far eastern country to the cradle of the Babe of Bethlehem—their offerng of their gfts and of their worship were a pledge that the work of Christ was to be of world-wide significance. It surely is a truth that should not lightly be put aside.

The narrative itself is intensely interesting. The journeyings of the wise men over the trackless desert guided by their star makes for us an inspiring picture. It matters not whether the star was objective or subjective—the great thing is that it was a divine guidance; and the greater thing is that the wisemen followed it. They had come to the conclusion that the King was born and that they must make their journey to where He was to worship Him. It would be well for the world to learn the same lesson today. God has ever associated Himself with certain places in a peculair way, and it is hard for us to deny that in His House we may find His presence as nowhere else. [illegible] people excuse their [illegible] by saying that they can worship as well at home it is a pretty sure index that they don't worship at all.

We don't believe that God gave His star to the wise men and had hence forth left the world without further guidance. In fact the world is full of guiding stars. Some one will point to the church as the great star; some one to the Sacraments; some one to the Scriptures. I would agree with all, but would refuse to stop there. Anything that leads on to better things is a light to guide; a good picture, good music, and above all things else a good friend. How many men are what they are through the influence of a good woman! and how many women what they are through the influence of a good man! The trouble with the world to-day is not a lack of light, but that men won't follow the light. Of course there are difficulties in following; there were difficulties in the face of the wisemen:—two years laborious journeyings over trackless deserts infested with robbers; the jeers and taunts of their fellow countrymen for their "wild goose chase"; these all had to be faced. But no man ever came into any real greatness in this world without facing and conquering difficulties. With the cost there is compensation. There is really no greater possession in the world for any man to have the peace of God in his heart to feel that he is at peace with His God, with his fellow-men and with himself.

Perhaps the most delightful words of the narrative are those which close it "They departed into their own country another way." The spiritual interpretation is rich; the man that has offered his gifts to the Christ returns another way, a new creature. Henceforth life is a great quest, the quest for the new way, the quest for Christ Himself.

The lesson of the Epiphany is then this; that the light that guided those first Gentiles to the cradle of the Christ still abides; it abides in manifold manifestations; and what we need is the courage to follow the light that is all about us until it leads us to the place where we need no light and the night is as bright as the noon-day and the glory of God brightens all.

THE CALL OF THE RED CROSS

LENAWEE PEOPLE ASKED TO CONTINUE SUPPORT

Much Important Work Remains for the "Greatest Mother on Earth"—Millions of American Soldiers Still Abroad.

Because the work of the American Red Cross, both at home and abroad, has not diminished since the end of the war, and because all lines of its work must be kept up, the people of Lenawee county are asked this week to renew their membership for another year.

In other parts of the country the campaign for membership renewals was held during the holiday time and was called a Christmas roll call. It was made at a time when the hearts of men were most responsive to an appeal for aid and in those places where the roll call was held a great generous response was made by millions of thankful Americans.

That same roll call is being held in Lenawee county this week and the 22,000 residents of this county who have been supporting the work of the Red Cross during the war are being asked to renew their membership and continue their support for another year.

In such a county as Lenawee, it ought not be necessary to point out the need for such continued support nor to argue the duty and obligation of any man or woman in accepting a share in the care of wounded and in the provision for the families of absent soldiers. But the county has people who thoughtlessly insist that since the war is over their Red Cross work is done, their Patriotic League obligations are cancelled and that there is nothing to do but stand by and cheer.

Unfortunately the war is not over. Two millions of American boys who are being held in the war torn territories of France and Belgium, the hostile lands of an invaded Germany, in the hundreds of concentration camps in their own country, and even in the frozen wastes of Russia. For these men the Red Cross must go on, furnishing warm clothes, providing food and drink and administering medicine and a nurse's care. Every returning transport is bringing back wounded—young fellows wrecked in body but stronger than ever in their hearts and their souls, and their faith in the good will of their fellow countrymen.

Lenawee county has already been made familar with these battered heroes, and their wants have been answered here. Not many of them have come to us yet, for only a few have been discharged from the hospitals. But they will come in increasing numbers and they will demand such care and attention as cannot be denied them by any American community. They will have little or no money and crippled and weakened as they will be, they will have difficulty at first in finding a living.

The thousands of men who are being held in camps of demobilization and the thousands who are yet to come from foreign shores to those camps need the Red Cross as much as they needed it in the darker days of 1917 and 1918. They chafe and worry at the delay incident to demobilization. And the Red Cross, although its activity in American training camps has not been to the fore as much as that of some other organizations, is being depended upon by military officials to maintain calm and patience among the soldiers and to keep them, if not contented, at least hopeful of their homecom-

Editorial Comment

The postponed Red Cross Christmas roll call is now on in Tecumseh and Lenawee county, and we learn that, although a few are met who seem to think that the war is over and need of giving is over, the canvassers are meeting with good success We are pleased to note, however, that the great majority of our people have "a heart and a dollar" for Red Cross. If people have paid any attention to letters written home by boys over theye they could not have failed to realize what the boys in the service think of the Red Cross. We have boys in Germany, France and Russia, boys from our own town and township, and none of us should neglect to do the little required to be a member of the great American Red Cross. Tecumseh township has a fine Red Cross record. Don't spoil it by backsliding at this stage of the game. Be sure you are entitled to wear a Red Cross button when the boys come home.

The business activities of Tecumseh are well represented in The Herald this week, and the prudent housewife can easily save a year's subscription to The Herald by taking advantage of many bargains, offered. Announcements of merchants aid the trading public in saving time in shopping, for by looking over the advertisements a list of purchases can be made up and when prices are given the housewife can readily estimate the amount of money needed before coming down town.

"When the boys come home." This proved a drawing title for the community service held at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening, for it was the largest in attendance and interest of the series so far conducted.

The success of this service conclusively proves that the people are interested in the returning soldiers and the attention and intrest paid to the talks of the representatives of the navy and army was gratifying.

But is the interest of Tecumseh people great enough to welcome the boys back home right? Are we doing the best we can to make Tecumseh look better to them than ever? We have failed in a measure in extending the right kind of welcome—to show our real appreciation of one of our boys who went over the top and sacrificed a limb for the cause of freedom. How will we treat the others?

As was stated at the meeting Sunday night, shouting, bonfires and banquets are not the only things we should think of. We should be prepared to face the boys with the feeling that we have done our bit in keeping the home fires burning. We should not neglect our support to the Red Cross. We should support our churches. We should get the habit of attending church so the boys who have experienced a broader vision will find something besides the preacher, the faithful few and empty pews.

We should all put our shoulders to the wheel to keep the old town alive. Many letters from the boys abroad have contained the statement: "I suppose the old town is dead since we left." We should see to it that they will find a very live town—livelier than it was when they left. We should make our best efforts to keep alive business activities. It is time to think of the home coming and it is also time for a general boosting of all things pertaining to community welfare. The Herald is ready to assist.

Notifications sent out by the Republication State Central committee that the Republican state convention is to be held at Lansing Tuesday, Feb. 18, 1919, calls to mind that the time for spring election is drawing nigh.

This again brings to mind that women, for the first time in Michigan, will have the privilege of participating in general elections. They will have a voice in the selection of candidates for office, and as the spring primaries will be held on March 5th, they must begin to think about registering, for without registration their privilege is void.

On the state primary tickets will be nominated candidates as follows: Two regents of the state university, one superintendent of public instruction, one member of the state board of education, two members of the state board of agriculture, and one state highway commissioner.

In addition to these there are numerous county and township officilas. These nominees will compose the candidates for Republican, Democratic and Socialist tickets.

If a woman voter desires to name a candidate at the primaries she must be regstered before February 11th. It is just as important to vote at the primaries as at the general election, for if desirable candidates are not selected at the primaries, it is too late to do much in the way of effecting a change.

After the primaries there will be time to register in order to vote at the general election April 7th, but every man and woman should feel it a duty to vote at the primaries March 5th, and help name the best men possible for the offices they are to fill.

Township Clerk Hanna will take care of all the ladies of Tecumseh township who make application at the proper time. Ladies in adjoining townships should apply to their respective township clerks.

Former Britton Schoolma'm Married.

A quiet home wedding, in the presence of only a few relatives, took place New Year's day at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant, in Fowlerville, when their daughter, Miss Vera, became the bride of Harry Downing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Downing.

The bride is a graduate of the State Normal and Cleary's Business college and for the past three and a half years has been our efficient commercial teacher, resigning that position at Christmas time to take up her duties as a housewife.

The bridegroom is a hustling young farmer and both have hosts of friends who join in the heartiest congratulations.

They have returned here after a short wedding trip and are now at home on his father's farm east of town.

A large number of their friends gathered at their home Wednesday evening and gave them a hearty reception and miscellaneous shower. They received many pretty gifts. Games and stunts were enjoyed until a late hour. Refreshments were served.

ing and mindful of their home obligation.

Another branch of the Red Cross which must have future support because its' greatest work lies in the future, is the home service. Although comparatively an innovation in Lenawee, the home service of the Red Cross has been a big factor during the war in relieving suffering in families whose main support was fighting for his country. Where allotments and allowances have been delayed the Red Cross, through its home service, has arranged for credit on which the needy obtained groceries, clothing and fuel. When members of the family at home were ill, the Red Cross kept the anxious relative in camp informed and when the boy in camp was ill the Red Cross not only took care of him but through the home service, his family was comforted. When cases were serious, it was the Red Cross that arranged for the release of the soldier to come home. It was the Red Cross that obtained passes for parents to visit their sons in army hospitals.

It is to continue all this work and to complete it that the Lenawee Red Cross is making this roll call. The American soldiers and sailors must be cared for as long as they are in foreign lands. They must be clothed and their families back here must not be forgotten. The boys in camps are calling the Red Cross to stay with them until they are discharged. Families at home are asking the Red Cross to investigate the matter of a lost check, a delayed allowance, a misdirected allotment. Returned wounded men are going to the Red Cross for money, for medical care and for work.

And this week the Red Cross is coming to the people of Lenawee, asking for a heart and a dollar. The Red Cross is asking the people of Lenawee, in the names of all those to whom it is giving help, to complete their war task with the same splendid, generous willingness which characterized their efforts during the war. The Red Cross is calling the roll of Lenawee's patriotic people to determine how its obligation shall be fulfilled.

Your name is being called this week, today—now. Your answer must be "here!"—Lenawee County Chapter American Red Cross.

FIRE TRUCK PURCHASED

COUNCIL GETS REDUCTION OF ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS

Fire Team, Harness, Wagon, Etc., to be Disposed of at Auction Saturday—Truck Driver Appointed.

At two special meetings, one on Friday and the other Monday evening, the village council purchased the Lane fire truck and made arrangements for its car and drivers.

A representative of the Oben-Chaine-Boyer Co. was in town Friday and the matter of settling the proposition was gone over, resulting in the acceptance of the truck by the village dads at a reduction in price of $100. This was claimed by the councilmen as depreciation in the fire team due to delay in delivering machine by the company.

On Monday evening the council met in special session, when the main business was the appointment of a driver and to arrange for the care of the truck.

Fire Chief Floyd Heesen was present and stated that the truck was loaded and ready for business, and he awaited the council's orders to run it into the engine house. The truck was given a try out the evening previously and worked fine.

President Fisher suggested that a regular driver be appointed and that the fee be $5.00 a trip. On motion Bob Eagan was appointed night driver, the fire chief to appoint substitute drivers. Mr. Eagan also was instructed to care for the machine, keep the engine limbered up and the battery in condition.

On motion of Trustee Pulver the salary of the fire chief was increased from $50 to $100 per year, the trustees all agreeing that the chief was not overpaid for his services.

President Fisher also recommended that the Telephone company be officially notified to arrange for a certain number for day alarm and Bob Eagan's home for night call. No action was taken.

Trustee Pulver offered a resolution authorizing the fire committee to dispose of the fire team and equipment at public auction. The resolution was carried by a full vote.

The auction will be held on the four corners at 2.30 p. m. Saturday. See announcement of sale in this issue.

It was suggested that certain hitching posts near fire hydrants be removed and that parking of automobiles near hydrants be prohibited. Under existing conditions there are times when there would be considerable delay in connecting hose to hydrant—a delay that might be costly to property in case of fire.

The fire chief suggested a few alterations—the placing conveniently of hand chemicaal extinguishers, the addition of an electric flash lantern and other minor things.

The fire truck cost the village $3.608, and for the benefit of those who think this will be added to the summer taxes, it might be stated that last July's taxes took care of this purchase.

Seven children survive to comfort the mother: Casper, James, Fred and John, of Tecumseh; Walter, of Clinton; Frank, of Jackson; and Mrs. Clifford Head, of Dundee.

SCHOOL NEWS

A speed test was taken in typewriting, but, because of attending circumstances, viz., the cold room and a party the night before, the result was not encouraging and another will be taken in a few days.

Three letters were shown us, taken in shorthand, and then typewritten. The result was a very praiseworthy example of stenography taught in our school. The artist of the class was Miss Helen Morgan.

That cooking class is certainly progressing. If you don't believe it ask anyone who was there Friday morning and smelled it.

No, no! Those strange marks on the blackboard in Miss Cooley's room are not hieroglyphics, but tomorrow's shorthand lesson.

The bookkeeping class is taking up the double entry method of bookkeeping and a great many find it rather confusing after having single entry. Never mind, they'll get over it all right!

Miss Hazel Miller's soldier brother, who spent the week end with her, enjoyed some of the classes of T. H. S.

Both the boys' and girls' glee clubs are having regular practices.

People of Tecumseh: let us not forget about the second number of our Lyceum course. On the 20th of January the Woodland singers will be here to give us the very best evening's entertainment. It is not too late to come, even if you did not buy a season ticket.

Harold Blesing, a former T. H. S. pupil, visited school Monday morning.

The High school pupils enjoyed (?) monthly tests last week, so the report cards might be received the early part of this week.

The Senior class held a brief class meeting Monday morning, deciding to have a class party this week Thursday night at 7 o'clock, at the home of Jessie French. Committees for "eats" and entertainment were chosen by the president. Vera Sisson extended an invitation to the class, but it was decided to wait until it snowed so a sleigh ride could be enjoyed.

The girls' basket ball team is practicing hard for the first big game of the season, to be played against Adrian in T. H. S. "gym" next Friday night. You people who are interested in athletics get out and just see what our girls can do. Many of you could not go to Britton to see our girls win but you certainly can come to T. H. S. The boys also are going to have a big game against Adrian.

The boys' basket ball team played against North Adrian last Friday night, but were defeated. T. H. S. substitutes in turn played against the town clerks, but were also defeated. Never mind, boys, the team shows a marked improvement and we will show them yet. The regular team can make the baskets, while the substitutes show remarkable team work. The boys appreciated having a fairly good sized audience.

The Senior sewing class is going to take a short course in home decoration after the completion of their dresses. So, mothers, don't get angry if your daughters start to remodel the home in their minds.

Mr. Duguid can not understand why so many pupils are late morning, noon and sometimes night. Simple reply: "Perhaps he does not eat as much breakfast and dinner as we do."

Mr. Reed is so busy with inside and outside school duties that he has appointed pupils of the High school to take care of his office during some of the busiest periods f the day.

Mr. Reed says that his chemistry class is so good natured that a scolding doesn't do, so the next best thing is a few (?) X's on the cards." Good natured? Evidently he hasn't seen us studying in the evening.

The ninth and tenth grade sewing classes are struggling with button holes.

The boys in uniform should "police up."

The Junior Red Cross of T. H. S. has adopted three orphans; one a French boy, one Belgian boy and one Belgian girl. $109.50 was given for their support for one year.

The self-governing plan that the High school has adopted is progressing rapidly. The persons representing it will make all the laws as long as they prove satisfactory. Each of the six grades of the High school held a meeting last week, at which a councilman or representative for the general council was elected. The following were chosen: Harley VanVleet, 12th grade; Paul Harwood, 11th; Russell Abbott, 10th; Harry Duncan, 9th; Sam Sisson, 8th; Stewart McLain, 7th. The president and clerk were elected at large Tuesday night. Perry Hayden was elected president and Blanche Colson clerk. The vote was unanimous. The governing body is now ready to begin work.

The seventh grade is having a very interesting time learning the correct use of adjectives, such as awful, grand, nice, healthy, healthful and many others. During the week each pupil is to guard against the use of nice and awful to express all his different feelings.

Eighth graders enjoy receiving letters, but how many enjoy writing them? If there were not so many commas and periods and capitals the task would be easier. Letter writing, in all its forms, has recently been taken up in the eighth grade.

Sunday School Class Entertained.

Thursday evening, Mrs. E. D. Brown's class of the M. E. church entertained Mrs. Wilfred Waldron's class at a dinner at the home of Mrs. Brown.

When all the guests had arrived partners for dinner were found by matching cards containing riddles. After the dinner various games: "follow the leader," "wink'em," "bean porridge hot" and a general sing were enjoyed.

A contest was then held to see who could best put his New Year's resolutions in rhyme. Lee McLain was found to be the best poet (?) and he received a pretty calendar as a prize.

The guests for the evening were Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, Harris Dole, Leslie Abbott, Geo. Newsom, Malcom Waring, Kenneth Routson, Homer Hanham, Perry Courtad, Lee McLain and Arthur Brown.

RECORD OF THE PAST

No Stronger Evidence Can Be Had in Tecumseh.

Look well to their record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee of future results. Anyone with a bad back; any reader suffering from urinary troubles, from kidney ills, should find comforting words in the following statement:

Mrs. Alice Burroughs, W. Pottawatomie st., Tecumseh, says: "I sometimes ached all over and was all tired out and had no ambition. My kidneys didn't act regularly and at times my back ached. I knew of others who had been helped by using Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got some at Wright & Son's drug store. In a few weeks I felt much better and finally I was free from the aches and pains. I was benefited in every way." (Statement given in December, 1908.

Again Praises Doan's.

On July 27, 1916, Mrs. Burroughs said: "I am always glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for they are good medicine. They cured me of kidney trouble."

Biliousness

WHEN you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. There is nothing better.

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the weaknesses and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil is inclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 5 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a small swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. Go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

Leslie L. Johnston to D. F. Wright.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 5, 1919.

Dear Don:—

I have just got the chance to write you a long letter of my experiences so far.

On reaching Boston and taking the necessary examinations I was at once placed on the receiving ship, the U. S. S. Meade, which was formerly a transport, having accommodations for 1,500 soldiers. It is a big ship, 547 feet in length, and docked on the Charles river, a short way from the harbor and directly across from Charlestown, with the famous Bunker Hill monument in the background.

On the receiving ship it was rather hard work and very strict discipline. After thirteen days on the Meade I was transferred to the U. S. S. Governor Dingley, which was formerly a big passenger liner and taken over by the government for the purpose of training fellows for the sea. The next day, which was Friday, the thirteenth day of December, we sailed out of the harbor for Portland, Me. I was placed in squad number 13, which also was the birthday of my mate, and this also happened after thirteen days of training on the receiving ship.

The Dingley was a palace beside the Meade. Two of us to a stateroom and the officers kind and instructive. From our room you could overlook the big saloon deck, where all the entertainments were held. Besides a good orchestra on board we had a canteen (a place for buying candy; etc.) and a Y. M. C. A. secretary, who always had a "sleeveful" of tricks for us.

We had a swell trip to Portland, but ran into a small storm, and very few fellows escaped sea sickness. I did and my instructor said that I sure had won my "sea legs." The ship rocked enough to throw chairs and tables to the floor, and the rules of the ship were soon found out—"when she rolls, grab."

We reached Portland and were all given shore liberty. I found it to be a very nice city and the civilians gave their respect to sailors, too, but Boston is sure the city outside of New York.

We left Portland for Boothbay Harbor, Me., which is noted as a summer resort for the wealthy and it certainly was a beautiful place and the weather was unusually mild. We then returned to Boston for necessary supplies. I always liked shore liberty in Boston. There are so many interesting places to see. I spent a lot of my time in the art museum and the library, which are the greatest in the world. Then there are hundreds of Y. M. C. A. huts accommodating the thousands of American sailors.

We made two more trips to Portland and Boothbay to get us used to the sea. Here's nearly how we spent every day—all but Sunday: We have church on board then, but other days it's up at 6 o'clock; "chow" (breakfast) at 7, roll call at 8, general clean-up work, scrubbing decks and painting; quit work at 11, chow again at 12, roll call again at 1, and then classes in seamanship, knot tying, wigwag signalling and boxing the compass (the mariner's compass has 33 different directions instead of four of the ordinary compass): classes over at 4:30 and then "chow" again at 5; then between 5 and 9 we have mail line, and anything that you wish to do. If we are at shore we get liberty until 7:45 the next morning. If we are at sea we have boxing, wrestling, dancing, and everything.

Christmas my room-mate (from Washington, D. C.,) and I went out to a private family for dinner. They lived at Woburn, about 15 miles from Boston, and we certainly had a swell time. They met us at the depot with a grand car and we were introduced to the family, two girls about our age, too, and after a swell dinner we motored out to their country home along the seashore, passed ex-Pres. Cleveland and Taft's summer homes, and it seemed that nearly every place was owned by some famous person. They "drove" us back to the ship about 12 o'clock.

We left Boston Friday, Dec. 27, for Norfolk, Va. It was sure a swell trip, filled with interesting sights—that is when we were near shore. We passed Atlanta City at night and arrived at New York city Saturday afternoon. Coming into New York harbor was the greatest sight that I have ever seen. We docked at the end of 5th street on the east side and when we got liberty my chum and I beat it to civilization via the elevated down Broadway, 5th avenue to 42nd street and took in the bright lights, and I'll have to admit here to you that "Noo Yawk" is sure the place.

We left Sunday afternoon and got to Norfolk Monday night. The city is typical southern, colored people, oysters, tobacco and cotton—and sailors. Over a half a million sailors stationed here and the respect a Norfolk civilian has for one of us is less than that of a dog. About seven prices for everything.

We had a big celebration for New Year's eve, and then the next day was transferred to the U. S. S. Minnesota. They say this ship was a sister to the Eastland which sank several years ago at Chicago, and here's hoping that this one doesn't follow suit.

Our six weeks' course is nearly completed and I'm really sorry, too, as I never had such a great time in my life. The fellows are fine and from the best familes in the states. I'm lonesome tonight as my chum is home on a short furlough and my other friend from New Jersey left today for Europe on a transport. Eleven fellows left today, six for England on transports, two to Cuba, three to South America. I can't say that I would like the sea for ever but after I make a couple trips to Europe I will be ready to give it up. My number is thirty-four, eleven went today and maybe by the time you get this letter I will be on the high sea.

I can only say that it is a great life for a young fellow and that you're doing your part for the United States and we all know that Uncle Sam is ready to protect a fellow in Navy blue any time, in foreign ports.

Give my regards to my friends and I am only sorry that I can't write each and every one of them.

So Long,

Leslie Johnston,

Marseilles, France, Nov. 29, 1918.

Dear Mother and All:—

Just received a letter from you and it was No. 10. Well, can't say for sure whether I have received that many or not, but believe I have.

Since the event of November 11 an order came through stating that we could be more explicit in our letters, so going back a little and probably using a little repetition, will relate a few things that I couldn't tell before.

We loaded on the ocean liner, Manganani, an English boat, in the evening of July 30, laid in the harbor that night and pulled out at 10:30 July 31st. We landed in Liverpool on Sunday, July 12, at 11 o'clock. Had a fine trip, with the exception of two nights when the bottom of the ocean tried to get on top. The largest per cet of the men were feeding the fish, but I held onto mine, although I had a very undecided feeling. All sergeants first class had staterooms in second class; also had a mess of our own. The boys down in the hole surely had it tough.

The first sight of land was the northern coast of Ireland and Scotland was most welcome. We were convoyed by 21 liners and all could be seen during the day. As we neared this side, and got into the danger zone, we were escorted in by eight destroyers, several aero and hydroplanes, and one huge lookout zep. It surely was some sight.

We were all off the boat by 12:30 and at 1:18 were on a train ready to go again; were two days in Southampton, where we crossed the English channel, landing at Cherbourg, France. Had a fine trip, with lots of scenery, the most interesting to me being the chalk cliffs of [illegible].

One day at Cherbourg and on our way again, three days and two nights on a frog train, when we finally landed and Poilly sur Loire.

Well, mother, I will not attempt to tell any more names of places for the letter would be all names of towns. They finally sent us to Marseilles, where we commenced at once to do convoy work. This took us all over the country, some times up back of the firing line. Was in two air raids, both were light, only dropped four bombs. Had rather an uncomfortable feeling.

Everything has changed now, and they are meekly shuffling back the other way, with plenty of khaki behind them.

Will not call this a finished letter, but will continue later. Hoping this will find you all feeling as fine as I do. With love, Raynor.

Otis Wood has been cutting ice for the Tecumseh Lake Ice Co. Saturday he reached to ram his pike into a chunk floating just off the edge of the field. He missed and fell into the river. Charlie came on down town on some matter of business but in a short time returned to his men and there was the plucky youngster in dry clothes working like a Trojan.

While at work at the Whiting cigar factory, Supt. Bert Lawrence met with an accident Monday that may prove pretty serious. While passing through the dry room he slipped in some water and throwing his hand up to catch his balance jammed it into an electric fan which was turned on full power. The blades of the fan cut nine nasty gashes across his fingers. Dr. Hendershott dressed the injured hand and he seems to be coming on nicely.

Saturday afternoon a horse belonging to Ira Lamkin was hitched in front of McCann & Bowen's store. The afternoon train came along and up on the side walk came horse, buggy and hitching post. The top was broken from the buggy, but the horse was unhurt. R. W. Puffer valiantly stopped the animal or the whole outfit would have gone into the plate glass in the McCann store. Mr. Street Commissioner you need not bother to replace the hitching post. We could spare a few more off the main street.

How many of the people of the village stop to think what Oley Hanna is doing for our high school boys, gratis, in that military training class? Three days out of every week he goes to the school and drills the class, giving them a course few men in the village are prepared to teach. He keeps the boys enthusiastic, also, which speaks mighty well for his splendid influence over them and provides our school with a feature which is certainly a great asset. Already we see its benefit in a more erect carriage in the boys and how proud they are to be qualified to wear the new uniforms.

They were unable to save the home and after it was over found a poor handful of bones, all that was left of the woman, in the ashes. Mrs. McClintock, who was over eighty, has visited Mrs. Howland several times and met a number of Tecumseh people. The funeral was held from the church at Laingsburg Sunday, but as she did not receive her notice in time, Mrs. Howland was unable to attend. Adlets in The Herald want column work quickly, as an instance proved the latter part of the week. F. E. Smallidge dropped into the office to advertise a razor he had lost. The finder saw him as he left the office and surmising that his business was to advertise the razor, learned the fact by inquiry. The lost article was restored before the adlet was placed in type. It seems it pays to even think of advertising in The Herald.

From the LosAngeles Herald we clip the following: "The Los-Angeles Home Guard made a very creditable showing in its regular shoot at the government rifle range at Glendale, considering the amount of practice. Ned Cutting, Seven Hills Rifle club expert, gave a little exhibition over the 500-yard range, scoring 49 out of a possible 50." As a boy, Ned was a great shot, as many Tecumseh people remember. Our several gongs sound too much alike. Two of our fire laddies stood on the street talking Tuesday morning when the alarm sounded for the Davidson fire. One said: "That's the fire alarm," The other said: "No; it's something wrong with the burglar alarm at the bank." The first: "Maybe it's the school bell. It's about time." Then Friend Arner's reliable old toot sounded from the water works and the fire bell rang the ward number and the boys ran for the fire engine house. Just then the truck was in an alley filling up with gas, but picked up the firemen shortly and away they went.

160 Hens—1500 Eggs

Mrs. H. P. Patton, Waverly, Mo., writes "I fed 2 boxes of 'More Eggs' to my hens and broke the egg record. I got 1500 eggs from 160 hens in exactly 21 days." You can do as well. Any poultry raiser can easily double his profits by doubling the egg production of his hens. A scientific tonic has been discovered that revitalizes the flock and makes hens work all the time. The tonic is called "More Eggs." Give your hens a few cents worth of "More Eggs," and you will be amazed and delighted with results. "More Eggs" will double this year's production of eggs, so if you wish to try this great profit maker, write E. J. Reefer, poultry expert, 1638 Reefer Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., for a $1 package of "More Eggs" Tonic. Or send $2.25 to-day and get three regular $1 packages on special fall discount for a season's supply. A million dollar bank guarantees if you are not absolutely satisfied, your money will be returned on request and the "More Eggs" costs you nothing. You take no risk. Write to-day. 290 GALLONS OF BOOZE

FOUND IN BRUSH PILE BY ROADSIDE

Lee McConnell Turns Find Over to Sheriff—Automobile Abandoned, Men Arrested.

Tuesday morning children attending the McLain school discovered an immense quantity of whiskey in a brush pile on the roadside near Lee McConnell's home. He carried it to the barn, heaping up his wagon box, and notified the sheriff who came out from Adrian and took the 290 quarts back to the jail.

The same morning Clayton McIntyre reported a splendid Peerless car crippled and deserted laying in the road near his home and that on the running board was a big case of booze in jugs. But by the time the officers had reached the scene, this case had vanished. The sheriff left Deputy John Smith to guard the machine. This he faithfully did until 9 o'clock that evening an enclosed Super six drove up and out hopped two fellows, and one, the mechanic, started to repair the Peerless. Deputy Smith presented himself and requested the men to grant him their company. They went to Mr. McIntyre's and again the sheriff was summoned. He came for the men and in Adrian they gave their names as Joe Zmuzmdski and Foster Blodgett, the latter an employee of a Washington street garage, Toledo. Blodgett the sheriff let go but held the foreigner to answer to the charge of violating the prohibition law.

BOY SCOUTS

FORTY-SIX BOYS PRESENT MONDAY

Preliminary Meeting Monday Evening at School House Finds Boys Eager to Join the Ranks.

In the school gymnasium on Monday evening Rev. J. G. Widdifield met the boys of the town in a meeting preliminary to the organization of a local troop of the Boy Scouts of America. Forty-six boys eligible for Scouting were present. The organization in both its national and local aspects was explained to the boys. The last report from national headquarters shows 450,000 Scouts in good standing in the United States. After a careful explanation of the Scout oath, and laws all the boys present expressed the desire to receive blanks for application for membership. According to the ruling of the National Council the maximum number for one troop is thirty-two scouts. All the boys present at this first meeting will be given the opportunity of appearing for examination for the requirements of tenderfoot rank, and the first troop will be composed of the boys receiving the highest grading. If conditions should warrant it a second trotp will be started as soon as practicable.

The latter part of the meeting was occupied with a few of the Scout games.

The next meeting will be next Monday evening at 7:00 o'clock. Instructions were given to the boys to come prepared with the application blanks filled out and the registration fee of 25 cents; as well as a piece of rope for knot tying. The temporary patrol leader and scribe will also be elected, the permanent ones to be chosen as soon as the organization is completed. All the Scout meetings will dismiss promptly at 8:45.

YOUNG PEOPLES UNION MEETING

Music and Address by W. H. Older of Adrian College.

A splendid crowd of the young people of the town attended the union young people's meeting at the Baptist church Sunday evening at 6:30. The choir loft was filled with the high school cadets who led in the singing, with Fred Dickinson conductor. Other musical selections were rendered, Miss Lillian Kennedy singing delightfully as also were well rendered a piano solo by Miss Camilla Hayden and a violin solo by Everett Hensen. William Older, of Adrian college, who has won for himself so many friends in the town as he has occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church, told of his experiences while attached to the Great Lakes Training station. They were often amusing but all interesting and his hearers were immensely pleased with his address, so they too enjoy the union meeting of their societies as well as the community services of the older people.

COMMUNITY MEMORIAL SERVICE

HONORING AMERICAN SOLDIER HEROES

Hon. Harry L. Larwill, Judge of Probate, to Give Address—Meeting at School Auditorium Sunday Afternoon at 2:30—Good Music.

Arrangements have been about completed for the Memorial Sunday observance, when at the request of Governor Sleeper Michigan will honor her fallen soldier heroes, both those who sacrificed their lives on the battlefields and those who died from any cause while in the service.

The community memorial service will be held at the school auditorium at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. Hon. Harry L. Larwill, judge of probate, and the most polished patriotic orator in Southern Michigan, will give the address.

Music will be furnished by the band and on the program will also appear vocal selections and other things appropriate to the occasion.

The committee under the chairmanship of H. H. Hanna, jr., has also made arrangements to have printed souvenir folder programs, containing, as nearly as can be compiled, the names of all the boys entering the service who call Tecumseh their home town.

Mr. Hanna is very anxious to have this list complete and is desirous to have all relatives of such soldiers to communicate with him to prevent any accidental omissions.

Gov. Sleepers Proclamation.

"Many of the brave boys who so freely offered their lives in our cause will not come back to us. Some of them sleep in Sunny France. Some lie 'in Flanders' Fields,' among the poppies. Some went down to the sea in ships and there met a cruel fate. Some were cut off by accident and disease in our own land. They all died that freedom might still live; and, while our heads are bowed with sorrow, our hearts are filled with pride and thankfulness when we think of their willing spirit of service. We shall not forget their splendid achievements.

"It is fitting, however, that we should in some special way manifest our appreciation of their noble devotion and sacrifice.

"Therefore, in order that we may pay a tribute of respect and affection to the memory of the gallant lads who died for us, I, Albert E. Sleeper, Governor of the State of Michigan, do issue this my proclamation and hereby designate and set aside Sunday, the second day of February, nineteen hundred and nineteen, as Memorial Sunday for Michigan's Martyred sons in the Great War.

"And I earnestly request the people of the State to gather on that day in their accustomed places of worship and there hold appropriate and solemn services in memory of our honored dead. Let every church in Michigan devote one service, preferably the morning service, to this purpose.

"I suggest too that, in communities where this plan is practicable, the laymen arrange for a general service, with a suitable program of music and addresses, to be held in the afternoon.

"I further request that during the day the flags be displayed at half-staff, and that every one wear a bow of white ribbon in loving remembrance of those who will not return to us."

NEW COURSE IN AGRICULTURE

IMPORTANT ADDITION TO HIGH SCHOOL STUDIES

Young People of Tecumseh and Vicinity to Have Opportunity for Expert Farming Training.

"Agriculture promises to be one of the most important vocations of the future. If the practice of agriculture is to meet the needs of the American people, those engaged in it must possess the keenest of minds and have the finest of training to secure the broadest grasp of human needs. If we are to have expert farmers in the future, the public schools must attract the attention of all young people to the subject while they are yet in a mental condition to be moulded and trained for definite purposes."

Believing that the above paragraph states a truth of growing importance the Tecumseh school board is about to introduce, as many other schools have done, a thorough course in agriculture.

The work is elective and will take part of the time of the last four years of high school, the remaining time being devoted to the regular subjects.

First Year's Work.

(a) Plant life. This work will consist of the study of farm plants from the botanical standpoint.

(b) Mechanical drawing. Training the student to draw simple plans for articles useful in the home and on the farm; also the making and reading of blue prints.

(c) Carpentry. Instruction in the use and care of carpenters' tools.

Second Year's Work.

Farm crops and horticulture based upon suitable text books accompanied by laboratory and field exercises.

Third Year's Work.

Animal husbandry. This subject includes the study of types and breeds of farm animals, their adaptability and use; also instruction in dairying, feeding of farm animals and poultry raising.

Fourth Year's Work.

(a) Soils and fertilizers. A study of soil, its care and improvement.

(b) Farm management. Besides other work such practical problems as care and repair of farm machinery, improvement of water supply, ventilation of farm buildings, etc., will be studied.

One requirement of students taking this course is that part of each [illegible] shall be given to actual farm practice. To meet this requirement he may work on a farm during the summer or he may select one of the numerous tasks called projects. This may consist of raising one acre of some common farm crop; one-eighth acre of small fruit; one-half acre of some vegetable; keeping milk record; caring for poultry; or caring for home garden, etc.

In order that this home project work may be properly supervised the teacher is hired for the full year, his most valuable work being done in the summer time through advice and encouragement given to the young agriculturist.

This work is supervised by the state and both the state and national governments contribute towards its support.

We are fortunate in securing as teacher of this course O. W. Laidlaw, a graduate of the Michigan Agricultural College, who has recently been discharge from an officers' training camp. Mr. Laidlaw has had experience in farm management and has been employed by the state in farmers' institute and extension work. Last spring he spent some time working for the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The writer has been asked if we do not now have a course in agriculture. Yes, the work outlined above for the second year less the project work.

LADIES IN ATHLETICS

Petition for Use of School Gymnasium One Night a Week Granted.

A few days ago a petition was circulated among the ladies of the town for the orgnization of a Ladies Athletic society. More than enough signed in a few hours to insure their use of the high school gymnasium one evening each week, they being granted Tuesday evening. This week Tuesday evening, the first meeting was held and a committee chosen to arrange for next week's practice, the committee being composed of the Misses Ethel Kenyon, Lillian Kennedy and Doris Cooley. The teachers are to be in the society and every woman in town is invited to join. Some fun is promised.

No Room for Doubt.

He had but recently met an elderly maiden lady in a nearby town. On his return home he wrote, asking her to marry him and requesting an answer by telegraph. On receiving the letter the lady rushed to the telegraph office.

"How much does it cost to send a telegram?" she demanded.

"Twenty-five cents for 10 words," answered the operator; and this was the telegram her suitor received:

"Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes, Yes."—Ex.

EASTERN STAR

LENAWEE-MONROE ASSOCIATION AT HUDSON

Tecumseh Chapter Represented at the Winter Meeting of Association—Interesting Sessions.

The party of Eastern Star members who went to Hudson last Thursday for the meeting of the Lenawee-Monroe county association had a very pleasant day if they did start out in the rain.

They arrived at our sister city about 9 o'clock and were served lunch by the Hudson chapter. At 1 p. m. Mrs. Florence Montgomery as president called the convention to order. Thomas Howes, worthy patron of the Hudson chapter, gave the address of welcome, responded to by Mrs. McBride of Dundee. The feature of the afternoon was the exemplification of the work as presented fifty years ago, by the Adrian chapter managed by Mrs. Clara Eldredge. The ladies wore the quaint garb of that time and put on the work perfectly. They were given an ovation when through with the ceremony.

The crowd of some 250 were served a cafeteria dinner at the M. E. church and the evening session was called at 6:30.

Over 300 were present and witnessed the ceremony of initiating a class of four candidates by a staff composed of officers from the lodges in the association. Mrs. Frank Snedicor of the Tecumseh chapter, filling the chair of associate conductress.

The grand matron, Eva J. Snow of Ludington gave a school of instruction. Another visitor unusual to this association was Past Worthy Grand Patron of the general grand chapter and past most worthy grand patron of the Grand chapter of Michigan, H. H. Limestone Gets Results.

Broome county, N. Y., this year used 8,000 tons of limestone, an increase of 3,000 tons over one year ago. This increase has been due to the emphasis which the farm bureau and county agent have placed upon the value of applying limestone to the soil. One farmer applied 1 ton of ground limestone an acre in 1917 at the time of seeding. In 1918 the limed area produced 5,324 pounds of hay, while the plot beside it having no lime produced only 4,017 pounds, 1,307 pounds in favor of lime. Another farmer top-dressed hay land, that had been mowed one year, with one-half ton of marl per acre. On the limed area he secured 4,200 pounds of hay and on the unlimed area 2,160 pounds, a difference of 2,040 pounds. Still another farmer used 1 ton of lime an acre at the time of seeding. On the limed area he produced 5,324 pounds of hay and on the unlimed acre 2,904 pounds, a difference of 2,420 pounds in favor of limestone.

REV. W. R. CURTIS

New Pastor of Baptist Church Begins Duties Sunday.

As reported last week the members of the Tecumseh Baptist church extended a call to Rev. W. R. Curtis, which the latter has accepted.

Rev. Curtis begins his duties as pastor here Sunday, and his family will move here about the middle of February.

Rev. Curtis spent five years in the Jackson church, where about half the present membership of the church was added during his pastorate there. The past six month he has spent at Camp Custer, where he has had a good wholesome experience.

People will gladly welcome Mr. Curtis and family to Tecumseh.

The century is now in the last of its teens.

Editorial Comment

"Bless the man who wrote the editorial in The Herald last week on the street oiling. Because the job was done wrong once is no reason why it should be done wrong again." "It is the only solution for the dust problem in Tecumseh." These are two of the numerous expressions made voluntarily by some of our business men. Several ladies who have been annoyed exceedingly by the dust last summer also expressed themselves in favor of oiling. No canvass was made, no questions asked—the expressions were voluntary.

The Herald advocates oiling streets because it believes it is the best and cheapest method of disposing of dust. Because it not only lays the dust on week days, but every day, including Sundays when automobile traffic is the greatest. Because it preserves the condition of the streets thus treated.

People in favor of oiling should attend the council meeting, or send a delegation to represent them, to encourage village authorities to proceed immediately in making arrangements. The village council is ready to do what is wanted by the citizens if practical, but they must know what is wanted.

Questions as to the necessary procedure have been asked The Herald. First it is necessary for the council to pass an ordinance providing for the oiling of streets under certain provisions. A sample ordinance can be procured from Adrian or Clinton that can be arranged to suit conditions here. The oiling should be done by blocks, for which petitions should be presented the council. In the towns mentioned it requires a petition representing owners of two-thirds of the street frontage petitioned for.

Main thoroughfares, where the summer automobile traffic is heaviest, should be given attention first, because they are the greatest dust centers. After that streets can be oiled as petitioned for each year. The cost is assessed to property owners according to frontage, the village paying for street intersections.

Preparation should be begun early because it takes some time to make the preliminary arrangements. It will take time to receive quotations on oil so as to secure the best advantage of the market. To prevent the mess that Tecumseh experienced a few years ago the oiling process should be thoroughly investigated and for this purpose should be selected a man of practical ideas.

Roads should be placed in as smooth condition as possible and the oil applied with an outfit adapted for that purpose when the road is dry. With this method Evans street, in such a deplorable condition, would make a pretty good road after two seasons of oiling.

Let's get busy and start the work of making Tecumseh a dustless city.

We wish to commend our board of education for their foresight and good judgment in adding to the high school curriculum a practical course in agriculture. It means a great deal to a community to raise successful farmers, and it also means a great deal to the boys and girls in the community to have the privilege of learning keen, scientific methods of farming.

The adoption of the extension of the course comes at an opportune time—at a time when maximum production is demanded by the world at large. It is a time when boys and girls need the best equipment educationally than ever before and the farmer boy is entitled to it just as much as any, for upon the successful production of crops not only depends community welfare, but the welfare of the nation and the world at large.

Boys and girls with agricultural inclinations should not fail to take advantage of this new course. In fact the course contains such interesting subjects and training that it will be of great benefit for any boy or girl to take up.

Don't forget to honor the boys who gave their lives for democracy Sunday. Every church will have memorial service in the forenoon, there will be a community service in the afternoon at the school house auditorium at 2:30, and union service at the Friends church in the evening. There will be room for you at one of these places.

It is announced from Washington that the suffragists, despairing of action by the Senate, "will turn to the states for aid." That is where they should have turned in the first place.

If Haiti is alive to its opportunities it will appeal to the peace conference to uphold the Haitian right to self extermination.

Neutrals are not to sit at the peace council table, but they will be permitted to pass up their plates when the carving begins.

In time of trial the United States senate can always console itself with the reflection that it has the right to unlimited debate.

Mr. Lodge, says the Washington Post, speaks for more than half of the Senate. Oh, well, give 'em time. They'll see the light after a while.

There ought to be a department in the casualty lists showing the names of the noble heroes who are about to bring French wives home to a critical array of female relatives.

If any country wants three or four thousand enemy aliens the United States is prepared to deport that number. Perhaps Holland will take them; they can hardly expect a welcome anywhere else.

If you don't tell anybody that you have made a lot of New Year resolutions nobody will know how you fail to keep them.

Not having Senator Chamberlain's source of information, Germany failed to detect all that American military incompetence that the Senator is still talking about.

J. F. Harper, 416 Navarre St., San Antonio, Tex., writes: "I consider Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely the best cough remedy on the market. I know whereof I speak, having tried it in my own family. Your remedy acts quickly and relief is permanent." Good for colds, coughs, croup. Contains no opiates. Sold everywhere in Tecumseh. adv

"CITIZENSHIP"

SUBJECT OF COMMUNITY SERVICE SUNDAY NIGHT

A Good Citizen Must be Honest, Liberal, a Christian and an American—Large Congregation Present.

Last Sunday evening the Methodist church was packed to the back of the gallery for the Community service. The manner in which the attendance keeps up at these services is truly remarkable, for church services in Tecumseh are as a rule but scantily attended, especially the former Sunday evening services. This fact has proven the ministers' idea correct that it is better to have one big service and make it worth while than to have five and hardly any attendance at each.

Rev. C. M. Thompson conducted the service, having Rev. Widdifield, Wm. Older, who had filled the Baptist pulpit that day, Rev. Escolme and Rev. Rex on the platform with him. The first song, "Oh for a Thousand Tongues to Sing" was heartily sung by the audience, led by the chorus choir. Then again rang out "Take the Name of Jesus With You."

The responsive reading was led by Rev. J. G. Widdifield, taking the selection, "The Nation."

Rev. Edward Escolme invoked divine guidance and blessing upon the gathering.

The next song was "He Leadeth Me," read first by Mr. Older.

Rev. W. A. Rex read the scripture lesson for the evening from Romans 13, teaching the laws for good government.

A few announcements followed. Rev. Thompson speaking of his "Inspirational" services held at his church this week. Rev Rex announced that next Sunday is by proclamation of Gov. Sleeper Memorial Sunday when we are to do honor to our boys, living and dead, who have fought in the great War. In each church in the morning at their usual services the boys will be remembered and in the afternoon at 2:30 will be held a great community memorial service at the school auditorium. Hon. H. L. Larwill of Adrian has promised to address the gathering and it is planned to present booklets to each attending bearing the names of all from this vicinity, who have served the country in the present struggle. Fearing some names might be overlooked, the audience was asked to give the names of any one from this vicinity in the service to H. H. Hanna Jr. Next Sunday night the Community Service will be held at the Friends church. As it is the time of their Quarterly Meeting, there will in all probability be out-of-town speakers.

Following the collection a song, "Lest we Forget," was rendered by Mrs. E. T. Rosacrans, Mrs. R. T. Meade, Miss Martha Caldwell, W. S. Dickinson, F. C. Dickinson, Floyd Juckett and Thos. Denniston.

Rev. C. M. Thompson took for his theme "Citizenship." He compared our condition, our privileges, liberty, civil and religious, with Armenia, yet thought our citizenship could be improved.

"Will we have a community fit to receive our boys when they come home?" Our boys are better for having been in the training camps and the majority will come home better men.

Will woman's suffrage help citizenship? The clergyman asserted himself a woman's suffragist, not a suffragette. He asked anyone there, sorry that the woman's suffrage question had passed, to stand up.—No one arose.

"There is something wrong with the use of the franchise. Would not the making of condtions of citizenship a little more stringent be a good thing? Is it best to let the foreigner vote with so few qualificaions."

He strongly advocates one flag and one language for our country, aptly illustrating his point with personal experiences. He gave a German's definition of his country as "My native land surrounded by enemies." We let them come from all nations but they should go into the melting pot and become just Americans under the one flag and speaking the one language.

Does Citizenship cost? A great cost of blood. "The ballot holds the stain of blood which was the cost our forefathers sacrifed for our liberty, to give us this ballot and we do not think of it but cast it carelessly."

A good citizen must be an honest man, it matters not where he was born, but he should be an honest American at heart.

He must be a liberal man who gives both of his time, means and talent.

He must observe the Golden Rule, also be a producer, not only of wealth financially but intellectual wealth, health and good morals. "I believe, other things being equal, a man who is a christian, is the highest type of a citizen," and the proudest distinction a man can have, other than being a citizen in Christ's commonwealth is "I am an American."

With the singing of America and the benediction pronounced by Mr. Older the audience was dismissed.

OBITUARY

Wm. J. McLean.

William J. McLean, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John McLean, was born n Tecumseh Mich., Nov. 30, 1879. Later he moved with his parents to Macon township, where his entire life was spent. Five weeks ago he was taken ill with influenza which terminated in pneumonia and he departed this life Jan. 12th, 1919.

In the immediate family are the mother and one sister, Mrs. Martha Kopka, one brother having died in infancy. The father having been called away seven years go, Will was left as the main stay and comfort of his widowed mother. He was a good neighbor and friend, ever ready to lend a helping hand and he will be greatly missed in the home and neighborhood from which he has gone.

The funeral services were held from the home on Tuesday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. Somers of Dundee. The pall bearers were Arthur Weddell, Otto Schoolmaster, Floyd Totten, Revilo Sage, Charlie Schoolmaster and Martin Eggart. Burial in Brookside cemetery, Tecumseh.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends, who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our son and brother; also to the doctor for his untiring effort, to the pastor for his comforting words and to the singers and those who so kindly donated the floral tributes and automobiles.

Mrs. John McLean
Mrs. Albert Kopka
and family.

Mrs. Nathaniel Doke.

Nellie Clement, youngest daughter of James and Mary Clement was born at Franklin, Mich., Feb. 22, 1857, and died at her home in River Rouge Jan. 17, 1919.

In 1879 she was married to Nathaniel F. Doke, who, with one daughter, Mrs. Ethel Mahoney and three sons Frank, Albert and Russel, are left to mourn her los.

Tecumseh, Mich., had been her home until about fourteen years ago when the family moved to River Rouge, Mich.

She was a member of the order of the Eastern Star and Lady Maccabees, also was a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal church and the funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Blakely, at her home Sunday afternoon. Her remains were taken to the home of Mrs. Willam Coller at Tecumseh, Mich., Monday, Jan. 20, where a prayer was offered by the Rev. Thompson, burial taking place at Brookside cemetery.

Mrs. Thomas Wilson.

Mrs. Thomas Wilson died Friday, Jan. 17th at the Delray Industrial hospital of heart trouble, after a few days' illness. Mrs. Wilson had been afflicted with heart trouble for years, but was not considered dangerous, and her death was a great shock to the family and many friends. Deceased was stricken while returning home from an errand on Jefferson avenue a week previous to her death, and was taken to the hospital wehere everything possible was done for her.

Mrs. Wilson was born at Bethel, Pa., March 23, 1867, being 52 years old, and was married to Thomas Wilson in 1886. To this happy union two children were born, Kirby, who lives at home and has a fine position with the Edison Co., and a daughter, Mrs. M. E. Snell of Detroit, who with the sorrowing husband, one sister, Mrs. Anna Hennigan of Springfield, Ohio, and five grandchildren mourn their loss. Deceased had been a resident of River Rouge for 12 years and had a large circle of friends. She was a member of the West Liberty, Ohio M. E. church also a member of the L. O. T. M.

The funeral services were held at the residence, 35 Myrtle street Monday at 2:00, Rev. F. L. Blakely officiating, and were largely attended. The floral offerings were most beautiful and bespoke the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Interment was at Woodmere. The pall bearers were city officials, M. J. Higgins, Daniel Beaudrie, Richard Reno, John Cassidy, and Deputy Sheriffs Sevitt of Ecorse and L. Roberts of Ford City.

Leeches.

"Publishers and editors bleed the poor author to death. They have no mercy."

The speaker was Novelist Arnold Bennett, who went on:

"These profiteers are like the impresario who advertised for a man to do a 40-days' fast.

" 'I'd like to undertake that fast for you,' a shabby chap said to the impresario. 'What is the salary?'

"The impresario gave a scornful laugh.

France insisted that Germany shall cut out the fortifications and limit the Rhine's points of interest strictly to scenery.

Plain Talk.

"Husband, will you have your eggs boiled two minutes or three minutes?"

"Well, let me see. I don't know. I think—"

"Better think quickly. Those eggs are on the fire."—Kansas City Journal.

" 'Oh, he said, 'we can't afford to pay you any salary for a job of this kind. We will, however, stand for your keep.' "—Ex.

"SHIP BY TRUCK"

Interesting Interview With L. P. Williamson.

"Vast motor freight, express, and mail routes will soon spiderweb the entire United States," prophesies L. P. Williamson local Firestone dealer. "Nothing can stop this wonderful development.

"I couldn't begin to cite all the instances. Already mail routes extend from Portland, Maine, through Hartford, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington to 'The Plains,' Virginia. Furniture travels 186 miles from Idaho to Utah in fifteen hours; how many days would old freight method have taken? Packing companies have started to transport fresh meat in huge refrigerator trucks. Live stock is being brought to market in Omaha, St. Louis, and Cincinnati. A daily motor truck line is rendering commercially accessible not less than one hundred miles of Arkansas mountain country. Throughout the West farmers are sending their grain and a wealth of other products to town by means of trucks. Michigan, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, Nebraska, Georgia, Colorado, Illinois, and California, are getting in line with some phase of such motor activity as I am discussing. In fact, Kansas has about decided not to build any more inter-suburban electric tration lines.

"I haven't time to speak of the Interstate Motor trucking Association, recently formed in New York City, and their proposed transportation show this winter in the metropolis; of Secretary Redfield's belief that motor express will revolutionize transportation; of Ontario's $500,000 rural express company and other companies appearing elsewhere; of the increasing use of the motor truck trailer; of the formation of return loads bureaus, or of the possibilities in the way of multiplying our supplies of food, supplying and stabilizing our markets, and even feeding the world.

"The results? Last year, 77,244 hogs enjoyed their last auto ride into Cincinnati from a radius of thirty miles. Your furniture is handled twice instead of six times and benefits accordingly. Your wood is hauled to your chemical plant for one-fourth the former cost. Your fresh meat arrives fresh in six hours instead of shrunken from two days and a half of evaporation. Chicago suburban motor bus routes are spreading rapidly. Between January 1 and June 30, 1918, our fifteen national mail routes averaged more than 2600 miles daily, cleared over $125,000 and justified their being extended to the Pacific. Other figures might be quoted, but these are typical.

"I don't mean to say that motor trucks are going to supplant railroads. They shouldn't if they could. On the contrary, motor service, waterways, and railways are all needed, and none will do its work so well unless it dovetails with the others. But motor trucks transportation has come to stay.

"Why am I interested? Can you blame a Firestone man for feeling somewhat jubilant in view of the fact that half the truck tonnage of America is carried on Firestone tires?"—adv.

It is said that the democracies do not expect to intervene with arms in Russia, the inference being that they are going to dry wash the bolsheviki.

A Tribute.

Editor of Tecumseh Herald:

Thinking that a few words about the life of George Hollister might interest your readers many of whom were long time friends of his. To know George Hollister was to be a friend of his, for he was one of God's noblemen in every sense of the word. He was a member of the Tecumseh Presbyterian church, and was a man whose every day life showed that he was a true christian.

I cannot tell his exact age, but he was not far from 75 years old. He was born and grew up in Canada in the vicinity of Montreal. He learned the miller's trade and worked at it in his native country for several years. A little less than fifty years ago he came to Tecumseh and secured a position in the mill now owned by D. Gratz & Son, usually spoken of as the Quaker Mill. At that time the mill was owned by Woolston Comfort, who afterwards sold his property here and moved to Jackson. George boarded at Mr. Comfort's, and I have often heard him speak of the good times he had when he was living there. Later he returned to Canada and when he came back he brought a bride with him. If I am rightly informed her maiden name was Olive Keller. For a time they both lived in Mr. Comforts family. He worked in the mill about 15 years. He bought some land and since that time has been a market gardener. Mr. and Mrs. Hollister had but one child, Mabel. She was a graduate of Tecumseh high school and also of Ypsilanti Normal college. She followed teaching several years until her marriage to Fred D. Frost, a former Tecumseh boy. Since then they have resided in Oregon. They have two children, Burton George and Isabelle Danforth.

A little more than a year ago Mr. and Mrs. Hollister sold their Tecumseh property and moved to Rex, Ore., to spend the balance of their lives near their children and grandchildren.

Avoid Trouble by Purchasing Healthy Animals.

Farmers and animal husbandmen often can avoid serious trouble among their animals by making careful inquiries relative to the history of the animals they contemplate purchasing for introduction into their herds or flocks. The purchase of an animal lacking a clean bill of health from its birth until the time it is offered for sale, or of an animal from a herd or flock in which an infectious disease is known to have occurred, should be regarded as courting trouble.

It's awfully hard for a man to look sad when his wife is making preparations to spend a week in the country.

Thus far this winter no "egg king" has been unmasked, but from the prices charged on fancies there must be in the back ground an egg kaiser.

ODD FELLOWS CENTENNIAL

CELEBRATION OF ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY

Adrian Lodge Entertains State Officials and Members of Fraternity from Nearby Places.

Some twenty-five Tecumseh Odd Fellows went to Adrian Tuesday evening for the big Centennial me ting and to say they had a big time is putting it mildly. With about 250 representatives from the lodges at Onsted, Deerfield, Addison, Britton and Adrian they met at the I. O. O. F. temple in Adrian and were marched down the center of Maumee street to the Episcopal church where the ladies of that denomination served a most bountiful dinner.

Returning to the hall, a program was given, numbers being furnished by the different lodges. Then Grand Master Geo. Harland of Detroit made an address holding his hearers interested for 45 minutes. Both the splendid personality of the man and the facts he had to present made his speech one long to be remembered. Among his facts were these: That just 100 years ago the order was formed in the United States but it was originated in Manchester, Eng., in 1812. History tells us, however, of such an organization probably its first inception, on the continent, in 1740. In the year 1918 over $7,000,000 was paid out of the general fund of the order for benefits, more than our second Liberty Loan. And this does not include private collections taken among the members for brothers, sick or in distress. Then, too, the order now numbers in the United States 2,250,000 members.

Grand Secretary Fred Rogers was also present and gave another fine talk. P. J. O'Neil of Adrian acted as chairman and introduced these speakers.

After this meeting, the grand officers conferred the grand lodge degree on eight past grands, Albert Foster and J. A. Collins of Tecumseh being among the candidates. H. W. McClure, of the local lodge, acted as grand Marshal.

G. H. Tansley, E. E. Blesing and John Mull remained for the night in Adrian with relatives and the remainder of the bunch arrived home without adventures, better satisfied than ever that they were members of the Odd Fellows order.

SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

G. A. R. Comrades Assist Ransom Mills in Celebrating.

Ransom Mills passed his 75th milestone last Friday and in celebration a party of his G. A. R. comrades gathered at his home in his absence just before noon. When he did get home for dinner the house was full of smiling friends and he was some surprised gentleman.

A great table in the dining room groaned under the burden of a splendid chicken-pie dinner and after that was out of the way there were speaking and singing by the company. Among the speakers, George Keyser, H. C. Daniels, Mrs. Sylvia Davidson and Mrs. Thos. Hanley told how delighted they were to be there and congratulated Mr. Mills on his birthday. The latter responded most heartily. Simeon Whelan of Tipton sang a good old army song and other music was furnished by the victrola.

Mr. and Mrs. Whelan and Mrs. Bouck of Tipton were among the 31 present.

MONDAY CLUB HOLDS OPEN MEETING

Usual Good Program Follows Business Session.

The Monday club held a delightful open meeting this week in the parlors of the M. E. church. The front of the room was gay with baskets of bitter sweet berries and the program which was excellent was enjoyed by an unusually large crowd of members and many guests. After a short business session Mrs. J. H. Smith the president, turned the study session over to Mrs. F. G. Heesen as leader. She announced the following program:

Piano duet, "Love Song from Faust" (Gounod)—Mrs. R. B. Stuckey, Mrs. F. C. Dickinson.

Paper, "Cathedrals of France"—Mrs. Chas. Burridge.

Piano solo, "The Flatterer" (Chaminade)—Mrs. F. B. Wood.

Reading, "A Piece of String" (Guy de Maupassant) —Mrs. Bert Gray.

Vocal solo, "Were My Song with Wings Provided," (Hahn)—Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans, accompanied by Mrs. Ella Hodges.

Paper, "Versailles"—Mrs. Harry Waldron.

Piano duet, "Canzonetta" (Godord)—Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Hodges.

Mrs. Wade Jones and her committee served a dainty lunch after the program and the hour of visiting was very happy.

The club meets next week at the library for their annual election. There will be a short study session also with Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney leader. A paper, "The Trees and Forests of France," will be given by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson and readings will follow from Hugo and Balzac.

The rapid increase in the amount of poultry raised for the table in this country is strong proof that it is becoming more and more popular, and although it may not deserve its popularity on the grounds of strict economy, it certainly does earn it by its attractive flavor, easy digestibility, and the pleasant variety it gives to our meat list.

A WEDDING OF QUALITY

YOUNG FOLKS PUT ON ALL FRILLS

Of the Old Time Society Wedding and Enjoy Fine Time at Home of Mr. and Mr. H. E. Deming.

It has been so long since a real society wedding was solemnized in our village that the little girls were afraid they would forget some of the particulars, so they arranged and carried out this ceremony, true to form in every detail.

Tuesday evening, the home of the bride's "uncle" and "aunt", Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Deming, was filled with friends of the bride, Miss Mary Eleanor Caldwell and Lord Reginald Brunswick, (Margaret Turner), to witness their marriage, Rev. Marion Williamson officiating.

The spacious rooms were transformed into a bower of green. One corner of the parlor was improvised into an altor by a canopy of lace curtains with red wedding bels and festoons of red and green. The dining room was decorated in pink and green, the table, from which a buffet supper of ice cream and cake was served, being banked in pink (paper) roses and (ever)-green.

To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Miss Mary Barrett, dressed in blue silk and chiffon, the party proceeded to the altar, where they were met by the groom, Lord Brunswick and his best man, Sir Sidney Ballingforth-Booth, (Miss Katherine Patterson) and the minister, all dressed in the conventional black.

Miss Caldwell, radiant in her gown of white, with tulle (mosquito-netting) veil simply arranged over her high coiffure, was led to the altar by her father. "Papa" (Flora) Rentschler. They were followed by the sweet little flower girl and ring bearer, Miss Beatrice Barrett, gowned in pink silk, carrying a basket of pink (paper) roses and evergreen; also the ring embedded in a large white (paper rose. Following came Miss Bernice Austin, maid-of-honor, lovely in a gown of white, and the bridesmaids, Miss Geraldine Gillespie, in a charming creation of white with long train, and Miss Alice Hall, sweet in pale blue silk and lace. The maid-of-honor and bridesmaid carried boquets alike of pink (paper) roses and evergreen. The mother, (Miss Helen Deming), in black lace over silk with pink roses, walked alone, followed by an uncle and aunt of the bride, "Mr." Dorothy E. Clark and wife, (Miss) Myrtle Mann, in beautiful gown of white lace.

After the usual congratulations and confetti the groom's suit-case was brought in ornamented with shoes of all ages, size and color, and presented to the bride. Upon being opened it was found to contain the wedding gifts, a large assortment of silver, jewelry, vegetables, etc. also a fine gift of six $1,000 bills from "Papa" Rentschler.

The wedding party was nearly broken up, however, by the minister and best man getting in a fierce quarrel over the maid-of-honor, during which the minister took the best man down, and the horrified hostess, in trying to part them, nearly had her ear torn off, and her small son also being knocked out in the general melee. The fracas continued until the hostess threatened to call the police, and the panting participants were parted.

Cupid must have been busy, for the engagment of Rev. Marion Williamson and Miss Mary Barrett was announced during the evening.

At a late hour the guests departed for home, the men smoking strong black (licorice) cigars and the ladies eating all-day-suckers.

Now that 1918 is gone, the world begins to appreciate what a wonderful year it has been. But, of course, it is too late now to ask it to stay.

What we are stretches past what we do, beyond what we possess.

BITES CHUNK OUT OF EAR

Farmer Near Tipton Gets Hard Usage in Scrap.

Monday Deputy Sheriff Smith received instructions from the sheriff's office in Adrian to investigate a farmers quarrel at the home of Edward Poll, two miles west and two miles south of Tipton.

After driving through some of Lenawee's sticky, slippery clay roads our deputy found Edward Poll had evidently been quite badly used, with head bandaged and the left eye quite generously colored and in a swollen condition. Upon the bandage being removed it developed a bloody right ear with a chunk missing, alleged to have been bitten out by Joe Butler, living two miles southeast of Poll.

Poll testified that Butler came to his home, jumped upon him, struck and bit him, while he does not remember whether he bit his assailant or not.

The trouble arose over the leaving home of Poll's 15 year old son, Poll suspecting Butler knowing of the boy's whereabouts, went to him for information. He claimed Butler told him he knew nothing, but his wife might know. The wife was questioned, but gave no information. Butler evidently resented Poll's questioning of his wife and the melee resulted.

How Hog Cholera is Controlled.

Through work of the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture 5,500,000 hogs were vaccinated against cholera in the last year, and average losses in cholera-infected herds were reduced to less than 13 per cent by the use of antihog-cholera serum. An increase of 168 counties working for hog-cholera control is considered notable, there being 467 counties in the country now engaged in this work, besides 17 states in which activities of this character are conducted.

Representatives of the Federal department visited 15,560 farms for the purpose of making investigations, diagnosing disease, and giving advice regarding control and eradication. Furthermore, 2,056 meetings were attended by 100,190 farmers who were interested in the control and combating of hog cholera. In addition, 2,236 cholera-infested farms were cleaned up and disinfected under the direction of the Federal specialists.

In order that only the best antihog-cholera serum may be used in actual field work, rigid inspection of all serum is necessary. During the last 12 months, of the 271,402,530 cubic centimeters of serum produced in licensed establishments, 2,488,661 cubic centimeters were destroyed as unfit for use. Similar inspection of hog-cholera virus was also conducted for simultaneous use with the serum.

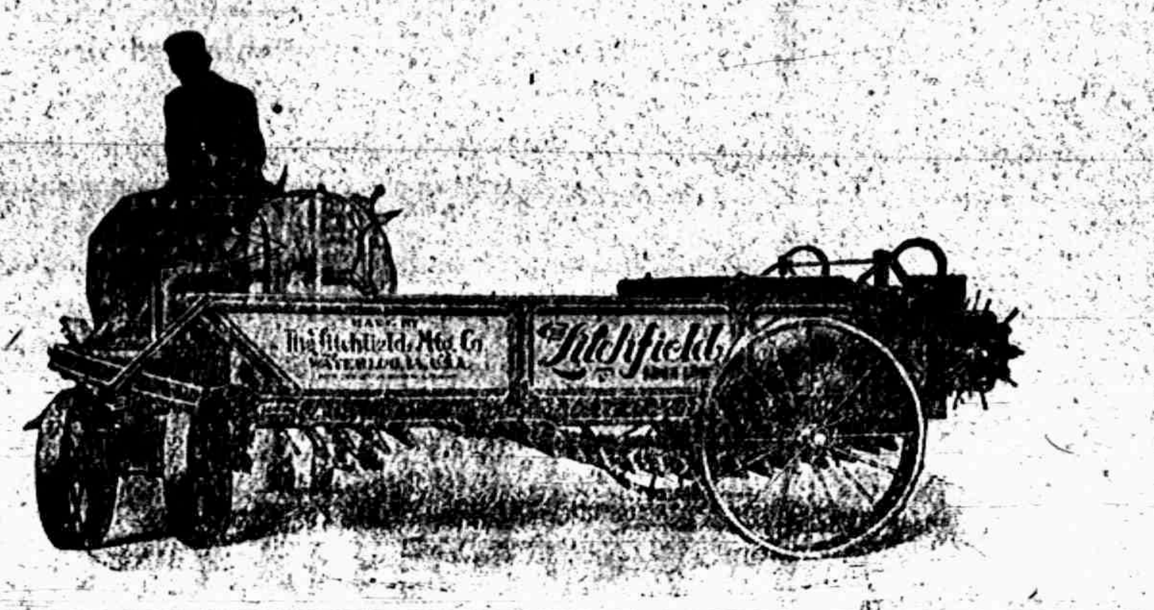
You Are Going To Buy A Spreader This Spring

SEE THE

LITCHFIELD



WHY HAS IT GOT OTHER SPREADERS BEAT A MILE? WE'LL TELL YOU.

Because it has the BULL-DOG BEATER WHEEL which has two lengths of teeth so arranged on the wheel that they intermingle over the entire surface. The long teeth work 1½ inches deeper in the load than the short teeth which follow. These long teeth are the "advance guard" and the short teeth follow and take care of WHAT IS LEFT, so the whole wheel works freely and easily. This is the same principal as the ordinary cross-cut saw with short and long teeth.

WHAT CLOGS A BEATER WHEEL is the material that stays in the load; not what the wheel throws out. It is the material that clogs against the bars and stays in that MAKES THE HEAVY DRAFT. The power required to move the beater wheel if it can move freely is not great. It is the friction of the beater wheel against the material that DOES NOT GO OUT that makes your spreader a "horse-killer."

With the BULL DOG BEATER WHEEL with its two rows of teeth the rear ones carry off what the forward ones miss and there is no congestion. That is why it is so light of draft.

The No-Choke Body

A Beater Wheel runs at a high speed in order to do its work. If it can run against LOOSE AND FREELY HELD MATERIAL its work will be easy. If it has to work against a densely packed wall of manure, its work will be doubled.

Just back of the Beater Wheel, the box of Litchfield Spreader widens suddenly. This gives the manure a chance to SPREAD AND EXPAND itself as it is brought forward to the conveyor. The Beater Wheel can work easily and the draft and wear and tear on the spreader are greatly lessened.

Simple To Operate

ONLY TWO GEARS on the entire Spreader, and ONLY ONE LEVER. One motion of this lever completely operates Spreader.

These are only a few of the reasons why we are proud to offer you the Litchfield Spreader. Come in and see one and let us show you its good points. "Seeing is believing."

"More Eggs" will double this year's production of eggs, so if you wish to try this great profit maker, write E. J. Reefer, poultry expert, 1638 Reefer Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., for a $1 package of "More Eggs" Tonic. LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

From Ernest Church.

Letters from Ernest Church had come regularly to his parents until Nov. 6 when the last one arrived. After a couple of weeks Mr. and Mrs. Church began to worry and still did not hear. Twice has Mr. Church wired Washington, but still no message. But on Monday these letters came to Mrs. Church and the sister, Mrs. A. B. Cheal, of Battle Creek, which we print below:

Dec. 1, 1918.

"Dear mother:—

"I suppose you think I am a great one for not writing lately, but really I haven't had time to think much about writing. I have thought of you folks a whole lot and often wondered how you were. I haven't got my mail in over two months, because I have been on the move from place to place lately and my mail hasn't had time to catch up with me. The 85th Div. was moving around the latter part of October and I was transferred to the 4th Div. on the 1st of Nov. and have been moving around ever since. When I wrote last I had just a few minutes to spare before leaving the 85th which was stationed at a French camp between Toul and ———. The 85th Div. was made a depot division as soon as it reached France, that is, it was held as replacements to fill up fighting divisions. The privates were all taken out of our company as soon as we reached France and the corporals and sergeants were held back. We were stationed for over two months at a little town called Bue, which is near Cosne. We had it pretty easy while there.

I have seen quite a lot of France and now I am in Alsace Lorraine, I don't see any difference between the two, only that things are a little more scarce here than in France, because they have been under German rule for 48 years. The people here are certainly happy because they are freed from Germany. From what I have seen the people don't look starved as was made out; they seem to be in a healthy condition. I won't tell you much more now, I will tell you all about it when I get home, and I hope it won't be long. Now that the war is over, we are all wishing to get back to God's country—the good old U. S. A.

I am getting along all right and I hope you folks are too. I often wonder how things are going on at home. Give my best to father and tell him I will soon be home to work for him, if I can ever settle down to one place. I have been traveling and hiking around so much since I have been in France tht I may want to roam around when I get home.

Well, I think I had better ring off now hoping to see you all soon.

I am Your loving son,
Ernest.

Dec. 1, 1918.

Dear sister:—

Just a few lines to let you know I am fine and dandy. I belong to the 4th Div. now, I was transferred about a month ago and no longer belong to the 85th Div. We are now in Alsace Lorraine as an army of occupation, as you probably know already from the papers. I don't know how long we will be held over here, but I suppose until peace is signed and everything is settled up in Germany. I hope things will be settled up quick, because we all are anxious to get back to the U. S. A.

Being transferred and moving around a lot lately. I haven't got my mail, so I don't know how you folks are, but I hope you are getting along fine.

We had to move across the battle lines last week into Germany and, say, it was some sight to see the towns that are all blown to pieces. Some towns are completely wiped off the earth. The buildings are nothing but a stone pile, as all the buildings over here are made out of stone. I haven't seen a wooden building in France except some barracks that were erected by the U. S. Army. I won't tell you much about what I have seen in my letter, because I will tell you all about it when I get back to God's country—the good old U. S. A. United States is heaven besides these countries over here.

I will come up and see you when I get back to the U. S. Give my best to Ashbel and Frances. I will see you all soon.

Your loving brother,
Ernest.

Dear Brother:—

I received your letter a few days ago and will try to answer it. We are in a small town about eight miles across the Rhine from Cobleny. Since the armistice was signed the censorship is not so strict so I can tell you some of the places I have been. We landed after fourteen days on the ocean at Liverpool and spent about a week in six or seven, so called, rest camps and then crossed to France. We had a couple of days' box car ride to a small town in Southern France where we drilled about a week, then one-half of our company were transferred to the first division. I joined my present company on the Toule front where they were holding reserve trenches. We left there in a few days and went back to a small town named Maxey, where we drilled for about two weeks. Then we went in on the St. Mehil drive. We started at about 9 o'clock in a steady rain and reached the front line and deployed at about 3:30 a. m., where we lay down and waited for the barrage which opened at 5. We went over in the first line until about noon when we went on reserve, stopping in a woods where we found all kinds of abandoned goods in dugouts. They left talking machines, pool tables, a piano and almost all kinds of equipment. I don't remember any dates, but from here we went on the Argonne drive. From here we went to the Verdun front where we went over on the morning of the 7th of November and were just coming back on the 11th when we heard of the armistice. We all had bonfires that night. They were quite a treat as we couldn't have them before on account of exposing our position to aeroplanes.

We have been hiking almost every day since until we reached here. We have good quarters here and get plenty to eat. Things seem more like in camp. We have reville at 6, drill from 8 to 11 and retreat and inspection at 3:30. They say that there is a Y in town but I haven't had time to look it up yet. One of our lieutenants left for the states just a little while ago; about all the boys were wishing that they were in his shoes, but I guess we will get back before long according to the way things look at present.

Will have to close for this time as it is almost time for retreat.

Dear Dad and Girls:—

Received your first letter here today, written Oct. 21st, and will say was sure glad to hear from you and that you are all well and happy for it leaves me the same also was glad to get the picture of you all and it sure looks natural to me. Also got a card from S. P. Hosmer wishing me a merry Christmas and that I sure will try and have. Had a good time Thanksgiving.

From what I read and hear the people must have had some time back there with the "flu" and it sure was a bad thing. Over here we had our nose and mouth sprayed twice a day for about a week to keep us from getting it. This is sure a good country to catch it in for it is awful damp and rain—it rains almost all the time. When it sets in you can figure it isn't going to let up for a couple of weeks. For the past few days all it has done is hail and rain and the air is damp and cold. Have had a bad cold but am getting over it at present and feeling fine. The main thing is to look out for yourself and that is any way.

You people sure must have had a grand time when you heard the good news that the war was over. The Yankee doughboy sure give them h—— and the people over in the states can't give them any too much credit. I myself didn't get up very near the front; was about thirty miles from the lines at one time but didn't stay only two days. We were sent up there to a gas station by mistake and no more than got there when word came for us to return to LeHarve, where we were first stationed, and that is where I am at present. Well, I have seen quite a bit of France since I came over. My first trip was to drive a Dodge touring car from LeHarve to Jor and it sure was the finest trip I have had in all my days and on our way back we stopped off in Paris for almost two days. I took in all the sights I could for the time I was there. Have been through there twice since, but wouldn't care much about seeing it again.

Well I guess I told you in one of my other letters what I was doing over here, am doing transport work and driving a U. S. A. Liberty, and it sure is some truck. You can guess how much time I have off. I work seven days in the week and at that might have to work awhile at night. Anyway I haven't been down town a night in over two months and our camp is in town at that, the way I look at it is me for the hay whenthe work is done.

Jan. 1, 1919.

Well, Dad, am sure feelng fine and getting along first straight and having a good time. You said in your letter that you would rather be shaking hands with me than writing the letter well I sure wish it could be but I guess it won't.

VINOL REMOVES THE CAUSE OF CHRONIC COUGHS

A Constitutional Remedy That We Guarantee

Lagrange, N. C.—"For years I suffered with a chronic cough, so I could not sleep nights and continued to lose flesh. My druggist asked me to try Vinol. It cured my cough, I can sleep nights and have gained twelve pounds. Vinol is the best tonic and tissue builder I have ever taken."—W. D. Ren, Lagrange, N. C.

We guarantee Vinol for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis. Not a patent medicine. Formula on every bottle. Your money back if it fails. C. A. Wright & Son, Druggists, and Druggists everywhere.

Christmas day we didn't have to work and had a fine day of it. Stayed around the barracks almost all day and along toward evening took a walk up town with one of the boys, but didn't stay very long. Am getting to be like an old man, don't care much about going any place after I get through with my day's work.

Today am not working at all and have a pass from one, until twelve midnight, but will write a couple of letters and then go down town this evening. Things seems to be dead "over here" since the war is over and the boys are anxious to get back to the good old U. S. A. Any way I hope that I sure will get back to go to work by the middle of March. We sure had some time here the other evening; had a band down here of French boys from the ages of 8 to 16 years and it sure was a great band. They played all American music and it made a fellow feel kind of funny, just like he would like to be back there for a few minutes.

You were telling me that Bill had good luck in trapping this fall. I imagine this will be a good fall for furs and they will bring good money. I suppose you folks over time. Well here it is plenty of cold weather and snow by this time. Well here it is plnty of mud and rain all the time. The park here is a regular mud puddle. Can dig down a foot or so and find water. Well, Dad, will close for this time and write again soon. Also hoping to see you soon. Love and best wishes to all

Roy.

Dear Mother:—

This is Sunday and we are way out here in a little village about fifteen kilometers this side of the Rhine. It being only three more days until Christmas I guess we will eat our Christmas dinner here. I don't know what kind of a spread it will be, but am not looking for very much. After long hard hiking since Nov. 11 we finally reached the Rhine. We were foot sore from worn out shoes, but otherwise we were in good condition. Such hills I never saw that we came over; it was up one side and down the other. Will mention some of the largest places we came through, so possibly you can by using a map have some idea of the route we came over. At the time that the armistice was signed we were in the town of Brandeville, just across the Meuse river, just north of Dun and from there we went to Languion, Tellancourt, Longuy, those are French towns; we went through Luxenburg to Echternach on the border of Germany, crossed the border December 1. Our first big town in Germany was Dudeldorf, then Manderschied, Mayen, Plaidt, Neuwied, crossed the Rhine at Neuwied, Friday 13, at noon, Rengsdorf, Horshausen, Neustadt, and from there we came here to this little place where we have been for about a week. Some hike especially with one change of underwear and no bath. We are all more-lousey than a pet coon. It used to be that we had lice, but they have got us now. I have a good warm place to sleep. The floor I have to sleep on gets a little hard some times, but when it gets hard I think how much better it is than I had it a little over a month ago when we were fighting—sleeping in cold wet shell holes, and then the boards get as soft as a feather bed.

With Love
Montie.

To My Dear Mother:—

I will drop you a few lines to-lfpef-....tO i-(L sfoOm.SPg night to let you know that I am well. I hope that this letter finds you the same. I hope that you had a very nice Christmas and a happy New Year. I only wish that I were with you. Christmas here was just like any other day to me. We had to move a couple of days before and so we couldn't have very much extra. I think that I enjoyed my dinner just as much as though we had had turkey.

I have a new job now and like it pretty well, that is driving a Ford truck. I drove it through when we moved; it was about 75 miles.

We are now in a town that the Germans were in for 4 years. I sure saw some sights coming through. We saw where they had been fighting. I also saw small towns that had been fired upon where there were no buildings left standing; also big bridges that had been shot down. I have made two trips to Metz since we have been over here. It is only about 22 miles from this town. Believe me it is some place. They have street cars and everything there. I am sending you a couple of cards of it. There are lots of small towns around here that are deserted; the people left before the Germans came in.

I sure wish that I could carry a lot of souvenirs as there are lots of them here.

I am looking for a letter from all of you soon. I think I am going after our mail tomorrow. I have received my Christmas box from you and sure appreciate it. I got it Christmas eve. I hope that Will and the children are well. Well, as it is late and I am tired I will close for this time, hoping to hear from you soon. I remain

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

Camp Custer Officer Speaks Highly of Tecumseh Soldier.

The following appreciation was received by John Kempf from Capt. Newton M. Gillett, commanding officer of Co. G., at Camp Custer, the company to which his son Will is attached.

Co. "G". 14th. Am. Tn.
Camp Custer, Mich.
January 25th, 1919.

Mr. John Kempf, Tecumseh, Mich.
My Dear Mr. Kempf:

In a few days your soldier William Kempf will receive his honorable discharge and start for home.

He is bringing back many fine qualities of body and mind which he has acquired or developed in the Military Service. The army has done everything it could do to make him strong, fine, self-reliant, yet self-controlled. It returns him to you a better man.

You have been an important member of that great Army of Encouragement and Enthusiam which helped to make him and us all better soldiers. You can now be a great help in keeping alive the good qualities he is bringing back from the army, in making him as good a citizen as he has been a good soldier.

His fare and necessary expenses to his point of induction will be paid by the Government. He will receive all pay due him. He may, if he wishes, wear his uniform for three months from the date of his discharge. The Government will also allow him to keep up, for the benefit of his family, his insurance at the very low rate he is now paying.

His return to civil life will bring new problems for you both to solve. The qualities he brings back will help you now as your encouragement helped him while he was away, and in your hands and his, rests the future of our country.

As his Commnading officer, I am proud of him. He has done his duty well. I, with his comrades, will bid him good-bye with deep regret, and wish him every success after he returns home that spot in every man's heart no other place can fill.

Sincerely yours.
Newton M. Gillett
Capt. Inf. U. S. A.

SOCIAL MEETING HONORING NEW MEMBERS

Westminster Guild Give Surprise Shower for Miss Rector.

The session of the Westminster Guild Tuesday evening was held at the home of Mrs. J. F. Rector, with Mrs. C. D. Beebe and Mrs. W. G. Waldron assistant hostesses. This was not a study meeting, but a social evening to honor the many new members.

Mrs. R. B. Stuckey called the gathering to order and Mrs. R. M. Moiles led in prayer. Miss Wimple read the scripture lesson from the 103d Psalm. A vocal solo, "I'd nothing else to do," was given by Mrs. Eugene Billings, accompanied by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson.

After a short discussion of business came a quizz of flower titles by Mrs. Rector and, with a jolly little speech, Mrs. Waldron introduced a new member. In came, the motive power being furnished by several of the society, a fair damsel labelled "The To-Be Mrs. Calhoun." Behind this handsome lady came a tea wagon packed high with parcels.

Miss Edith Rector, whom the society was thus honoring, was certainly surprised as she had heard nothing of the fact that the meeting was to be turned into a shower for her, but she was hustled to the front and covering her confusion bravely, greeted her rival kindly.

The gifts from the different members proved to be a beautiful collection of pictures, linen, kitchen ware, china, silver, in fact all sorts of little things for her new home, and beside each had brought her favorite cooking recipe, which the bride-to-be promises to try and feed the Guild the result at the meeting they invited themselves to hold with her.

The hostesses served refreshments and the Guilders departed for home after welcoming the new members and wishing Miss Rector a long and happy life with the man from Raisin.

Community Memorial Exercises

HONORING TECUMSEH SOLDIERS IN THE GREAT WAR.

School Auditorium Filled With Large Audience—Eloquent Address by Judge Harry L. Larwill of Adrian.

The community memorial exercises held at Tecumseh high school auditorium Sunday afternoon were splendidly successful as a public demonstration honoring soldiers of the great war who have a claim upon Tecumseh as their home town.

At 2:30 the high school military training class headed by a band of musicians under the leadership of Lester Coller, marched to the school house to the strains of spirited music. Their arrival showed every seat in the auditorium taken.

Wilfred Orr, Died in Action in France.

A neat program folder containing a two-colored print of our beloved flag, he program of the exercises, the honored dead, ladies in Red Cross service and an honor roll of the soldiers of Tecumseh and vicinity, had been prepared by a committee from the Commerce Club and were distributed about the audience.

John R. Nyland, president of the Commerce Club, presided over the meeting. In a few well chosen words he announced the object of the meeting, in accordance to the request of Governor Sleeper.

Music by the band was the opening number, followed with invocation by Rev. C. M. Thompson of the Methodist church.

In introducing the Temple quartet, Chairman Nyland remarked upon the difficulty experienced in getting this splendid musical organization together. Hence, he said, the people would the more enjoy hearing the quartet. The quartet sang "When the Boys Come Home," and hearty applause was evidence that the singing was appreciated fully.

Chairman Nyland requested the audience to stand during the reading of the names of the honored dead — Leigh Brown, M. H. Hawkes, Rexford Gady, A. P. Mills, James Snyder, W. A. Orr, Everett Reed and W. R. Robinson. Mr. Nyland also explained that extra efforts were made to obtain a correct honor roll, but mistakes would occur, and he requested any omissions noticed would be handed The Herald, so a correct list could be published.

After another selection by the Temple Quartet, Mr. Nyland introduced Judge Harry L. Larwill, so well known to Tecumseh people, as the speaker of the day. Every member of the committee, he said, was glad when Judge Larwill consented to speak here, for they knew that he had the heart and ability to pay the tribute due the boys.

Judge Larwill in his introductory remarks expressed his deep appreciation for the privilege of speaking a little while to the people of Tecumseh. This splendid outpouring of citizens, he said, is not merely the result of the request of our governor to honor the soldiers, it is because of the realization of what the boys have done in order that our citizens can live in peace and quiet. The guns have been silenced, the kaiser's dreams shattered and we now feel and know our obligations to the boys that met and fought the enemy.

It is only through bloodshed, suffering and sacrifice that the world progresses. In the sixties one hundred thousand stalwart boys took up arms in defense of the flag and so firmly has the foundation of our republic been laid in the heart's affection of men that 2,500,000 stalwart boys laid down the ease of civil life, joined the army and were ready to pay the penalty of service. Sixty thousand stalwart sons will not come home. They are lying over there in that honored, sacred soil that you and I may live in peace.

At the beginning of the war we didn't know whether it was our quarrel or not, and months went into years before the truth came home to us. Our president wished to remain neutral, but the purpose of the central powers became so plain that we could not remain neutral longer. We were threatened by that monster on the German throne. He started the war with a lie. The mighty machine that had been preparing for over forty years was turned upon an unsuspecting and unprepared world. The truth was acknowledged that two great principles were at stake—one represented imperialism—not only of Europe, but all the world. But our stalwart men loved their homes so strongly that they went over, met the enemy and beat him at his game. Down in our hearts there was a fear that our boys could not go over and meet the enemy, that they had degenerated, but from field, factory and business house, at the clarion call of our chief magistrate came ten million men who wrote down their names. Over two million went over. Ours was the last free nation to save the free institutions of the world. For three months English and French armies had been falling back until the middle of July when our marines and soldiers met the enemy at Chateau Thierry, halted them and never let them gain another foot. They proved themselves still worthy of the institutions given them by their fathers and forefathers.

Judge Larwill stated emphatically that had the great machine stood by the two million boys another week the returning German soldier would not have been welcomed with the remark "You have never been defeated on the field." The boys drove that machine back and broke through that much talked of Hindenburg line. The boys are entitled to every bit of praise we can give them. They have paid the price — they have done their duty.

Has the conflict been in vain?

Everett Reed, Died in France of Pneumonia.

he asked. Will there be war again? Never before in the history of mankind has there been such a war of magnitude. Fifteen millions of men under arms at one time; ten millions laid down their lives. The speaker here paid a splendid tribute to the boys of Michigan and Wisconsin, the boys that formed the 32nd division that fought in the thickest and at such heavy loss.

Judge Larwill declared President Wilson a great statesman, and it is our duty to stand back of him because he stands for a principle that finds a place in the heart of every loyal Amercan. The President is over there to make wars impossiple.

Disputes between men that have formerly been settled by fisticuffs are now settled in courts. There is no reason why nations should not settle their differences before a properly constituted tribunal. For over a hundred years there has been in existence a treaty between the United States and Great Brittain and during that time 57 vital questions that would have led to war were settled by arbitration.

English and French statesmen failed to stop the war because Germany had a lustful, covetous eye on France. The kaiser saw the yellow metal flowing into the United States treasury and it was his boast that he would make us pay the war bill.

After endorsing President Wilson's league of nations plan, the speaker again called attention to the duty we owe our boys. We owe them more than words. We must stamp out bolshivikism; we owe it to the boys to stamp out this doctrine that can only come from hunger and vice. We owe this to ourselves for our own safety.

"It is a pleasure to meet with such an audience," said Mr. Larwill. Tecumseh and Tecumseh township have done splendidly in this war by responding so willingly to every call. We can justly feel proud of our accomplishments and of the large number of boys that responded so readily to the call of the country that human liberty may again be safe in the hands of the people and that the benefits of our institutions can be handed down for generations of men to come.

The address of Judge Larwill was one of eloquence, full of homage to the boys who sacrificed their all to perpetuate the freedom of the world.

A patriotic selection by the band, followed the address and the large audience was dismissed with benediction by Rev. Thompson.

LILLIAN WITHERELL

Young Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Witherell Dies Tuesday.

Lillian Emma Witherell, the 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Witherell, passed away Tuesday at 6 a. m. Always frail, an attack of influenza just after Christmas left her in serious condition and for a couple of weeks she has gone down rapidly. The remains were brought to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Will Coller, Tuesday and the funeral is to be conducted from the residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Lillian was born in this village Nov. 12,1918, and removed with her parents to Bridgewater two years ago. The olny child and of a very lovable disposition she was the idol of the home and her loss leaves an aching void, nothing can console.

TECUMSEH VICTOR IN EXCITING CONTEST FRIDAY NIGHT

Big Lead of First Half Could Not be Overcome by Saline in the Final Period.

A very exciting game of basket ball was staged on the court of the orange and black Friday evening when the T. H. S. quintet took victory by the margin of twelve points. The final score was 23 to 11.

Saline was badly outplayed during the first half of the game the strong defense of Tecumseh bearing all the attacks of the Saline forwards. Tecumseh's team work, while it had much room for improvement, surpassed that of the visiting team, and their organized effort resulted in a gradual extension of the margin between the two teams during the first 20 minutes of play. Hanham started the score for Tecumseh, during the first minute of play. Murphy soon followed with an accurate shot for basket at a distance of 35 feet. At this the fans started a deafening series of exhortations that served to bolster the confidence of the Tecumseh players and shake that of the visitors. When the whistle sounded the ending of the first half the score was 13 to 2.

When the second half opened Tecumseh went in with more pep than ever and the game grew a little more rough and more fouls were called. Saline took advantage of (their 9 shots and made) their free shots and made 5 out of 8 chances count for points. Saline displayed a little better offensive work during the last half resulting in two field goals.

Tecumseh's strongest point was speed. VanWinkle and VanVleet were all over the floor and into everything. Hanham was a surprise, outplaying his man every minute, and leading his own team in aggressive, offensive play. Becker covered his man so well that he came near having as many fouls called on him as the law allows.

Saline 11—Schill, L. F.; Stimpson, R. F.; Westfall, C.; Bracy, L. G.; Schlay, R. G.

Referees—Laidlaw, Morris.

Scorers—Brooks, Hunt.

Girls—

Tecumseh 13—Anderson, L. F.; Hardenburgh, R. F.; McConnell, J. C.; Hall, S. C.; Comfort, L. G.; Gilbert, R. G.

Saline 22—Sturn, L. F.; Wittbracht, R. F.; Nadeau, J. C.; Hall S. C.; Rentschler, L. G.; Krager, R. G.

Referee—Warner.

The girls considered themselves not badly beaten considering the condition of the team. The team did not show bad playing in the least. We are sorry to say that the Saline girls were sadly coached. They had evidently been practising with the boys. That tells of their tactics.

Tecumseh has plenty of good material and with a little more practice should be able to end the present season with a good record.

MUNICIPAL PROBLEMS

STREET SPRINKLING, ELECTION PREPARATIONS

Rennovating and Improving Council Building Questions Discussed at Regular Meeting of Village Dads.

Several matters of municipal importance came up before the village council at the regular meeting of that body Monday evening. The meeting was called to order by President Fisher, and the minutes of the preceding meeting were read by Clerk Service. Bills were read, audited by the finance committee and ordered paid by the council.

A communication from the Manton council asking assistance in securing legislation to remedy alleged unjust soldiers' tax exemption was read by President Fisher. As our trustees believe that the soldiers of the Civil war are entitled to anything they can get, no action was taken.

John R. Nyland, representing the executive committee of Tecumseh Commerce Club appeared before the council and requested a committee be appointed by the council to confer with the Commerce Club executive committee in regard to the sprinkling problem.

This question brought up considerable discussion as to whether the village should furnish the sprinkler and free water for the business distroct A suggestion that the sprinkling be combined with street work was strongly protested against by Mayor Fisher. He was against anything that would mix the village with the sprinkling matter—it should be divorced, he said.

The councilmen, taking into consideration that the business district paid the largest proportion of the taxes, were willing that the Commerce Club should have free water and the sprinkler which they should maintain, providing the sprinkling is confined to the business district.

A motion by Trustee Barrett empowered the president and building committee to renovate and repair the council building where necessary and to arrange booths for the coming spring election. The addition of the woman's vote will necessitate more booths than had been used heretofore, and these will be placed conveniently on the first floor of the council building, thus eliminating the climbing of stairs by the ladies.

Bob [illegible] presented his report regarding the care of the fire truck. The care of the truck since January 12 cost $24.65. This included two recharging of batteries and some repairs.

President Fisher made the following election appointments:

Board of Election Commissioners—Trustee Kemp, W. L. Coller, Frank Snell.

Gate Keeper—Henry Sweet, Geo. Van Tine.

Trustee Pulver brought up the matter of a raise in salary of the street commissioner, who has been given the additional work of keeping up a fire in the council building and other janitor work. All realized that the street commissioner's salary of $60 per month was low, but as there are only two more months in the fiscal year, and as street work is light now the trustees were not in favor of raising the salary.

The light committee was authorized to have a switch to control the "white way" lights placed in the office of the Barrett house.

Council adjourned.

KEMPF-HOAG

Marriage Tuesday Evening of Well Known Young People.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kempf on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, took place the marriage of their son, Leonard Henry, and Miss Marion Margretta, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hoag. Rev. W. A. Rex performed the ceremony using the ring service, only the immediate families being present. Mrs. Prindle, of Ridgeway, was the out-of-town guest. The couple were unattended. The bride wore a blue serge traveling suit.

Refreshments were served following the ceremony and the happy couple received the best wishes of the company.

Both are well known young people of the village, where they have lived their short lives and they start on their lives' journey accompanied by the wishes for all things good from their many friends. Mr. Kempf recently returned from Uncle Sam's service and is a carpenter, working with his father, who is a well known contractor.

Editorial Comment

While many have expressed themselves favorably in making Tecumseh dustless this summer by street oiling, not one person appeared at the council chamber at the regular meeting of the village dads Monday evening. That people are not interested is not the reason for neglect in starting the ball a rolling, because the favorable expression has been too frequent to draw such a conclusion.

People interested in a dustless village should not rely upon the council to make any arrangements in the matter, for, unless a demand or petition is made the council is powerless. The Commerce Club is not in position to take up the matter. It is up to the residents entirely.

No doubt some of those interested prefer to await the election of a new council. It has been hinted that there may be placed on the board a lady or two, or perhaps three, and the result of the election is waited for before starting the move.

As things stand now and are likely to stand if no move is made by property owners, residents along the main thoroughfares are doomed to eat dust this summer and the health of the community will be endangered.

Something should be done about the summer dust menace—whether the streets be sprinkled with water or oil. But there will be nothing done if every person depends upon his neighbor to start something. Don't let the opportunity go by until it is too late.

To the Tecumseh Commerce Club is due praise and credit for arranging and carrying out such a splendid memorial program last Sunday. The club willingly shouldered the expenses and responsibility and to their credit stands one of the best community meetings Tecumseh has enjoyed for some time. The band boys and Temple Quartet also have the thanks of the commuity at large for their services.

Classed among the most cowardly is the person that writes annonymous letters. Perhaps the offenders do not look at their acts in that light, but they must remember that others do. Unsigned communications should be given no consideration. The writer proves his or her insincerity or malicious tendency by keeping secret their identity.

Among these writers are great (?) reformers who dare not say their name's their own and of late Mayor Fisher has received a number of the pesty annonymous missives. Why don't these a "mothers" or "fathers" who seem to know that "bad" places exist in Tecumseh come out in the open and stand up for their rights like men and women. Mayor Fisher requested The Herald to inform writers of unsigned letters that if they will make charges over their signatures they can secure quick action.

Some of the coming women electors have been laboring under an erroneous impression in regard to registration. They have been under the impression that one registration would entitle them to vote at both village and township election. This is not the case. They should give their names to both Village Clerk Service and Township Clerk Hanna. New male voters must do likewise.

CAPT. MILBURN H. HAWKES

Tribute Read by Rev. Widdifield at St. Peter's Church Sunday, February 2, 1919.

One of the many officers in the American overseas army who gave their lives that freedom and democracy might live, was Captain Milburn H. Hawkes, a genuine product of Tecumseh, although he had not resided here for 16 years prior to his death. He was killed in action in the Argonne forest by a high explosive shell at 4:50 p. m. on September 30th, 1918, being the first man to fall as he gallantly led his company over the top in that terrible eight days' engagement.

The unstinted measure of praise accorded to him, not only by his ranking officers and comrades in arms, but by business men with whom he was associated in civil life, bear witness to the fact that his duties of whatever nature they might be, were performed in a painstaking and efficient manner.

It is always such men as he who make good soldiers and leaders, and Captain Hawkes was a chevalier, without fear and without reproach, possessing in a rare degree the esteem and confidence of his comrades and all others with whom he came actually in contact.

Captain Milburn H. Hawkes was born in Tecumseh township, May 13, 1883, in a house in the grove on Minor Davidson's farm. He was the son of George C. and Amelia McNeil Hawkes. When a year old his parents moved to Britton and there Milburn lived for fifteen years, attending school and living the life usual to a boy in a small country village.

In 1899 the family moved to the farm of George Hanford on the Adrian road and Milburn attended the Tecumseh High school for some time. Later he went to Brown's Business college in Adrian and graduating from that institution in 1902, he went into the Equitable Life Insurance office at Detroit, first as office boy and then as assistant to Mr. W. B. Taylor, the cashier.

In March, 1906, he entered the employ of the American Radiator company, in its Detroit branch and continued with that company until April, 1911, then to U. S. Radiator Co. until 1916.

He was married to Miss Edith C. Dowland on August 20, 1910, at the home of her parents in Ludington. On this occasion as he stood talking with the clergyman who married them, a friend made a snapshot photo of him and later wrote, in sending one of the pictures to another friend, as follows:

"We do not wonder as we look at his photo that someone has said:

As beside the vine covered porch he stood 'neath the tree,
Waiting for her who that hour his bride should be;
For aye and for aye to the end of the goal,
His visage and mien showed a greatness of soul."

As a boy in Britton he showed a marked fondness for things of a military nature, and making fence slats into wooden swords, he organized, equipped and drilled a company of his boy companions with the ability and precision of a military commander. It was not to be wondered at, therefore, that when later in life he became a member of the Michigan National Guard, he showed the same ability and proficiency that he displayed in this mimic soldier play.

His military record as given in the official records of the military department of Michigan, shows that he enlisted in the National Guard at Detroit, June 9, 1903, for three years. He served as private, corporal, sergeant, and 1st sergeant of Company A, 1st Infantry up to August 9, 1914, when he was appointed 2nd lieutenant of infantry and assigned to Company A, 1st Infantry; May 14, 1915, the organization was changed to Company A, 31st Michigan Infantry, and with it Lieutenant Hawkes saw service on the Mexican border in 1916.

He was given his captain's commission June 28, 1917, was assigned to Company D, 31st Michigan Infantry and was drafted into the Federal army August 5, 1917.

He went overseas with the 32nd Division—the second division to see foreign service, and the one which has seen, probably, the hardest fighting of any division of the overseas army. The division was in reserve until July 30th, when it was sent into action near the Vesle river and Fismes, participating in the great eight days' engagement.

In August the division was sent to Soissons where it had a seven days' fight and lost between 4,500 and 6,000 in casualties. As before stated he was killed in the Argonne forest September 30, 1918.

Many of his former employers, ranking officers and friends have paid tribute to his worth in letters, they have written to his family.

W. B. Taylor, his first employer, said of him: "Captain Hawkes was well liked, while he was with the Equitable, always efficient and painstaking with his work. I was very sorry to hear of his death in France, but I was not greatly suprised because I knew he would be in the thick of the fight wherever he was and would therefore, be exposed."

The American Radiator company, through G. R. Anthony, the manager of its Detroit plant, said "We all knew him as an efficient member of our organization and he was much liked and respected by all of us. Many of us knew him intimately in his work in civil life and as a soldier in both of which he made a splendid record."

In a letter to Mrs. Hawkes regarding the report of her husband's death, Colonel John S. Bersey, Adjutant General of Michigan said of him: "He was one of the finest men I ever knew. While I was not in the same company with him, I was his battalion commander for a number of years and I learned to rely on him as an excellent officer, a fine man and a gentleman. In fact, I cannot speak too highly of him, and my regret regarding him is most sincere."

In a letter to Geo. G. Hawkes of Tecumseh, the Captain's father, Colonel Bersey said: "We cannot but feel that he gave his life for the best cause possible, and in so doing he has glorified himself and helped materially in saving the world from its terrible menace. I know that you are proud of the captain's record and justly so."

Governor Sleeper, in a letter of sympathy to Mrs. Hawkes said: "Captain Hawkes' name will be inscribed on Michigan's honor roll, and in making the supreme sacrifice we know that he will not have died in vain. The golden star on your service flag will serve to remind you that in Democracy's darkest hour, he offered his life in order that Liberty and Justice might still live."

In a personal letter to Captain Hawkes' widow, his 1st Lieutenant, Francis M. Missig, at that time acting captain, said among other things: "Allow me to extend to you my heartfelt sympathy in your hour of bereavement. The whole company sympathizes and sorrows with you, as we lost a true and efficient leader."

A fiitting closing tribute to his memory is found in the poem by J. Brainard Thrall, entitled

The Captain.

"He was a captain born and bred. In years
Though yet a boy, he was a man in soul,
Led older men and held them in control,
In danger stood erect and quelled their fear.
When death calls such a captain, he but hears
As 't were a distant bugle and the roll
Of far off drums. We wrong him if we toll
The mournful bell. Give him our cheers, not tears.
Through deadly scorch of battle flames and gas,
Through iron hail and burst of shrapnel shell,
Smiling as when we played at mimic war,
He was our leader. Is it then not well
That he should lead before us to the stars?
Stand at attention! Let his brave soul pass!"

Also these lines by Edgar A. Guest:—

"Against the danger that we dread—
Against the word that he lies dead,
If it should come—we have the pride
Of knowing that he put aside
All selfish pleasures and was glad
To give the Flag the best he had.
If it must be that he shall fall,
His spoken words we can recall.
When time has dried our bitter tears.
His voice shall speak throughout the years
And we shall hear him whispering low,
"Far worse than death were not to go."

St. Nazaire, France, Dec. 21, 1918

Dear Ones at home:—

Again I take up the pen to drop a few lines to you. It is raining again this afternoon as usual; it would not do for us to have two sun-shiny days in succession.

I have been put on as one of the guards at the casual kitchen for a little while anyway, but I am liable to be taken off any day. I was on from 2 to 6 this morning. In all these big camps, particularly in the base camps, they have these big kitchens where they feed men going through. The men who come here to wait for transportation all eat here.

They fed 8,000 at this place this morning. Of course this is one of the largest in France. Bacon was one thing they had. When it was all cooked they had four big cans about 4 feet high and two feet in diameter full; also 33 pans of corn syrup, each one about 12x12 x16 inches, I imagine. They have about 100 negroes around here helping. It is interesting to visit one of these kitchens and see how they cook things. Of course, they use lots of canned goods that do not have to be cooked.

They worked about three hours yesterday afternoon opening corn beef, most of which comes from South America. Aunt Hazel spoke about the bacon in one of her letters. The bacon has been coming in tin boxes about 4x4x12 inches, but now I notice lots of it comes in long sheets put up in wax paper then boxed up in wooden boxes. Nearly all the bacon comes from Swift & Armour's. However, all the beef comes across in cold storage. Lots of it is better then when it is fresh. We quite often have bacon for breakfast and beef for dinner at our own mess. This morning we had hot cakes; they sure tasted pretty good.

Well I guess I will have to close for this time. Lots of love,

Pvt Jeptha Wade Van Valkenburg

One man in every sixty is partly or wholly color blind.

In many parts of the country, especially on farms, chicken is probably much cheaper than beef as only the cost of production needs to be considered. When chickens, and, for that matter, any poultry, can be raised with little labor and can find most of their food, or use up otherwise useless table refuse, skim milk, etc., they ought to be a very economical and agreeable substitute for pork and beef and to be used liberally.

Do You Perspire Freely?

Why should you buy borated Talcum Powder to prevent perspiration odors when you can buy the pure Boric for less money? It's the boric acid in talcum powder that does the work. Then, use the pure thing—20 Mule Team Powdered Boric.

It has a soothing effect on the skin—it is an antiseptic as well as a deodorant and does not clog up the pores as most talcum powders do.

Use 20 Mule Team Powdered Boric and save yourself the embarrassment of perspiration odors. A little of this preparation, sprinkled in the bath water will work wonders.

20 Mule Team Powdered Boric is sold at all good drug stores. ad

THE WORLD IN TROUBLE

CONSCIOUSNESS OF SIN IS NEEDED

Sermon by Rev. Howard Moore at Community Service at Friends Church—"Tecumseh Night" at Presbyterian Church Next Sunday Night.

The little Friends church was packed to the walls, prayer meeting room included, Sunday evening at the Community service. The Quarterly meeting had been in session for two days, so many in the audience were Friends from out of town, but they enjoyed the service never-the-less. The song service was led by the Friends choir conducted by their pastor, Rev. Edw. Escolme.

Rev. C. M. Thompson led in prayer and the various announcements were made.

Rev. Rex announced the next Sunday evening service a "Tecumseh Night" at the Presbyterian church. He is planning to make the services as they are held at that church a series of "Tecumseh Nights," this to be No. I.

Rev. Escolme introduced Rev. Howard Moore of Ypsilanti, superintendent of the quarterly meeting, as the speaker of the service. He began with a few happy sentences renewing his acquaintance with the Tecumseh people, whom he has met in various lines, as superintendent of the Raisin Valley seminary and a frequent visitor in our village.

He lamented the fact that "the world is in serious trouble tonight." Our troubles over yonder certainly were not finished with the signing of the armistice and in our own country it is strikes all over. But we must put our faith in the ever present Saviour of the world. We need the same old Gospel.

The text, "He will convince the world of sin" was frequently quoted. "We have given sin a sugar coating, not realizing its seriousness." He used as an example of sin's starting from the little mistake or beginning, the really excellent collection of bugs and moths next door at Elmer Lockwood's. There the tiny egg is shown and the further development until out appears a great ugly bug.

The church of Jesus Christ should be the strongest organization in a town and more towns should be knwn, not by their auto industry, their colleges, or prisons, but by their great faith.

The only solution for the world's ill is the sermon on the mount. No education, culture can produce a remedy for the troubles in the world, it must be the indwelling of God's spirit. It is the spirit of unbelief which damns the world. When the church itself becomes filled with the spirit the people outside will begin to look for the Power behind it all. We need a consciousness of our sin. The Prince of the World is our judge and the devil the conquered foe, but so often we are not in the right attitude to receive the Holy Spirit.

Then Miss Evangeline Reems, superintendent of the Friends Rescue Home of Columbus, Ohio, was introduced and told a Christmas story, of her work at the Home and the serving of Christmas dinner at the Columbus city prison.

After another song Rev. W. A. Gurtis, the new pastor at the Baptist church, dismissed the audience with benediction.

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB ENJOYS JOLLY TIME.

A Program of Farcical Stunts Makes Decided Hit.

The Wit and Wisdom club met Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Service for one of their jolly pot luck dinners. On their calendar this was "All Fools Night," and the program which followed surely carried out the idea.

The entire program was a mock meeting all the way through. First came the secretary's report and all male members who had absented themselves from the last meeting on account of other de-tractions were excommunicated from the club for two weeks. The names of Herbert Hoover, Henry Ford and John B. Smith were presented to take the place of these excommunicated members. After a vigorous discussion pro and con these names were laid on the table and turned over to the club's physician, Dr. North for examination.

A communication was received from Frank Turner, relieving his heart of a burden which had laid long upon it. This advocated the establishment of a beauty department for the club, for the purpose of answering all questions relative to it and in an endeavor to control the price of cosmetics. After a long and solemn discussion it was voted that the club was not in need of such a department.

A composition on "The Horse" was read by Wilfred Walrdon and was a stunner.

Then Freddie Dickinson appeared for a musical reading, "You've got the flu, boy," from the latest Italian opera. He received such a rousing encore he responded with "Toneful Tonsil Talk." Mrs. Dickinson accompanied him and the playing was as original as were the readings.

Next, Alexander Hamilton Blackstone (Rev. Rex) pleaded the case of his client who had stolen two pounds of butter. He was dressed for the part and his persuasive ability freed the client.

Then ensued a discussion of the quetion of the club taking up military training. Wilfred Waldron was suggested as commander on account of his late experience and setting up exercises.

The program closed with a field meet, when a shot put and running broad jump contest caused much excitement. The shot put was won by Supt. Reed when Albert Howard didn't miss once putting the raisins either in his own or Mr. Reed's mouth. The broad jump was a close contest between Albert Howard and Frank Turner, only here they measured the smile. In the former case the umpire decided on 6 ft. 6 in. The jolly night will long be remembered, needless to add, by the club members.

Quarterly Meeting

SERIES OF MEETINGS AT FRIENDS CHURCH.

Good Attendance and Interest—Miss Reems, Rescue Home Field Secretary Tells of Work.

The Adrian quarterly meeting of Friends was held at the Friends church in Tecumseh on February 1st and 2d. The weather was all that could be desired and there was a good attendance at the various meetings.

On Saturday morning a meeting for worship was held at which time Rev. Frederick J. Cope of Adrian brought a most acceptable and timely message. After the meeting an excellent lunch was served by the ladies of the church. This was followed by an interesting business meeting. The reports covered six months' work, as no quarterly meeting was held three months ago on account of the influenza.

Miss Evangeline Reems, field secretary of the Friends Rescue Home at Columbus, O., spoke at the evening meeting. She told of some of the conditions that exist in the large cities and showed the needs of radical changes being made in these matters by citing some cases she had had to deal with. She also told of life in the Friends Rescue Home, dwelling on both its pathetic and its humorous sides.

On Sunday morning an impressive memorial service was conducted by Rev. Howard Moore of Ypsilanti. This was followed by a message by Rev. Charles Williams of Emporia, Kas.

Lunch was served Sunday as on Saturday.

The Sunday afternoon meeting was conducted by Miss Reems. She spoke of the reconstruction work being done by Friends in France under the civilian branch of the Red Cross; also the special work of rescuing the fallen.

In the evening was held the community meeting, reported elsewhere.

Cheaper Fuel!

The memory of last winter will be with us a long time. To prevent the same being repeated this winter, upon the advise of the Fuel Administrator, we purchased heavily of coke.

The weather has been mild. We have coke that has got to be sold in order to make room for spring goods, and the price has got to move it.

Coke is worth, and ought to sell for $12.00 per ton. We are going to sell it for $8.00 per ton delivered; $7.50 not delivered, besides, we are going to screen it over the regular hard coal screen.

Compare this price with hard coal or soft coal and you will readily see it is the most economical fuel money will buy.

We are going to limit the time of this offer; so to get the benefit of this price, place your orders at once. You can well afford to buy your next winter's fuel supply.

In an item last week regarding W. L. Coller's next dance, we got our dates mixed. It will be a Lincoln party on the 12th of February instead of the 22nd.

There was much rejoicing on the street Saturday when word came that the 85th Division (of which only the skeleton remains) began to embark from France, Jan. 18th and were to be all at Custer by February 25th. How true this report is remains to be seen.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Anderson and little Mary Eleanor came up from Toledo Saturday. Faron has been transferred from the Lion store at Toledo to one owned by the same firm at Cincinnati, starting for that city Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Anderson and daughter will remain here for a few weeks until apartments can be procured.

The Alumni of the Tecumseh high school have purchased a beautiful immense service flag graced with 51 stars which was hung at the back of the stage in the auditorium before the memorial service of Sunday. There have been 57 members of the alumni in the service and the balance of the stars will be added as quickly as possible.

The Ladies' Athletic association is gaining new adherents each day. Their meeting at the school "gym" Tuesday evening was enthusiastic and they are already real adepts in their setting up exercises and marches. The committee having charge for next Tuesday are Mrs. Charles Burridge, Miss Cardwell and Miss Marian Rosacrans.

Convicts seem to leave Jackson prison at their pleasure lately. Monday Deputy Sheriff Smith again received three photos and identification cards of three convicts who walked away from the clay pit Saturday, Feb. 1. The men wanted are: Verne Boyd, aged 33, sentenced Nov. 30, 1915, to 10 years for rape from Wexford county; Raymond Sparks, aged 28, sentenced July 16, 1918, to 10 years for attempted rape from Kalamazoo county; Ora Dennis, aged 43, sentenced May 31, 1916, to 5 years for larceny over $25 from Bay county. The usual reward of $100 is offered for the capture of the escapes.

Miss Nannie Kyle is in receipt of a letter from B. F. Weld saying that Mr. Weld has been called to the Second Presbyterian church at Newark, O.; and that they were moving there. Rev. Weld, a recent pastor of the local Presbyterian church, was in the "Y" work during the war, acting as chaplain on a transport, resigning in December. This pastorate carries with it a salary of $2400 with a congregation of 630.

Russell Blesing arrived home from over seas service Sunday, having been discharged from Camp Custer on Saturday. Russell enlisted at Detroit, December 6, 1917, was placed in the ordnance department and has been in about every camp he possibly could reach this side of the Mississippi. First at Detroit, then Columbus, Grant, Sheridan, Hancock and Upton. In France he was also at many camps, returning as a casual to New York, January 24th. Here he spent a few days at Camp Merritt, then back to Custer. In all his travels he saw only one Tecumseh man, Lieut. Harold Tribolet, while at Camp Hancock.

Karl Kaiser was the guest of his sister, Mrs. S. Henry Smith and family from Friday to Tuesday when he went on to Cleveland to visit friends. Karl has been in the 32nd Division of which we are so justly proud, and wears their emblem, the red arrow. He sailed last February, leaving New York on the day the Tuscania was blown up just after the boys had heard of the affair, which, too, took some nerve.

He was a musician with the 125 Inft. band, and the 20th of July, while helping their bugler manage his horse, was badly hurt. They were on the road to the battle of Chateau Thierry and the horse became frightened. Whether it was Karl's French of the crashing of the great cannons, he was not sure, but when he got out of the mix-up he had a smashed leg. He was toted on a stretcher all over France, at last landing in the Harper Unit hospital where the crushed bone in the leg had to be rebroken and he is now just recovering. He walks with only a slight limp. Karl received his discharge at Louisville, Ky., last Friday.

ST. PETER'S LADIES' GUILD

A very pleasant, interesting and instructive meeting of the ladies of the Guild of St. Peter's Episcopal church was held at hte parish house Tuesday afternoon. The early part of the afternoon was devoted to business, the president, Mrs. L. C. Hayden, presiding. Rev. Widdifield then took charge of the meeting, and with stereopticon views gave a history of the church and its progress in the states and Alaska. Mrs. Perry Satterthwaite read the descriptions, many depicting the difficulties of the missionaries in the early days, and the wonderful progress that Christianity has made, the schools, churches, cathedrals and hospitals that have been erected. Beginning Wednesday, Jan. 29th, and every Wednesday until further notice, we will take in and test all cream at our store. We have installed an electric Babcock tester which assures accurate test.

Our prices for BUTTER FAT will be regulated so you cannot afford to ship your cream out of town, as the expense of shipping, together with losing a can occasionally, will net you less than we can pay you. You can bring your cream at any time, but we will test on Wednesdays only.

We respectfully solicit your cream business and assure you of courteous treatment at all times.

IT'S NOT YOUR HEART IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. A majority of the ills afflicting people today can be traced back to kidney trouble.

The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filterers, the purifiers, of your blood.

Kidney disease is usually indicated by weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago.

All these derangements are nature's signals to warn you that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammations and destroys the germs which have caused it. Do not wait until tomorrow. Go to your druggist today and insist on GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In twenty-four hours you should feel health and vigor returning and will bless the day you first heard of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil.

After you feel that you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep in first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks.

Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. Three sizes. Money refunded if they do not help you.

A Warning

FOR PROMPT RELIEF FROM Grip, Sore Throat, Cold in Chest and all Inflammation and Congestion, Cream of Mustard gives instant relief and comfort to the sufferer.

It is far superior to mustard plasters or any liniment on the market. It relives congestion, inflammation and pain almost instantly. It takes the place of plasters or liniments for colds, pains and aches.

It has produced wonderful results with thousands afflicted with sore throat, tonsilitis, stiff neck, neuralgia, congestion, rheumatism, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, colds in the chest, bronchitis, croup, headache, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints and chilblains.

Every household should have a jar of Cream of Mustard in the medicine chest for emergency. Ask your druggist; 25c and 50c jars, hospital size, $2.50.

Putting Pounds on Porkers.

Boys' and girls' pig clubs in Ames, Iowa, lately have been making big records in pig fattening. Information just received by the States Relations Service, United States Department of Agriculture, shows that one boy, for a period of 123 days, made a gain of 2.39 pounds a day on his pig; another, 2.26 pounds a day. Twenty boys have averaged 2 or more pounds a day.

"It is the best record from the standpoint of rate of gain that we have ever received," says Frank O. Reed, the pig club leader in Ames. Some excellent gains and unusual profits also have been made in beef fattening. Several members of the boys' corn club report over a hundred bushels to the acre, one showing 135, 126, and 124 bushel yields.

Don't Fool Yourself.

A man suffering from backache rheumatic pains, stiff joints or sore muscles may laugh and say these symptoms of kidney trouble "don't amount to anything." It is folly to ignore Nature's warnings. Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief in kidney or bladder troubles and "it is better to be safe than sorry." Sold everywhere in Tecumseh.—adv.

13 Dollars— 13 Cents

When Swift & Company paid, say,—13 dollars per hundredweight for live beef cattle last year, the profit was only 13 cents! In other words, if we had paid $13.13, we would have made no profit.

Or, if we had received a quarter of a cent per pound less for dressed beef we would have made no profit.

It is doubtful whether any other business is run on so close a margin of profit.

This is bringing the producer and the consumer pretty close together—which should be the object of any industry turning raw material into a useful form.

This remarkable showing is due to enormous volume, perfected facilities (packing plants strategically located, branch houses, refrigerator cars, etc.), and an army of men and women chosen and trained to do their special work.

This, and many other points of interest, are found in the Swift & Company Year Book for 1919, just published which is brought out for the public as well as for the 25,000 Swift & Company shareholders.

The Year Book also represents the packer's side of the Federal Trade Commission investigation, upon which Congress is asked to base action against the industry.

Many who have never heard the packer's side are sending for the Year Book.

Would you like one? Merely mail your name and address to the Chicago office and the book will come to you.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

Sgt. E. L. Burdette to Mr. and Mrs. Barron Pennington.

France, Dec. 25, 1918.

Dear Friends:

I cannot but feel impelled to write you a few lines of sympathy that you may know one who still feels the loss of one most dear to him; also, is lonesome because of the loss of your cherished one. I am not gifted with the expression of our deeper inner feeling in words; but, as I write, that song, "Sometime, somewhere, we'll understand" comes to my mind and what a comfort we find therein.

Father is about now in receipt of a letter telling of how I have frequently inquired of those from the supply train on detached service with us, for John and in that way learned that he was in Laguey, near Toul, and on the following day (three weeks ago last Tuesday) was enabled to go and see him. You will know how glad we were to see each other and I cannot but mention how well he was looking. So it is that last evening was a lonely one for me when I was told the sad news.

This morning, I went to the American soldier's cemetery and, that you may know all is properly marked, I will say I located the grave. In the morning, I will get a floral piece and I should like to do more if possible but our government is doing all it can do in every way that all may be well.

I saw the boys this evening, where John was located and they have already written to you. They are good and kind and I feel that they did all they could for him.

I could not but thank them for you but realize that they felt for him as do comrades. As one said, "Everyone liked John." So, in the sorrow of the hour dear old neighbors, as John was taken while in honored service of his country, let us e're be mindful that there is still the service of one, the Redeemer of All, ever bidding us to labor for the Master, that some day we may all be comrades in eternity, where parting and sorrow shall be no more. May your continued work for the good help to sustain you during your present hours of saddness. As ever, I am

As ever, I am
Your Neighbor-boy,
Ernest.

Dear Dad: Well, you undoubtedly have on your mind, Oh! where is my wondering boy tonight? Well, I am here in Russia. It may as well be "Hell"—you would understand me better. Anyhow, I am well and getting fat, eating 3 meals each day. Traveling is at low tide just now, but may start at any time. Us travelers you know get so we don't like to stay in one place too long.

We have had snow, but at the present time, mostly mud. The weather hasn't been very bad, as yet. Exceptional for here, they say. I dare say we haven't had a glimpse at the sun in a month and we have about 6 real hours of daylight.

It don't seem possible that I have been in the army one year Nov. 19. What a lot of things have happened during that time! My birthday next July, I want you to give me a new start in life, I think when we all come home I will need it. We hear good news from France and hope it will soon be over there. It may have some effect on these heathens up here. They don't know what they are fighting for here. Write and try to send papers, they may come thru some time. We pray for letters and news, but it seldom comes. Well give my best to all the folks and hoping you are well.

I am your son,
Earl.

Dear Friend Ken:

Received your most welcome letter and magazines and was glad to get them, as reading is the best thing I know of to pass away the time.

We are having plenty of work now guarding the lines. We are at the most advanced place in the American line, at the left of Coblenz, across the Rhine, which we crossed Friday, Dec. 13. Not such an unlucky day for the Americans, unless some die from pneumonia, for it rained like h—— all morning and we stood with our packs on two hours waiting our chance to cross.

We started on our march to the Rhine on November 17 from Louppy, France, hiked for four days, reached Linguvy, a city on the Luxembourg border. Leaving there we went into Belgium for a few days' guard duty. We were used fine by the Belgium people who have been civilian prisoners.

We left there and stopped in Echternach, Luxembourg, billeting in a university. Left there and reached this place on the 17th. One month of real work and God only knows how long we will be here, but I don't expect to see snow in the States when I reach there.

Well, Ken, there is only one incident that I forgot to mention. On November 11th our regiment was laying in support, ready to go in the next morning. That night when we heard the armistice was signed, believe it was the greatest news that I ever heard in my life.

Best regards to all. As ever,
Your friend,

VINOL MAKES GOOD BLOOD

Positive—Convincing Proof

Many so-called remedies for anaemia are only so in name. Their makers are afraid to prove their claims by telling what their medicines contain. The only way to be honest with the people is to let them know what they are paying for. Here is the Vinol formula. When the doctor knows what a medicine contains, it ceases to be a "patent" medicine.

℞ Cod Liver and Beef Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates, Iron and Ammonium Citrate, Lime and Soda Glycerophosphates, Cascarin.

Any doctor will tell you that the ingredients of Vinol, as named above, will enrich the blood and banish anaemia and create strength. When the blood is pure and rich and red, the body is strong and robust.

You can prove this at our expense because your money will be returned if Vinol does not improve your health.

THE NEEDS OF TECUMSEH

AS SEEN BY OUR BUSINESS MEN.

Shortcomings of Tecumseh Industrially, Socially and Morally, Brought Into the Limelight at Big Community Service Sunday Night.

About the largest congregation yet to attend the Community services packed the Presbyterian church to the doors Sunday night in response to the advertisement announcing that the merchants would preach the sermon.

Following a song sermon the First Psalm was repeated in unison, led by Rev. Thompson. Rev. Edward Escolme read the scripture lesson from Romans, 12th chapter, and Rev. W. R. Curtis invoked the Divine blessing.

It was announced that next Sunday evening's service would be held at the Baptist church, Rev. Curtis to preach on "The Loyalty of Jesus."

During the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers" Rev. Rex asked the ministers to leave the platform and make room for the merchants who were to address the gathering. Then Rev. Rex produced a sheaf of letters, answsers to some he had written business men asking the greatest need of our small city industrially, socially and morally, and also asking for remedies for these needs.

The answers were of a great variety, yet all pointing out the defects in Tecumseh as seen through the eyes of the business man.

Industrially our needs were pointed out by the majority to be the lack of co-operation among our business men; that we need more get-together meetings; that we should instruct the secretary of our Commerce Club to get in touch with the secretaries of city clubs and boom our town, advertising our advantages and trying for new industries, and that we donate a site to any reliable concern. Others suggested backing up what we have; that the Heesen, Hayden and Brewer people never asked a bonus from the town; that the Quaker Oats company have this year spent $75,000 in their new addition to their local plant; that not many men have done more for the town than bighearted Dolph Heesen and our friend "Fitz;" and we ought to boost and pull for our own home manufacturers.

Another wrote that labor is employed according to those that wish to work and we are primarily an agricultural district and should not solicit more new industries, but plan to work closer with our farmers for their benefit.

One man emphasized the fact that we were lacking in loyalty to our home merchants, that with two splendid bakeries in town we need not have such a line of bread baskets from outside concerns in front of our groceries, and that the families of our merchants themselves need not find it so handy to go out of town to shop. One stated that even men on our village council buy their merchandise "from a book" and are patrons of a mail order house.

In regards to our needs socially, the ideas seemed to center about the lack of good places of amusement for our boys and girls. One advocates that our gymnasium be open six nights a week, that the library be open seven days and nights a week. Another that we have more attractive and commodious voting place. Another suggests that we make the West Branch school house into a community house. Several objected to business places being open on Sunday, that it is not fair for aliens to come here and disregard Sunday and spoil the business of our local business men.

The new agricultural course in the high school was praised repeatedly. Several spoke for better financial support of our churches. One man laments the fact that we have given the boys nothing to take the place of the saloon we have removed. The Y. M. C. A. also came in for theirs, that they had slipped over Tecumseh and nothing along their line seemed to be in our circle.

Morally the crying need is for the restriction of gambling and guard for our girls between the ages of 12 and 16. In regard to the former one man asserted we had six gambling joints running wide open, that our town is known by the traveling men all over the state as the most wide open town in Michigan in this regard, and that one holds open until 5 a.m.

Rev. Thompson spoke out and asked if it was not the duty of our sheriff to look after such. Rev. Rex answered quickly, "We'd have to get a hornets' nest after him to make him do anything," that the town authorities didn't seem to be able to stop this so it must be the duty of the clergy.

As for our young girls, one suggested that parents keep a closer guard over them, that a curfew law be adopted and enforced. One thought a society of ladies should be formed to care for these girls and do for them what seemed to be lacking in their homes.

One spoke of our little boys fighting on the road home from school; that his boys come home looking as though they had been through another battle of Chateau Thierry, instead of along the streets of a peaceful village. He thought the teachers should watch them; that some of the same teachers should return to school themselves, and he would like to turn that school board inside out.

One suggested that there be a community meeting each month for the discussion of these industrial, social and moral needs.

Rev. Rex on Monday morning received still another letter desiring that something be done to find work for our returning soldier boys. We haven't yet felt this need as we will, but we must be prepared.

To avoid any danger of the names of the writers of these letters being divulged, they were burned. Rev. Rex called for the church coal hod and Janitor Linn produced the same. In this receptacle, in the presence of the congregation, fire consumed the communications.

THE ROLL OF HONOR

Following are the names of those who call Tecumseh home that answered the call of the country in the great war. The names of those who made the supreme sacrifice were printed last week in the report of the community memorial service. Bishop Williams In Clinton

GET-TOGETHER MEETING OF CLINTON EPISCOPALIANS

Members and Friends of St. John's Parish Feast and Enjoy Talks by Bishop Williams and Mr. Gilbert, Layman and Detroit Business Man.

The Clinton Episcopalians and friends of St. John's parish were honored last evening by the presence of the Rt. Rev. Charles Williams, bishop of the Southern Michigan Diocese, and Mr. Gilbert, layman and prominent as a Detroit business man.

The ladies of St. John's church served a chicken pie dinner at the town hall, in the old family style —well filled plates, with toothsome side dishes, salads, doughnuts and cakes. The tables, covered with snow-white cloth, were arranged to form a huge cross—the symbol of the church.

At the finish of the feast Bishop Williams gave one of his well known forceful talks, in which he emphasized the necessity of Christian religion to the progress of the world. High education is of no real value without religious consciousness. Among the greatest criminals of the world are highly educated men. Bishop Williams asked his hearers what they would do if Christianity, the root of all decency, was extracted from the world, or from their midst. "How much do you owe Christianity, or your church?" he asked. Many a man will spend a dollar a week for tobacco and women will spend a like amount for movies and candy, and only give a paltry five cents to the church. He closed with an eloquent appeal for the people to stand by and back their church, and then introduced Mr. Gilbert as the real speaker of the evening.

Mr. Gilbert spoke mainly on the financing of the church and the spreading of the gospel. As vestryman of St. Paul's Cathedral, president of the Men's Diocesan club, one of the sponsors of Detroit's baby church (Grace) and member of the vestry of that parish, Mr. Gilbert has had considerable experience in church financing, and of this he gave freely to the assembled people. The war has proven the efficacy of prayer to such a degree that the people at home had to sit up and take notice. The biggest thing in business today is religion. Men can be relied upon in business transactions because of their Christian character. Mr. Gilbert had been told of Clinton's record in war enlistments, Liberty bond investments and Red Cross membership, and felt that with such record St. John's church should receive their loyal support. He told of the financing of the Detroit Cathedral and Grace church, and said a little effort here would accomplish like results.

Rev. Widdifield drove the distinguished guests to Ypsilanti last night that they might lose as little time as possible.

Exhibit of Dresses

PROGRESS OF DOMESTIC SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

In Our School Demonstrated by Excellent Display of Garments Made by Students.

The ladies who attended the exhibit of the domestic art classes at the school building Friday afternoon were highly delighted with the girls' sewing. The Senior girls had dresses on display which would truly be a credit to the best shops. The materials ranged from silks and pongies to gingham and the work on all was daintily done. Two of the Senior girls exhibited tailored skirts which were beauties. On the whole line was much hand work and most remarkable of all is that in October some of these girls did not know how to wear a thimble.

A nice assortment of underwear, many handsomely trimmed, filled several tables, and at the back of the room was a line full of cover-all aprons, the labor of the seventh grade girls.

Each article is made to fit the maker and even the small classes take up the work with enthusiasm. The mothers there were proud of the work of the young ladies, many of whom are learning now the things the mothers could not teach as they in their day had not learned the art of sewing as it should be taught. Frequently was the lament heard that "They did not give me this advantage," one lady saying "I was born too soon," and yet are we that much more grateful that our girls can now have this advantage. Mrs. Laidlaw, domestic science instructor, it is, who should have the praise for the excellent work accomplished.

At the American Express office another consignment has been waiting over a week for a claimant.

CALHOUN-RECTOR

WELL KNOWN YOUNG PEOPLE JOIN FORTUNES.

Miss Edith Rector Becomes Bride of John Calhoun, Supervisor of Raisin Township.

A party of fifty relatives witnessed the simple ceremony which on Wednesday united the lives of Miss Edith Rector and John Calhoun of Holloway, the wedding taking place at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. B. J. Rector.

The guests were met at the door by the bride and groom, who at high noon took their places unattended in the parlor before the bay window which contained a background of greenery. Rev. W. A. Rex performed the ceremony, using the ring service. The bride wore white voile with pearl and satin trimmings.

Following the ceremony and congratulations a three-course dinner was served. Two tables were spread in the dining room and several small tables in the sitting room, the former were adorned with American beauty roses and green, while a dainty pink and crystal candle adorned each of the smaller tables, and at each plate was a pretty place card.

The dinner was served by the Misses Mi[illegible] and Marjorie Boyce, Melba Baird and Madeline Boyce and F[illegible]k Miller.

As the guests were leaving the tables a signal was called and the bride and groom were captured and carried by the young men of the party to the front part of the house. Soon a great truck drove up equipped with a big bass drum and bearing signs of "just married," the whole in charge of Frank Snell. Into the truck were bundled the newlyweds and after them climbed a crowd of the young people and all were given a jolly ride around town, especially down the main street.

Present from out of town were Albert Boyce of Columbus, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Webb Kay of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Macham, Mrs. Lawrence Samson and Mrs. Bert Giles of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Baird and daughter, Melba of Adrian, Miss Marjorie Boyce of Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Will Calhoun and daughter, Catherine, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Nixon and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McIlroy of Holloway.

Both young people are well known in this vicinity, with hosts of friends. Miss Rector has for some time been bookkeeper in the Tecumseh State Savings bank, previously holding a like position in the auditor's office with the Macaroni company. Mr. Calhoun is a well known farmer, now supervisor of Raisin township. The couple will live on the groom's farm near Holloway.

A bunch of the young people visited the home of the couple in Raisin last night and certainly made life interesting for a little while, cutting up the usual naughty capers.

Hayden took six of the boys, Samuel Sisson, Russell Abbott, Webster Anderson, Thomas Meade, Dale Bowen, William Beardsley to Toledo to the annual "Father and Son" banquet of the Toledo organization of the Boy Scouts. The dinner was held in the large banqueting hall of the Lasalle & Koch store. It was the largest banquet ever held in Toledo over 1,000 being present. The music was by the band from the Great Lakes Training station. Throughout the dinner the different troops kept the air ringing with yells and songs. After the tables were cleared away the Commissioner Judge Aaron B. Cohn spoke to the men present of the things that had been accomplished and that were planned for the future. With over 2,000 scouts in Toledo at present the aim is 3,500 before the end of the year. He asked the Scout leaders in the different lines to stand. Among them were the leading professional life. The speaker most eagerly listened to by the boys was Dan Beard, who had been brought from Virginia for the evening.

Editorial Comment

We regret very much that something like three columns of good news matter was crowded out of The Herald last week. Among this was a good report of the Methodist centenary, the Memorial service at St. Peter's church and many other matters of interest, besides some notices. It was simply a case of getting to press in time to catch the mails or delaying the issue a day, and that to an up-to-date publisher is a serious matter. There was no time for extra pages or of making careful choice of the overflow matter.

Some people, of course, think it an easy matter to publish a newspaper, but we are ready to prove that it is some job, especially in Tecumseh. Here there is not enough co-operation. Too much matter that might be handed in Monday comes in Wednesday or even Thursday. We should know every Monday the amount of space local advertisers desire and the copy for same should be in the office Tuesday. It is of great importance to the business interests of Tecumseh that its representative newspaper should be published on time and issued in a presentable manner. It takes time to set attractive display advertisements and it also takes time to arrange the matter attractively in the paper. When two and three days' work is crowded into one it is a mighty hard job.

We believe in time things will adjust themselves. Readers are becoming more and more attached to the home paper and look for its delivery on time. They will remember to hand news items in early in the week.

Merchants will become more firm in their belief that people look for their weekly announcements and their advertising copy will come in regularly the first of each week.

For the best interest of community welfare Tecumseh should have a good newspaper, and to have such is needed the co-operation of readers and advertisers. So, please, brace up and give us such co-operation as you can to build up community welfare.

The general verdict was that last Sunday's Community service at the Presbyterian church was the most interesting of the series held so far. The reason for this is the uniqueness of the affair—that subjects were broached that interested about every individual in town. The meeting was termed "Tecumseh Night No. I," and the subject under discussion was the needs of Tecumseh industrially, socially and morally.

To a non-resident reader the report of the meeting on another page may present Tecumseh in a rather bad light, but when special efforts are made to pick flaws results are certain to come. The Herald reports expressions as made by business men through letters, some of them pretty strong perhaps but it does not desire to place our town in a bad light. There is nothing wrong here that cannot be remedied. Steps in the right direction had already been taken.

Several answers to the question "What do you consider the greatest industrial need of Tecumseh?" hit the nail squarely on the head—more co-operation. With the right kind of co-operation Tecumseh can do almost anything, and our social and moral needs would practically be taken care of.

By co-operation we do not mean that the business men of the town should clique together alone and work out mutual benefit plans. They should co-operate with the townspeople to make the town attractive to visitors as a trading center and a residence place. They should co-operate with the farmers, show them that they are wanted in town, not only for their trade but also for their personality. They should do their best to serve the farmers economically with merchandise and keep them informed of their stocks.

One business man answered that the town needs advertising. This is another great truth. The Herald is read by at least 6,000 people in and around Tecumseh, yet half of the business places are not represented in its advertising columns. Do these business men mean to show their disregard of the buying public by refraining to extend an invitation to visit their stores? They probably do not think of it in that light.

A fine sentiment was the suggestion that we should back up what institutions we have—these fine labor-employing institutions that we have—and give them credit for the good they have done the town industrially. The smaller institutions of the town should also receive more loyal support.

The main suggestion as to our needs socially given out at the Community service—better places of amusements—have had some attention by our men. The school gym is being quite well utilized and other plans are being made. Important among these is the Boy Scout movement, mention of which was not made. If that movement is carried out year after year, many of the social and moral evils will disappear.

Moral needs seemed to hinge around restrictions of gambling places and the guarding of young girls. Gambling is illegal and any citizen can have such places closed by furnishing proof to the county prosecuting attorney. Our young girls should be guarded, and it is sad indeed if parents cannot exercise proper control over them.

But take the situation altogether, a more co-operative, community spirit, town team work, all pulling in the same direction would go a great way toward making Tecumseh a better town industrially, socially and morally.

Dustless streets were not mentioned at the Community service Sunday night. We might mention here, however, if the streets had been oiled last summer they would be dustless this month of February. We might also suggest that when oiling plans are really made Tecumseh streets are wide enough so one side could be oiled and the other used for traffic until the oil soaked in. Then the other side of the road can be treated to oil.

Going to have two village tickets in the field this spring. Good sign of progress. Better opportunity to secure the best of service.

Women voters have been registering fine. Guess Tecumseh is going to poll some vote this spring.

DISCHARGE FROM SERVICE

Father Receives Letter Praising Soldier Son.

The following official notification was received by Edsel Brooks of the honorable discharge from military service of his son, R. D. Brooks:

"E" Co., 2nd Bn. 160 Depot Brigade. Camp Custer, Battle Creek.
December 23rd. 1918

Mr. Edsel Brooks,
Tecumseh, Mich.

Dear Sir:—

A few days ago your soldier received his honorable discharge and started for home.

He is bringing back many fine qualities of body and mind which he has acquired or developed in the military service. The army has done everything it could do to make him strong, fine, self reliant yet self-controlled. It returns him to you a better man.

You have been an important member of that great army of encouragement and enthusiasm which helped to make him and us all better soldiers. You can now be a great help in keeping alive the good qualities he is bringing back from the army, in making him as good a citizen as he has been a good soldier.

His fare and necessary expenses to his point of induction will be paid by the government. He willl receive all pay due him. He may if he wishes, wear his uniform for three months from the date of discharge. The government will also allow him to keep up, for the benefit of his family, his insurance at the very low rate he is now paying.

His return to civil life will bring new problems for you both to solve. The qualities he brings back will help you now as your encouragement helped him while he was away, and in your hands and his rests the future of your country.

As his commanding officer, I am proud of him. He has done his duty well. I, with his comrades bade him good-bye with deep regret, and wish him every success after he returns home, that spot in every man's heart no other place can fill.

Sincerely yours,
George H. Curry.
Capt. Infantry.

"THE BIRTH OF A RACE"

Events Portraying Democracy's Struggle.

"The Birth of a Race" at the Bradley opera house Thursday and Friday nights was one of the most interesting photoplays shown in Tecumseh. While there have been created more elaborately sensasional plays, "The Birth of a Race" stands in the fore ranks for its intrinsic value in historical records.

The play showed the struggle of love and peace from the time of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden against the avarice and jealousy of human nature. At the time of Noah warring tribes were destroyed by the flood, Noah and his peaceful family being saved by the construction of the ark. The story of Moses saved from the bulrushes to deliver the Israelites from bondage to freedom and the story of Christ and his crucifixion that the seed of peace and the brotherhood of man should be perpetuated were interestingly depicted, along with beautiful and gorgeous scenery.

Coming down to the world war a story of romance was interwoven with machinations of German propaganda in a steel institution in this country owned by a German born, who, before he became aware of it, was completely in the toils of the enemy. The bravery of our boys in the trenches was also shown, among the scenes many humorous incidents.

While the play was long, it was interesting throughout.

Christian Church Notes.

Mrs. Fay Wiggins and her Sunday school class enjoyed a fine time Thursday evening with the Misses Grace and Helen Hoagland. Music and various amusements followed the business session. Light refreshments were served.

An interesting program was given last Sunday followed by the Sunday school. The services for Sunday morning will be in charge of the ministerial committee with Sunday school following.

At a union service held Sunday evening Judge B. L. Hart gave a splendid talk on the issues of the day using the three points moral, educational and self government as a basis for his remarks. The entire talk was especially interesting to lady voters.

M. P. Church Notes.

Rev. S. Tamblyn, Pastor.

Mrs. Shaw of Grand Rapids was here Tuesday in the interest of the W. C. T. U. She gave interesting talks in the afternoon to the pupils in the school and in the evening to a fair sized audience, in the church basing her remarks on America's Greatest Problem. There is some hope or organizing a W. C. T. U. in this place.

Don't forget the annual donation to be held, Feb. 14, in the church parlors. A chicken pie supper will be served. Everyone invited.

The usual services will be held both morning and evening to which all are welcome.

Death of Mrs. Elzie Kniffen.

Friends and neighbors were saddened to learn that Mrs. Elzie Kniffen had passed away at one o'clock Tuesday morning, death being due to pneumonia following an attack of influenza with which she was stricken about three weeks ago. Alma Auten-Kniffen was born near Cone June 22, 1895, thus making her only 23 years, 7 months, 19 days old—just in early womanhood. On April 21, 1910, she was united in marriage to Elzie Kniffen and to this union five children, Viola, Russell, Donald, Carl and a 7 weeks old baby was born and they with her husband, father J. B. Auten of Cone, one brother Arbie Auten, of Detroit and one sister Mrs. Harris Jackson, of Dallas, Texas, survive and keenly feel their loss. She was a devoted wife and mother to her little family and is indeed sad that home ties have thus to be broken. Her mother, who passed away when she was a small child, is already in that land of sunshine to welcome home her child. The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 at the house and were conducted by Rev. Samuel Tamblyn. The remains were laid to rest in Ridgeway cemetery.

MRS. E. C. BROWN

PASSES AWAY AT ANN ARBOR HOSPITAL

Widow of the Late Postmaster Brown—Funeral at St. Peter's Church Sunday.

Mrs. E. C. Brown, widow of the late Postmaster Edson C. Brown, passed away at the U. of M. hospital, Ann Arbor, at 12:40 Friday morning at the age of 53 years. Frail for a number of years the death of her husband last October was a sad blow. She moved to Ann Arbor to be near her daughter, Miss Bonnie, who was then finishing her course in training as a nurse. The latter completed her course and was on the nurses' registry. She was on a case in Chelsea when on Tuesday, Feb. 4th, she received a dispatch to return home at once as Mrs. Brown was very ill. The sick lady was cared for at the U. of M. hospital, the daughter at her side, and Mrs. Eulah Bates coming out from Detroit as she could until the final summons came. The cause of death was euritis.

Emma West Brown was, when a girl, a resident of St. Johns, Mich. Following her marriage to Edson C. Brown they resided at Bannister, Addison, and then coming to this village in 1896. She was an open hearted, happy disposition and won friends easily. Connected as she was with St. Peter's Episcopal church, the Order of the Eastern Star, the Pythian Sisters, Monday Club and several other social clubs, she was very well known in the village and the community unites in sympathy for the daughters in their double loss.

Undertaker Belding and George Hines drove to Ann Arbor Saturday for the remains of their friend and the daughters, and the remains were taken to the Hines home. On Sunday the casket was open from one to two at St. Peter's church so the many friends could once more look upon their dear one's face.

At 2 o'clock Rev. J. G. Widdifield read the beautiful burial service of that church and Miss Edna Taylor sang "The Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," a favorite of Mrs. Brown's. The bearers were George Hines, E. T. Smith, J. F. Rector, Henry McClure, O. G. Hunt and Wm. Barrett.

Coming for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Warner Bates and two children, of Detroit; Miss Bonnie Brown, Ann Arbor; Herman Ward and daughter, Mrs. Bottom, Mrs. John Anderson, Frank Anderson and son, Hestal, Miss Edna Pino, of St. Johns; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Casteline, Maple Rapids; Mrs. Alvert and Miss Julia Shattock, Adrian; Dr. Ralph Pino, Detroit; Lieut. Otto Pino, of Watkins.

SNEDECOR-YOUNG

Marriage of Young People at Toledo Saturday.

We clip the following from Saturday's Toledo Blade:

"Reverend A. J. Dean performed the marriage ceremony of Miss Helen Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Young and Kenneth Leon Snedecor, in the residence of Bishop Schrembs, at 10:30 this morning. Only the families and a few friends witnessed the ceremony.

"The bride, who was unattended, wore a tailleur of dark blue tricotine with harmonizing hat.

"Mr. and Mrs. Snedecor left for a short eastern trip."

Kenneth, who is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snedecor, was born and grew to man's estate among us and is highly respected. That he is hustler is proven by the excellent positions he has held in Tecumseh, Jackson and Toledo, at present being at the head of the advertising and publicity department of the Owen Bottle Machine works. He was recently discharged from Uncle Sam's service where he had been commissioned lieutenant and spent several months in overseas service.

The bride has won a number of friends here in the few visits she has made to the town by her charming personality and the best wishes of the village folk are theirs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snedecor were in Toledo Saturday, guests at the wedding.

Every one is going to "The Doll Shop, Feb. 27." adv

HOME FROM OVERSEAS

Sergt. Harold Hardy Receives Honorable Discharge.

Sergt. Harold Hardy arrived home Tuesday. He left New York June 11th last for overseas with the 329th Inf. 83rd Div., arriving at Liverpool the 23rd. They were shipped across England, which Sgt. Hardy said was certainly beautiful, across the English channel and arrived at LaHavre, July 1st.

The 83 division headquarters ters were placed at Lemanse and the division split up, the men taken for replacement. The companies were cut to fifty men, Sergt. Hardy's company being stationed at Ecommy, 14 miles from Lemanse, and he given the rank of regimental supply sergeant. Their camp was a training cadre where the men on the way to the front were given a four weeks' training. He was among others billetted in a dance hall, which soft floor was his bed for seven long months. The village people, he says, were a forlorn discouraged lot when his company reached their town, eating black bread and but little else, with no milk, no sugar, no sanitation. Our boys fairly built the town, giving the people to eat and helping all they could. The first thing our boys do when reaching a town is to begin to learn the language, preferring of course a pretty teacher, but here in this small town the girls were all gone, working in munition factories, etc., but somehow the boys managed to learn the language.

Sergt. Hardy could not even see Paris. The soldiers in this area of fifty miles square were restricted just to the section. He did not see a single Tecumseh boy in all his travels.

Among his trophies he brings home his iron trench hat and the gas mask.

He sailed from Brest, France, landing in New York January 31 and was at Camp Mills first, then on to Camp Custer where he was discharged Monday.

SCHOOL NOTES

Thereby Hangs a Tale.

And a sad tale it is, friends, time of this exciting episode was from 6 o'clock last Friday night to 3:00 o'clock last Saturday morning, February 8.

The scene was set "somewhere" east of Tecumseh, and the cause was a high school basket ball game played at Dundee.

Part I

The participants (or should we say "victims" of fate) left Tecumseh for Dundee about 5:30 Friday night in high (school) spirits. The party consisted of the girls and boys basket-ball teams, and several rooters. The modes of conveyance were three Henrys and a Chevrolet.

All was well until "Henry Number one" took a liking to a beautiful black ditch a few miles east of town and heading for it thereupon spilled its occupants in one nice little heap when it turned turtle. No damage was done to the car, except that an axle and a front wheel were broken, a windshield busted and a top smashed in! That was all ! Thus auto (?) "Number one" was (disposed) of. Henry "Number two" made the trip safely and arrived in Dundee with just one broken windshield, —just one!

Part II

Immediately following the game, an informal party was held at one of Dundee's many confectionery stores and the party then set sail for the west. As Henry "Number 3" was passing under Dundee's last street light one of its occupants remarked to his dozing seat mate that "Peared to be rather rough sledding." Upon investigation it was discovered that the left rear tire had taken a new notion and leaving the Ford had made a trip into one of the nearby neighbors door yard, and that the inner tube was pretty well torn.

An old tube was secured at a local garage and Henry "Number 3" continued on its way rejoicing. All went well until three miles out of Dundee it was discovered that the same old tire had picked up a nice little nail. As a result the casing and tube were removed and the rest of the trip made on the rim. Well, unfortunately, Henry "Number 3" turned to the right too soon, and after sailing magnificently in the moonlight on the rim and over the worst roads in the country) through the thriving metropolis of Rea three times in a wild endeavor to get headed west the main pike was finally struck and the dozing in the rear seat resumed.

A mile east of Britton Chrevolet "Numebr 1" was found by the wayside. Its occupants claimed that they were 99.9% frozen.

Nothing was much the matter with this car except that it had blown out a gasket, and that when the radiator got hot a dose of molasses was injected into it by mistake!

A nearby "District Skule" was entered and a fire kindled to keep the travelers warm and a lively time there was until Al VanDoren arrived on the scene with his big six to tow the broken down car home. Henry "Number 3" pulled up in the rear. Curtain—3:00 a. m.

Don't forget the biggest basket ball game yet this season. Our high school boys are going to play the town boys, and our high school girls are going to play Monroe high. The games will commence at 7:30 sharp.

The admission will be 15 cents to all . All kids have got to be more careful about running around and cutting up. The high school constable and his posse of six deputies are going to be on the job.

Friday night the basket ball enthusiasm was again vented. Although the high school teams were in Dundee, two lively games were put on at the gym. The Sophomore girls played the town girls, winning in a final score of 10-6. The Tecumseh Junior high boys played Britton Junior high. The score was 8-4 in favor of Tecumseh. The town girls had had practically no practice as a team, but they put up a good fight and showed some surprising individual talent. The Soph girls were there with the team work and some splendid guarding. While not showing an overly strong tendency towards basket making, they have an aggressive style of play which bodes ill for future opponents.

The team work of the Tecumseh boys was a gratifying surprise to the good sized crowd that turned out to see some "fun."

The teams were evenly matched and put up a scrappy game, which rivalled in excitement the high school games. Some mighty good material was uncovered in the boys which we predict will some day make an unbeatable quintet.

The line-ups were as follows:

Town—Lydia Babcock r.f., Lelia Snell l.f., Camilla Hayden c., Lucile Forester r.c., Corrine Cardwell r.g., Lillian Kennedy l.g. Sophs—Gertrude Turner r.f., Hildrethe Gasner l.f., Alice Whelan c., Leola Hardy r.c., Lenore McLachlin r. g., Gertrude Wright l.g.

Tecumseh—Raymond Nobles r. f., Erwin Anderson l.f., Sam Sisson c., Vance DuBois r.g., Gratton Hastings l.g., Wendell Pangle, sub.

Film Play Is Success

"THE SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS" PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE.

The master film play, "The Shepherd of the Hills," based upon the beautiful story by Harold Bell Wright, was shown at the Bell Opera House last evening and was greatly enjoyed by the splendid audience that welcomed its initial performance.

The play is pictured in the beautiful Ozark mountain region, and the gripping plot of the story together with the splendid acting of the well chosen cast, tend to make this one of the finest film plays ever presented to twin city theater goers.

Manager Fred Collins will have the film shown again this evening and tomorrow evening, giving everyone an opportunity to see one of the most widely read stories enacted by a cast so well chosen that the chapters of the book unroll before the eyes of the audidence as they had actually read them in the book form. It is a story everyone has read and enjoyed, and all who witnessed the show last evening are more interested in the story than ever before, its wonderful photography and splendid acting making it a mose realistic performance.—St. Joseph Herald Press, Saturday, Feb. 1.

The big production of "The Shepherd of the Hills" will be at the Bradley Opera House, next Sunday, February 16, for two performances, matinee at 2:15 doors open at 1:30 and at 8:15 in the evening doors open at 7:30, seats on the main floor will be reserved without any extra charge. Get your order in early and be sure of good seats.

A special piano player is carried by the company which assures the proper music at just the right time. Owing to the length of the performance but one show will be given at each showing.—adv.

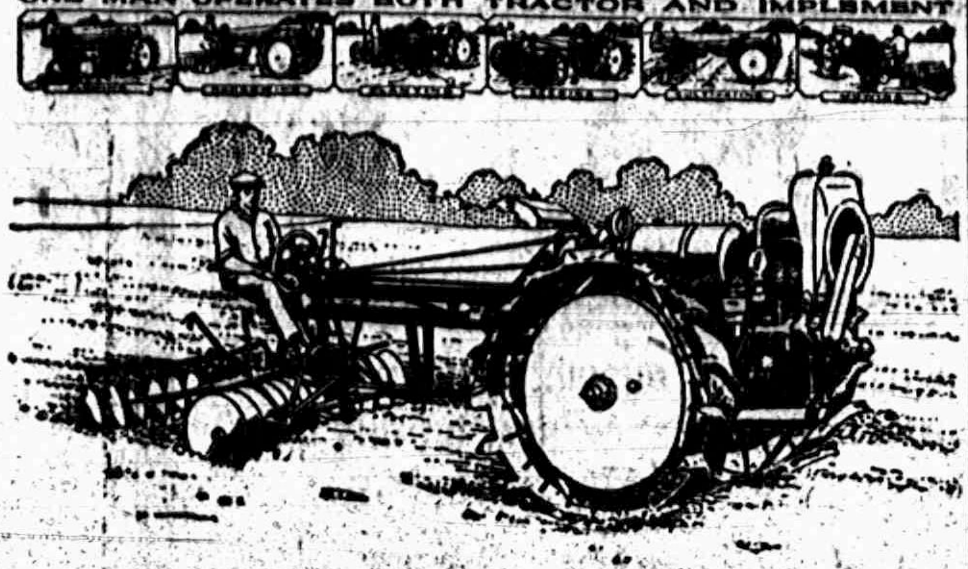
ONE MAN OPERATES BOTH TRACTOR AND IMPLEMENT



One Man Discs 27 Acres a Day with the New

MOLINE UNIVERSAL TRACTOR

It Solves The Farm Help Problem

Discing is rapidly and economically done with the new Moline-Universal Tractor, Model D, one man with an 8-foot tandem disc harrow covering 27 acres in ten hours. With a 10-foot disc harrow he covers 38 acres, and with a 20-foot peg-tooth harrow 76 acres.

The light weight of the Moline-Universal Tractor, 3,380 pounds, makes it especially adapted for discing and similar work, as it does not pack the soil and uses but little fuel, running on less than half throttle most of the time. It is light, but more than enough power to pull two 14-inch plows at high speed, all its weight being traction weight.

The Moline-Universal Tractor attaches directly to the implement and forms a single, compact unit with it that is controlled by the operator from the seat of the implement, where he must sit to do good work. One man with the Moline-Universal does as good work as two men with the average tractor.

The Moline-Universal is adapted for all classes of farm work. Its high clearance, 29½ inches, makes it ideal for cultivating, and it is equally well fitted for planting and harvesting. In addition, it has ample power for belt work, pulling a 24-inch grain separator or 16-inch ensilage cutter with ease.

There is work on the farm every day in the year for the Moline-Universal Tractor. It will do every field operation that can be done with horses and do it better, faster, and cheaper. This is why the Moline-Universal really replaces horses, and, at the same time, by enabling one man to do much more work than ever before possible, solves the farm help problem.

The detailed construction of the new Moline-Universal, Model D, is the best it is possible to manufacture. Perfected 4-cylinder overhead-valve engine, electric starting and lighting system, complete enclosure of all working parts, and fifteen Hyatt roller bearings, are a few of the main features.

We invite you to examine this machine at your earliest opportunity.

Protection from Dangerous Contagion.

Owing to its antiseptic properties, 20 Mule Team Powdered Boric can not be too highly recommended for liberal use in the care of the person wherever and whenever exposed to any contagious disease. It may be applied as a powder or with water as a solution.

It may be used with absolute freedom and safety in all the natural cavities of the body; physicians almost always prescribe it as an eye water, mouth wash, etc., and wherever introduced the antiseptic action is certain. but there is no danger from its use as there is with some other disinfectants. Insist upon having the original package of 20 Mule Team Powdered Boric and then you know that you have the real article full strength. All leading druggists.—adv.

KIDNEYS WEAKENING? LOOK OUT!

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow slowly but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1696 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

AT ALL DEALERS

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

From Karl Braman to P. G. Heidenreich.

Lucey, France
Jan. 9th, 1919.

Dear Perc:—

How's things in "Biggest Little Town" and how's business? We understand you are having some real winter over there. Has it hit that section yet? No doubt it has. Our protracted rainy season cleared up recently and the natives said the winter was over. They usually have some snow here, I guess, but none as yet except a little we had Christmas day which soon disappeared. That came for the occasion, I guess.

We had quite a Christmas here after all. Several of us went up the line to Menillo-Tour Christmas eve, to a service at the Salvation army hut there. Each man was given candy, cake, etc. Christmas day the Y. here gave us "P. A." Cigarettes and chocolate. Then our cooks prepared a dandy dinner, besides candy, cigarettes and beer on the table in plenty. I was in misery the balance of the day, but it was good Christmas cheer just the same. Also we were given, each, a can of candy and cigarettes and the Red Cross sent in socks, with cand, etc., in them so you see we fared well.

We sure have been getting a work out lately on the hill but it rains again this afternoon so am taking advantage of this opportunity to write, mend clothes, etc. Am making a vase from a "75" (3 inch shell) also that will be rather nifty.

By the way, Perc, I boxed up and sent an Austrian helmet a little over a week ago, addressed to you. It's a box about 10 inches square and I trust it reaches you O. K. Just hang on to it for me, as I didn't want to pack it. I still have enough, including a German star shell pistol. Also, if the deal is on the square, you will receive mail from a man named Blake, editor of the Mason Co. Enterprise there. A brother of his over here took our picture when some of us were on a trip to the St Michiel front near here. He is sending the film to his brother there and I directed this fellow to send the picture to you, see? You may open it but don't forward it to me just hang on to it for I hope to be there myself, you see, in the near future. We get "beau coup" (many) rumors in the army and we really were to start homeward before this which later orders countermanded, but now it sure looks as if we were to move out very soon, and altho we probably will stop on the way to the coast, it no doubt means a start in our homeward journey. If is proves true I should be well on my way when you get this. Our division is listed to go and they sure are turning out a lot of men from the ports of embarkation. Two months now since the armistice was signed and we are all sure impatient to be on the way. Our work schedule keeps us "fit" but it's hard to get enthused under the circumstances now. There is some talk of our going to Russia, and altho we can't put much faith in it, I can tell about that a little later. Don't think there is anything in it, and hope not. There is one, fine, lively argument among the boys right now over this and I can hardly hear myself think as the saying goes. It's a great life, this!

As ever yours.
Karl.

Meschen, Germany, Dec. 25, 1918.

Dear Mother:—

Christmas has rolled around again, making my third one with the colors. Not that I am unpatriotic, but I hope this will be my last one, for I feel that I have done my bit. Christmas with us is very dead, but the "S. O. S." will have everything that is possible to have. You probably will wonder what I mean by "S. O. S." Well, that is service of supplies, or in other words, the organizations that never see the front and don't know the first thing about war. They always get the cream of everything. In the papers you read of all the nice things we have, but we never see any of them. The "S. O. S." guys are the ones that get these nice things and then the papers state that the whole American expeditionary forces get them. One paper that I got hold of stated that the whole A. E. F. had turkey for Thanksgiving dinner. As an example I will tell you of my Thanksgiving dinner and you can judge from that how much the fighting troops get. Thanksgiving morning I got up at 5 o'clock, rolled up my pack, no breakfast, started out on a hike and went twelve miles without any dinner. Along after dark I managed to get supper. It was a pretty good meal, but nothing extra.

Today we received a box through the Y. M. C. A. as a Christmas gift from the folks at home. This money was appropriated by the home folks. Each box contained two bars of candy, one can of tobacco and a package of cigarettes. We also had two half barrels of beer. The beer over here is not like that at home; it is more like near beer.

I guess that the labels for the Christmas boxes from home were sent too late, but we sent them as soon as we got them. I sure would love to eat some candy from home.

I don't know how long we will be up here guarding the old Rhine. I have seen a great plenty of this side of the pond, but I guess they will show me some more before we come home.

We were just speaking of our best wishes. My wish was that I was at my place at the table with six pies stacked up in front of me.

Well, I will have to close, hoping to be with you soon.

With love,
Sgt. Lamont Harrington, Co. B, 126 Inft. A. P. O. 734, A. E. F.

Dear Sister and All at Home:—

The night before Christmas. I am feeling fine and your letter did me a world of good, so I will answer it tonight.

I just came from the Y. M. C. A. We all got a box which contained two bars of chocolate, one box of tobacco and a package of cigarettes. I also got mother's box, so I am quite satisfied and you can only imagine how you would feel if you were in my place. I always like to be with my folks once a year at least, but I am quite thankful to be in good health and not with Willie Orr.

We didn't get in any battle, but were all ready to move the day the armistice was signed. Something curious about it, too; it was the eleventh month, the eleventh day and the eleventh hour. The order came in and the armistice was signed the same hour we got the order to go, so we were lucky in one way although we were all willing and ready. A funny thing is a person does not fear it in the least, but you can never dream how bad it is. We received honors for being the best battalion in the 85th—every man was trained. America can feel proud of those good old guys over here, for they won the war. German prisoners told us when the boys came up the fortunes of war turned the other way. When they went over the top nothing could stop them—their officers had no control over them. The French and English said they were altogether too brave.

We have lots of fun, but I want to get back home now, as the war is over.

We are at a little own called Recloses, about five miles southeast of Fountain Bleu, not far from Paris. We could hear those big guns roar until after the two big drives. Then they put them back so far we couldn't hear them; only read about them in the newspapers. We worked and maneuvered with the tanks. I saw lots of big generals—French, English and Italians—that came to learn the new formation we worked out. We had our trenches, machine guns, smoke screens and about 150 [illegible]. It was called the Inter-Allied Training Center. I have sent mother a lot of post cards of places where we have been. I went to church one Sunday in a church that was about 1100 years old, but France is a country of historic fame, so I will send you a book that will enable you to get a better idea of what it is like, and when I come home I will try to bring you a little something from France. Things are expensive and anything besides our pack is quite unhandy to carry, as we have some load.

December 25, 1918.

This is Christmas night and, believe me, I am all in. I have been in the kitchen steady since we came here. I work two days and am off one, when I can go out and look around. We feed about 1500 men. Today our menu consisted of veal and roast pork, celery, apple sauce, prunes, brown gravy, bread, coffee and coffee cake, and everybody was fell filled. There are doings at the Y tonight, but I am not going; thought I would rather write when I had the chance.

I received a letter from mother today. She told me about the troops coming home. Well, that will be nice. They can get home faster now than they could when we came across. We were eleven days coming over. We came on the Ulna; it was the flag ship acting guide for the convoy; there were 15 in all, and up to that time we were told it was the second largest fleet of U. S. soldiers to cross. On her way back the Ulna was sunk, so we can not go back on her.

I don't enjoy the ocean trip very much, although I wasn't sick at all, but it is tiresome, just one continual roll of blue waves and white foam; yet it is very pretty. There were about 1400 men on board and the second night there was a storm and she tossed around like a soap bubble, and the big fish got feed as well as the little ones. It was awful, but I sure did laugh. There were heads hanging over everything and everywhere. One of the boys was in bed all the way until the last day. I don't know how it will be going back, if we ever get back, I think it will be spring before we can go, but I hope it won't be longer. It isn't cold here, only it rains so much. There are flowers in the gardens now. There are two nice little girls from the U. S. in the Y and they got a nice bunch of flowers last night. There are lots of pretty French girls here, but I'll wait until I get back for mine. The girls from the U. S. can't be beaten anywhere on the globe.

Good-bye for this time. Give my best to all inquiring friends.

Your brother,
James.

VINOL MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG

Positive—Convincing Proof

We publish the formula of Vinol to prove convincingly that it has the power to create strength.

℞ Cod Liver and Beef Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates, Iron and Ammonium Citrate, Lime and Soda Glycerophosphates, Cascarin.

Any woman who buys a bottle of Vinol for a weak, run-down, nervous condition and finds after giving it a fair trial it did not help her, will have her money returned.

You see, there is no guess work about Vinol. Its formula proves there is nothing like it for all weak, run-down, overworked, nervous men and women and for feeble old people and delicate children. Try it once and be convinced.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM [illegible]

Card From Grade Teachers.

We, the grade teachers of Tecumseh feel that we were unjustly criticised, by a certain merchant of the town, in a letter read at the Community service at the Presbyterian church last Sunday night. While, we realize that the condition he mentioned does exist, we would like this man to suggest a way to remedy the evil, without the teachers escorting the children home individually. This would not be possible since the grade teachers are required to stay at the building until 3:45 to assist those who need special help.

Under these circumstances, we could hardly be responsible for fighting that occurs on the streets. Moreover, all the teachers have repeatedly cautioned their pupils that they should go directly home from school and that those who fight will be punished. Although, a number have already been punished, the trouble still continues. Now, we would ask the co-operation on the part of the parents in this matter, and we will do all in our power to eliminate this social offense without taking a special course in, "How to Prevent School Boys from Fighting."

Although Saturday, February 22, is a legal holiday, Tecumseh banks will remain open for business to accommodate patrons. Saturday is a convenient day for the people to attend to banking business, and this fact is realized by the heads of our financial institutions.

Letters received by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gove from their sons, Hiram and Herbert, this week are of interest to their many friends. Hiram is out of the hospital and with the army of occupation in Germany. Herbert, who has for six weeks been ill with diphtheria at Camp Stewart, Newport News, Va., is out of quarantine.

The last dates for registration seem to be misunderstood. For the village election electors can register until February 22 with Village Clerk J. D. Service and for the township election with Township Clerk H. H. Hanna March 1 is the last day. Electors (both men and women) to vote at both elections must register with both clerks.

At this week's session of the Monday club topics for next year's study were discussed and the question laid on the table for next week's meeting. Mrs. G. R. Newsom was the leader of the day's study with papers as follows: "Peasant Life," Miss May Farley; "The Children of France," Mrs. J. D. Service. The session next week will be held at the Methodist church, a musical program, with Mrs. F. C. Dickinson leader.

Mrs. C. M. Thompson and Mrs. W. D. Willett entertained the M. E. Sunday school board at the M. E. parsonage Monday evening. The home was gay with valentine decorations and dainty red hearts made pretty souvenirs. Following a bountiful picnic supper Superintendent W. D. Willett conducted a short business session, one feature being the brave growth made in the school recently. Later was a short program given and a talk on the centenary movement by Rev. Purdy of Clinton.

Mrs. E. E. Heideman was up from Ridgeway Saturday and while at the Rosacrans store a message reached her that her husband had died very suddenly in Chicago the evening before. Mr. Rosacrans took her to her home in Ridgeway. Accompanied by her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Linn, Mrs. Heideman went to Chicago Sunday and took the remains on to the old home of Mr. Heideman, LaCrosse, Wis., for burial. He had died of been in town part of the week, greeting his old friends.

Saturday night a message came to Ransom Mills from Detroit saying that his son, John, had been badly hurt when a train smashed into his limousine as he was enroute home from work. He had been found on the front of the engine and taken to the receiving hospital down town, where he was found to be badly cut and bruised, but with no broken bones. Mr. Mills, his daughter, Mrs. Mertie Campbell, and her son, Roy, drove to Detroit Sunday morning and as the injured man was getting along nicely returned home the first of the week. The limousine was a total wreck.

A week ago the Monday club, appreciating that the women of the town should have some instructions in voting, appointed a committee, with Mrs. Wilfred Waldron chairman to hold such a meeting. This gathering was held at the M. E. church yesterday afternoon, the school of instruction being conducted by Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy, with Mrs. Waldron presiding. The room was packed, standing room being at a premium, which goes to show that the women citizens are going to avail themselves of their new franchise and, as Mrs. Hardy says "not neglect their home, husband and children either." She demonstrated by charts on the black board as they voted in Detroit on a certain suffrage campaign at which she acted as challenger and the audience listened attentively so the 300 women present feel they are now fully instructed. Mrs. Hardy is the only woman, probably, in the village who has ever had the right to vote at a general election as she voted inAustralia, her old home, so the club were all equipped and did not have to send out of town for a mere man, as some of our sister villages have done.

Charles Fitzsimmons a former Tecumseh man, has just died at ElPaso, Texas. About two weeks ago he became violently insane and was taken to an ElPaso hospital, where death relieved his sufferings in a week. He was the cousin of P. W. A. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. William Waldron.

Elmer Mellon is green with envy. Last week he was working on his buzz pile with Lou Kehoe and Earl Lindsay. On Friday night when Kehoe went home a fine boy had preceded him. Then on Saturday evening Lindsay found a little daughter at his home. Elmer keeps on working on the buzz pile.

Harry Scott, a Tecumseh man, who has been recently employed in Detroit, was arrested in the letter city last week on complaint of his wife, Emma Scott, charged with non-payment of alimony. He was brought to Adrian and arraigned before Judge Hart. The judge remanded him to jail until the alimony was paid.

Mrs. Will Cummings entertained a group of ladies at her home Monday afternoon in celebration of her birthday. They amused themselves playing progressive pedro, in which Mrs. Chas. Bennett won the first prize, Mrs. John Sherman the second and Mrs. Albert Shepard the consolation. Mrs. Cummings served a delightful little supper. She received a number of beautiful gifts, attesting to the love of her friends.

The council building nad jail is receiving a thorough overhauling, under charge of Lester Rogers and the other members of the building committee of the village. A new floor has been laid in the truck room, two windows cut through to the south and on the north side fourteen booths are being built so both precincts can use the one large room and not have to climb to the rooms above. This, too, will be redecorated. The jail is repainted both in and outside the cell block, with new mattresses and bedding for the bunks.

TOWNSHIP CAUCUS

Republicans Select Delegates for County Convention.

Enough of the faithful Republicans met at the council building Saturday evening in response to the call for a caucus to select delegates for the county convention held in Adrian Tuesday. We might state that the caucus was "harmonious."

Although no women voters appeared two were selected as delegates that evening and one appointed later to fill vacancy.

The meeting was called to order by Supervisor John Schreder. On motion Mr. Schreder was selected as chairman and H. H. Hanna as secretary. The following delegates were then chosen: Frank S. Turner, chairman, Jenny C. Law Hardy, Mary Shull, Henry W. Stevens, Tom W. Mingay, Frank Nyland. The caucus then adjourned.

Mr. Nyland declining to serve, Mrs. Hoyt Whelan was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Treasurer—Dale Bowen.

Their motto is "U. S. A." standing for unity, sacrifce, activity. Mr. and Mrs. Bowen were also among the guests.

Sixty couples attended Will Coller's dance last night, many coming from Saline, Deerfield, Adrian, Tipton and Clinton. Everybody had a rousing good time. Will gives another in two weeks, on the 26th.

Several weeks ago an item appeared in our columns telling of a horse, while hitched in front of McCann&Bowen's, being frightened by a passing train. At the time the report went out that the horse belonged to Ira Lamkin and we published such ownership. It has since developed that this is not true, Mr. Lamkin never having seen the animal.

For a short time last evening Bishop Williams of Detroit stopped in Tecumseh. A. J. Allen of Clinton drove to Britton to convey the bishop and Mr. Gilbert, a Detroit business man of prominence, to Clinton, stopping here long enough to pick us Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ahrens, who were invited to participate in the get-together meeting of St. John's parish.

Mrs. T. R. Mills the first of the week received a letter from her husband dated December 10th from a town some 300 miles from Archangel. His battalion had just had a skirmish—and a fierce one with the "Reds" leaving several of the latter dead but his men coming out without a loss. He says tell the fellows here that for sport nothing beats killing "bolos."

A report that a strange man was hanging around the Wheeler school house, near Tipton, brought Deputy Sheriff John Smith up the ground Tuesday morning of last week. The whereabouts of the man seemed a mystery when the deputy arrived upon the ground, he being reported seen at different places. Deputy Smith about gave up the chase and started to drive to Adrian. On the road he overtook a man walking and asked him if he didn't wish to ride. The man declined and Deputy Smith became suspicious. The fellow was "persuaded" to enter John's car and in Adrian it developed that his name was Warner, escaped from Kalamazoo asylum.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to thank the men of the shop for their help during the fire at my home last week.

Why You Should Use a National Vacuum Washer

BECAUSE: It washes much quicker, does it much cleaner and with a great deal less work to the operator.

Why Does It Wash Quicker

BECAUSE: the rapid action of the dasher driving the hot water and suds through the soiled clothes forces the dirt out. The agitation of the hot water makes the dirt respond immediately. Two to six minutes will remove the dirt from any fabric that can be cleaned with soap and water.

Why Does It Wash Cleaner

BECAUSE: by the vacuum principle the dirt is all forced OUT instead of rubbing part of it into the fabric.

Why With Less Work to the Operator

BECAUSE: by the vacuum principle it requires only power to handle the water, not the clothes. This eliminates the wear on the fabric and makes the machine run much easier.

In order to fully appreciate the real value of THE NATIONAL VACUUM WASHER, YOU MUST GIVE IT A TRIAL.

THE SPRING ELECTION

TWO VILLAGE TICKETS ENTHUSE INTEREST

Citizens Caucus Monday Evening Largest in Attendance—Battle Royal Expected Between Two Lady Contestants — Tickets Headed by Good Representative Citizens.

That more than usual interest is manifested in the coming village election was evidenced first by the calling of two caucuses and second by the large attendance at the same.

The Peoples caucus, held Friday evening, when 16 votes were cast, was a fair average of the usual size of a village caucus. This, however, was fairly snowed under by the attendance at the Citizens caucus, when 83 votes were cast. At the latter caucus the women voters were nearly as plentiful as men and the enthusiasm accordingly was at the top notch.

Geo. B. Hines heads the Peoples ticket and Lester Rogers the Citizens. Each ticket has a lady candidate—the office of village treasurer.

Citizens Caucus.

This caucus was called to order by Will Fisher and on motion Frank J. Temple was elected permanent chairman and Guy E. Nemire secretary. The chair on motion appointed two ladies, Mrs. John Nyland and Mrs. Hugh Ager as tellers, and H. W. Stevens swore in all the officers of the caucus.

First in order was the nomination of a candidate for village president. Three names were presented—Lester Rogers, H. H. Hanna, jr., and C. F. Patterson. Information was given that Mr. Hanna had stated that he would not accept a nomination, nor would he accept the candidacy if nominated.

The lady tellers passed the ballots, gathered them up in borrowed men's hats, and the result of their count was as follows:

Whole number of votes......78
Lester Rogers 31
H. H. Hanna............16
C. F. Patterson 31

As there was no choice another ballot was ordered, which resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes.......83
Lester Rogers 56
C. F. Patterson 28

Lester Rogers was declared the nominee.

The name of J. D. Service, present village clerk, was presented to succeed himself. No other nominations, the rules for motion were suspended and the secretary instructed to cast the vote of the caucus for Mr. Service.

J. D. Shull, in a neat nomination speech, showing his loyalty to the woman franchise since 1875, presented the name of Miss Bertha LaPointe for village treasurer, stating that with a lady on the opposition ticket there would be a battle royal, or virtually a "battle of the roses." The nomination was supported and Miss LaPointe was chosen by acclamation.

The three candidates for councilmen and the candidate for assessor were chosen by acclamation making the ticket in its entire as follows:

President—Lester Rogers.
Clerk—J. D. Service.
Treasurer—Bertha LaPointe.
Trustees—Wade L. Jones, Edward C. Heilman, John L. Austin.
Assessor—Geo. S. Field.

On motion the three first names appearing on the ticket were appointed as a committee for the ensuing year. Carried.

Motion to adjourn carried.

Peoples Caucus.

A fairly good attendance, including five women voters, was present at the Peoples caucus at the council building Friday evening.

The caucus was called to order by J. M. Jones. On motion Geo. Kempf was made permanent chairman and E. H. Ahrens clerk: Ovid Marsh and Ed McKinney were appointed tellers and the officers were sworn by H. W. Stevens.

The following nominations were made:

President—Geo. B. Hines.
Clerk—W. L. Coller.
Treasurer—Franc S. Gillespie.
Trustees—Geo. J. Kempf, E. M. Campbell, Dr. E. E. Hendershott.
Assessor—Samuel Steele.
Committee—Geo. B. Hines, W. L. Coller, Franc S. Gillespie.

Democratic Township Caucus.

The township caucus called to nominate delegates to the county convention was held at the council building last Thursday evening.

Delegates chosen were fifty-fifty—three ladies and three gentlemen.

W. L. Jones called the caucus to order and on motion he was made permanent chairman. E. C. Heilman was chosen as clerk and Lester J. Rogers and James B. Kennedy were appointed tellers. J. H. Smith as notary public swore in the officers of the caucus.

The following delegates were chosen: Louise Wood, Anna Burridge, Lena Smith Jones, Fred'k B. Wood, Edward C. Heilman, James B. Kennedy.

SENDS HOME SOUVENIR

Percy Slayton, With the Army of Occupation, Germany.

The following taken from a Whittier, Cal., paper was given us by Mrs. C. A. Slayton and will be of interest to Percy's many friends:

"One of the most interesting war souvenirs that has yet found its way to Whittier is the spiked German helmet which may be seen in the window of the Whittier Savings bank. This trophy was sent Miss Adah Denney of the savings bank force by P. F. Slayton, LosAngeles, who is with the American Army of Occupation and was secured at Trier, Germany.

"Unlike the ordinary helmet worn in battle this one was evidently built for dress parade as it is covered with black patent leather and besides being spiked, bears the German insignia with the inscription 'Mit Gott Fur Koenig und Vaterland.'

"A large store of these helmets was found and judging from the fact that they have never seen wear, the boys think they were intended to be worn on the occasion of the triumphal (?) German march into Paris."

Mr. Slayton is now at Bad Bertrich, Germany, and in his last letter tells of a day spent in Coblenz. Two thousand soldiers were in Coblenz on a one day leave, fed and entertained by the "Y". His present address is P. F. Slayton, Hdq. Det. 4th Division, Finance Dept. 2 M. C. American Ex. Forces, and letters will be greatly appreciated while waiting to be discharged.

Booze Turns to Coal

BOOTLEGGERS GET FOOLED AT END OF ROUTE

Cache Liquor in D. T. & I. Coal Car Headed for Tecumseh—Missing on Arrival of Car.

There's quite a joke going the rounds of two of our townsmen who wanted to make a little money easy. They went to Napoleon, O., one with a suitcase. He filled this with "the clear quill" and his partner also had procured several quarts which he carefully wrapped in newspaper. They repaired to the D. T. & I. yards and carefully buried their purchases in cars of coal bound for Detroit. Then they returned to Tecumseh. They watched for the arrival of the freight. Mr. Man of the bottles looked in vain for his cache but he of the suitcase found his load all O. K. The two and the suitcase adjourned to a nearby retreat to divide and lo, that whiskey had turned to real coal. The suitcase had been rifled and coal used to replace the liquor. Now where's the moral?

FATALLY BURNED

BABY SON OF MR. AND MRS. W. C. HENRY

Tips Tub of Hot Water Onto Himself While Mother Was Out of Room.

Monday morning as Mrs. W. C. Henry, living near the Athletic Park, was preparing to do the family washing, the baby son, Edmund, only 18 months old, was frightfully scalded. The mother had just emptied a pail of boiling water into a tub and turned to put more fuel on the fire when the little toddler slipped into the room behind her and, clutching to the side of the tub, tipped it over onto himself. Dr. Hardy was summoned and did all in his power to relieve the little sufferer.

The little one suffered until 5:40 on Tuesday afternoon when death mercifully released him.

Short services were held at the home yesterday. Rev. W. A. Rex officiating, and the family accompanied the remains to Sligo, Pa., where two other little sons are buried.

HUNT-THOMPSON

Ralph Hunt Brings Home From Detroit a Bride.

Ralph Hunt was in Detroit Saturday and brought back with him a bride, Miss Dorothy Thompson, of Port Huron, who in her frequent visits at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Balmer made many friends in the village, who are delighted to welcome her. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. C. Wakefield at the Grand River Methodist parsonage. In the wedding party were the bride's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Marlett, and Miss Dorothy Balmer.

Ralph was for three years the courteous and efficient agent at the Tecumseh Junction depot, only recently taking a position with the American Steel & Wire Co. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Hunt, grew up in our midst and has hosts of friends who congratulate him in securing this fine young lady as a wife.

The couple will reside with the parents until they can find suitable apartments.

RED CROSS NOTES

Miss Phelps sent from the Red Cross rooms last week. 36 shirts, 24 union suits, 12 small quilts and 6 rompers to the fund for French wounded, this being the last of the work for this society. In all we have finished 351 garments and sent 64 quilts.

I have a nice line of tailored hats for early buying. Call and make a selection now. Miss Alice Owens. —Adv.

H. S. TEMPLE SUCCEEDS R. DARNTON

AS CHAIRMAN OF LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE

Lenawee Patriotic Workers Honor Tecumseh Man With Leadership—Drive Starts April 21.

At a banquet and meeting of Lenawee county patriotic workers at the New Adrian hotel last Fiday, H. S. Temple, cashier of the Lilley State bank, was chosen as county chairman for the fifth Liberty Loan drive, Mr. Temple takes the place of Robert Darnton, who has so successfully conducted the other drives. Mr. Darnton earnestly requested his release on account of pressing business and over work.

A committee composed of various township chairman nominated Mr. Temple after a deliberation of only a few minutes and the choice of this committee was confirmed with enthusiasm by the meeting.

Two federal loan officials, F. R. Fenton and R. W. Boyd were present and explained the necessity of this next Liberty loan. It was stated that the seven billion dollars raised by the Fourth Liberty Loan lasted until December 10, and the government has spent in addition several billion dollars in anticipation of the coming loan.

Because its proceeds pay for the supplies and troop movements that gave us victory this next and last loan will be called the "Victory Loan." We must now pay for the supplies, as well as the two million soldiers that were ready to go overseas.

It is predicted that this last drive will be the most difficult to bring through because the stimulous of battle and our boys' heroic fighting is absent. But in the hands of Mr. Temple and his helpers we predict success.

WASHINGTON LINCOLN ROOSEVELT

MEMORIAL HONORING THREE GREAT PRESIDENTS

Excellent Program of Tribute Presented Monday Evening Under Auspices of G. A. R. and Ladies' Auxiliary.

Monday evening, at the Presbyterian church, gathered members of Beers Post, No. 140, G. A. R., members of the Ladies' Auxiliary, the High School cadets and quite a fair audience of friends of the veterans of the Civil war to participate in a memorial tribute to three of the nation's former great presidents—Washington, Lincoln and Roosevelt.

The meeting was called to order by H. C. Daniels, commander of the local G. A. R. post, who turned the meeting over to Comrade H. W. Stevens to act in the capacity of chairman, who announced the opening number on the program the singing of "America", led by the Temple quartet and accompanied by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson. This was followed by invocation by Rev. Edward Escolme of the Friends church, and two selections by the Temple quartet, when Mr. Stevens, comparing modern warfare with that of the boys of 61, who stood out in line on 2,062 battlefields, looked into the faces of the ememies that were also American citizens, and when the war was over brought back the flag with just as many and one or two more stars than it had when the war commenced, made a plea for financial support of the post, whose members are getting so very few in number. He called upon Mrs. F. C. Dickinson for the tribute on Washington.

Mrs. Dickinson gave a very excellent tribute to the father of our country whose 188th anniversary the nation celebrates next Saturday. She told of his stately ancesters, his gallant, truthful character as a boy and a man, and his great service to his country. It was a fine eulogy, well presented.

Chairman Stevens announced that he had endeavored to secure an elocutionist for this occasion, but had received no information unitil that day, when through the mail he received the following announcement: "Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Hendershott announce the birth of Marie Frances on February 5th, 1919. Weight 9 pounds." He then introduced Rev. Wm. A. Rex as the substitute.

Mr. Rex recited an appropriate poem for the occasion and his rendition did not lack of vim and the necessary expression to bring out its entire worth. By special request he followed this with the trick of resurrecting from the ashes of small flags of yellow, green, red, blue, black and white a good sized American flag.

Dr. L. G. North responded to the tribute for Abraham Lincoln. In his introductory remarks he mentioned the fact that in Tecumseh were two men who have seen and shaken hands with Lincoln and he felt that to them (J. D. Shull and H. C. Daniels) should be given the honor of speaking of Lincoln. However, Dr. North gave a splendid tribute, telling of Lincoln's boyhood, his struggle for education, his perseverance, patience, honesty and great goodness of heart.

Mrs. E. C. Heilman next favored the audience with one of her choice vocal solos. The song was liberally encored, but Mrs. Heilman did not wish to respond.

To Rev. C. M. Thompson of the Methodist church was assigned the tribute of Theodore Roosevelt, and this was in capable hands as the discourse proved. He said Theodore Roosevelt was a great man. He was idolized by his friends and intensely hated by his enemies. He was many sided, but strong on every side. He was a great statesman and great as a Christian.

An offering was taken at the close of Rev. Thompson's excellent address, during which Mr. Stevens earnestly thanked all who assisted in making the program a success.

A selection by the Temple quartet and the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" closed the exercises.

Old Glory and pictures of the great men thus honored served as decorations for the occasion. A neatly printed program folder containing a roster of the local G. A. R. post served as souvenirs for the comrades and friends.

Community Service

REV. W. R. CURTIS AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Large Congregation Listens to Good Old Fashioned Gospel Sermon.

As on the other Sunday nights the Community service this week was attended by a splendid crowd, the Baptist church being filled except a few seats in the gallery.

After a couple of songs Rev. C. M. Thompson invoked the blessing of the Almighty. The announcements were next given. Next Sunday night the services will be held at the M. E. church, when Health night will be observed.

Rev. W. R. Curtis, the new pastor of the Baptist church, then gave a good old fashioned Gospel sermon taking for his text "If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross." Here was Christ, making the supreme sacrifice for the world, having this thrown in his face. He had to make his journey through his sufferings alone. He, the highest among ten thousand, could easily have quit the job and yet to bring joy to us forever went through his Gethsemane. He must have had a deep yearning for the sympathy of those who had been closest to him, yet they failed him. He proved to us that a true Christian will not come down from the cross for any worldly honor, money or glory. He stayed on that cross to be loyal to us, to give us the life eternal. Hence is the cross the badge of Christian discipleship and our message will come if we stay true to the cross.

ORDER EASTERN STAR

The Tecumseh chapter Order of the Eastern Star held a very pleasant session Thursday evening. Four young ladies from Britton, the Misses Rhea Tillier, Bess Smith, Helen Lowe and Doris Pilbeam, were the candidates initiated and seven more balloted in. Following the work, pieces of hearts were matched to find partners for supper and in the dining room a fine luncheon was served. by Mrs. Homer Whaley and her committee. The tables were daintily spread, and decorated with red hearts and ferns.

Present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Britton, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Lenardson, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sturtevant, Chester Pilbeam, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Underwood, Vera Smith, of Britton; Miss Alice Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pocklington, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Culbertson, of Ridgeway.

Tecumseh Co-Operative Association Elect Officers

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Tecumseh Co-Operative Association was held at Co-Operative hall, Wednesday. Over 200 attended and the meeting was the usual congenial gathering. The reports showed an unusually large amount of business for the year. The board of directors have but one new face, that of Wm. Swick who was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. C. A. Waldren. John Ladd and William Wilson were elected to succeed themselves. This board met later and elected these officers: President, Chas. Evans; Vice president and chairman, John E. Murphy; secretary, William Wilson; treasurer, Fred Ives.

Editorial Comment

"I don't believe in knocking our town," remarked one of our loyal business men, referring to some of the criticisms expressed in letters from business men read at the community service of a week ago. "Tecumseh," he continued, "is a good town—better than the average of its size. We were first in the Red Cross, first in Liberty Loan, and I believe we should be loyal to our town both in actions and words."

No doubt, there were some rather harsh criticisms expressed, but we are loath to believe that any harm will result. Rather, we should look for good to come from that meeting.

Many of us are prone to think that everything is O. K., when in reality there are matters that need attention. In towns of Tecumseh's size people are apt to fall into the dangerous rut of self-satisfaction. Progress is apt to come to a standstill and that tage absolutely means retrogation. If we do not progress with the times we will fall behind and a little punch of some kind will set people to thinking, and getting them to thinking is the next thing to getting action.

According to Marshal Mominee some good has already resulted if the charge of gambling had any foundation of truth. The marshal informs us that there is no card playing for money now. The innocent looking slot machines that some of us considered purely as silent salesmen have also been removed, and the thinking process is likely to continue until more good for community welfare will be accomplished.

At the coming April election there will be several important matters for the electors to decide, among them the light wine and beer amendments, the $50,000,000 road bond and the county road system. The first is interpreted to mean the re-opening of the saloon in Michigan. In Lenawee and many other counties the saloon has been voted out for a number of years, mainly for the reason that it is a poor business proposition. We doubt if the amendment will stand a ghost of a show, but you who do not approve of it must not feel so optimistic as to remain away from the polls. The ladies of the state will be heard from on this question.

Everybody knows that Michigan needs a better system of roads. Freight transportation by motor truck, while in its infancy, has come to stay and to faciliate this method good roads should be maintained:

Some years ago the county road system was turned down by Lenawee voters, and consequently no connected road system has been constructed in the county, although a hundred miles of state reward roads have been built. Had the county system been adopted at that time we would now be enjoying trunk lines across the county. The roads through some of the townships have been abominable and we hope the plan will be adopted so roads can be built in a systematic manner.

It is up to Tecumseh to show her loyalty in the next and last Liberty loan drive. A Tecumseh man, H. S. Temple, has been selected to act as county manager of the coming drive—probably the most difficult one to successfully carry out for several reasons. First many people are likely to think the war is over and with that their patriotic duty ends. Others may feel that they have invested to their limit. But the government needs the money now just as much as it did when the cannons were roaring on the battlefields. Now, that a Tecumseh man heads the county drive, we must do our best lest Tecumseh's fair name lose its prestige.

There has been some talk of a "Community House" in Tecumseh, and the unoccupied property next west of the Bradley Opera house has been suggested as a fine site. One person suggested that a cafeteria be conducted in connection with the community house. Washington, Pa., has had in successful operation a community house for four years, and the people of that place feel the venture a splendid investment.

We thank the advertisers for taking the hint last week and furnishing copy for their ads a day earlier for this issue. The public has also responded splendidly by handing in items of news earlier than usual.

No, we hardly think a peace conference necessary in Tecumseh.

President Wilson embarked upon the steamer Geo. Washington last Saturday at Brest for the return trip home. Arrangements for dinners and speeches have already been made.

Rain and snow has laid the February dust and transformed it into mud, then ruts. Oiled streets lay the dust, shed the rain and prevent hub deep mud.

From remarks at one of the caucuses some woman voters have a choice of parties. That's all right; but, ladies, don't get married to a party to such a degree that you will be unable to vote for the best man or woman for the job. Character above party makes cleaner administration.

HOW TO VOTE

THE EASIEST WAY IS THE BEST.

Tecumseh Ladies Seem to Have Serious Time to Obtain Correct Information on Manner of Marking Ballot.

Tecumseh ladies seem to have a serious time to obtain correct information as to how to mark a ballot properly. In a communication they appealed to the editor of the Adrian Telegram and received advice that will send the ladies in a round about way to obtain results. We quote a portion of this advice here:

"In case the voter wishes to vote a straight ticket she may do so by putting a cross in the circle to be found above the column of names in her party.

"If there happens to be one candidate on her own party list for whom she does not want to vote, she will omit the cross at the head of the ticket, and will vote for each candidate individually by placing a cross opposite the name of the candidate she does not want. A cross in the circle at the head of the ticket is a vote for every candidate on the ticket, Without the circle cross it will be necessary to vote by name.

Perhaps the editor of the Adrian paper, should he be asked to direct a person from Tecumseh to our county seat, would give it this way: "Take the New York Central to Jackson, the Cincinnati Northern to Hudson and the New York Central to Adrian." That's just about as sensible as the voting advice submitted, and why should a voter, just because it can be done that way, place a cross before the name of every candidate he or she wishes to vote for when it is directly in opposition to the printed instructions on the ballots.

The instructions implicitly state: "In all cases make a cross (X) in the circle (O) under the name of your party at the head of the ballot."

There are no instructions anywhere to omit the cross in the circle as the Telegram advises. The instructions on the ballot continue: "If you desire to vote a straight ticket, nothing further need be done. Where only one candidate is to be elected to any office, and you desire to vote for a candidate not on your party ticket, make a cross (X) in the square [ ] before the name of the candidate for whom you desire to vote on the other ticket."

Now, as far as these instructions go it means the first thing to do is to place a cross in the circle at the head of your ticket; then if you wish to vote for one or more candidates on the other ticket place a cross in the square before the name of those candidates you wish to vote for. Make no other marks on the ticket unless there are more than one candidate to be elected for the same office.

This will be illustrated in the coming village election, when three trustees, or councilmen, will be elected. The names of six candidates for this office will appear on the ballot—three on each ticket. If there is one or two on the other ticket that you would rather vote for than the same numebr on your own party ticket place a cross in the square before the names of the candidates in the other party and erase a like number of candidates on your own ticket. This is the only case where erasing is necessary.

On each village ticket will appear seven candidates to be voted for. If the voter follows the Telegram advice and the voter wishes to vote for only one candidate on the other ticket it will mean the placing of seven crosses, one before each candidate voted for. If the instructions on the ballots are followed only two crosses are necessary—one in the circle at the head of the ticket and one in the square before the name of the candidate on the other ticket.

The latter is not only the simplest and easiest way for the voter, but it is easier for the election board and facilitates the counting of the ballots after the close of the polls. This fact will be more noticeable when the long state and national tickets are voted.

Let's get the ladies started right.

If the instructions on the ballots are not correct and mean nothing they should be removed.

Resolutions of Respect—Charles A. Slayton.

Whereas: Our loyal friend and business associate, Mr. Charles A. Slayton, has been taken from this world by the great destroyer, death, the Directors of The Tecumseh State Savings Bank, of which he has been a member for twenty-five years, has taken the following actions.

Resolved: that we sincerely deplore the death of Charles A. Slayton, whom we now miss from our meetings and counsels, and whom we shall continue to miss for many years to come. In this Board of Directors he was always active, enthusiastic, considerate, and absolutely honest.

Resolved, That to his bereaved family we extend our sympathy in full measure in their great, their irreparable loss. We rejoice that they have the comforts of a firm religious belief as a supporting consolation in this trying time.

Resolved, That we trasmit to the family of our deceased friend a copy of these resolutions and also have them copied into the records of The Tecumseh State Savings Bank. In nearly every walk of life we shall think of him in the coming years, and with gratitude that we were permitted to know, and to associate intimately, with such an able, high minded gentleman.

The memory of the just is blessed.

"The Test of the Progress of Mankind" said an English contemporary, "will be in the appreciation of the character of Washington."

By this true test, mankind is ever marching forward. Everywhere, the peoples of the world today honor the memory of Washington.

Everywhere, those who have freedom and those who seek it, are insisting upon his ideal of "the practise of a virtuous policy" that the end and purpose of all Governments may be "the aggregate happiness of society."

His influence lives on through the years. His words and his deeds are ever an inspiration to forward-looking peoples.

COMMUNICATION

To the Editor of Tecumseh Herald:

The writer of this communication has been accused of making a statement at the community service at the Baptist church last Sunday night which was derogatory to the Peoples Caucus which was held in the village last Friday night. If such a statement was made it was more than derogatory, it imputed political guilt to the personnel of that caucus. The statement made was made upon the spur of the moment and was intended to reflect upon the attendance at said caucus. The writer confesses his defection along the line of civic duties in that this is the first year that he ever attended a caucus in this village. In his former place of residence a caucus attracted some crowd.

At 7:15 Friday night when the above caucus was called to order there were 6 women and 12 men present. This the writer considered a disgrace, not to those present but to those not present, who publically said they were sore at the so-called "ring." So the statement which the writer intended to make last Sunday night was this: "Come out to-morrow night and let us have a decently attended caucus." And this is what he believed he did say and what others report was said.

Further, the writer may be gullible in politics, but he believes that both caucuses were decently conducted as far as has been learned and that two good tickets are presented.

Finally and personally, that you may know that the writer is nonpartisan in the matter, after a due comparison of both tickets, he expects to vote for three nominees on one ticket and four on the other. He hopes that many more will do likewise. He is political iconoclast enough to believe that it is a sin not to "scratch the ticket."

Yours very truly,
W. A. Rex.

He Will be in Tecumseh on February 27-28 and Will be Located at the Lilley State Bank, Where He Can Be Consulted Without Charge.

Bring in your figures, your problems, your doubts, and your questions, is his invitation contained in the announcement of his coming visit.

Collector of Internal Revenue James J. Brady of Detroit is sending one of his deputies, Mr. John P. Fancher, solely to help people in this vicinity to determine their individual liability and to comply with the law's requirements as to 1918 incomes.

His office hours will be from 8:30 to 5:30 each day, and he will remain in town until the close of business on days named.

"This free advisory service," writes Collector Brady, "is planned for those who are required for the first time to consider their liability and to make sworn returns.

"Many thousands who were not affected by the prior Federal laws taxing incomes must this year file returns. Here are the requirements:

"Every unmarried person who had a net income of $1,000.00 or over during 1918; and every married person who, together with wife (or husband) and minor children, had a net income of $2,000 in 1918.

"The advice and services of the deputy collector are entirely free, and he is authorized to administer the oath required on returns, free of charge. Persons who are taxable should make payment when filing their returns by attaching check or money order.

"This tax is a war burden; it is a part of the price of victory, the greatest victory that the world has known. I believe the people of this district will meet it fully; and I am offering every facility of my office to aid them to determine their individual liability."

'THE FIGHTING ROOSEVELTS'

That the people of Tecumseh and vicinity want good clean Sunday pictures was proven beyond all question of a doubt by the big capacity crowd which filled the Bradley last Sunday evening to witness the new screen play "The Shepherd of the Hills" and of which hundreds of pleased patrons have since said that it was one of the finest screen productions yet seen in Tecumseh.

"The Fighting Roosevelts" will be the attraction at the Bradley next Sunday, February 23, with a special matinee Sunday afternoon at 2:30 and it will also be held over for Monday, February 24th, as the demand has been so great for this production that it has been impossible to take care of the business on one day's showing in towns of this size and even smaller.

Mrs. Catherine Conrad is quite ill and gradually failing.

Mrs. Eulalia Beaubien and children have moved into the rooms over C. A. Wright & Son's drug store.

The Busy Bees with Mrs. Jay Morse teacher, met with Miss Flora Rentschler on Saturday afternoon for a valentine party, The ride out to the farm made a lot of fun. Then the valentine box made more fun but best of all was the picnic supper with a great heart shaped cake, and ice cream, the contributions of Mrs. Rentschler. Pretty place cards also carried out the valentine idea.

According to the girls of both teams it was the cleanest, fairest game they ever played.

Our girls expected to lose because Monroe has a reputation of being one of the strongest teams in Michigan. However, the girls played their hardest every minute, as one of the girls said. "The score was bad enough, but it could have been worse."

The Monroe girls arrived on the 5:35 train Friday afternoon and were entertained over night by their opponents.

Mrs. Earl Allen and three children have influenza. Dr. Tuttle is in attendance.

Dr. Tuttle was called to Wilfred Allen's Wednesday for Llewellyn who has influenza.

Both of the mail carriers of Tipton have influenza. Frank Baldwin is the only available substitute, so he alternates between them, carrying one day for Mr. Draper and the next day for Harry Daniels.

Mrs. Melissa Burns, a highly respected resident of Tipton, died at the home of her son, William Burns, at Tipton last week. The funeral services were conducted from her late home Wednesday and were private. On account of the poor health of Mr. and Mrs. Burns, the body was placed in the vault and will be taken to her old home in Hudson. Mrs. Burns was 88 years of age. Rev. Brewer of Willis officiated at the funeral.

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the weaknesses and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil is inclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 5 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a small swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. Go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.

The funeral was held Monday at the home and the remains were placed in the vault until the roads are in fit condition, when they will be taken to Hudson, her former home, for burial.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

From Clair L. Dickinson to His Mother, Mrs. Fred Poucher.

Luxemburg, Nov. 30, 1918.

Dear Mother:—

I will write you a few lines this afternoon as I have time and expect to move again in the morning. We did think this was as far as we were going, but I see not. I had my picture taken the other day. I don't know whether you will know who it is or not.

We are bound for Coblenz, Germany, and if we leave in the morning we will be there in five or six days, if nothing happens. I found one thing in this town that I couldn't get in France and that was a crystal for my watch. I broke mine the day we left New York. The watch has been running every day and kept good time, but it will have to be cleaned when I get home, which I hope will be before long. Tell Fred to save a bushel of apples for me as I will be able to take care of that many if I feel as I do now. No, I am no better on my feet than I have been for the past two years, not so good. We have been doing so much walking lately and it has been pretty hard on my feet, but I am going to stick it out now to the last. Tommy Boyd is all O. K. He is sitting beside me now writing a letter home. Woodcox went to the hospital with a wound in his foot.

Plaredt, Germany, Dec. 11.

We have reached the end of our March to the Rhine, although we have not crossed it yet. We are five kilometers from the river, in a town of 1500 population. It is a very pretty little town, but not as pretty as the towns in France and the people are not near as good looking as the French nor as dressy. They say we will soon be on our way to the States; I hope so. I would like to get out of this service and back into civilian life again and see how it will go for a change. I have had this uniform on now most of the time for three years. I don't know if I am going to get a chance to see the river or not. I would like to see it very much, but if there is a train bound for France I am going with it, and to the d—— with the Rhine. We are in the town named Plaredt, near Neuweid, which is on the other side of the river. We have hiked over an awful lot of ground on foot—up hill and down all the way and mostly up hill, except the last 15 or 20 kilometers, which were all down hill. We passed through several good sized towns in the last three days and we are right in the coal mining district. Every town has one or two coal mines and two or three stone quarries. Am feeling fine.

Nischen, Germany, Dec. 18.

Will drop you a few lines today as the company is out in the wilderness and there isn't much doing. We are doing outpost duty now on the front lines, about 25 kilometers beyond the Rhine. When we crossed the river I crossed one of the finest bridges I have ever seen. It sure was a fine piece of work for steel structure. I have tried to get a postcard picture of it, but have not been able to so far. The town we are staying in is of about 150 inhabitants, with 21 houses and no stores of any kind. Just up the hill a little ways is a cable conveyor from a stone quarry, about three kilometers from here. It is 26 kilometers long from the quarry to the railroad, where it is put into cars. Deliver me from ever staying over here the rest of my days. I have not seen a city yet much larger than Adrian; some of the towns are made up of farmers. Tomorrow we move again to some other burg.

Dec. 25, 1919.

Today is Christmas. I received a letter from you the other day, but lost it before I had time to read it. I went down with the ration wagon after the mail (about a 20 kilometer trip) so on the way back sorted my mail and found your letter; stuck it in my pocket; after sorting I read part of it, until it got too dark, and when I went to finish it the next morning it was gone.

When I woke up this morning it was snowing. Well, things are different this year. Last year at Waco we had some spread. I think we are going to have roast pork; some of the companies have deer. We saw two deer yesterday, but they were too far away to reach with a rifle. We are so far away from France they can't get up here fast enough; we were better fed in the front lines than we have been on the hike across country. But what's the use knocking; we will be out of it some time in the future and the next time I go to war it will be in the U. S. A. I wish we could get a deer for dinner, but we are out of luck. I saw two dandies from the house yesterday but so far away they were safe. Hope you have a pleasant Christmas this year, and I will make up for lost time next year.

Gladbach, Germany, Jan 2.

Received your letter of November 5 and December 1 and was glad to hear from you once more. We left Nischen on the 27th and came back here to Gladbach. Had a bad day for moving, the roads were all ice. It was very hard walking for us, let alone for the mules that were smooth shod. I was with the wagon train and we had a bad time. We left Nischen at 8 o'clock and it was 1:00 before we got into the main road. We had to put six mules on each wagon at every little hill we came to and then we had trouble getting up most of them. It started to rain about 3 o'clock and rained so hard we pulled into Ringsdorf and stayed all night. During the night it got warmer so the roads were in good shape next morning; we arrived here at 10 o'clock. It rained the next two or three days, but yesterday and today the sun is out and it is nice and comfortable. We have a very good place to stay in; are in a private house and have a room and bed to sleep in. There is a stove in the room, so if it gets cold we can have a fire. I am with Burt; he is supply sergeant now as John Flint has gone to officers' training camp and I have the mail to look after, so have been very, very busy of late and had no chance to write.

The Christmas boxes have come but mine hasn't come yet. Will have another big mail this afternoon; had a big one this morning; maybe mine will come yet today. We received a can of tobacco, a bar of chocolate and a package of cigarettes for Christmas from the Y. The papers say we get lots of stuff, but that is what we got. The boys in the S. O. S. got lots of candy, music, etc., but we were out of luck on that. We have a hard time getting paper and envelopes, much less the other stuff.

I am glad you got my letter in time to send my razor and pen, for I needed them most of all. The ones I had are useless.

We hear a lot about getting out of Germany and starting home, but don't know. It looks as though we may have to do it all over here. We did the hard fighting and now I guess we will have to do the straightening up.

I remember the night Monty referred to when he said he was afraid he would drown in four inches of water. We had done that a good many times, but six inches is too much. That night about 11 o'clock the Boches began to drop a few shells in on us, and I didn't know it that night, but the next morning, when it got daylight, I could see where one shell lit about three feet from the hole I was in. I knew it was close, but I didn't think it was that close. It blew both of our guns to pieces.

Well, it is 4 o'clock and time for me to go after the mail, so I will close, hoping you are well, and those who are sick will recover, I remain,

Your loving son,

There have been numerous criticisms of the overseas Y. M. C. A. Lest some people might lose faith in this great institution we quote the following from a letter written home by one our our boys over there — a young man that nearly every one knows: "The 'Y' has put up a big new building and will move in next week, so that will be nicer now. In spite of what faults it has had it certainly has done far more for the army than any similar organization."

As one of the results of the stir-up caused by the "merchants' night" at the community service February 9th at the Presbyterian church, three gum machines have been taken from Tecumseh business places by Deputy Sheriffs John Smith and Ford VanDusen, and taken to the county jail. The machines were the property of a Chicago firm, who engaged the services of A. B. McLachlin to look after them. Mr. McLachlin informs us that at the time the machines were placed here he investigated and was given to understand that they were perfectly legal. As far as we know the sheriff's office has taken no steps in the way of arrests.

How's Your Kick?

If the feet have a tendency to go on a strike and growl with pain feeling hot and uncomfortable, you can take them before a board of arbitration that will restore them to sure and cheerful working power at once. Here's the way. First, a hot foot bath in which has been dissolved at least four tablespoonfuls of 20 Mule Team Powdered Boric. The more the merrier.

When dressing shake a little 20 Mule Team Powdered Boric into the foot of the stocking and also sprinkle a little in the shoe, especially on the sole and in the toe. Then you are ready to walk, work, dance, or just merely kick!

Keeping Open on Sunday.

On the eighth of this month remarks were made by Rev. Rex at the Presbyterian church commenting on a communication from a business man that an alien merchant, a Jew, kept his place of business open on Sunday.

Ten years ago when I came here, when a Jewish place of business was not existing in Tecumseh, I found some of the places of business keeping Sunday morning hours. At the present time the same business places are still keeping open. If Rev. Rex would investigate where he buys his collars, socks, ice cream, coffee and sugar he will find out that he is buying from merchants that keep open Sunday morning.

I also take exception to the word alien. If this reverend gentleman would take a little pains to investigate the same he would certainly see his error and I can prove myself as true an American as the party that made the remarks.

At all times I feel as good an American citizen as Rev. Rex, without a drop of German blood in my veins.

Why You Should Use a National Vacuum Washer

BECAUSE: It washes much quicker, does it much cleaner and with a great deal less work to the operator.

Why Does It Wash Quicker

BECAUSE: the rapid action of the dasher driving the hot water and suds through the soiled clothes forces the dirt out. The agitation of the hot water makes the dirt respond immediately. Two to six minutes will remove the dirt from any fabric that can be cleaned with soap and water.

Why Does It Wash Cleaner

BECAUSE: by the vacuum principle the dirt is all forced OUT instead of rubbing part of it into the fabric.

Why With Less Work to the Operator

BECAUSE: by the vacuum principle it requires only power to handle the water, not the clothes. This eliminates the wear on the fabric and makes the machine run much easier.

In order to fully appreciate the real value of THE NATIONAL VACUUM WASHER, YOU MUST GIVE IT A TRIAL.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE

LARGELY ATTENDED AT GRANGE HALL SATURDAY

"Cost of Farm Production," "Good Roads," "Tuberculosis in Farm Animals," Among Important Subjects Discussed—Musical and Other Numbers Add Spice to Program.

The Farmer's Institute of Saturday was a fine success, in spite of the odds against it. With only a few days in which to arrange a program and a pouring rain most of the day, the big crowd was certainly a source of gratification to the chairman, George Sanford.

The morning session was called at 10 o'clock at Grange hall, with Master Sanford presiding and after the usual business meeting County Agent C. L. Coffeen gave an address on "Cost of Farm Production." This he illustrated with charts and was followed by a discussion.

At noon a bountiful picnic dinner was spread and enjoyed by a large crowd from the country.

At 1 o'clock the chairman again called the audience to order. This session was attended by many from the village as well, who found the meeting very interesting.

After the singing of America, Rev. W. A. Rex gave the invocation. Then came a duet by Messrs. Wilson and Camp and J. L. Richard gave his "Good Roads" sermon, as he terms it. He told of the proposed county road system, the Covert law, now before the legislature, which will be workable whether we adopt the county road system or not. By this law it takes sixty percent frontage to carry a petition, these to be bonafide owners of the land. It admits of no franchise. Under the county system the amount at large is to be assessed on the county, under town system on the township. Seven townships of the county have already bonded. He told, too, of the Aldrich bill which proposes to place the building of all trunk lines with the state, the latter to pay for half the cost and care for the total maintenance of same.

Dr. B. J. Killham of Adrian was then introduced and took for his subject, "Tuberculosis in farm animals and the relation it bears to human life." First he assured his audience that Spanish influenza does not afflict farm animals, but tuberculosis can be transmitted either way. This menace he emphasized strongly. He asserted that it is not detected from the outside; that an animal may look fine, yet be rotten with the disease. Every adult human has or has had tuberculosis. In little children the germs are of the bovine type so must have been transmitted by the milk. Nine per cent of all hogs coming under investigation have the tuberculosis which has come from following the cattle or from a carcass thrown to them. Chickens also are susceptible, but seldom horses. Told of several instances where chickens had been reported to him as being sick. He investigated and found tuberculosis raging in the cattle and hogs. So if your chickens get sick, better ask for an investigation and clean up. Sun light, fresh air and dryness are the best remedies.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Waldron then varied the program with some excellent music on piano and trombone.

O. W. Laidlaw, our high school agricultural teacher, told of the course, established here several years ago but had never been worked out to amount to much. Now the course is taking form and bids well to be a leading feature in this splendid farming community. He outlined the work of the four years' course, also the manner of teaching. Assured the farmers present that he and his classes were liable to drop onto them any time for practical demonstration. His own work requires his attention the full 12 months, overseeing the project work among the students and extension work which every thing a teacher does in an agricultural way out of the school room.

Rev. W. A. Rex next gave two comic readings and Misses Wilson and Camp sang.

Mrs. Laidlaw, teacher of domestic science and art in the high school, gave a description of the course as given from the 7th to 12th grades, of the lessons in cooking, also the complete outfits made by her girls.

Mrs. J. C. Woodmen of Paw Paw, chaplain of the State Grange, was next introduced. She had bean sent as substitute for Mrs. Dora Stockman, the speaker advertised, as the latter was ill. Mrs. Woodmen, in spite of her four score years, is a whirlwind. Her talk on "Citizenship for Women" was splendid. She gives much of the credit for woman's victory to the Grange, as that body has fought for this always, "but now that the men have laid the obligation upon us, it is our duty to walk side by side with them toward the things for the good of our state." She filled her speech with jolly little anecdotes, but paid a most eloquent tribute to woman, her work during the war and as a home maker. "My mother and your mother made the country better." She didn't forget to give the wine and beer amendment a sound slap and spoke most feelingly of the late Roosevelt. She is a most charming little lady and her years sit lightly upon her. Her audience was delighted and will welcome her gladly should the kind providence send her this way again.

It was decided to have an institute again next year, and with another song the meeting adjourned.

C. BEEBE MISSING CAUSES WORRY

MANAGER OF TECUMSEH CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

Does Business in Buffalo, Wires Company Money and Disappears—Foul Play Feared.

There is considerable apprehension on the part of the friends of Channing D. Beebe, who has been the manager of the Tecumseh Co-Operative Association for the past four years, and who left on a business trip to Buffalo on behalf of the company Sunday afternoon, the 16th inst.

He was on the market the following day looking after the sale of the company's live stock, and sent back a draft for the same, advising his office that he would remain over until the next day.

Becoming alarmed at his continued absence James A. Murphy and Guy E. Nemire went to Buffalo Tuesday and investigation shows that he checked out from his hotel shortly afternoon on Tuesday, and that he evidently took a train for home, as he wired his office from the railway station a few minutes before train time that he would be home the following morning, but inasmuch as he has not returned, his friends ar fearful as to his whereabouts.

Upon inquiry at the office of the association it is learned that he had planned to be home in time for the annual meeting of the company which was to be held on Wednesday afternoon, and they are of course very much alarmed as to whether he may have met with foul play, as no word has been received from him since, and no motive can be offered that might cause his continued absence, as there is nothing in his relations with the company which could be construed as a reason for the strange circumstances which seem to surround his absence, and his friends are hourly expecting word from him, advising that he is safe and will return home again shortly.

The company is O. K., doing business every day and backed by 400 or more of the most substantial farmers of the community.

VENEREAL DISEASES

LECTURE BY MISS MARJORIE DELAVAN

From Educational Department Michigan State Board of Health—Tecumseh Night No. 2 at Presbyterian Church Next Sunday Night.

A new departure in the community services was "health night," observed at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening in response to the call from the national health department at Washington.

For this occasion Rev. C. M. Thompson, the pastor of the Methodist church, appealed for help to the state board of health at Lansing, and in response to his appeal the state board sent down to Tecumseh Miss Marjorie Delavan, connected with the state board of health as an instructor in the educational branch of the work.

Miss Delavan proved a very capable and interesting talker on a subject that has gained considerable prominence since the outbreak of the war and especially so after our own nation became involved. This interesting subject was venereal disease.

Miss Delavan said she did not come to talk as a doctor or a nurse, but as one who had experience in the educational branch of the state health work. This call from Washington for health day observance comes with a definite purpose. We are facing a crisis—we must see to it that demobilization does not mean demoralization. The government has protected our soldiers from venereal diseases as they never have been in civil life, and we must see that the work is continued. Syphilis and gonorrhea are communicable, hereditary germ diseases and can be prevented and cured. Syphilis is a disease that affects every tenth person. We are attacking the only disease that is directly hereditary; a disease that causes one-fourth of all the blindness and countless other human ills. When the war opened the military realized that the biggest fight was this enemy within the ranks—far more serious than that without. We had our own experience at the Mexican border and learned our lesson.

Our nation was the first in this fight against venereal disease and was successful. Our army and navy was the cleanest in the world. The military program was suppression, segregation, recreation and medical treatment. A five mile zone was established within which liquor and prostitutes were debarred. After the unwholesome was removed, wholesome recreation was introduced and this went a great way toward fighting down the disease. An educational plan was adopted; ignorance enlightened and medical treatment given.

A year ago the first step was taken by Michigan to fight this disease. One of the most important steps in the Michigan plan was making both syphilis and gonorrhea reportable diseases. Physicians must report cases of the diseases to Lansing the same as smallpox and this provides the machinery with which to do things. Between 1300 and 1400 cases are receiving state treatment in hospitals. The state gives the best treatment obtainable and to all who apply.

Then the social service department was organized and the work of this department has proven a great safeguard against reinfection. A prostitute can now be held, by an officer, examination made and interned for state treatment. It is the job of the social service department to get these women decent employment and a new start in life. The prostitute is the hardest social problem we have.

The fight against these diseases is not a job for doctors or fanatics. The people themselves must get back of the campaign; the fight must be made in the open; it is a community health problem and the people of the community must see that the town is kept clean. The state board, while it recommends that high school pupils should be instructed in sex hygiene does not stand for such instructions in the grades.

The speaker gave a good outline of the state work and stated every community could get assistance from the state, such as literature and lectures or clubs and societies.

Rev. Thompson, in behalf of the congregation thanked the lady for her excellent talk that was without remuneration of and nature.

Rev. Rex asked if it was not true that the most pitiful situation is that many suffer from these disease innocently, to which Miss Delavan promptly replied in the affirmative.

The services of the evening opened with the usual community singing, responsive reading led by Rev. Escolme, prayer by Rev. Rex and scripture reading by Rev. Widdifield.

The announcement was made that the next community service would be entitled Tecumseh night No. 2 to be held at the Presbyterian church. Rev. Rex said the services would be along the same lines as Tecumseh night No. 1, but he cautioned the people if they report anything said at the service to be sure to report it correctly.

FATHER AND SON

Mrs. Paul Bowen's Sunday School Class Enjoys Supper and Program.

Tuesday evening Mrs. l Pau Bowen's Sunday school class of young men enjoyed a father and son banquet at the Presbyterian church. The mothers of the boys prepared and served a most delightful supper, using a beautiful color scheme of red, white and blue. After the supper came a short program and a report of the last six months' work of the class. This latter was far above the average class report, showing almost a 100% attendance.

Rev. W. A. Rex then gave a talk on sex hygiene, as this is health week. The boys chose the motto, "U. S. A.," which stands for unity, sacrifice and activity. Afterward came a guessing contest and then a tug of war, in which the boys pulled against the dads and got the best of them twice over.

Everyone present expressed the wish that these suppers might become regular affairs.

SAW REAL WAR SERVICE

CORPORAL THERON PUFFER HOME FROM FRANCE.

Brother of R. W. Puffer Shell-Shocked at Battle of Chateau Thierry—Some Experience.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Puffer enjoyed last Friday in visiting with his brother, Corporal Theron Puffer, of Co. F, 125th U. S. Infantry, who landed at Newport News January 21st, a sufferer from shell shock. From there he was sent to the Camp Sherman, Ohio, hospital, where he received his discharge. He started Saturday morning for his home at Akron, Mich.

His story is very interesting as he was in the battle of Chateau Thierry, where our Co. B and other boys from this locality suffered such terrible hardship and loss. He was sent to the front line May 18th and was on that line until August 2d, when in the awful battle of Chateau Thierry a great Austrian high explosive struck right next to him and he remembers only his flight through the air until he came to in the hospital.

In this battle our boys went for nine days with but three meals and for [illegible] days with no water to wash their faces and hands or shave. When they did at last get relief they staggered like drunken men, as for five days and nights they were without sleep. One morning Corp. Puffer's company went over the top with 280 men and at noon there were but 40 left.

Corp. Puffer has almost entirely recovered from the shock, only a slight nervousness affecting him, which will in time wear away.

Editorial Comment

One of the most lamentable disgraces that Michigan has had to face in some time was the whiskey caravan along the Dixie highway between Toledo and Detroit last week. The loophole given bootleggers by a supreme court decision that officers had no right to search baggage or cars for booze created a frantic rush to and from the wet territory. Hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of booze was brought into our fair state, automobiles were wrecked along the highway by drunken drivers and loads of booze crashed into ditches. State officials and county deputies were given the merry ha-ha by the jubilant bootleggers until a method was found to put a stop to the open smuggling.

But the affair brings its lesson. It emphasizes the dangerous hold that king alcohol has on its victims and it will tend to strengthen tenfold all efforts to drive the menace from the nation.

Clinton merchants are waking up. Perhaps we should modify that statement and simply say they are rejuvenating their "pep," for they have not been dead or sleeping by any means. And now, by the looks of things, our sister burg to the north is likely to become a real live one.

At a meeting one evening last week of Clinton business men, at which about every business concern of the town was represented, steps were taken along progressive lines, and the following movements are to be promoted:

The moving picture theatre is to be reopened.

A "dollar day" bargain feature is to be promoted with the idea of bringing farmers for miles around to town on that day.

Weekly band concerts are to be resumed.

The town will be made dustless by street oiling.

A rest room for ladies from the country to be established.

A special big day for returned soldiers—a celebration that will be worth while.

Sounds good for Clinton, doesn't it?

GALLANT THIRTY-SECOND

Fought on Five Fronts and Never Yielded a Yard of Ground.

The following account of the work of the gallant Thirty-Second, the division that fought twenty German "crack" divisions, was sent Miss Margaret Hoag by Pvt. Harold Brown, Co. B, 107th Supply Train, American E. F. on the Rhine:

"When the American Army of Occupation started its march towards the Rhine on November 17th, one of our crack divisions, the Thirty-Second, was celebrating an anniversary. Just six months before this division first planted the American flag on German soil in Alsace. On May 10 Wisconsin and Michigan men came under shell fire and from that date to November 11 the division outranged Boche guns. Only ten days after its turn in the trenches the Thirty-second chased the Boche from the Ourq to the Vesle. Then it went to a sector north of Soissons and stormed Juvigny plateau, fighting side by side with the heroic 'poilus' of General Mangin. After that victory with the French it had a rest for ten days before getting ready for the final drive. The American army's scrap north of Verdun was but three days old when the Thirty-second went in, and for the next three weeks the Wisconsin and Michigan boys battled the Boche for the Kreimhilde Stellung. It was they who finally broke through the key position of 'La Dame Marie,' from which they then pushed on to Freya Stellung, pushing the Boche gunners out of Bantheville wood. They carried the line up to the point where the final attack on November 1 was launched, and followed in support of the divisions which crossed the Meuse at Dun and captured Stenay. In the last few days of the war the Thirty-second went into line in the Meuse bridge head sector, and with the French were in the midst of an attack when the armistice stopped the fighting. During the war the division has fought on five different fronts—Alsace, the Vesle, Soissons, Argonne and the Meuse—and has fought twenty of Germany's best divisions, among them the Prussian guards. It has never yielded a yard of ground to the enemy's counter attacks."

Friend J. B.:—

I sent a card to you a few days ago just to let you know that the big fish had not pulled me into the drink. The truth is the fishing is not very good here. I have been out twice with very moderate such, and small ones at that. But they are good to eat. Yellow tails and sailors delight.

How sad about Mrs. E. C. Brown; their happy home was soon broken up.

I hope you will keep Al's ears well rubed so that he will not forget to scrap.

Yesterday and today the wind has been furious from the west. And I see by the papers that the west and northwest have had high winds too. Monday afternoon we are invited to ride out and see the largest tree in Florida. I'll have to tell you about it on my return. We expect to leave here for home about April 1st, and our first stop will be at the Mammoth Cave, Ky., then a day or two in southern Ohio, one or two days in Toledo on business, then home. The date is not yet fixed.

My justice term will soon be out and it is up to the people to say if they want any more of my justiceship. If they want me to, I will serve. But I will not cry if they turn me down.

Regards to all that ask about us and remember us to the little girls.

DANIEL E. SOPER IN SUNNY FLORIDA

Former Tecumseh Man Gaining Prominence Exhibiting Relics.

We have received a Miami, Fla., Herald in which Daniel E. Soper, a former Tecumseh man, receives quite a write-up. He has gone from his home in Chattanooga to the Florida city for the winter months and has taken with him an exhibition of stones found in this part of Michigan which are interesting to the Southerner. He asserts the hieroglyphics on them to be 2,000 years old and to mean that one of the lost tribes of Israel inhabited this part of our state. In the mounds of the state he has found curiously wrought pipes and knives of pure refined copper. Mr. Soper always had a warm spot in his heart for Tecumseh and he is sure giving his boyhood state some advertisement in Florida.

"WITHIN THE LAW"

Another Great Picture Play at the Bradley.

On next Sunday and Monday evenings, March 2d and 3d, the management of the Bradley Opera house, Tecumseh, is presenting a picture play, which both by its entertaining powers and also by the advertising it has had through readers of the book and those who have seen the stage version of the same play, should outdraw the wonderful business done by "The Shepherd of the Hills" which was presented at this popular play house two weeks ago. The new photoplay is Bayard Veiller's smashing success "Within the Law" which is taken directly from the Veiller book and just recently produced for the screen.

The screen version of "Within the Law" is even more compelling than the stage version as there is no limit to the 'eye of the camera' and scene after scene can be reproduced on the screen that could not even be thought of on the stage.

Several seasons ago the speaking version of "Within the Law" was presented at the Bradley and over 900 people paid from 50c to $1.50 for admission and claimed it the greatest play they had ever seen. In fact "Within the Law" played to the biggest business any single attraction every played to at the Bradley with the exception of one big musical comedy "The Spring Maid." You now have a chance of seeing this wonderful play at popular prices.

"Within the Law" is the play that presidents go to see, it is the play that has electrified a million people. If you fail to see "Within The Law" you miss the biggest play of a decade.—adv.

VOTERS NOTICE

There seems to be a great deal of controversy and also confusion as to the correct way to vote. You will find below a copy of the official ballot which is to be used at the village election March 10th, with fictitious names substituted. As it is almost impossible to erase any candidates name you do not care to vote for, you will merely draw a line through the name, instead of erasing as stated in the instructions. If after studying the instructions carefully you do not feel that you are capable of casting your vote properly, I will be very glad to make it plainer if possible.

J. D. Service, Village Clerk.

BALLOT

(INSTRUCTIONS.) In all cases make a cross (X) in the circle (O) under the name of your party at the head of the ballot. If you desire to vote a straight ticket, nothing further need be done. Where only one candidate is to be elected to any office, and you desire to vote for t candidate not on your party ticket, make a cross (X) in the square [ ] before the name of the candidate for whom you desire to vote on the other ticket. Where two or more candides are to be elected to the same office, and you desire to vote for candidates on different tickets for such office, make a cross (X) in the square [ ] before the names of the candidates for whom you desire to vote on the other ticket; also erase an equal number of names of candidates on your party ticket for the same office for whom you do desire to vote. If you wish to vote for a candidate not on any ticket, write or place the name of such candidate on your ticket opposite the name of the office. Before leaving the booth, fold the ballot so that the initials of the inspector may be seen on the outside.

All Smoking Tobaccos are Flavored

"Your Nose Knows"

The Encyclopaedia Britannica says about the manufacture of smoking tobacco, " . . . on the Continent and in America certain 'sauces' are employed . . . the use of the 'sauces' is to improve the flavour and burning qualities of the leaves."

Your smoke-enjoyment depends as much upon the Quality and kind of flavoring used as upon the Quality and aging of the tobacco.

Tuxedo tobacco uses the purest, most wholesome and delicious of all flavorings—chocolate! That flavoring, added to the finest of carefully aged and blended burley tobacco, produces Tuxedo —the perfect tobacco—

"Your Nose Knows."

Try This Test: Rub a little Tuxedo briskly in the palm of your hand to bring out its full aroma. Then smell it deep—its delicious, pure fragrance will convince you. Try this test with any other tobacco and we will let Tuxedo stand or fall on your judgment—"Your Nose Knows."

MRS. CLAUDE COOPER

Wife of Returned Sailor Passed Away Last Evening.

Mary Josephine, wife of Claude Cooper, passed away last evening at 8:45 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper on East Kilbuck street.

It will be remembered that on the last day of the old year Claud Cooper, arrived home from the navy on a short furlough bringing from Norfolk, Va., a little baby girl to his mother. He had found his baby in an orphan's home, supposedly deserted by her mother. The mother was not heard from until one day last week as his boat came into the harbor at Norfolk, a message reached him to come to a certain hospital as his wife was critically ill. He waited only long enough to receive his honorable discharge and hurried to the hospital. There he found his wife had been sick since last September, pneumonit, then tuberculosis following the influenza.

He brought his wife here only last Friday and they had received a warm welcome by the kind old parents.

The deceased was 26 years old and leaves her father, one brother and two step sisters. The funeral will be held from the Friends church Saturday at 2 p. m., Rev. Edw. Escolme officiating.

This is the third year the 90 Touring Car has been on the market without a change. Any user will tell you of its performance on hills and over rough roads, the extremely small upkeep, and the extraordinary mileage on oil and gasoline.

There are more of these cars in use than any other car, with the exception of the Ford. In a very short time these cars will be unobtainable. To save later disappointment, place your order now.

The last word in an automobile. Any user will tell you it begins to run at its best after 2,000 miles of use, and owing to its construction continues to improve. It does not seem possible, but is a fact that carbon, instead of creating a 'knock', is a great assistance.

Famers contemplating auction sales should consult The Herald first for advice as to the proper advertising of the sale to get the best range of publicity. Don't "put all your eggs in one basket." The advertising end is important to the best success of your sales. Sales advertised in The Herald have been eminently successful so far this season.

Sgt. Allen McNeil has received his official discharge from Custer and has been visiting Tecumseh friends this week. Allen's army service has been mighty disappointing to him. The house had been ransacked, with things tumbled about in bad shape, but whether anything has been taken or not will not be known until Mr. Coller's return.

One lady subscriber informed us last week that she had already saved the price of a year's subscription to The Herald by watching and taking advantage of the advertisements every week. Another prudent housewife never thinks of buying weekly table supplies without consulting the advertising columns. Upon receipt of The Herald, she studies the ads, makes out the list, uses the phone and the merchant does the rest. Many others have similar plans and the habit is growing.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

Pvt. Henry VanDuzer to the Heesens.

Chaumont, France, Jan. 29, 1919.

Well, people what is wrong in Tecumseh? I am still in France and would like very much to hear from you. Haven't had a letter from you since November 10 and I am worrying about you very much. Hope nothing is wrong with any one for I want to see you all when we start back for the good old U. S. We don't know just when that will be but from what they say around general headquarters we will pull out in June. It can come any time for yours truly, for I am sure sick of this place and these people. They don't use the U. S. boys right after we came 4,000 miles to put Fritzie back over the Rhine. Why, they take anything a soldier wants to give them and then turn right around and charge him twice as much as it costs them. It takes ten francs now to even look at a meal where before we used to get a good meal for six or seven. Well, we should worry. The American soldier did it himself so he has no one to blame.

We are sure having some fine winter weather; a little snow and just as warm as winter out. I suppose it is quite cold there in Tecumseh. Last year at this time yours truly was doing guard duty at Camp Custer and believe me it was sure cold there.

It doesn't seem that I have been in the army one year, but it was the 24th of this month. Oh, how I wish you could have seen me before I came across, with my uniform on and see me now. I am 35 inches around the waist and one and a half inches taller, so I say it has done me good. Weighed 123 pounds when they took me over at Adrian and now it is 145. So why worry? You people won't know me when I get back.

Well, folks, hurry that letter to me as I am waiting for it and thinking of you all the time. I have that post card of the bunch on the wall by my desk here in the office and I look at it all day long.

Good night for now. Give my best to all.

From Sgt. Lamont Harrington to Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Heesen.

Gladbach, Germany, Jan. 26, 1919

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Heesen:—

I can not tell you how glad we were when the hour came for the guns to stop firing, November 11, when the armistice went into effect. The German artillery fired their last shell at 9 o'clock a. m. and ours at 11. Since then we have had a very hard march to the Rhine, being in the Army of Occupation, a distance of about 300 miles. The distance was not so bad, but we had to carry our equipment on our backs and before we reached our destination we found it a tiresome, footsore trip. Our equipment weighs nearly 100 pounds. We came through Belgium and Luxemburg, and since December 13 we have been in Germany.

We are drilling more now than we did before the war—five hours daily except Saturday afternoons and Sundays. We do not know when we will come home, but I do not look for it very soon because there are so many troops in the service of the rear who have been favored enough so that they dodged the front line throughout the war and now their heroism and honor is so much greater than that of the boys who fought and won the war among the generals who have the authority to send home the different organizations that they see fit. I don't think we will leave here for a long time.

I sure will be glad when I can come home and once more get hold of a steering wheel. I have not driven a car since I left Tecumseh. Maybe I will have to learn it all over again. I sure would enjoy a trip to South Bend. I always had such a good time when we used to go there. Now, when you write to or see your aunt tell her one evening's ride around South Bend would be enjoyed more than a year's tour in Europe. Best wishes.

Sgt. Lamont Harrington.

Dear Editor:—

For some time have I intended to jot down a bit of my part in the tragedy of nations. Thus flattering myself that some of the people at home might be interested in the little part, insignificant as it may be, that one of their humble citizens played. I therefore submit this brief survey trusting that it shall be appreciated by the reader in the same spirit with which it is written, void of any self praise. May it especially be dedicated to the Alumnae of the Britton high school who so warmly bade me good luck as I was about to sail "over seas."

Having left Custer July 11, we arrived at Camp Mills Long Island, the following day. This trip was made pleasant for us by the Red Cross at the large cities along the route with their hot coffee, fresh milk, candy and cigarettes. Also the scenery in the East was beautiful, and especially to us who had never seen the mountains and fascinating scenery of that part of our country. We stayed at Camp Mills for ten days, receiving equipment for overseas, when on a beautiful Sunday morning we went by train to New York city where at the 21st street dock we boarded the "Grampian" a Glascoe boat for our adventure. After thirteen long days on the Atlantic in which we plied well to the North we came down into the Irish sea and anchored at Liverpool early Saturday morning August 3rd.

It took us all day to unload our equipment and that night we started by train and arrived early the following morning at Southampton where we remained for two days in an army rest camp. England is beautiful but space will not allow me to give any detailed descriptions. Then on a dark night we boarded the old "Harvard" renamed the "Charles" and crossed the English Channel landing at LaHavre, France, by daylight. Again we were escorted to a rest camp nearby and settled for a couple days. Such camps are not indicative of their name as the boys will tell you.

August 8, we started by train, boxcar fashion, and after twenty-four hours we pulled into a small village, "St. Satur" by name, and unloaded. St. Satur is in the central part of France near the city of Nevers and in the Loire valley. On the trip there we passed through Versailles and saw Eiffel tower in the distance but did not go into Paris.

At St. Satur we drilled daily for a month to get the final touches necessary before going to the front. It is beautiful down there and we enjoyed our living with the French very much.

Orders to the front came September 9 and again we loaded into box cars for a thirty-six hour ride, at the end of which time we arrived at Ancemont near the war famous city of Verdun in the American sector. We remained in a French camp in the Le Chenois woods near by for a couple days. This was the beginning of our life in the land of "no lights". September 12 is the memorable day to the American Army and to us. It is the date of the first American drive under American command known as the St. Meheil drive, and also our first day at the front. Although we started to the front the day of the drive we didn't reach there until the next morning therefore the Germans were out twenty-four hours ahead of us so that we missed the excitement except for the thundering of the long range guns which continued firing for some hours still, and a frequent aeroplane battle or an attack on one of our observation baloons.

Our battalion started work at once on the shell torn roads to let the artillery and supplies up to the infantry. While on this front I took advantage of an opportunity to go across what had been no man's land only two days before and see some of the Hindenburg trenches. One can't imagine the wonderful dug-outs and conveniences that were there. There had been no activity on that particular front since the first year of the war so that everything was perfection and comfortable. There were dugouts a hundred feet under ground with dance halls and pianos in them. One dug-out which I saw must have had at least thirty rooms to it with a hallway through the centre. The equipment left in the dug-outs, the cannon and mounted machine guns, and the narrow gauge tracks with cars all proved that the drive had been a surprise and that the Germans had made a hasty retreat. All manouvering previous to the drive had been done by night so that they had not detected our readiness, crafty as they are. In a few words the taking of St. Meheil salient was a big success in every way. It was taken by surprise and ease and we captured quantities of guns, equipment and ammunition to say nothing of the thousands of prisoners. After this drive we moved thirty-five miles west to participate in the Argonne forest drive which was about due and started September 26. We moved to a wooded hillside, perhaps four or five miles behind the lines, a few days before the drive. Every night the Germans sent over a few shrapnel and gas shells to keep us from sleeping. Here was our first opportunity to use our gas masks and I shall never forget the first time I tried to put it on to the tune of a real gas alarm. We had learned to put them on in six seconds and without taking a breath but upon this occassion I took two or three breaths before I could get it straightened out and on and when I did succeed I was so out of breath that I actually thought I was gassed. But in a few minutes after finding out that the alarm had been false I decided that my chances for recovery were favorable.

On the evening of the 25th we moved forward and located between the infantry and the artillery. About eleven o'clock that night the cannon let loose and sent over a barrage such that the Germans must have thought was hell for we thought we were there ourselves. The rapid pop, pop, pop of the three inch guns and the thunderous reports of the long range guns of from six to twelve inch calibre together with the flashes in the dark was as if hell were opened. I can't give you much of an idea of what it is like but when I tell you that the Americans had a concentration of 6,000 pieces of artillery on this front you perhaps can form a vague conception. The barrage was kept up until five a. m. when the short range guns ceased and our infantry went over the top. The long range pieces continue until noon. About ten o'clock the German prisoners began to stream by and they continued for several days. In the evening we moved forward into the trench area of the morning and began repairing the shelled roads. The next day it began to rain which caused a temporary halt to the drive. The roads are limestone and a little rain makes them so slippery that it takes an expert driver to keep his machine on the road at all. It was terrible, the field dressing stations were crowded with wounded and the ambulances couldn't get the patients to the hospital so that many died from lack of prompt attention such as the field hospitals administer.

This drive was also very succesful but proved to be a long, tedious process to get the Germans out of the Argonne forest. We lived for more than three weeks in German dug-outs near Mt. Faucon and worked night and day to keep traffic moving and then there were times when it was blocked for hours. After the beginning of this drive we hammered awey constantly, making but little progress after the first three or four days until the third big American drive which started Nov. 1st. While on the hillside we had lots of excitment. Every night we got lots of shells, gas, shrapnel and high explosives and had many aeroplane raids. Some aeroplanes are equipped with machine guns while others carry bombs. Many a machine gun bullet from the aeroplanes whizzed past me but I seemed not to attract any of them. A day time sport was to watch the German scouting planes sneak up and fire into our obsevation balloons, setting them on fire. I have seen as many as four balloons destroyed by one plane before it could be driven away and these balloons are usually from a half to a mile or more apart. It rouses some excitement and about the time one balloon has been fired the observers in the nearby balloons drop their parachutes. I saw one parachute which failed to open and the victim was crashed to earth at the same time that his balloon was fired. While this is going on all the machine gun and anti-aircraft for miles about will be firing at the enemy plane so that at times there is a regular storm of shrapnel and bullets flying in midair.

Now for the third and last American drive which got the German military. We had moved to Fleville and were back about five miles from the front line trenches at the opening of the drive the first of November. For this drive the concentration of artillery was enormous. It is said that if the pieces were placed hub to hub they would make seven rows across the [illegible] mile front on which the Americans were driving. Here again the barrage begun around midnight and the infantry went over at five o'clock. But the weather was much more favorable for this drive and the results were correspondingly greater. By nine o'clock the German prisoners were coming in and the wounded being brought back. In just a few hours the long range guns had been raised several miles and by evening our troops were being sent up in motor trucks and still it was reported that the enemy was retreating so rapidly that contact could not be maintained. Villages were entered and not a German could be found. In the few days that intervened between the beginning of this drive and the signing of the armistice our troops rushed ahead miles every day. There was but little combat after the first day. I had an opportunity to go out about three or four miles on the battle field and review the results. There were many dead strewn over a narrow strip marking the first of the combat but our losses on the whole were very light.

After the signing of the armistice we moved forward several miles to Stenay and built several bridges over the Meuse river to replace those the retreating Germans had destroyed. While at Stenay I went through the Crown Prince's palace in which he lived most of the four years. His troops opposed the Americans.

Now that hostilities had ceased we were very much interested as to what we would do next. We wanted to go to the rear and home of course. After all our anxiety we learned that fate or fortune, we don't know which, had put us into the Army of Occupation. And so began our journey into Germany. We crossed Belgium and the Dutchy of Luxenbourg, coming into the Moselle valley as we struck Germany. We followed the Moselle to our present location near Wittlich. In all we must have marched close to two hundred miles. Whether we shall go any farther is a matter of conjecture. We have been guarding about forty miles of railroad for a month and it looks as though we might stay on the job for some time yet.

The valley of the Moselle is beautiful with its mountains on either side. Most of them are forested. I have had two horse back rides out into them and they are romantic to say the least with their old castles and ruins here and there. The weather is very mild and the meadows green as in the spring so we console ourselves that we are escaping the hardships of a cold winter.

Now the all-important questions are "Where do we go from here" and "When do we go home?" It is pretty here, the Germans are nice enough but nevertheless our thoughts are home now that our task is accomplished and we hope for an early return.

If the peace conference moves off as smoothly and speedily as predicted I don't doubt but that most of us will be back in the states by June. The hardest fight of the war is the waiting to return. But we showed the world we were good fighters so I'm sure we can show them we are good waiters.

If these ramblings are of interest to any one I am glad for the writing of them.

Very sincerely,
Jasper L. Brown.

Dear Friends.

It has been some time since I last wrote you, but don't think that I have forgotten you. I arrived here January 30th from that place they call Cunny France. I don't know how it got such a famous name, but I failed to find much sunshine (any way you take it.) I am not quite satisfied that the U. S. is the only place for me to live in, not because it was a little dangerous while I was there but also now or any other time.

Well, I am back without much damage, although I had a pretty tough time for a while. I was gassed and caught the flu at about the same time, so the two together kind of made me feel a little bit disagreeable. You wouldn't know it now for I am heavier than I ever was in my life. I have gained about 50 pounds since I came out of the hospital.

Oh, I want to tell you that it was my good luck to get into one of those Red Cross hospitals. I can say that it was all that saved my bacon. I never can say too much for the American Red Cross. I am not the only one either and in future days I expect to pay them all I can [illegible]. The Y. M. C. A. could do something and did not, but the Red Cross did. Instead of giving us boys something once in a while they usually charged us more, and when the Red Cross came around we got things free. You know that once in a while there was one of us broke and couldn't buy. I don't suppose that you ever had that feeling (being broke) well it is somewhat provoking on inconvenient.

I hope you folks are well. I may be able to drop in and see you when I come back on my way from Custer. I have been here 15 days now and when I came here the captain told me that we would be home inside of one week (such a lie) but you know I am so used to hearing those good sounds that I don't pay much attention to them any more; if it's one week I usually figure on one month.

I havn't heard from home since I left last July 12th and you can imagine a lot of things, but I hope nothing has happened since I left.

This isn't so bad here—just like living in town. We can get most anything that we need, and have a lot of privileges that we never have had before. I have been to the threatre three times this week, a real stuff company here from New York.

The weather here seems a little soft for this time of year, quite warm today, rained all night. I haven't see much snow yet, only a little flurry. It snowed a little in France along about Christmas, just a few flakes. I expected when I got here that we would freeze to death. All the way over it was as warm as May, and when we got here it continued. I guess it must have followed us all the way over.

About 5,500 came over on our boat; 1,000 were hospital cases, wounded ones, some without legs others without arms. Thank God I have come back whole, although I came very close several times. I went into battle with the feeling with me that I was going to be saved and I was, and without any loss. I can tell you that a fellow thinks of most everything he ever did when he gets into one of those dangerous places. He also prays to God to be saved. He has got religion then if he ever has it.

Well, I think that I had better put the rest of my story off and tell it some other time or else I won't have much to tell. So get ready for the continued part when I see you.

From your ever friend,
James H. Fridd.

Why You Should Use a National Vacuum Washer

BECAUSE: It washes much quicker, does it much cleaner and with a great deal less work to the operator.

Why Does It Wash Quicker.

BECAUSE: the rapid action of the dasher driving the hot water and suds through the soiled clothes forces the dirt out. The agitation of the hot water makes the dirt respond immediately. Two to six minutes will remove the dirt from any fabric that can be cleaned with soap and water.

Why Does It Wash Cleaner

BECAUSE: by the vacuum principle the dirt is all forced OUT instead of rubbing part of it into the fabric.

Why With Less Work to the Operator

BECAUSE: by the vacuum principle it requires only power to handle the water, not the clothes. This eliminates the wear on the fabric and makes the machine run much easier.

In order to fully appreciate the real value of THE NATIONAL VACUUM WASHER, YOU MUST GIVE IT A TRIAL.

COMMUNITY HOUSE IDEA GROWING

PLAN FAVORED IN PROFESSIONAL MEN'S LETTERS

"Tecumseh Night No. 2" at Presbyterian Church Sunday Evening a Winner—Church Packed.

Again on Sunday evening was the Presbyterian church packed to the walls, for Rev. W. A. Rex was to give the second "Tecumseh Night" letters. A month before had been read letters from business men answering his question regarding Tecumseh's needs industrially, socially and morally and suggestions for remedies of the same. These letters created much talk and have been productive of good, in many ways. Last Sunday night the letters were from the professional men of the town—doctors, dentists, lawyers, teachers and the clergy. And one thing has been spoken of since, that there was a decided difference in the English used. In the last bunch of letters read the language was excellent, in many instances flowery, but so many more words necessary to convey the sense, while in the first letters they were concise, right to the point and no mincing of matters.

Rev. Rex in a short prelude said these letters were read not in a spirit of criticism but in all kindliness. He does not believe in saying a town is not inflicted when it is, the same as if one had tuberculosis. If we know it, we can do something to remedy the trouble. The besetting sin of Tecumseh is self satisfaction. In

In all the letters there was no word of gambling, but in nearly all the idea of the community house was enlarged upon. So he judged the gambling had been looked after.

In the first letter, well oiled streets were advocated; also Evans street paved from depot to depot. Another spoke of the extravagance of lighting our white way, how we would have as much light from the ornamental lights if the top lights were removed. One lamented the waste in letting the practically new West Branch school house lay idle; again a suggestion of a community house for clubs and public use generally. Another [illegible] letter. Another asked if it was wrong to [illegible] good roller skating rink.

Several suggested that our high school "gym" is primarily for the scholars, not for the public while here again might be a thought in favor of the community house. In a couple were suggestions that educational films be shown in the high school auditorium.

Again it was called to the attention of the public that it might be as well to have all business places closed both during the hours of church and Sunday school. One man said a careful study of the ten commandments and the application of the same to Tecumseh would be the best thing for the town and her noblest moral law.

One of our professional men says our greatest need is a better religion and a revival of same. Only one says our greatest need is more manufacturing plants to keep our boys here, that we need more loyalty and better co-operation. He lauds the high school gymnasium, saying no such factor for good was ever in our village. This same man advocated a community kitchen along with the community house.

One letter was like a breath of fresh air. The writer was perfectly satisfied with the best little town on earth, everything is just all right.

Another says we lack the social and civic spirit, we have laws but are, not aggressively active for the enforcement of the same. Some one else affirms that our club and lodge rooms are used too frequently as the center of life instead of the home. Another: "Would it not help the needs of the town for all Protestant churches to join together, with one church building, another, for church school, one pastor, to call the same the "Christian church of Tecumseh." Rev. Rex right here called for a standing vote on this proposition. This vote was almost unanimous.

In one letter the lack of a spirit of loyalty to the business interests of the town was lamented, and that the business men be more loyal to each other.

A musical social for the town was another idea, also that we have gas in our kitchens. Another that we have inter-Sunday-school games of volley and basket ball. Also better living by so-called Christians.

The fact that for the last two Saturdays some 30 children have played at the "gym" supervised by their teachers was lauded and supervised dances suggested, rather at gym than at public dance halls.

A "more open-door program in church and school" was the theme of one letter, or more "everybody welcome" spirit.

At this time of year another thought came in "pat." That the building, care and use of the athletic field be encouraged to keep up the spirit already started by the high school gymnasium.

The minister then called for a receptacle in which to burn these letters and Janitor Linn brought the necessary implements and the letters, having served their purpose, were consigned to ashes.

Among the announcements read at the beginning of the service was that Harry Scriver, who gives lectures this week on "Childology" will address the people at the Baptist church at the Community service next Sunday night.

THE DOLL SHOP

ARTISTIC PLAY BY HOME TALENT

Proves Highly Entertaining and Adds Neat Sum to the Treasury of Ladies' Band.

"The Doll Shop," as put on Thursday evening by the Ladies' Band, with Mrs. F. C. Dickinson directress, was one of the prettiest little shows ever given at the Bradley. As is true with every home talent given here the house was packed.

The first scene was of a doll shop with the beautiful wax dolls, quaint Dutch dolls and charming Oriental dolls arranged on shelves in display. The sailor boy doll (Wade Jones) and Topsy (Lillian Kennedy) were also in evidence and the Jack in the box (Fred Dickinson) helped to make things lively. Rastus (George A. Rathbun) had a lot of trouble dusting the doll babies and trying to please the proprietor (Miss Marian Rosacrans) and her husband (E. E. Berry).

The jokes Rastus cracked were good and brought gales of laughter.

The singing was excellent, the soloists being Rastus, Hulda (Mrs. E. T. Rosacrans), Sailor Boy Jack, the sand man (Harold Lowry), Molly the milkmaid (Mrs. J. M. Mulvaney), Old Mother Goose (Mrs. E. C. Heilman) with the fairies and dolls in choruses. Titania (Miss Marian Rosacrans) and her fairies were in one beautiful chorus, Hulda and the Dutch Dolls in another, Molly and the wax dolls in still another while the dancing of Pepita, the Spanish doll (Miss Marjorie Rosacrans), Babette, the French doll (Mrs. D. J. Hodges) and Wiley McCann, a customer, would do credit to professionals.

Another pretty dance was that of Topsy Orienta (Teresa Deery) and the Oriental dolls. The little Miss Deery was the surprise [illegible] Her dancing [illegible] she can be assured [illegible]

[illegible] net solo by Clare Camburn, the instructor of the ladies' band, and a laughable skit, a telephone scene from "Odds and Ends of 1918" by Mrs. D. J. Hodges and E. E. Berry. The accompanists were Mrs. F. B. Wood and Miss Edna Taylor with violin played by J. D. Service and traps by P. G. Heidenreich.

The ladies managing and all taking part in the play are to be congratulated upon the success of the entertainment. The costumes were pretty, the stage settings very attractive and the singing and dancing splendid.

The band nets about $200 from the performance.

HOME FROM OVER SEAS

MISS BETH SATTERTHWAITE ARRIVED MONDAY

Miss Laura Comfort Remains in Boston to Visit Relatives—Both Ladies Attaches of Friends Unit of the Red Cross.

Miss Beth Satterthwaite arrived Monday evening from overseas. She and her cousin, Miss Laura Comfort, both of whom have been in France attached to the Friends Unit of the Red Cross, arrived in New York Friday. While three days out in the Atlantic they sent a wireless to Miss Geneva Satterthwaite in Boston and she met them in New York. Miss Comfort accompanied Miss Geneva to Boston to visit relatives and Miss Beth came on home. It was quite a co-incidence that the young ladies returned home on the same boat on which Miss Beth went across.

The young ladies are both trained nurses and have helped in the reconstruction work at Sermaize in the Marne Valley. This vicinity had been almost completely devastated by the Germans in 1914 and the work of our girls has been to care for the old and helpless of the district as well as Red Cross nursing.

One little incident Miss Satterthwaite relates which to the home folks is, interesting. She, one day in her travels in France, saw two officers talking. On the sleeve of one was the red arrow, the insignia of honor given the 32nd. She approached them, so pleased to see a 32nd soldier. She asked the man, from which regiment he hailed, saying she was a Michigan girl, coming from Tecumseh. He answered he was a U. of M. man and did she by any chance know a member of his class, one Perry Satterthwaite, a Tecumseh man? Her own brother.

Notice—Regular meeting of Junior O. U. A. M. Monday evening, March 12. Important business. All brothers requester to be present.

3-13 H. W. Whaley, Councillor.

COUNCIL ROOM IN NEW DRESS

VILLAGE DADS ENJOY IMPROVED QUARTERS

Regular Monthly Meeting Monday Evening—More Improvements to be Made.

'Tis said that Tecumseh now has the neatest, tidiest voting place in the county. The old town building, which has been neglected for years, has begun to present a new appearance on the interior, where carpenters, painters and decorators have been at work.

The lower floor, the engine room proper, has been renovated and placed in such condition that our lady voters need not hesitate to present themselves to cast their first ballot. Everything will be spick and span on election morn.

The council chamber on the second floor has undergone a change—transformed from a dingy, littered room to a really attractive place where no body of men or women need to be ashamed to meet. The walls have been papered, the woodwork painted, the official council table neatly covered, chairs and linoleum revarnished and the filing cases that have been kept in an untidy pile have been removed to the rear room where they are neatly stored away in a cupboard. So good did the improvement look that the building committee was ordered to complete the job by painting the rear upper room, the stairway and hall.

President Fisher called the meeting to order and Lester Rogers took the clerk's chair in the absence of Clerk Service. The minutes were read and a grist of bills, somewhat heavier than ordinarily, were read, approved and ordered paid.

G. H. Church of the Tecumseh Electric Co. appeared before the council to explain the impracticability of placing a switch controlling the ornamental street lights in the office of the Hotel Barrett as ordered by the council at a previous meeting. Such a change would require quite a little expense and would affect the insurance of the hotel building. He informed the council that his company had lost out on the current for these lights. That the contract with the village was at a low rate and that it also specified a time clock to protect the company from waste current [illegible] been purchased to [illegible] and the company desired this installed. There was considerable [illegible] clock which had been reported as not doing the work intended. Mr. Church explained that the clock is all right and he would guarantee it to work. The council ordered the clock installed, given a fair trial and paid for if the trial proves satisfactory.

The semi-annual interest on the sewer bond was ordered paid.

The president appointed the finance committee as auditors to audit the books of the clerk and treasurer.

The fire truck came up for discussion and the council sticks to its belief that the truck is all right despite adverse criticisms passed upon it by citizens.

Eight new chairs were ordered for the council chamber not to exceed $100 in price. This action is taken to accommodate visitors.

Trustee Rogers endeavored to secure better light for the room, an improvement that would entail but little expense, but his motion received no support. The present lighting arrangement is not the best for the eyes.

The street commissioner was instructed to scrape the mud off the business streets now while conditions are favorable so they can be put in good condition. Quite a discussion followed and the idea of graveling and covering with tarva was talked. Experts may be called in for advice on the matter.

No further business the council adjourned.

RECEPTION FOR REV. CURTIS

On Friday evening the Baptist people gave a very pleasant reception for their new pastor Rev. W. R. Curtis, and family, the Good Cheer class of the Sunday school having the affair in charge. The young ladies had arranged the chapel with palms, and easy chairs, pictures and other furniture and it looked delightfully homey. Albert Howard announced the following program:

STILL MYSTERIOUS

Is the Disappearance of Channing D. Beebe.

The disappearance of Channing D. Beebe still remains as much of a mystery as ever. Only one clue has appeared in the past week, that of finding his traveling bag. It seems this bag was picked up near the depot in Toledo and after the baggage man had cared for it a few days and it was not called for he turned it over to the chief of police. The latter opened it, finding some of Mr. Beebe's cards, a bunch of keys, the hat he wore when he left home and a few articles anyone would carry while traveling. He wrote Mr. Beebe here that his grip had been found.

The family are doing all in their power to solve this riddle and it is hoped that within a few days they may receive some good report, as they certainly will if he has not met foul play.

One theory which is advanced by a physician and seems probable is that as he has only just recovered from the influenza possibly a dementia has formed as an after effect. In this disease several such cases have been reported over the state, but they have only lasted a few weeks at the most, so it may be in this case.

FARM HOUSE RANSACKED

Home of Will Fisher Treated Roughly by Marauders.

Neighbors a few days ago noticed that the doors out at Will Fisher's farm house were open and notified Mr. and Mrs. Fisher who are spending the winter in Detroit. Deputy Sheriff Smith was delegated by Mr. Fisher to go to the farm and report conditions. Mr. Smith found the house in the worst turmoil imaginable. Dresser drawers had been carried across the room to the window for better light evidently and there dumped out. The whole house had been ransacked from top to bottom. Of course the deputy sheriff does not know what had been taken, but he did find a napkin all nicely ironed laying in the drive so judged other things must have kept it company. He found the locks broken so went back with the necessary utensils to fasten up the house the next morning and there was a large front window cut out slick and clean with not a particle of broken glass around.

The deputy is awaiting further orders from Mr. Fisher as it [illegible] the articles [illegible] for him to [illegible] found.

LECTURES ON 'CHILDOLOGY'

A series of lectures on "Childology" are being given evenings this week at the school house. The first was on Tuesday evening. when the initial audience was comprised of only about 40 people. The speaker, Harry Scriver, comes under the authority of no organization. His hobby is just the children and his work is to bring to the people a deeper appreciation of their young people, or as he terms them, "America's greatest asses." Each day at the high school he gives a lecture to the students, which are instructive and brim full of things worth while. He is taking "Habit" as his theme today.

Tonight he speaks on "Thought and tomorrow evening on "A Child's Being."

Sunday evening at 6 p. m. he speaks to the united young peoples societies and the school students at the Presbyterian church and 7:30 to the public at the Baptist church. His subject at the first meeting will be "Winning Out" and the second "Our American Birthright and the Bolsheviki." This promises to be a great night as the speaker will dig up the bolsheviki that are to be found in Tecumseh.

There were many Tecumseh people in Ann Arbor Monday for the Caruso concert. Among them were Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Conklin, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Service, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, Mrs. Nellie Clarkson, Mrs. P. C. Satterthwaite, Mrs. W. G. Waldron, Mrs. Ella Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. [illegible] the Misses Camilla Hay and Lillian Kennedy, and [illegible] Lowry.

Rural Carrier Examination.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the County of Lenawee, Mich., to be held at Tecumseh and Adrian, March 22, 1919 to fill the position of rural carrier at Jasper and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above-mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

Why You Should Use a National Vacuum Washer

Why Does It Wash Quicker

BECAUSE: the rapid action of the dasher driving the hot water and suds through the soiled clothes forces the dirt out. The agitation of the hot water makes the dirt respond immediately. Two to six minutes will remove the dirt from any fabric that can be cleaned with soap and water.

Why Does It Wash Cleaner

BECAUSE: by the vacuum principle the dirt is all forced OUT instead of rubbing part of it into the fabric.

Why With Less Work to the Operator

BECAUSE: by the vacuum principle it requires only power to handle the water, not the clothes. This eliminates the wear on the fabric and makes the machine run much easier.

In order to fully appreciate the real value of THE NATIONAL VACUUM WASHER, YOU MUST GIVE IT A TRIAL.

COMMUNITY HOUSE IDEA GROWING

PLAN FAVORED IN PROFESSIONAL MEN'S LETTERS

"Tecumseh Night No. 2" at Presbyterian Church Sunday Evening a Winner—Church Packed.

Again on Sunday evening was the Presbyterian church packed to the walls, for Rev. W. A. Rex was to give the second "Tecumseh Night" letters. A month before had been read letters from business men answering his question regarding Tecumseh's needs industrially, socially and morally and suggestions for remedies of the same. These letters created much talk and have been productive of good, in many ways. Last Sunday night the letters were from the professional men of the town—doctors, dentists, lawyers, teachers and the clergy. And one thing has been spoken of since, that there was a decided difference in the English used. In the last bunch of letters read the language was excellent, in many instances flowery, but so many more words necessary to convey the sense, while in the first letters they were concise, right to the point and no mincing of matters.

Rev. Rex in a short prelude said these letters were read not in a spirit of criticism but in all kindliness. He does not believe in saying a town is not inflicted when it is, the same as if one had tuberculosis. If we know it, we can do something to remedy the trouble. The besetting sin of Tecumseh is self satisfaction. In

In all the letters there was no word of gambling, but in nearly all the idea of the community house was enlarged upon. So he judged the gambling had been looked after.

In the first letter, well oiled streets were advocated; also Evans street paved from depot to depot. Another spoke of the extravagance of lighting our white way, how we would have as much light from the ornamental lights if the top lights were removed. One lamented the waste in letting the practically new West Branch school house lay idle; again a suggestion of a community house for clubs and public use generally. [illegible] children [illegible] in the letter. Another asked if it was wrong to dance, how about a good roller skating rink?

Several asserted that our high school "gym" is primarily for the scholars, not for the public while here again might be a thought in favor of the community house. In a couple were suggestions that educational films be shown in the high school auditorium.

Again it was called to the attention of the public that it might be as well to have all business places closed both during the hours of church and Sunday school. One man said a careful study of the ten commandments and the application of the same to Tecumseh would be the best thing for the town and her noblest moral law.

One of our professional men says our greatest need is a better religion and a revival of same. Only one says our greatest need is more manufacturing plants to keep our boys here, that we need more loyalty and better co-operation. He lauds the high school gymnasium, saying no such factor for good was ever in our village. This same man advocated a community kitchen along with the community house.

One letter was like a breath of fresh air. The writer was perfectly satisfied with the best little town on earth, everything is just all right.

Another says we lack the social and civic spirit, we have laws but are not aggressively active for the enforcement of the same. Some one else affirms that our club and lodge rooms are used too frequently as the center of life instead of the home. Another: "Would it not help the needs of the town for all Protestant churches to join together, with one church building, another, for church school, one pastor, to call the same the "Christian church of Tecumseh." Rev. Rex right here called for a standing vote on this proposition. This vote was almost unanimous.

In one letter the lack of a spirit of loyalty to the business interests of the town was lamented, and that the business men be more loyal to each other.

A musical social for the town was another idea, also that we have gas in our kitchens. Another that we have inter-Sunday-school games of volley and basket ball. Also better living by so-called Christians.

The fact that for the last two Saturdays some 30 children have played at the "gym" supervised by their teachers was lauded and supervised dances suggested, rather at gym than at public dance halls.

A "more open-door program in church and school" was the theme of one letter, or more "everybody welcome" spirit.

At this time of year another thought came in "pat." That the building, care and use of the athletic field be encouraged to keep up the spirit already started by the high school gymnasium.

The minister then called for a receptacle in which to burn these letters and Janitor Linn brought the necessary implements and the letters, having served their purpose, were consigned to ashes.

Among the announcements read at the beginning of the service was that Harry Scriver, who gives lectures this week on "Childology" will address the people at the Baptist church at the Community service next Sunday night.

THE DOLL SHOP

ARTISTIC PLAY BY HOME TALENT

Proves Highly Entertaining and Adds Neat Sum to the Treasury of Ladies' Band.

"The Doll Shop," as put on Thursday evening by the Ladies' Band, with Mrs. F. C. Dickinson directress, was one of the prettiest little shows ever given at the Bradley. As is true with every home talent given here the house was packed.

The first scene was of a doll shop with the beautiful wax dolls, quaint Dutch dolls and charming Oriental dolls arranged on shelves in display. The sailor boy doll (Wade Jones) and Topsy (Lillian Kennedy) were also in evidence and the Jack in the box (Fred Dickinson) helped to make things lively. Rastus (George A. Rathbun) had a lot of trouble dusting the doll babies and trying to please the proprietor (Miss Marian Rosacrans) and her husband (E. E. Berry).

The jokes Rastus cracked were good and brought gales of laughter.

The singing was excellent, the soloists being Rastus, Hulda (Mrs. E. T. Rosacrans), Sailor Boy Jack, the sand man (Harold Lowry), Molly the milkmaid (Mrs. J. M. Mulvaney), Old Mother Goose (Mrs. E. C. Heiiman) with the fairies and dolls in choruses. Titania (Miss Marian Rosacrans) and her fairies were in one beautiful chorus, Hulda and the Dutch Dolls in another, Molly and the wax dolls in still another while the dancing of Pepita, the Spanish doll (Miss Marjorie Rosacrans). Babette, the French doll (Mrs. D. J. Hodges) and Wiley McCann, a customer, would do credit to professionals.

Another pretty dance was that of Topsy Orienta (Teresa Deery) and the Oriental dolls. The little Miss Deery was the surprise of the evening. Her dancing was [illegible] she can be assured.

Between acts were a clarinet solo by Clare Camburn, the instructor of the ladies' band, and a laughable skit, a telephone scene from "Odds and Ends of 1918" by Mrs. D. J. Hodges and E. E. Berry. The accompanists were Mrs. F. B. Wood and Miss Edna Taylor with violin played by J. D. Service and traps by P. G. Heidenreich.

The ladies managing and all taking part in the play are to be congratulated upon the success of the entertainment. The costumes were pretty, the stage settings very attractive and the singing and dancing splendid.

The band nets about $200 from the performance.

While three days out in the Atlantic they sent a wireless to Miss Geneva Satterthwaite in Boston and she met them in New York. Miss Comfort accompanied Miss Geneva to Boston to visit relatives and Miss Beth came on home. It was quite a co-incidence that the young ladies returned home on the same boat on which Miss Beth went across.

The young ladies are both trained nurses and have helped in the reconstruction work at Sermaize in the Marne Valley. This vicinity had been almost completely devastated by the Germans in 1914 and the work of our girls has been to care for the old and helpless of the district as well as Red Cross nursing.

One little incident Miss Satterthwaite relates which to the home folks is interesting. She, one day in her travels in France, saw two officers talking. On the sleeve of one was the red arrow, the insignia of honor given the 32nd. She approached them, so pleased to see a 32nd soldier. She asked the man from which regiment he hailed, saying she was a Michigan girl, coming from Tecumseh. He answered he was a U. of M. man and did she by any chance know a member of his class, one Perry Satterthwaite, a Tecumseh man? Her own brother.

Notice—Regular meeting of Junior O. U. A. M. Monday evening, March 12. Important business. All brothers requester to be present.

COUNCIL ROOM IN NEW DRESS

VILLAGE DADS ENJOY IMPROVED QUARTERS

Regular Monthly Meeting Monday Evening—More Improvements to be Made.

'Tis said that Tecumseh now has the neatest, tidiest voting place in the county. The old town building, which has been neglected for years, has begun to present a new appearance on the interior, where carpenters, painters and decorators have been at work.

The lower floor, the engine room proper, has been renovated and placed in such condition that our lady voters need not hesitate to present themselves to cast their first ballot. Everything will be spick and span on election morn.

The council chamber on the second floor has undergone a change—transformed from a dingy, littered room to a really attractive place where no body of men or women need to be ashamed to meet. The walls have been papered, the woodwork painted, the official council table neatly covered, chairs and linoleum revarnished and the filing cases that have been kept in an untidy pile have been removed to the rear room where they are neatly stored away in a cupboard. So good did the improvement look that the building committee was ordered to complete the job by painting the rear upper room, the stairway and hall.

President Fisher called the meeting to order and Lester Rogers took the clerk's chair in the absence of Clerk Service. The minutes were read and a grist of bills, somewhat heavier than ordinarily, were read, approved and ordered paid.

G. H. Church of the Tecumseh Electric Co. appeared before the council to explain the impracticability of placing a switch controlling the ornamental street lights in the office of the Hotel Barrett as ordered by the council at a previous meeting. Such a change would require quite a little expense and would affect the insurance of the hotel building. He informed the council that his company had lost out on the current for these lights. That the contract with the village was at a low rate and that it also specified a time clock to protect the company from waste current that [illegible] and the company desired this installed. There was considerable discussion as to the clock which had been reported as not doing the work intended. Mr. Church explained that the clock is all right and he would guarantee it to work. The council ordered the clock installed, given a fair trial and paid for if the trial proves satisfactory.

The semi-annual interest on the sewer bond was ordered paid.

The president appointed the finance committee as auditors to audit the books of the clerk and treasurer.

The fire truck came up for discussion and the council sticks to its belief that the truck is all right despite adverse criticisms passed upon it by citizens.

Eight new chairs were ordered for the council chamber not to exceed $100 in price. This action is taken to accommodate visitors.

Trustee Rogers endeavored to secure better light for the room, an improvement that would entail but little expense, but his motion received no support. The present lighting arrangement is not the best for the eyes.

The street commissioner was instructed to scrape the mud off the business streets now while conditions are favorable so they can be put in good condition. Quite a discussion followed and the idea of graveling and covering with tarva was talked. Experts may be called in for advice on the matter.

No further business the council adjourned.

RECEPTION FOR REV. CURTIS

On Friday evening the Baptist people gave a very pleasant reception for their new pastor Rev. W. R. Curtis, and family, the Good Cheer class of the Sunday school having the affair in charge. The young ladies had arranged the chapel with palms, and easy chairs, pictures and other furniture and it looked delightfully homey. Albert Howard announced the following program:

Song—"America".

Address of Welcome—Dr. L. G. North.

Piano solo—Mrs. Ted McConnell.

Solo—Mrs. R. S. Moore.

Greetings from the clergy of the village—Revs. Rex, Widdifield, Escolme and Thompson.

Responses—Rev. and Mrs. Curtis.

Piano solo—Miss Lillis Howard.

Trombone and Piano—Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Waldron.

Song—Men's quartette.

Closing with the singing of "Blest be the Tie that binds."

The balance of the evening was spent in getting acquainted and the young ladies served punch and wafers.

STILL MYSTERIOUS

Is the Disappearance of Channing D. Beebe.

The disappearance of Channing D. Beebe still remains as much of a mystery as ever. Only one clue has appeared in the past week, that of finding his traveling bag. It seems this bag was picked up near the depot in Toledo and after the baggage man had cared for it a few days and it was not called for he turned it over to the chief of police. The latter opened it, finding some of Mr. Beebe's cards, a bunch of keys, the hat he wore when he left home and a few articles anyone would carry while traveling. He wrote Mr. Beebe here that his grip had been found.

The family are doing all in their power to solve this riddle and it is hoped that within a few days they may receive some good report, as they certainly will if he has not met foul play.

One theory which is advanced by a physician and seems probable is that as he has only just recovered from the influenza possibly a dementia has formed as an after effect. In this disease several such cases have been reported over the state, but they have only lasted a few weeks at the most, so it may be in this case.

FARM HOUSE RANSACKED

Home of Will Fisher Treated Roughly by Marauders.

Neighbors a few days ago noticed that the doors out at Will Fisher's farm house were open and notified Mr. and Mrs. Fisher who are spending the winter in Detroit. Deputy Sheriff Smith was delegated by Mr. Fisher to go to the farm and report conditions. Mr. Smith found the house in the worst turmoil imaginable. Dresser drawers had been carried across the room to the window for better light, evidently and there dumped out. The whole house had been ransacked from top to bottom. Of course the deputy sheriff does not know what had been taken, but he did find a napkin all nicely ironed laying in the drive so judged other things must have kept it company. He found the locks broken so went back with the necessary utensils to fasten up the house the next morning and there was a large front window cut out slick and clean with not a particle of broken glass around.

The deputy is awaiting further orders from Mr. Fisher as it would be necessary for him to [illegible] and identify the articles should anything be found.

LECTURES ON 'CHILDOLOGY'

A series of lectures on "Childology" are being given evenings this week at the school house. The first was on Tuesday evening, when the initial audience was comprised of only about 40 people. The speaker, Harry Scriver, comes under the authority of no organization. His hobby is just the children and his work is to bring to the people a deeper appreciation of their young people, or as he terms them, "America's greatest assets." Each day at the high school he gives a lecture to the students, which are instructive and brim full of things worth while. He is taking "Habit" as his theme today.

Tonight he speaks on "Thought" and tomorrow evening on "A Child's Being."

Sunday evening at 6 p. m. he speaks to the united young peoples societies and the school students at the Presbyterian church and 7:30 to the public at the Baptist church. His subject at the first meeting will be "Winning Out" and the second "Our American Birthright and the Bolsheviki." This promises to be a great night as the speaker will dig up the bolsheviki that are to be found in Tecumseh.

There were many Tecumseh people in Ann Arbor Monday for the Caruso concert. Among them were Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Conklin, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Service, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, Mrs. Nellie Clarkson, Mrs. P. C. Satterthwaite, Mrs. W. G. Waldron, Mrs. Ella Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Turner, the Misses Camilla Hayden, Doris Cooley, Edna Taylor and Lillian Kennedy, and Harold Lowry.

Rural Carrier Examination.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the County of Lenawee, Mich., to be held at Tecumseh and Adrian, March 22, 1919 to fill the position of rural carrier at Jasper and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above-mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

Editorial Comment

A petition has been circulated among the business men to raise a fund for sprinkling the business district with water the coming season. When the petition reached this office, practically every business place was represented in the list of signatures, although some expressed their preference to oiling. One owner of business property absolutely refused to put his name down for water sprinkling, but expressed his willingness to pay double the amount required if oil was used.

The condition of the streets in our business district has been discussed considerably of late, and it now looks as though an improvement may be made. It is an indisputable fact that we have a fine roadbed to build upon after the surface of mud is removed. The village authorities are investigating the tarva process and experts in that material for road building have been called upon for advice. There is no question but what a good gravel road bound and topped with tarva would make a neat and substantial thoroughfare, not nearly as expensive as pavement.

Tecumseh is fortunate in having close at hand the best kind of gravel purchasable and there is no reason why we should not adopt a more cleanly and sanitary manner of building roads. The heaviest expense probably would be tiling the gutters, but wouldn't it be worth while to have a hard, clean, level road from curb to curb? It is anything but pleasant for ladies to alight from conveyances and step into the kind of filth the sides of our streets are covered with at this time of year. Let's push for a sanitary business thoroughfare and keep pace with less prosperous towns that are boasting neat pavements.

An official of the Commerce club said since Sunday night's community service: "With the exception of our attorneys I have not seen a professional man of Tecumseh at one of the meetings of the Commerce club. Why don't they attend the meetings of the club and bring up community welfare subjects. That's what the club is for."

That's just exactly one of the places where Tecumseh lacks cooperation. Every man interested in the welfare of the community should be affiliated with the club and attend the meetings of the organization. There should also be more frequent meetings of the club.

Of late there has been considerable comment in regard to the Sunday picture show, and again at the community service Sunday evening the subject was brought up forcibly when one of the preachers remarked that if he were elected village president there would be no Sunday picture shows.

Without any idea of upholding or promoting Sunday amusements, The Herald makes the suggestion that it might be well to study the question from all angles calmly and thoroughly and under no circumstance take undue or hasty action that might later be regretted. There are two sides to every question and we should look on both sides.

It must be admitted that there is a demand for a Sunday picture show, else there would not be enough patronage to warrant its opening on that day. How great is this demand? Have the people of the community that want the picture show any rights in the matter?

Last Sunday evening the Presbyterian church, the largest in town, was filled—the building was inadequate to accommodate all that came to attend the community service. Upon inquiry we learn that the opera house also had a good sized crowd at the same time. What would the people in the theatre have done had the play house been closed?

Will it do the churches or the community any good to deny these people, who do not seem to care to attend church service, the movie as long as Adrian and other places keep Sunday amusements?

What will be the effect of closing—will it bring the patrons of Sunday picture shows to church or drive them out of town to a place where they can satisfy their desire for amusement? What would be the effect as soon as the auto season opens up?

Adrian a year or two ago put up a fight against Sunday movies. Wouldn't it be wise to learn why the shows are not closed now? May we not learn from the experience of others?

Please understand that The Herald is for the best interests of Tecumseh every minute, industrially, socially and morally. Tha is the only reason these questions are put.

If the closing of the Sunday picture show is a community benefit, close it. If it is a community benefit have it legalized —have it on the square.

That community house idea evidently has taken deep root with our thinking people. The community spirit is growing and the prospects for a more thorough cooperation for community welfare movements look bright. There is no place better than our own home community, but as mentioned Sunday night we must not be too easily satisfied with ourselves and our surroundings. Much better to be unsatisfied and work for even better things.

SCHOOL NEWS

Saline vs. Tecumseh.

It takes the High School bunch to pick out the lovely nights and roads for touring. Any civilized person would have thought so had they accompanied our company of players and rooters on their trip to and from Saline last Friday night. It sure was a corker. "We slid over and bumped back" is the best description of the voyage. Anyone who was out Friday night will appreciate that.

But was it worth while? We should say Yes! Although our valiant girls put up a great old fight and lost, nevertheless the boys brought home the bacon.

Leaving Tecumseh around 6 o'clock, our party of nine cars (and occupants) were nearly all in Saline at 7 o'clock. The boys began their game at 8:15. It was by far the most interesting game our boys have played this season. Saline must have regretted the loss of the first game for she put up a "Battle Royal" this time. At the end of the third quarter the score was a tie 16-16. In the fourth quarter Tecumseh got in her best licks making Saline sit up and take notice. The final score was 23-17.

Following an intermission that proved to be a source of amusement to all present, because the hall was thrown in total darkness by a fuse being blown out, was the girls game.

Our girls lost by a score of 10-26 but did not by any means give the game away.

Following the games a reception was given Tecumseh at the High School and refreshments were served.

Then wa all danced, teachers and all.

Although our hosts offered to find lodging for the party for the night, we declined their generous hospitality and "bumped our weary way home," arriving around 2:30 a. m.

We have several new pupils that entered this week from Adrian—the two Vogels in the high school and Geo. Dengy in the 4th grade. Christine Adams is another new entry in the 3rd grade. Herbert Spafford has left for Jackson and Geo. Merritt for Adrian.

Each Friday the English II and IV classes have a program given by its respective members. Last Friday the English II program was under the leadership of Ralph Hodges, while Dorothy Martin, John Baker, Floyd Whitmore and Alice Howe gave readings. The English IV class had a debate, Alice Hardenburg acting as chairman. The subject for discussion was "That English literature should be required in high school" and was supported on the affirmative by Eula Schwartz (captain), Vera Sisson and Mabel Lockwood. On the negative by Lucile Miller (captain), Elizabeth Comfort and Violet Boyd. It was a very interesting debate and the decision was in doubt until the last, the affirmatives finally winning out. The judges were Harley VanVleet, Gladys Gilbert and Muriel Halladay. Alice Hardenburg has charge of the program next Friday.

"Goody" visited school (?) last week and attended the basket ball game in Saline, taking part in some of the refereeing.

Let's see a little more pep in getting to school in the morning. Set that alarm a week ahead.

The military training class has started semaphore signaling. "Rip" features.

Tests were the general subjects of disgust this week.

A great many H. S. students accompanied the players to Saline Friday, where the boys won 23-17 and the girls lost 26-11. We were treated royally and outside of the roads, weather and tires (some blow-outs) could not have asked for anything better.

The results of the games in our gym Saturday night were: Soph girls 16, Britton H. S. girls 19; Freshmen girls 7, Junior H. S. girls 5; Freshmen boys 14, Soph boys 7.

Adrian Y. M. C. A. and T. H. S. boys play at Adrian Saturday night.

The Britton boys and girls make a return visit to Tecumseh and both the boys and girls are planning to win. They will be fast, snappy games and everybody is invited. Admission 25c.

Yea team, fight 'em. Let's go.

Woman's Missionary Circle

The Woman's Missionary Circle of the Presbyterian church met at the church last Friday for one of their bountiful pot luck dinners at which 45 were served.

Later came the monthly meeting of the society. This was opened by singing. Mrs. Ella James conducted the responsive reading. Mrs. F. D. Rector invoked the Divine blessing.

The president, Miss Nannie Kyle then appointed delegates for the Presbyterial meeting to be held in Adrian the last Thursday and Friday in March, these delegates to be Mrs. H. B. Tallman, Mrs. Ella James, Mrs. S. W. Boyce, Mrs. F. E. Snedicor, Mrs. Charles Orr, Mrs. Andrew Wilson, Mrs. Willis Smith, Mrs. Hobart Mitchell, Mrs. F. D. Rector, Mrs. J. J. Orr, Mrs. L. M. Waldron, Mrs. A. D. Lawrence, Mrs. John Wyrill, Mrs. Charles Nobles. These are to give reports of the Presbyterial meeting at an Echo meeting in April.

The sick committee was appointed as follows: Mrs. Theodore Crane, Mrs. L. M. Waldron, Mrs. Chas. Nobles, Mrs. Willis Schreder, Mrs. James Aten.

Mrs. James Cupples and Mrs. Mitchell gave an instrumental duet and Mrs. E. H. Halladay acted as leader of the study session.

The last chapter of the book, "The African Trail," was discussed by Mrs. James, Mrs. F. D. Rector and Mrs. J. J. Orr.

"The Path of Labor" is to be taken up next with Mrs. Rector leader.

The meeting was made further interesting by the presence of Mrs. C. A. Slayton of Adrian.

Solliloquy of a Suffragette.

To scratch, or not to scratch, that is the question which agitates the female voters' mind. Whether 'tis better to use the knowledge that we have, or take the council of those who speak of things they know not of. A name upon our ticket which we cannot brook. To scratch, or not to scratch? 'Tis a temptation strongly to be withstood, when we might his political quietus make with a bare lead pencil.

To scratch, or not to scratch? No More? Ay, there's the rub, throw our whole ticket out, and our opponent thus gain what we had thought to have him lose.

Then there's the respect which makes calamity of such long strife to get a ballot which we know not how to use. For who would bear the whips and scorns of the proud male voters contumely, when he might a straight ticket vote, and avoid all the spruns which patient merit of the unworthy takes. We have now the right to vote, 'tis a consummation devoutly to be wished, but these contentions "puzzle the will, and make us rather bear those ills we have, than rush to others that we know not of."

THE FIRST ROBIN?

One Has Made Home in Tecumseh All Winter.

Editor Tecumseh Herald:

Dear Sir: Last week's Herald mentioned a man seeing the "first robin." In January Miss Casey was home from Detroit and she came into my home in great excitement, exclaiming that she had seen a robin. I had to tell her as I shall tell your man that a robin has been here all winter; even most of last winter. Just now there are many, but I can tell the regular resident by its voice and habits. I know several that have seen a robin all winter.

Too bad there isn't an audobon society here. I don't believe there is such a place as Tecumseh anywhere for bird study, and they need better protection. The president of the Detroit audobon society, while visiting here, in a few hours' walk noted some 74 different species of birds. Farmers, I am certain, would be interested to know their friends better. Can you not through your paper create interest among bird lovers?

Faithfully,

Mrs. Helen M. Sheridan.

(It is undoutedly true that Tecumseh furnishes the environments for bird study equaled by few places in Michigan and we would be pleased if a society for the culture of our feathered friends were formed.—Editor)

PART ONE

Max Crossman, receiving a commission from Rose Legere, goes forth to ply his trade. He lands in a little town in Pennsylvania and puts up at the best hotel. Pretty Mary Denbigh, a high-school girl, has been detained in school by the teacher for deficiency in lessons, and as she saunters by the hotel, Max, attracted by her youth and beauty, follows her. She resents his approaches, but Max is persistent. Later Mary thinks herself badly abused by her parents, and while in a perturbed state of mind, she again meets Max and is soon in the spider's web.

With a promise of marriage he urges her to leave home.

PART TWO

Max takes the girl to New York, and, explaining that they can not be married until a license has been issued, under pretense of his desire to protect her takes her to the home of a woman presumably a friend of his mother's, for the night. By this clever ruse the innocent girl falls into the clutches of the notorious Rose Legere. The awakening and realization of the morning is for Mary a sad one, one to cause the spirit of true manhood and womanhood to rise in storms and indignation and protest, and to demand that such practices be forever effaced from the civilized world. Let every man with virile blood in his veins buckle on the sword of salvation, and lend a helping hand to forever stamp out this awful disgrace to the entire universe and humanity.

PART THREE

Tbi shows the heroic struggle of the innocent victim to escape from bondage and her efforts to secure honorable and respectable employment. It also shows the strong contrast between young girls who have had an early religious training and Katie Flannigan, a poor East Side orphan, who lives in the midst of squalor and crime, ofttimes without food and necessities of life, and yet has instilled in her frail little body a religious training which rears up in time of temptation as strong as Gibraltar's rock and gives her the moral courage to resist the temptations of the underworld and walk the straight and narrow path of respectability and honor.

Again we point to the powerful moral to unthoughtful parents. Don't neglect your children's early religious training, regardless of what your creed may be.

PART FOUR

We follow the misfortunes of poor Mary Denbigh through her illness and then on through her efforts to secure an honorable livelihood. With strong men's hands and hearts turned against her as though she were a viper or some low thing of the world, her struggles for righteousness and honor are pitiful and heartrending. With not a helping hand held out to aid her, with a rebuke of her every honest effort, poverty creeps on and overtakes her. Feasting on poverty, comes crime—and there comes to the clean mind that lesson which has been repeated over and over again from time immemorial.

Let us who can give aid and employment to those in dire need, and let us be not swayed by appearances, but rather by honor of intention.

PART FIVE

Mary Denbigh, in her desperate efforts to secure honest employment and a home, is tempted by an employment agency to appropriate a reference under the name of Bella Nimick and with it secures employment in the household of Mrs. Chamberline. Shortly after she has begun her duties, her mistress' wayward son, who had met Mary at Rose Legere's house, recognizes hre as the girl who had appealed to him at one time to aid her to escape from bondage. Realization and fear of a possible scandal which might arise from such action had prevented him from acting.

Confronting the poor and unfortunate girl he demands that she go and go at once. This was the last straw to break the girl's hope and faith in mankind. How much better it would have been had this same wayward son of the rich been taught the words of his Redeemer: "Let him who is without sin cast the first stone."

Young Chamberline's thoughtless action and words send Mary out into the world to become once more a helpless derelict on life's shores. Shortly after she meets Max, the betrayer and, although a faint smile appears on her face, her heart cries within her for vengeance when she once more gazed on the debauched countenance of the human fiend who had wrought her misery, and building this awful life of misery and degradation

Judgment Will Prove That the Wages of Sin is Death.

PART SIX

Seemingly spurned by the whole world, uncared for, unpitied, she wanders alone, a creature of God, forsaken, unknown, she has drunk the deepest dregs from sorrow's cup and all dead within her, save the fear of death, again she meets young Beekman, as he prowls his old haunts and dives in company with a sailor. He recognizes her, and, realising his inhuman act in casting her from his mother's home, tries to redeem himself by giving her money that will take her back to her own home.

After witnessing a scene of horror, she flees from the den and reaches the home of her father, only to find that there is no welcome there, the home that knew her from childhood was barred against her. In fear of the father's wrath, the mother turns her away. Who shall judge this mother's action. How many women, cowed and browbeaten by cruel, unjust husbands, do acts of this kind against their own heart's desire? Mary returns to New York, and in her despair applies to Rose to take her in. The door that closed upon her and ruined her young life is shut in her face and she falls sobbing.

The author, Mr. Kauffman, left her there, to drive home his powerful moral. But the producer of the picture felt uneasy and desired to show what the fate of poor Mary was: therefore, put her in good hands, and, when you view the picture, the verdict will be yours.

BRADLEY OPERA HOUSE ATTRACTIONS

"The House of Bondage"

Through a special arrangement the Bradley opera house will present the greatest of all white slave pictures, "The House of Bondage" on next Wednesday evening, March 12th. The story is taken from Reginald Wright Kauffman's startling book and is shown in six mammoth acts with Miss Lottie Pickford (Mary Pickford's younger sister) in the leading role. The picture is declared to be the greatest white slave production ever shown. This picture is to be shown to adults only and no one under 16 years of age will be admitted.

There is no denying the object lesson pointed out in "The House of Bondage" and the picture will be presented here right from the big cities and will be here for the one night only.

Bonita and Lew Hearn.

On Thursday, March 13th, just one week from tonight, Tecumseh people will get their first taste of high class 'city vaudeville' direct from the Palace and Winter Garden theatres in New York city. It is the first time that an entertainment of this kind has ever been booked at the Bradley and it should prove here, as everywhere else, an evening's entertainment of the very rarest sort. If you like to see pretty women, listen to melodious music, see graceful dancing of unusual art and have many good laughs make your plans now to attend the Bradley next Thursday evening.

The main attraction with the show is Bonita and Lew Hearn, late stars of the Century Theatre and Winter Garden, New York. Bonita in all of her radiant beauty and wonderful gowns never appeared to better advantage than she does in her new act with Lew Hearn.

Tom Sawyer.

"Hey, Tom Sawyer!" Down through the centuries will ring that one small boys cry. To the laughter and tears of men and women, of small boys and girls, it has rung round the world. You who have laughed so often at Huckleberry Finn and Tom Sawyer, have you ever stopped to think how much serious thought Mark Twain has put in these books? How much of himself, of his own boyhood, he has put into ragged, mixed up, lovable Huck Finn, into irresistible Tom Sawyer.

Who that has ever read his wonderful works would miss the opportunity of seeing his "Tom Sawyer" immortalized in films. You will have this opportunity next Sunday evening, Mar 9, when the management of the Bradley opera house, Tecumseh, takes pleasure in presenting these immortal works. Come and bring the children, you will find "Tom Sawyer" entertaining, amusing, interesting and of a strong educational character. Never was a more befitting or appropriate film for Sunday presentation shown on any screen. In fact, if you notice the class of attraction presented at the Bradley on Sunday evenings you must note that they are all good, clean pictures of the very best class and certainly very appropriate for Sunday showing. It is better to have our young folks, and some of the older ones, too, seeing pictures of this class at home where you know the caliber of the entertainment presented than to 'chase' to some surrounding cities and not know what kind of class of entertainment they are attending.

Lectures on Voting Methods and Beer and Wine Amendment.

The women who gathered at the M. E. church Tuesday afternoon showed by their intense interest how fully the women of the community, who have taken the trouble to register, appreciate their new rights of franchise. Yet Mrs. Hardy tells that out of our 800 or more women but 459 had registered for the village election with Mr. Service, the village clerk.

Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, in the name of the Monday club, presided.

Mrs. Hardy said she was giving the second lecture as so many had become confused by the misinformation given out. She read frequent transcripts from the Telegram, then from the election laws of the state, several letters from Judge Larwill, Atty John Howell, and others, beside announcing that at the Republican convention she had asked the Lenawee delegation of 25 and each and everyone said her method of voting is correct and the Telegram's wrong.

The only difference in her instruction in the second lecture was that "when only one candidate is up for office and you wish to vote for another not on your ticket, you make a cross before the chosen candidate's name but it is not necessary to erase the person's name on your own ticket.

Her instructions she made very plain and none of her listeners will be liable to have their ballots thrown out.

She spoke enthusiastically against the beer and wine amendment. She has taken up this work heartily and in her various schools of instruction over the county will be a great factor in putting a black eye on the amendment. She beseeches the women of the town to make themselves each a missionary against this amendment and asked for volunteers to go over the town and arouse our sister women to the conditions which will exist if it is passed. She says one man with whom she has worked for suffrage said "We men made the state dry, now if we go wet, you women will be to blame." Think it over.

She also spoke in favor of the Good Roads amendment.

Mrs. Herdy goes to Hudson Thursday to give this school of instruction.

Owners Are Better Guides than Specifications

With each succeeding year the public appreciation of Overland cars becomes more prevalent as increasing numbers of people learn to know the ideal to which the vast Willys-Overland resources are dedicated. Spring has brought a silhouette entirely new.

Particularly is this true in coats. The lines of the Spring garments reveal a vast difference. Here are pictured several exclusive models whose charm is in their touch of the Oriental. Scant skirts have been mixed with loose, full tops; this is the combination for the successfully stylish coat of 1919.

Coats must not be too long, else they hide the narrowness and length of the skirt.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

Lieut. Elroy Jones to Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Buckley.

(The writer of the following letter is a son of Frank Jones of Ann Arbor, state great chancellor of the Maccabees, and before entering the service was associated with Carl Schoffell in a Detroit law office. He is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Buckley.)

Tuesday, Feb. 5th, 1919.

Dear Aunt Ida and Uncle Sant.

Your fine letter of Jan. 14th just came in and as we are about to leave here, (Monday to be exact) on the first lay of our trip home, thought I better answer at once or the stress of travel might put me home owing you a letter. Enjoyed your letter very much and thank you a lot for it. Mother also sends me your letters and I always appreciate your interest in me.

Your friend Roy Cadmus is about 40 kilometers south of Pout-a-Mousson, but I have only been in Toul once. Don't expect to ever be there again, but if I do get near there shall certainly look him up. The wounded from our sector were sent to the hospital at Toul where he is located.

If there are 32nd Division boys from Tecumseh, your town should out-do itself forever when those boys come home. That division has covered itself with glory here and what those men have been through can never be appreciated except by those who had a slight taste of it as we did. The National Guard has borne the brunt of things here and the credit for the splendid showing they made shouldn't be denied them. I hope to do my share of apprising people at home what they have had to go through and how well it has been done. Am sure the entire corps of reserve officers and the draft men will be only too ready to say the same.

Am afraid, Aunt Ida, I shall have to return without the poppy seeds. Have never seen any poppies at all and am yet to see a seed store. As far as I have ever seen France is poppyless. Am sure you would enjoy the wonderful wine they have here and use like we do drinking water. But I will soon be back telling you all about France. Have just returned from three weeks traveling around and I have been practically all over that part south of Paris. Enjoyed the trip a great deal, especially the Mediterranean and French Alps.

Very glad you both have been well and dodged the flu. It was not bad over here and few men have had it. We had two men die of pneumonia but that could be expected with the cold and mud we were sleeping and living in.

Hoping to see you both in the near future, I am,

Sincerely,
Roy.

Corporal Ernest Church to His Parents Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Church.

Nehren, Germany.
Jan. 5, 1919.

My Dear Father:—

I suppose you think I have forgotten you all at home, but I have not, I think more of home every day. I didn't think so much of home when the war was going on, as I have since the war is over. All we think of now is when we are going home. I was in the army that hiked into Germany, and believe me it was some walking, I never fell out once, but several times I thought I would never go a foot farther without falling down.

I would give anything to know how you folks are at home, I have been transferred so many times lately that my mail don't reach me. I haven't heard from anyone since I left the 85th Division the latter part of October and of course those letters were about a month old, so really I don't know anything about home since the letter part of September. The last time I wrote I was with the 39th Inf. I Co., but now I am with E Co., 59th Inf.. I hope I remain here long enough to get some mail and I think I will in a few days.

How is mother? I hope she is all right. Tell her to keep up and I will be home after while. I wrote to you this time because I owe you a letter or two and I wrote to mother the last few times. Of course these letters are to both of you and I want you both to enjoy them. It is hard to write now, that I don't get any mail and the war is over too.

We are stationed in a little town on the Moselle river, about 65 kilometers from Coblenz, or about 46¼ miles.

I don't know when I will be home, but I guess as soon as peace is entirely fixed up. I will want some good feeds when I get home, so tell mother I will want her to prepare some of my good dishes when I get back.

I am feeling alright, don't worry about me. I will keep well. I will write again in a few days. Give my best to everybody.

Nehren, Germany.
Jan. 26, 1919

My Dear Mother:—

I know you think I am a dandy for not writing more than I do, but I just hate to write. I am feeling fine and dandy and there is no reason for you to worry over me, because I am getting along just as good as any one could get along. I am not homesick or any think like that, but believe me I will be glad when the time comes when we start for home. It sure will be a glorious day when I come back to see you all and I hope that will be soon, but I am afraid it may be a long time, because it is hard to tell how long they will keep us over here in Germany, but we all hope it won't be long.

We are in a nice part of Germany, it hasn't been cold here yet to speak of. We had a little snow Christmas time and then it warmed up and never froze again until last week, when we had another little snow, I guess it snowed about an inch or so. The temperature so far this winter hasn't been any lower than 3 or 4 degrees below the freezing line. Some different as compared with old Michigan weather, but it is plenty cold enough here, when we have to get out and drill every day.

I was up to Coblenz last week Saturday on a pass. About 40 out of our company went up for the day. I surely had a fine time. Coblenz is a nice city and has some wonderful sights, but I suppose its a whole lot prettier in the summer time. I went down and saw the Rhine river, so I could say that I have seen the Rhine. Being in Coblenz reminded me of the U. S. A. more than any time yet, since I have come across. It's the first time that I have ever been in a city where they had street cars since I came across. I have been in several large towns in France and Germany but none of them can even compare with any town in the U. S. A.

I suppose you think its funny that I don't speak of anything that you write, but I don't get any mail at all. I haven't heard from any one around home since I left the 85th Division, the first part of November. When my mail does ever catch me, I surely will have lots of it. You see I have been transferred twice since then and so my mail is being held up somewhere along the line wherever I have been.

How is father coming these days, I suppose just the same as ever. There's another fellow in this company who used to work with the Commonwealth Power Co., and we talk things over together it surely helps to pass the time away.

I was away from the company last week for training in the Browning automatic rifle. It surely is some rifle, if they only had had a lot of them when the war was going on, but they are something new.

Well I must close for this time, with love to you and father and aunt Jennie give my best to all the neighbors and my friends.

Your loving son,
Ernest.

From R. S. Cadmus to His Parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cadmus.

Toul, France, Feb. 4, 1919.

Dear Father and Mother:—

I received a letter from you last night and I am answering it this morning during a dull time. We are having cold weather now and it seems almost like winter. Had a little snow but that has all left.

I am not able to tell a thing about when we will leave. There are still all kinds of rumors floating around and "when we go home" is a topic which never fails to interest everyone, and whenever you see two or three fellows in an earnest discussion you can assume that they are talking over the latest dope. The latest thing out is that the ship on which we are to sail is now on the ocean. This seems the most probable thing I have heard for some time.

We were going to Nice the 15th of last month, also to St. Naziere and Bordeaux. We were going up into Germany and several other places. Several of our officers have gone home and several others have been transferred to other organizations. We are now taking in a few patients. I told you in my last letter about the throat swabbing we are doing. From the cultures we found three men who were carrying the germs in their throat. These men were isolated and are being treated now. Two of them were working in the kitchen and were undoubtedly infecting the whole hospital. Since they were isolated there have been no more cases of diphtheria. This shows the value of the laboratory.

The Germans who were filling up the "abri de bombardment" have at last completed their task and departed. It took them about two weeks. A dozen good men would have done the work in a week.

Pneumonia and influenza are light at present.

We have a Russian prisoner here who was a prisoner of the Germans for three years and was set free when the armistice was signed, as were all the Russians, so numerous hereabouts. This fellow worked in the mines and when he saw these aforesaid German prisoner's stalling around he was mad. He said they stood over him with a big whip, with lashes tipped with metal, and he had to work hard or feel it. They nearly starved him and then worked him 12 hours a day. He was disgusted with the French to see them treat their prisoners so easy. We also have a "terrible Turk" in the hospital. He has a U. S. uniform, as the clothes he wore when he came in were put through the sterilizer. He wears everything except the overseas cap and he insists on sticking to his little grey fez with the crescent and star and the little tassel. He is a bright little cuss and is picking up English. He has no love for the Germans. One day one of the fellows thought he would try to converse with him in German, and the "terrible" Turk wouldn't stand for it. He lowered his head, went after him and was going to lick him. The Turk was with the Austrian army. How he got up here I don't know. We have a couple of Romanians also and that completes our menagerie.

This is getting to be a pretty nice place. We had three shows last week and a basket ball game. Our company has a team now. There is a recreation hall here which the Red Cross has charge of and it is fitted up as a reading room, with books, magazines, games and writing material. Every day the Red Cross distributes the daily papers through the wards and leaves the remainder of them in the reading room, so we get the news daily.

The hall also has a stage with a curtain and scenery and there is still room for a basket ball floor. There is also a trapeze and a wrestling mat, base balls, gloves, boxing gloves, and only yesterday they got a couple of foot balls. As a result of this I am so stiff I can hardly perambulate. They are now marking out a tennis court.

We are getting good grub; have eggs every week or oftener and oranges, too. Have pork chops twice in the last two weeks and we get good bread, all we want, and plenty of jam, apricots and the old reliable prunes.

You probably wonder why I want to come home; yet nevertheless I do. There are a couple of women Red Cross workers who have charge of the recreation hall, and a couple of ex-patients take care of the place. Hope to parte toot sweet. Compra?

Roy.

He leaves five children and the one sister.

Friends have received the sad information that John Q. Look is critically ill with pneumonia in the hospital at the Masonic Home at Alma. An ardent Mason, in fact a past grand master of the Michigan grand lodge and a 32nd degree man and not finding a home with relatives congenial, he applied some months ago to the board of managers of the home for admission. This was contrary to the laws of the home on account of his being in good circumstances financially, but the complete board being his personal friends the law was waived and he has been very happy there. His many Tecumseh friends are watching for further information from Alma. As he was subject to asthma and far from well before the dread disease attacked him, they have reason to be fearful.

Relatives of all service men are requested by Mrs. Hendershot, village chairman and Mrs. Eaton, township chairman, to prepare information about soldiers, so that canvassers may obtain it with as little delay as possible. Dates of soldiers' and sailors' birth, enlistment, transfers, discharge if already secured, and units to which they were attached, are required. It is especially emphasized that even if a service man has not been discharged canvassers should be given as much of his record as possible to date, for the war service record will be open for months yet.

Regular meeting of Tecumseh Chapter, R. A. M., Wednesday evening. Work in Mark degree.

A party of Toledo men have leased the Putnam hotel at Sand lake and will make a club house of the same. It will be completely remodeled and made a popular place for the families of the members, although the public will be accommodated as before. The store will be removed from the hotel and occupy the present dance hall, while the porch will be enclosed in the hotel, giving a splendid sitting room where before the tiny sitting room could not begin to accommodate the patrons. The scheme looks like a great boost for the popular resort and we will further describe the improvements as they are made.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

From French Family, Who Adopted John Pennington.

Numerous French families made it a practice to adopt some of our soldier boys while on French soil driving out the Hun. The following letter was written from the lady of the home that adopted the late John Pennington to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pennington.

"Madam:—The unexpected news of the death of your son, John of which we heard lately has stupefied us—my husband and myself. We had a true sorrow. Allow me, madam, to offer you and all your family our sincere condolence. We sympathize to your deep sorrow and mingle our tears to yours.

"Exiled we too are because we have been hunted from our home that the Germans have destroyed. We understood the sorrow of this child separated from his family and friends—a separation that we always told him was only for a moment. We had adopted him and we liked him very much.

"We hope your son Kenneth will be given back to you in good health and be your consolation. We send a thought to Miss Ruth Roberts to whom this dear child was so faithful.

"Accept, Madam, the respectful homage of my household to you and your family.

"M. Marechal.

WHAT IS A DOLLAR WORTH?

The following article by Ben R. Vardaman, president of the National Community Betterment association, is one of the best pleas for home trade that has appealed to The Herald for some time. For the best interests of a community money should be kept as near home as possible. If an article can not be purchased in your home town, stick to your county; if not in your county stick to your state. We give Mr. Vardaman's arguments here:

"No, this is not a foolish question. Rather, it is a profoundly interesting question. Though simple as it may seem, the average individual cannot answer it.

"Ask the banker, the merchant, or other business man what a United States dollar is worth, and he will probably smile as he answers, 'Why it is worth 100 cents.'

"Now when the table of monetary values is used as a basis for calculation, we of course must say that our dollar is valued at 100 cents—no more, no less.

"But if the dollars there in your community are not worth more than 100 cents, there is something wrong — radically wrong—wrong with your people, wrong with your way of doing business, wrong with the way you employ your dollars.

"Suppose you have a bright silver dollar, and some one asks what it is worth, you may perhaps thoughtlessly say '100 cents.' But wait—you have not tried that dollar; you have not given it a chance to demonstrate its real worth; so you really do not know its value.

"If you spend it for some commodity and it is then dropped into the sea, or is melted and destroyed, losing its identity as a coin, it has been worth but 100 cents—it has performed the mission of just one dollar, and no more.

"But suppose you pay a debt with that dollar, and then the person receiving it from you does likewise and it goes from hand to hand there in your community, day after day, week in and week out, paying bills, buying necessities of life, helping every man, woman and child that it comes in contact with—then what is it worth? Your answer must be that it is worth infinitely more than 100 cents.

"It is interesting to know just what a dollar can do when kept busy. In the little city of Columbus, Mississippi, some one asked the question, What is a dollar worth in this community? And in order to answer the question fairly intelligently, the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce procured a number of crisp one dollar bills. To the back of each he clipped a slip of paper bearing a printed statement asking the holder to pass this dollar just as any other dollar was used in ordinary business transactions. The holder was also asked to place the date on the paper, when the dollar was spent. These marked dollars were released, and in due time they came back through the clearing house, and when they had all returned, it was found that they had changed hands at the rate of 220 times per year. In other words, is was found that these dollars in Columbus were performing a service equal to 220 times their face value every year.

"When these dollars were released in the channels of trade in that town and community, they each began performing a mission. Each one of these dollars helped the butcher, the banker, the teacher, the preacher, the merchant, the newspaper man, the laborer, the farmer—in fact every man, every woman, and every child in that great community was benefited by these dollars circulating among them. As these dollars went about among the people of the community, they assisted in the upbuilding of every industry. They helped pave the streets, build school houses, hospitals, homes; in fact, they had a part in every public and private enterprise.

Now suppose that one of these dollars had been sent away from your town and community to some distant city in payment for a dollar's worth of sugar, or some other commodity. The purchaser would have gotten his dollar's worth of goods all right—but that is all. The influence of the dollar would have been lost in that community while it was off in the distant city circulating among the people there performing its mission, helping upbuild the industries of the city. It wauld go about its work there in the city city just as it would have done at home had it remained there.

So after all, this is not an idle question, and the person who thinks of sending a dollar out of his community should think not only of what the dollar will bring into the community, or rather send into the community, because it should be remembered that the dollar does not come back without the purchase, but he should think of what his dollar could be made to accomplish if kept at home working among his friends and neighbors.

The dollar that is kept circulating in a community will again and again come back to visit the old owner, while the one that is sent away usually becomes attached to the distant city, town or community where it is sent, and remain there.

The foresighted and farsighted man, whether he be banker, merchant, doctor, farmer, artisan, or something else, will always seriously consider the value of his dollar to himself, his neighbors, and the community at large before he sends it away, never to return again.

Then answereing the question, What is a dollar worth? we must always take into consideration the spirit of the owner. If all the people of the community think of what a dollar can be made to do, and then keep their dollars moving in the communty as much as possible, their money is worth infinitely more than the valuation stamped upon it. But on the other hand, if the people are careless and thoughtless regarding the value of their money and hoard their savings or send their money away to work in some other community, what they actually get for their dollar may not be worth more than 100 cents.

Communication---Looking for Justice

To The Public:—

Since the purchase of the fire truck by the Village Council there has been considerable controversy concerning the same, and rumors have been afloat that the village has paid a topnotch price for a second-hand truck, or to be concise, it has been said by some of the so-called mechanics about town that a rebuilt motor was installed in the truck before it was delivered to us.

W. F. Fisher, Village President, took the motor number and wrote direct to the Continental Motors Corporation, from whom the Lane Motor Truck Company purchase their motors, and below is a letter from that corporation. As the number quoted in this letter is the same as is on the motor, any person professing any doubts on the subject may easily examine the motor and convince himself accordingly. Below is a copy of the letter, the original of which the writer has in his possession and would be pleased to show at all times.

The Letter.

Continental Motors Corporation,
Muskegon, Mich., Feb. 28, 1919
Mr. W. F. Fisher,
Village President,
Tecumseh, Michigan.

Dear Sir:—We have your letter of February 22nd which has reference to our Model N motor No. 54459 and in confirmation of the information previously furnished to you would state that this motor was shipped in September of 1918 and was supplied to the Lane Motor Truck Company of Kalamazoo, Michigan. This was a new motor at that date.

We trust that this is the information desired and beg to remain,

Yours very truly,
Continental Motors Corporation

Before purchasing the truck and the fire fighting apparatus, the Village Council, at their own expense, visited the following cities, to-wit: Hudson, Adrian, Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti, in order that they might inspect the trucks and apparatus of these cities, before purchasing. In other words, it was their desire to use all due care and precaution before obligating the village as regards the purchase of the truck and equipment.

At Hudson, the first place visited, it was found that the truck and apparatus had not been delivered due to the same reasons as the lateness of the delivery of our truck, namely the priority of war work. Hudson purchased their apparatus from the Obenchain-Boyer Co., from whom we purchased ours, and in their contract with the company, the details and specifications were the same as in ours. The members of the council were allowed to examine this contract and the writer is not doing any guess-work in making this statement.

At Adrian it was found that a truck had been purchased from the Lane Motor Truck Co. during 1917 and so great was the satisfaction that two more were purchased during 1918. The Obenchain-Boyer Co. apparatus was installed on one machine while two other makes of chemical apparatus were on other machines. It was the unanimous opinion of the firemen who used all three that the Obenchain-Boyer Co. was in a class by itself. As you are no doubt aware, nearly all chemical tanks contain water and soda and acid. The sulphuric acid contained therein is in a glass bottle. In the other two makes the tanks were turned upside down when desired for use, and the stopper was supposed to fall out of the head of the bottle, thus allowing the acid to mix with the water and soda and make the tank ready for use. It was found that trouble had been experienced due to fact that the stopper some times corroded and would not fall out when desired, thus rendering the tank useless. The Obenchain-Boyer tanks are equipped with an automatic hammer which breaks the glass bottle by simply giving the attached crank one turn and then the tanks are ready for use. These tanks are equipped with 200 feet of hose, thus giving the firemen wide latitude in fighting fire. Also as far as has been ascertained they are the only suitable tanks which one man can handle. The hose, previously mentioned, is equipped with an automatic shut-off which enables the user to make it ready for use and then dash to the spot of the fire without wasting any of the chemicals.

The company guarantees the chemical tanks for 25 years and the truck is guaranteed for one year, and so far the company have stood by their guarantee to the letter.

At Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti nothing suitable to our needs was found, although everything was examined carefully.

It is the desire of the writer that the spotlight be turned on the truck and apparatus and he will abide by the popular decision. Furthermore, when any information on this subject is desired do not write letters to our village parsons, but go to our Village Council and they will be pleased to give you the desired information. At least the cost of maintenance of the truck has been 100% less than the care for the old team.

The writer has no regrets or excuses to offer for any act which he may have committed while a member of the Council, knowing that he has used the same painstaking judgment that he would have used in his private business.

Signed,
Lester Rogers,
Chairman of Fire and Fire Limits Committee.

Letter From the Obenchain-Boyer Co. Received This Week.

Logansport, Ind., March 1, 1919.
Attention, Village Clerk.
Village of Tecumseh, Tecumseh, Mich.

Gentlemen: On February 20th your fire chief, Mr. Heesen, wrote the mayor of Clare, Michigan, a letter in which he set forth that your truck was an absolute failure, so to speak. Said the engine was a second-hand one two years old; batteries likewise old; that construction of rear step was faulty; braces but one-quarter inch iron and broke down with three men standing on it; tanks leaked; generator no good; starter would not turn engine over, and practically never did after the truck had been delivered.

We feel that such letters as this are malicious, intended to do our company an injury and will not stand for this talk. Our guarantee is perfectly good. We have never been called on and refused to make a guarantee good.

We fully appreciate the political factional fight that existed in your village and we think if anything has gone wrong with that truck, that your Council fully appreciates the hidden desire on the part of some to wreck it; hence never said anything to us about it.

Kindly let us know at once as to what you know of this matter.

We remain, yours very truly,
The Obenchain-Boyer Co.

PEOPLES TICKET WINS IN ELECTION

Mrs. Franc Gillespie the Champion Sprinter, Securing 478 out of 715 Votes Cast.

The results of Monday's election held some surprises for those awaiting returns. Where close contests were expected the counted ballots showed the opposite and candidates who were supposed to have a cinch were put to the rear in the vote showing.

One gratifying result is the number of votes cast—a total of 715—evidencing that the women did not neglect their rights at the first opportunity to cast a ballot for a candidate.

Mrs. Franc S. Gillespie, for treasurer, secured the largest vote, 478, outstanding her opponent, Miss LaPointe, by 258. Below we give the result by the ballots, candidates on the Peoples ticket being named first:

"QUEEN ESTHER"

The presentation of the famous dramatic cantata "Queen Esther" is a matter of musical importance in any community and to the enterprise and zeal of the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church is chief due the bringing of the work before this community. At the present itme there are over one hundred people drilling under the direction of Mr. George L. Howes of Detroit, who has long been considered a conductor of experience and success in works of this character. There are two choruses of adults representing Jews and Persians and a chorus of young girls for a flower scene, all appropriately costumed. The solo parts are well placed among the best of our local talent and Mr. Howes is confident that a strong and beautiful rendition of this famous work which is practically an opera, will be given to the people of Tecumseh.

Jewish Group—Mesdames Billings, Geo. Witherell, H. Whaley, R. McCoy, G. Field, F. Williamson, Shepherd, F. Heesen, G. R. Newsom, T. McCann, F. Turner, C. Williamson, L. Williamson, C. ARGONNE HERO HOME ON VISIT

Herbert Gove arrived home Saturday on a week's furlough from Camp Custer. He left home in July and went across with the 85th. In France he was put in a replacement corps and was sent to the front, taking part in the battle of Argonne. Here on Oct. 9th he was wounded both in leg and shoulder. He arrived among other casuals several weeks ago, but has been ill with diphtheria in an eastern camp, only getting back to Custer two weeks ago. SEVENTY-FOURTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Sarah Austin passed her 74th milestone Saturday. Her children to fittingly observe the day gathered at her daughter's, Mrs. Geo. S. Field's, where she makes her home, and surprised her happily. A bountiful potluck dinner was served at noon. The happy mother was presented with an electric reading lamp. Present were Mrs. Elmer Camburn, Lamont Camburn, Mrs. Lawrence Briggs and baby, Mrs. Ivan Spitler, Mrs. Arthur Camburn, Mrs. Clare Camburn and Mrs. B. F. Pennington of Macon, Mr. and Mrs. John Austin and son Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Austin and daughters Bernice and Genevieve, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCoy.

ELLSWORTH RIXOM DEAD

After a month of terrible suffering with ulcers of the stomach and many weeks illness from aenemia, Ellsworth Rixom passed away Sunday evening at the home of his mother, Mrs. Hiram Westcott, on VanBuren street.

Ellsworth was born in Ridgeway, March 26, 1878, making him 41 years of age this month. When two years of age he came to Tecumseh and this village has since been his home with the exception of the years spent at the Flint school for the deaf and dumb of which he was a graduate.

While at Flint he learned the printer's trade and he followed that calling the major part of his life. He worked for some time on the Herald, but for a number of years on the Tecumseh News, then later at T. W. Mingay's job office. A couple of years ago he began work at the Macaroni factory, only giving up his position there when forced to the step by ill health. Never ill, until recently, he was lavish with his strength, proud of the fact that he never shirked, but always did his share and a little more. As a printer he was painstaking and efficient. In spite of his terrible affliction he made hosts of friends over the town who all grieve with the mother in her great loss.

Beside the mother are left two sisters and one [illegible] Fannie [illegible] of Detroit, Mrs. Lucile Cook, of Adrian; and Lucian Westcott, of Cleveland; beside these step-brothers and sister; James Westcott of Cleveland; Will Westcott, of Tecumseh; Mrs. Fred Ives, of North Adrian; and Lester Westcott, of River Rouge.

The funeral was held from the home Wednesday afternoon, Rev. W. R. Curtis officiating. Burial in Brookside.

BRADLEY OPERA HOUSE ATTRACTIONS

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

A magnificent production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be the attraction at the Bradley opera house, Tecumseh, next Sunday evening, March 16th. It is safe to say that no play ever produced has been seen by so many people as "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and the Paramount picture corporation have now produced it in pictures in a bigger, better and more beautiful production than was ever done on the stage.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" is a play that will never die. For the first time it has been pictured in a manner befitting its dramatic and historic values. Your three favorites, Topsy, Little Eva, and Marguerite Clark are one and the same in the Paramount version and you'll love them, or her, to death. And you'll laugh and cry just as you did at the stage version.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" is a play for grown-ups that children will enjoy. Be sure to go early to insure a good seat, for no matter what the weather, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is sure to interest and entertain everyone.

Yankee Doodle Minstrels.

On next Wednesday, March 19th, Frank Q. Doyles' big minstrels, "The Yankee Doodle Minstrels," will be at the Bradley opera house for the one night only. As this is the only minstrel show booked for the year it is bound to attract a capacity house. "The Yankee Doodle Minstrels" is different from the usual run of minstrel shows as it is a combined musical comedy and minstrel show, two shows in one, so to speak.

Two magnificent stage settings are used in the production and the company numbers some 30 odd people, which includes a big chorus that will be seen in a number of exceptionally good musical numbers.

As usual with a minstrel show the big parade will be given at 11:30 (noon) and the usual free band concert at the theatre at 7:00 p. m. For prices, etc., see the Bradley ad on page five.

PRIMARY AND GRAMMAR GRADES ENTERTAIN

In the school "gym" last Friday some one hundred or more mothers and friends assembled in response to dainty little invitations and were certainly entertained by the primary and grammar grades to the queen's taste. Miss Alice Barber announced the program which was composed of exercises, dialogues, songs, a dramatization of Mother Goose stories, an original story by Genevieve Austin, several pretty little dances, closing with a series of setting-up exercises directed by Miss Russell.

The teachers and parents had reason to be proud of the little people as they went through the afternoon's program with scarcely an error.

After the program was completed, Supt. W. L. Reed invited the ladies to gather in the assembly room to discuss the idea of an organization for mutual benefit. There the question of either a parent-teacher's association or mother's circle was brought up and by motion Supt. Reed was made the chairman of a committee to make plans, he to select his helpers. This is the committee he appoints: L. E. Temple, F. S. Turner, R. S. Moore, Mrs. Chas. Burridge, Mrs. Chas. Deery, Miss Mildred Boyce. We will hear more of this in other issues.

REDLIN-FLAGER

A quiet little wedding took place at the M. E. parsonage this noon when Rev. C. M. Thompson performed the ceremony uniting Miss Ruth Flager, of Tecumseh, and Lewis Redlin, of Deerfield. The bridal couple were accompanied by the bride's mother, Mrs. Ella Flager. The newlyweds went at once to the groom's farm, 3½ miles north of Deerfield, where they will reside.

Miss Flager came here from Deerfield with her mother last May and in the few months has made many friends who sincerely wish her and hers the good things of life.

KEMPF-WILLNOW

Married, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. W. R. Curtis, Miss Forence Willnow and William W. Kempf. The couple were attended by Miss Fern Murphy and Hans Christianson.

Miss Willnow is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Willnow and has for some time been an efficient operator at our telephone exchange. Mr. Kempf is the son [illegible] and has only recently received his discharge from military service after six months at Camp Custer. Both young people were brought up in this vicinity and have many friends whom The Herald joins in best wishes.

They will begin house keeping at once on the Cyrus Underwood farm west of Ridgeway.

Tecumseh Grange and Farmers' Union Hold Joint Meeting.

The members of Tecumseh Grange and Farmers' Union will hold a joint meeting at Grange hall next Monday, March 17, St. Patrick's day. We do not call it a banquet or a celebration, just an old fashioned family gathering—a meeting of good cheer, good fellowship and the glad hand all around. We are assured of a good dinner and hope to have a good program.

It is expected that Mrs. Dora H. Stockman, worthy lecturer of Michigan State Grange and candidate on the Republican ticket for member of the state board of agriculture, will be the principal speaker.

All members of the Grange and the Farmers' Union and their guests are invited to be present. All members of either organization who plan to attend please telephone Mrs. Mary Ives or Mrs. Henry McLain, Secretary Farmers' Union.

C. H. Snedecor, Secretary Tecumseh Grange.

The second chapter of the book, "The Path of Labor," entitled "Child Labor," was discussed by Miss Byrde Stone, Mrs. Will Stewart and Miss Boyce. The hostesses served tea and sandwiches and the ladies enjoyed a delightful social hour.

REPUBLICANS NAME TOWNSHIP TICKET

RED CROSS

A second school of instruction was given last week by Miss Mary McKenzie, county chairman of the Home Service section to the executive committee of that section here. The work has increased to such an extent that it has been found necessary to enlarge the committees as follows:

Chairman Home Service—Mrs. Paul R. Bowen.
Chairman Civilian Relief—Mrs. J. H. Smith.
Chairman Insurance — Mr. H. H. Hanna, Jr.

Everyone applying for the bonus must have discharge papers. Apply to H. H. Hanna, Jr., at express office, also at Tecumseh State Bank Saturday afternoon from 1:30 to 3:00.

Mrs. Paul R. Bowen, chairman.

MONDAY CLUB

The Monday Club session this week was very interesting. Miss Ethel Keyser was leader. The paper of the afternoon, "Joan of Arc," was read by Mrs. O. B. Finch. Miss Keyser gave a sketch of Francois Villon and Miss Ethel Garlinghouse readings from the author. Miss Beth Satterthwaite just returned from over seas service in [illegible] reconstruction [illegible] the meeting doubly interesting by relating some of her experiences over there.

Next Monday the club meets at the Methodist church and eight or ten ladies have been invited to give two minute talks on what the club can do for the town. Mrs. W. G. Waldron will act as leader.

To the Women Citizens of Tecumseh Township.

Only 465 women have registered with the township clerk and it is estimated that there must be 150 to 200 more, who are eligible to register. You can do this until March 29 inclusive and unless you register you cannot vote. We appeal to you for the pride you have in your native land, for the honor of Michigan, for the protection of your homes and the love you have for your boy and girl, to register and vote, and vote right.

There are several amendments to be voted on which are of vital importance to every woman notably the liquor amendment. Do YOU want Michigan to go wet. Do YOU want to place the worst temptation there is before YOUR boys? Already men are saying: "We men voted Michigan dry, if it goes wet it will be women, who will vote it wet."

We are also in need of helpers to call on the women, who have not registered. Please offer your services to the undersigned. Any woman, who wishes to register, but is unable to go to the clerk's office will be taken there in a conveyance, if she will notify us or she can vote on April 7th by making a statement at the polling booth that she was in ill health and unable to register.

Any woman who will notify us will also be taken in an auto to the polling both on April 7th if otherwise unable to go there.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Ives has the authority to register prospective voters at their residences. Any women unable to go to the clerk's office can apply to her.

Jenny C. Law Hardy, Phone 268.
Mary C. Adams Shull, Phone 76.
Mary Elizabeth Ives, Phone 184.

L. B. Wood was the victim of a surprise Saturday evening. When he came home from town twenty of his friends had taken possession of the house to remind him it was his birthday. Progressive pedro was played after which a bountiful pot-luck supper was served. Mr. Wood received many nice gifts also a good old-fashioned spanking, if it did take three men to hold him and a woman to do the spanking. The out of town guests were Miss Bertha Uhr and Fred Filber of Manchester.

Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy, Mrs. Geo. Rathbun, Rev. Edw. Escolme, Rev. W. A. Rex, with Clarence Hardy chauffeur, drove to Adrian yesterday to attend a meeting of the Lenawee county dry committee and make plans for a short, hot dry campaign. Mrs. Hardy reported at the meeting that Tecumseh was far in the lead in the work in the county due to the activity of the women. The delegates were invited to the Chamber of Commerce luncheon at the Eagles banquet room, where lunch was served to about 100. The delegates enjoyed a fine address on the city manager form of government by the city manager of Kalamazoo. Mrs. Mary Ives and Mrs. Alice Percy also attended the meeting.

Editorial Comment

Opportunity is knocking at our door. A new factory wants admission to our town. Will Tecumseh take advantage of the opportunity and admit it, or will she turn the cold shoulder? That, of course, will depend upon investigation and whether our monied men have confidence enough in the industry to invest in some of the stock.

From the face of it the proposition looks mighty good. The Yesbera Manufacturing Co., Manufacturers of complete store fixtures and fixtures of nearly every description, has been in business in Toledo for the past 18 years. The plant in that city is large and the overhead expense heavy. Relief is head expense heavy. Relief is sought in locating in a smaller place, where taxes and overhead expenses will be reduced.

C. R. Hunter, connected with the concern for some time, visited Tecumseh this week and explained the situation to some of our business men. We understand he came here at the solicitation of F. M. Mulvahey, of the Lenawee Lumber and Supply Co., who has had an acquaintance with the factory and its output for some time.

Let's hope Tecumseh men will find it a good thing and nail it for our town. It is an industry that employs skilled labor and it is something we need.

Rev. J. G. Widdifield last Sunday afternoon delivered a very good sermon on the league of nations at St. Peter's church, and it is to be regretted that not more of our people could have heard it. Referring to the political maneuvers in the congress by our national representatives to defeat the plans of the league of nations he quoted one senator as saying that if the Savior of the world were to return to the earth and advocate a league of nations this senator would still be against it. For such men, Rev. Widdifield said, the ideals of Jesus are not practical at the present time.

A league of nations would demand some sacrifice from the United States, and this some of our national law makers object to. But the people of the United States went into the war with the determination of making it impossible to have another such war and they are ready to sacrifice for peace the same as they did for war.

If we waged war for humanity's sake we must not neglect the opportunity to protect humanity from another such slaughter.

We wish to compliment Village Clerk Service upon his complete and excellently compiled financial statement of the village of Tecumseh as it appears in this issue of The Herald. This gives taxpayers an opportunity to see where village funds go to, and this we believe they are entitled to. There is only one suggestion and that is that the next report include what the money was spent for. As it is, this without doubt is the most complete statement ever compiled by a Tecumseh village clerk.

Now that the village election is over, why not get busy and do something about Chicago and Evans streets. Tecumseh should not let another year roll by without improving these streets so they will be presentable at all seasons of the year.

Perhaps the dust problem can also be settled.

Week from tomorrow is the first day of spring.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to take this means of expressing our heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors who came to our assistance in our recent sad bereavement—the death of our little son. We appreciate all kindness and sympathy and also thank the donors of the beautiful flowers.

Seeding Time Request

TO OUR MEMBERS:—

Please call and get what seeds you may need for spring sowing, as prices are going higher every day. We have a limited amount of Red Clover, Alsike, Sweet Clover, Montana Alfalfa, Grimes Alfalfa, Timothy, Spring Seed Wheat, Shelled Corn and other feeds on hand, and can take care of you while it lasts. We cannot anticipate your wants by carrying $3,000 or $4,000 worth of seeds on hand waiting to see whether you are going to want any, as we have a good many other stocks to carry.

This is your business and we can really co-operate best by your calling on us promptly and taking your requirements home with you. Help your Board of Directors solve the financial problem by acting at once, as we have to pay spot cash for all seeds and feed which we buy. This is not a matter of credit. Booking orders is very uncertain.

Ninety per cent of the delay in ordering is through thoughtlessness, and it is your interests we have in mind in asking you to help us in arriving at the quantity of the different kinds of seeds we should buy. Our aim is to handle only the best grades, and our prices are consistent with those grades. You can grow enough weeds without buying them in your seeds.

Your winter's supply of hard coal can be bought right if you will get it now. This is meant in a kindly spirit, and without reflection.

We are also in need of helpers to call on the women, who have not registered. Please offer your services to the undersigned. Any woman, who wishes to register, but is unable to go to the clerk's office will be taken there in a conveyance, if she will notify me or she can vote on April 7th by making a statement at the polling booth that she was in ill health and unable to register. Swick. Very few ballots were thrown out because of improper marking, showing that the women voters knew how to vote.

Friday evening a company of friends enjoyed a fine time at the home of Wm. Kniffen. Make Your Farm Produce More

After carefully preparing the soil the chief essential of a full yield is correct seeding. Merely dropping the grain into the ground does not insure a full crop—it requires even distribution at a uniform depth. To obtain the best results use

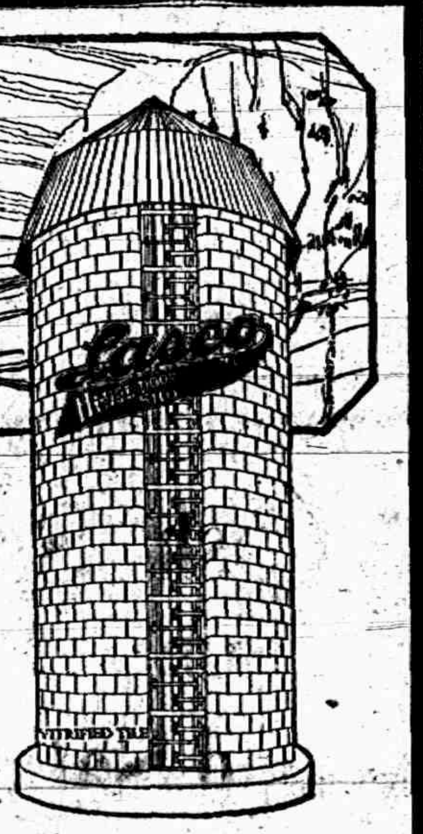
Superior Grain Drills

They distribute the grain evenly. Do not skip, bunch or choke. Every furrow opener makes a perfect, roomy seed trench. The uniform depth of covering gives every fertile seed an equal start. This assures an even stand and well filled heads at harvest time.

Made of the choicest materials. Special features: Double run positive force grain feeds—two feeds in one. Parallel disc bearings guaranteed for life of drill. Superior telescoping steel conductor tubes—non-breakable; no buckling, kinking, bending or collapsing. Superior patented oscillating drag-bars insure 50% more clearance.

Made for sowing all large and small grains in 4, 6, 7 and 8 inch rows in plain grain and fertilizer styles.

Constructed for Use with Any Tractor. It will pay you to use this Drill because its effective and economical sowing will bring you greater profits in increased crops.



The famous Lasco with the HINGE-DOOR
Impervious to the effects of acid, moisture, heat or cold

Our liberal selling plan makes it possible for every farmer to own a silo. There is no longer any excuse for a farmer not to own a silo. Butter fat has reached a high figure, good beef is selling at prices you never dreamed of a few years ago; in fact all farm products demand top-notch prices. A silo erected this season will pay for itself in one year. It will increase the stock carrying capacity of your farm 25%, without increasing the acreage in corn.

The increased herd of live stock will produce the cheapest and most effective fertilizer that you can place upon the soil. Then, too, it will lower the cost of harvesting the corn crop nearly $5.00 per acre, and the feeding of silage saves labor and this one feature alone means an increase in net profits.

He will be glad to talk with you any day and explain the features of construction of the Lasco tile silo—how it is built to last a lifetime—reinforced with steel rods encircling the silo at every course, and embedded in cement, how the all-steel door frame, the famous Ladder Hinge Door, and the King-B Gambrel Roof make the Lasco the world's greatest tile silo.

FRANKLIN

C. L. Wisner drove to Adrian Tuesday.

Donald Whelan is still suffering with glandular trouble in his neck.

There was no school in the Hurry district Monday on account of the roads.

John Mohr and son were doing a job of plumbing at C. L. Wisner's Monday.

Hoyt Whelan and family were over night guests of Mrs. E. J. Whelan Friday.

Dr. Tuttle was called to S. N. Wisner's Saturday. They have glandular trouble.

Henry Ruesink is moving from Tecumseh to the old Mills farm, which he purchased recently.

Mrs. S. N. Wisner, Lorene and Christine were better Tuesday, but Irene was quite seriously ill.

Herman Tripp writes his mother from Ogden, Utah, where they arrived March 3d. He says they were well and all right.

Mrs. Orville Gove and son, Laddie, went to Adrian Sunday for a few days' visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Rice.

Mrs. Kate Murray of Charlotte, who is state agent for the National Pretective Legion, is stationed in Adrian for a few weeks.

Hoyt Whelan of Tecumseh was shipping a car load of stock at Tipton Saturday a. m. for the Co-Operative Association. Saturday p. m. he was shipping a load of stock at Tecumseh.

Ozro Whelan is again working for C. L. Wisner. He has been visiting his son, Willard Whelan, in Onsted and Fred Whelan in Jackson. His daughter, Mrs. Florence Moore, accompanied him to Jackson and was taken ill there, and unable to return home.

Glen Fisher and Robert Allen were working in the basement at G. W. Allen's, Tipton, Saturday. Room had to be cleared up so that another incubator could be set to work. Mrs. Allen has three running now. Glen remained with his grandparents until Tuesday. We are glad to report both Mr. and Mrs. Allen better.

The Grange.

Tipton Grange met in their hall Friday, March 7. The first business of the session was the installation of the new officers, which was conducted by Past Master Hoyt Whelan and Mrs. Hoyt Whelan, with Miss Alice Whelan at the piano (all of Tecumseh.) Some of the newly elected officers were absent on account of illness. Those installed were Worthy Master S. N. Wisner; overseer, Devilla VanValkenburg; lecturer, Frank Fisher; steward, Henry Baker; chaplain, Mrs. Frank Fisher; secretary, E. C. Cook; treasurer, C. L. Wisner; assistant steward, Sebert Wyman; gate keeper, Ed Breese; lady ass't steward, Mrs. Sebert Wyman; pomona, Mrs. Henry Baker.

After the new master took the chair business pertaining to Tipton Grange was transacted. Suggestions for the good of the order brought out the fact that a number of young people who are about to join the Grange wished to have some alterations made in the lodge room so that basket ball could be introduced. Many of the members thought favorably of the proposition, but no action was taken.

The names of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Daniels of Pentecost were presented for membership.

The program was very brief, as so much time had been consumed in the installation and discussion. The following numbers were given: Song, Ellen and Mary Mohr; recitation, Mrs. Henry Baker. Mrs. Hoyt Whelan made a short speech pointing out to the women the urgent need for the women to vote at the spring election and vote right, if we would not have the saloon back again, or even far worse conditions.

John Mohr called attention to the Moor-Cordon bill, which requires that English shall be taught in all schools, up to the 8th grade. This bill will not do away with business, private or parochial schools, but will insure the speaking of one language by all classes—the all-American idea.

At a late hour tables were set and a two-course supper, consisting of delicious hot vegetable soup, hot coffee, pickles and several kinds of cake, was served.

The next meeting will be held at Grange hall, Tipton, Friday, March 21, with the following program: Song, "America," Grange; recitation, Erma VanValkenburg; recitation, Robert Allen; music, Catherine Fisher; dialogue, John Wisner and others; paper, Mrs. A. B. Wisner, "The New Era"; song, Dorothy Taylor; debate, Resolved, that the adoption of the wine and beer amendment will be for the best interests of the farmer; affirmitive, Frank Fisher, Arthur Daniels; negative, Mrs. Henry Baker, Mrs. A. B. Wisner; instrumental music, Munger sisters; reading, Mrs. Helen Fisher; chip basket, Edward Wisner; recitation, Eugene Fisher; cornet solo, Devilla VanValkenburg; recitation, Lester Baker; song, Grange. The program will be open and everybody is cordially invited.

SMOKING TOBACCO FACTS FROM THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA

The Use of Flavorings Determines Difference In Brands

The Encyclopædia Britannica says about the manufacture of smoking tobacco: "...on the Continent and in America, certain 'sauces' are employed ...the use of the 'sauces' is to improve the flavour and burning qualities of the leaves." Which indicates that a smoker's enjoyment depends as much upon the flavoring used as upon the tobacco.

Your nose is a sure guide in the matter of flavorings. Try this simple test with several tobacco brands: pour some tobacco into your palm, rub briskly, and smell. You will notice a distinct difference in the fragrance of every brand. The tobacco that smells best to you will smoke best in your pipe, you can rest assured.

Carefully aged, old Burley tobacco, plus a dash of pure chocolate, gives TUXEDO Tobacco a pure fragrance your nose can quickly distinguish from any other tobacco. Try it and see.

Women of Michigan This is Your Affair!

IS IT NOT PROVIDENTIAL that the first vital issue to come up since the women of this state have gained their franchise is that issue which most intimately and most seriously affects the life and happiness of woman—the booze question?

IF THERE WAS ONE QUESTION on which women have always wished they could register their convictions it was on this one of the saloon

ON APRIL SEVENTH the enfranchised women of Michigan will enjoy that golden opportunity—and for that reason we are absolutely certain not only of success, but of a vote so overwhelmingly against this last forlorn effort of the "Wets" as to end the matter for all time.

FOR WE CONFIDENTLY expect that the most intelligent vote ever cast in this state will then be recorded—the intelligent, clear-seeing decision of the women added to that of the men who previously voted this same question down

FOR—MAKE NO MISTAKE—while the so-called "Light Wines and Beer" amendment sounds almost harmless, it is the old question under a cloak of verbiage—it means in plain language the re-opening of the saloon.

AND YOU KNOW WHAT that means—women know only too well.

SO WE WILL NOT ATTEMPT to analyze that particular document here. Time enough for that before election day.

OUR PURPOSE NOW—our ardent desire—is to impress upon the women of the state, the necessity of registering at once.

TRUE, YOU HAVE until March 22nd—and in cities or townships of less than 10,000, until March 29th—to register.

BUT YOU KNOW how dangerous is delay. Something may come up—you may delay and then forget until it is too late—and then find yourself barred from exercising that precious privilege for which so many good women have fought so long.

DON'T DO IT—DON'T put off this matter from day to day. It is vital. You will want to vote on this amendment. We need not advise you how—there is no doubt as to what women will do on this subject.

ALL WE ARE ANXIOUS ABOUT is that you register—so you will be able to vote on this pernicious bit of attempted legislation on April seventh. And on every other issue that is to be voted on then.

IF YOU DON'T KNOW the conditions of registration, read below—we give a brief outline.

YOU WILL OBSERVE among other things that you are not asked to tell your age—merely to state that you will be 21 or over on election day.

SO THAT IS EASY—isn't it? And the rest is just as simple.

ALL YOU NEED DO IS—do it! Don't delay. Don't put it off. Exercise your voting privilege now that you have it. Prove that you prize and that you deserve it.

REGISTER!—Today is the best day.

BUT IF YOU JUST CAN'T go now, set down on your calendar a certain day and make a solemn resolve that on that very day you will go and register.

REMEMBER—MARCH 22nd is the last day, except in cities or townships of less than 10,000. Then you have till the 29th. But don't wait till the last day. Register now.

THEN YOU CAN VOTE—cast your first ballot against that dangerous bill, and as you may desire on any other—April 7th.

Simple Rules For Registering

Any woman 21 or over, an American citizen by birth, marriage or naturalization can vote—if her name is on the registration book.

You must appear in person.

Register with the city or township clerk any day except Sunday or holidays up to and including March 22nd.

In any city or township of less than 10,000 up to March 29th.

You do not have to give your age—only to state that on election day you will be 21 or upwards.

You must have lived in Michigan six months or more, and been a resident of township, village or ward 20 days preceding election.

Because of the tremendous amount of work to fall upon the clerk this spring by reason of the extension of the voting privilege to women, it is important that you register at once.

It is simple. Requires only a few minutes—only that you do it—now.

IT'S NOT YOUR HEART
IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. A majority of the ills afflicting people today can be traced back to kidney trouble.

The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filterers, the purifiers, of your blood.

Kidney disease is usually indicated by weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago.

All these derangements are nature's signals to warn you that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammations and destroys the germs which have caused it. Do not wait until tomorrow. Go to your druggist today and insist on GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In twenty-four hours you should feel health and vigor returning and will bless the day you first heard of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil.

After you feel that you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep in first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks.

Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. Three sizes. Money refunded if they do not help you.

Who Benefits By High Prices?

You feel that retail meat prices are too high.

Your retailer says he has to pay higher prices to the packers.

Swift & Company prove that out of every dollar the retailer pays to the packers for meat, 2 cents is for packers' profit, 13 cents is for operating expenses, and 85 cents goes to the stock raiser; and that the prices of live stock and meat move up and down together.

The live-stock raiser points to rising costs of raising live stock.

Labor reminds us that higher wages must go hand in hand with the new cost of living.

No one, apparently, is responsible. No one, apparently, is benefited by higher prices and higher income.

We are all living on a high-priced scale. One trouble is, that the number of dollars has multiplied faster than the quantity of goods, so that each dollar buys less than formerly.

CLINTON

A pleasant gathering of friends was that at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Alban, just north of the village, Saturday evening. The affair was planned by Mrs. Alban as a surprise for her husband, who is city mail carrier in Adrian, honoring their wedding anniversary. Light refreshments were served and the guests enjoyed several games of progressive pedro. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ogden, Sergt. Vance Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. Howell Poucher and daughter, Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Albert VanGieson and Mr. and Mrs. Laurence VanGieson.

The ladies' band of Tecumseh, a recent organization of our sister village to the south, put on their play, "The Doll Shop," Friday evening at town hall. The play attracted a crowded house and netted them a neat sum.

Harold VanGieson, who has been employed in Detroit since his graduation from Clinton high school, has returned home for the summer and will work with his brother, Laurence, who has recently located on the Don Palmer farm on the Clinton-Tecumseh road.

A Friend Recommended Them.

J. N. Tohill, clerk Lottie Hotel, Evansville, Ind., writes: "For six weeks I suffered constantly with pains in the muscles of my thigh. Upon recommendation of a friend I tried Foley Kidney Pills and began to get relief almost immediately." They stop backache, rheumatic pains, soreness and stiffness. Sold everywhere in Tecumseh—adv.

VINOL CREATES STRENGTH

Positive—Convincing Proof

It is all very well to make claims, but can they be proven? We publish the formula of Vinol to prove the statements we make about it.

℞ Cod Liver and Beef Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates, Iron and Ammonium Citrate, Lime and Soda Glycerophosphates, Cascarin.

Any doctor will tell you that the ingredients of Vinol as published above, combine the very elements needed to make strength.

All weak, run-down, overworked nervous men and women may prove this at our expense.

There is nothing like Vinol to restore strength and vitality to feeble old people, delicate children and all persons who need more strength.

Try it. If you are not entirely satisfied, we will return your money without question; that proves our fairness and your protection.

TECUMSEH BOY DIES IN GERMANY

GLENN F. FIELDER VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fielder One of the Heroes of the War Not to Return Home.

Another Tecumseh boy will be among the missing when our heroes come home and we mourn as one great family with the parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fielder, who live at the Stacy farm in Newburg.

On Friday last they received a dispatch from Washington informing them that their son, Glenn Frasier Fielder, had died March 6th of pneumonia in Germany.

Glenn had gone to Custer with the contingent of May 27th. Here he was placed in Co. D, 338 Inft. 85 Division and in August sailed for over seas. He was changed to another regiment on landing and was in the battle of the Marne, coming through all right. Later he was placed in the army of occupation and went on into Germany.

Glenn, who was 25, leaves besides his parents, three sisters and one brother, Mrs. H. Martin, of Sand Creek; Mrs. Will Martin, of Tecumseh; Miss Nettie and Bertram at home.

The family have resided in this locality many years and Glenn was well known by the villagers, among whom his cheerful face and friendly ways will be greatly missed.

HONORING ST. PATRICK

PRESBYTERIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNUAL PARTY

Decorations and Costumes Appropriate to the Festival—Excellent Program.

The Sunday school of the Presbyterian church enjoyed another jolly annual party Monday night. Before they have celebrated Washington's birthday, but this year did honor to St. Patrick and with the green in decorations both in the room and on the guests, they had a real Irish party. Again the Presbyterians show their broad mindedness when an audience, a large percentage Orangemen, celebrated the birthday of a Catholic saint. [illegible] of the church was [illegible] formed a [illegible] the platform. More green decorated the choir loft. Nearly all wore a bow of green and many costumes were quite elaborate crepe paper affairs.

John T. Boyce, the Sunday school superintendent, announced the program as follows:

Piano duet—Mrs. R. B. Stuckey and Mrs. J. L. Calhoun.

"The Passing Show" — Miss Kyle's class, each lady rigged out in the most outlandish garb, paraded across the platform and made an elaborate bow, a take-off on the style shows of our great dry goods centers. They were led by Dr. Parker, the colored pofessor, with stove-pipe hat and dress suit complete. Many of the "girls" wore gowns straight from "ould sod" and at the last gave and ensémble which was the funniest sight imaginable.

Recitation, "Mary Had a Little Cold"—Jane Gillen.

Virginia Reel — Representing primary classes.

"Brides of 1700 and 1900" — Tableaux by Miss Gillespie's class.

Drill—Juniors.

Legend of Erin's Flag—Mrs. F. D. Rector, representing her own class.

Boy Scout's drill—Miss Mildred Boyce's class.

Maloney's Philosophy — Rev. W. A. Rex, in some costume.

"My Father and Mother were Irish"—Audience.

Original conundrums, answers being names of Presbyterians—Mrs. F. D. Rector.

Jokes and funny stories.

The little people were invited to the parlors and there regaled with sandwiches, cakes, pickles and punch. Afterward the older scholars and friends were served. Mrs. P. R. Bowen presided at a botth where punch was served. The booth was covered with green and Mrs. Bowen was dressed in green gown and cap.

TROOP NO. 1, BOY SCOUTS

Many of the Scouts have successfully passed their tests in signalling, fire-building, cooking, thrift and boxing the compass, required for Second Class Rank. Further tests in tracking, pacing, and the use of the knife and axe will be taken on the hike planned next Saturday.

Next Monday evening Dr. Conklin will give instruction in and demonstrate the use of the triangular and roller bandages, being part of the requirement in elementary first aid for second class rank. The Troop received a gift of ten dollars last week from one of its friends.

Influenza is raging in Holloway. The church services are abandoned and school closed.

"QUEEN ESTHER"

BEAUTIFUL CANTATA SUCCESSFULLY PRESENTED

Under Auspices of Ladies' Aid of Methodist Church a Splendid Musical Entertainment Is Staged at the Bradley.

Tuesday evening the Bradley opera house was well filled to hear the old, yet ever popular cantata, "Queen Esther," which was put on under the authority of Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church and directed by George Howes of Detroit. The cantata passed off splendidly with scarcely a hitch and our best musical talent were employed to sing the beautiful lines.

Much care had been taken with the chorus in the choice of the singers and each had dressed to the part. The Jewish group were in white with black and silver head coverings and sashes. The Persian maidens were in gay colors with red or yellow headdresses and sashes freely trimmed in gilt and tinsel.

Both choruses were on the stage during the first act when Haman (Harold Lowry) the king's favorite, was welcomed. Mordecai (Fred. Dickinson) entered but did not do homage to Haman. This incensed the Persians and with Haman they left. Here came a fine solo by Mr. Dickinson. In the second scene Haman entered the King's (Mr. Howes) presence and bowed before him asking the authority of having the Jews slain. A duet by Mr. Howes and Harold Lowry was sung and in came the prophetess (Mrs. George Witherell) who sang a solo very effectively.

In the third the Jews feared Haman's vengence. Mordecai and the Jews persuaded Queen Esther (Mrs. R. S. [illegible]) [illegible] go before the king. Her answer was a splendid solo.

The fourth scene was of the throne room, the king in purple robe on the throne with the gayly dressed ladies and guards in red as a back ground. The queen here wore a gown of white satin silver trimmed, the long court train borne by little Lillian Shepherd. The king graciously received her.

In scene five Zeresh (Miss Lillian Kennedy) Haman's wife, persuades him to ask the king to have Mordecai hanged.

Scene six held some very good acting. The King was informed by the scribe (Floyd Juckett) that Mordecai has done him a great service. The king commanded Haman to proclaim him as one whom the king delighted to honor. The Jews gave a beautiful chorus of rejoicing.

Scene 7 was the most charming. With the royal couple on the throne, a company of some forty little girls gave a floral chorus and drill. Each was in white with wreaths on their heads and carrying flowers which they deposited on the steps to the throne.

Scene 8 was the grand fiinale. The Queen denounced Haman and the King ordered him hung. The parting song by Haman and Zeresh was one of the best of the evening. Mordecai was elevated to Haman's place.

Mordecai's sister (Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans) sang charmingly several solos through the scenes. Also to be mentioned was the high priest (George Hines), solemn in long black gown with white whiskers and the herald (John Keeney). Both sang well.

The work of the Persian princesses (Misses Edna Taylor, Bertha LaPointe and Mary Barrett) was also pretty and the solos by Miss Taylor well rendered.

Mrs. Ella Hodges as accompanist, comes in for her share of the praise as not only did she have to play the whole evening but at the frequent rehearsals through the past two weeks.

Taking it all around the work was great and at last the younger generation have had a chance to see the cantata of which they have heard from infancy and its reputation is certainly earned. The Ladies' Aid took in a few cents over $288.

To all who assisted in the presentation cantata "Queen Esther" the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. Church extend their thanks.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

BUSINESS MEN LISTEN TO INDUSTRY PROJECT

As Presented by C. R. Hunter of Yesbera Manufacturing Co.

The council chamber was practically filled with business men of Tecumseh at a meeting called for last Friday evening to consider the locating of a new industry in Tecumseh.

C. R. Hunter was present with literature and documents to explain the output and demands of the Yesbera Manufacturing Co. of Toledo looking for a new location in a smaller town where overhead expenses are not so high and where labor troubles are not so likely to occur.

Mr. Hunter was pleasantly surprised to find among the men one who knew all about Frank Yesbera and his factory—R. A. Heesen. As Mr. Heesen has had business dealings with Mr. Yesbera [illegible] he knew the goods manufactured and demand for them.

Mr. Hunter wishes to get located as soon as possible and stated that the mill of the Lenawee Lumber & Supply Co. could be utilized. After some discussion it was advised that Messrs. Hunter and Mulvaney get together, consider what help is needed and make a proposition to the Commerce club. It was so left.

THE SALOON IN MICHIGAN

WHAT INFLUENCE WILL VOTE OF WOMEN HAVE?

Men Voted State Dry in 1917—Will Women Return Saloon?—Beer and Wine Amendment Discussed Sunday Night — Tecumseh Night No. 3 Next Sunday.

The community service at the Methodist church last Sunday evening was of an interesting nature, as the subject treated, the beer and wine amendment to be voted upon at the April 7 election, is of considerable importance to this as well as every community in Michigan.

Following the opening exercises articles pertaining to the subject were read from a paper by Revs. W. R. Curtis and W. A. Rex, showing up the determined efforts of the liquor interests to again put the saloon in business in Michigan, and the results we can expect should the measure be carried at the April election.

Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy was the first speaker of the evening and her championship for a saloonless state was well presented in an able and interesting address. Mrs. Hardy said that she had been a suffragette for some years and in late years has become a convert to prohibition, hence her intense interest and fight against the return of the saloon. It has been stated that the men voted Michigan dry in 1917 and if the saloon returns the women will be responsible. It has been prophesied that there are so many immoral women in Michigan that their vote will carry the amendment.

Mrs. Hardy drew comparisons of Tecumseh wet and dry and related [illegible] unpleasant experiences [illegible] assisting in cases of intoxicated men who came to grief on their trips home from wet territory. "I'd rather hold the head of nice clean pig than that of a drunken man," said the speaker. When she came to Tecumseh there were seven saloons and it was often necessary for her to walk in the street because men had exercised their "personal liberty" in taking of the cup. The speaker read extracts from statements made by eminent physicians giving the effect of alcohol on diseases, especially pneumonia, where physicians generally would rather turn a patient addicted to drink over to some one else.

With the remark that "a man who drinks to excess has no right to marry a woman and raise a family," Mrs. Hardy told of the dangerous heritage handed down to the children.

The speaker was present that evening mostly to appeal to the women to help defeat this hideous thing. She urged the women to turn out and vote and be careful to vote "No" on the amendment. Two hundred women of the township have not registered. A house to house canvass will be made to get these women to register. Mrs. Mary Ives has the authority to register the women at their homes who can not get to the clerk. City women will get out to vote and many will vote for the amendment. Therefore it is necessary that every woman in the smaller places and rural communities should cast her vote against the saloon on April 7. Vote No!

Rev. Thompson followed with a brief and to the point talk. He stated that the amendment, if carried April 7, would become effective May 7. Such is the haste of the saloon keepers to get back into business. He cautioned the people against becoming confused. At the last dry election we voted yes; this time we should vote no. On the good roads proposition, if you favor it, vote yes, but vote no on the amendment. Don't be misled by war prohibition, which is to become effective the last day of June. If the amry is demobilized before that time there will be no war prohibition. Be on the safe side and vote no. He also cautioned the women to be sure and register so as to overcome the slum vote of the cities.

Rev. Rex called attention to the mail matter sent out from Detroit that is confusing. He advised consigning it to the waste basket.

ATTRACTION AT THE BRADLEY

"Fit to Win."

What will prove to be the greatest sensation in films and one of the greatest dramatic pictures yet produced will be "Fit to Win" which will be seen at the Bradley Opera House, next Sunday, afternoon and evening, March 23rd.

"Fit to Win" was produced by the Surgeon General of the United States Army, and was shown to every man in the service. It is a sex picture, so boldly candid in its treatment that the government requires that it shall not be presented to a mixed audience. Arrangements have to be made for special shows both for men and women. At the Bradley a matinee will be given Sunday afternoon at 2:30 for ladies only and the evening show, which starts at 7:30 will be for men only. No person under 16 years of age will be admitted at either presentation unless accompanied by either father or mother.

Leading physicians have come to the conclusion that sexual truths should be stripped of their mystery. This picture does that very thing, as it unfolds a story of present day life. The wiles and habits of loose women are depicted, together with the diseases they spread . Everything is called by its common name. There is no chance to misunderstand. Physicians agree that "Fit to Win" was the most effective thing that was done to keep the army clean, and the United States government is now taking the same daring, plainly spoken and plainly pictured campaign into civil life.

"Fit to Win" is presented in co-operation with the Public Health department in Michigan and a Sunday showing was arranged for Tecumseh as it was thought that every one would have more of an opportunity of seeing this great moral production. Dr. Isabella H. Holdom, great medical examiner of the Lady Maccabees says, "A picture every woman should see." Dr. W. S. MacKenzie, city health officer of Adrian, says, "This picture is one of the best to teach the general public the danger of veneral discases to men and women and should be seen by every one."

Editorial Comment

Next Saturday is going to be a very busy day in Tecumseh, as will readily be seen by a glance through the columns of The Herald. The merchants are making special inducements for people from surrounding territory to come to town on that day and do their shopping. Town people, of course, are also included in the invitation. It will be "Dollar Day" and will mean the saving of many a dollar to the people who take advantage of the opportunity. Some merchants offer special bargains at a dollar while others guarantee the saving of a dollar on larger purchases. It's going to be a great day Saturday. The weather promises to be fine and old Sol started yesterday in earnest to dry up the mud so roads will be passable.

Speaking of roads, the sentiment for improving Chicago street is growing steadily, and it lookh very favorable of having some kind of hard surface road through our business section perhaps this year. The muddy condition during the past few weeks of our business district as been disgraceful for a city the size of Tecumseh. For years good money has been spent to haul off mud and haul on gravel. Had more thought been given to permanent road building ten or fifteen years ago we would have a good substantial pavement paid for out of the money spent for temporary repairs.

Next Saturday Hon. Charles Evans, state representative from this district, will tell the people of Tecumseh and vicinity how to obtain Federal aid in road construction. The chances are that Monroe turnpike will be improved this year. If this occurs Chicago street through the village will also have to be improved if Federal aid is secured. Mr. Evans should have a good sized audience, for this is an important topic for the welfare of Tecumseh and the surrounding territory. Lenawee county is shy many thousands of dollars helping other counties biuld roads by not getting into the game herself although some roads in the county secured state aid and get busy on permanent road building. Auto traffic demands it to lessen expense of the up-keep.

The street oiling proposition has not fallen down. R. A. Heesen informs us that a Standard Oil Co. representative was here a few days ago and his advice was asked. He advices that as many people as possible get together and petition for oiling and do it soon. Buy the oil by the car load and he will see to it that a sprinkler with force pump is sent to Tecumseh to apply the oil as it should be. The application will make the street dustless for the entire season, and eventually harden the surface and make it also mud proof. No one knows what proportion of the many deaths in Tecumseh the past year was due to the horrible dust raised by passing automobiles. Ask your physician if dust is not a dangerous conveyor of disease germs.

We were pleased to note the fine attendance of business men at the factory meeting held in the council chamber last Friday evening. Splendid interest was manifested and the prospects for landing what seems to be a splendid industrial addition to Tecumseh do not seem hopeless by any means. We have some live wires in Tecumseh that is quite evident.

Perhaps it is only a coincidence but it is a fact that as far as we can learn not one auction sale advertised in The Herald has been a failure. Even the weather man seemed to be "in snucks" with The Herald and held off the elements so the sales advertised could go through successfully. Henry Karcher, just recovered from an operation for appendicitis, was a caller at this office the other day and complimented highly The Herald as an advertising medium. His sale amounted to considerably more than he anticipated. Others report the same. If The Herald is good for auctions it is good for other sales.

It is estimated that two hundred women of Tecumseh township have not taken the trouble to register for the coming April election. Women should take a serious view of the coming election and be prepared to get into the game, especially if they don't want the saloon back to tempt their men folks. March 29 is the last day for registration.

If you vote "No" on the beer and wine amendment do not fail to vote yes on good roads. We need the roads not only for the convenience of farmers but also for overland freight hauling. The auto truck has come to stay and poorly constructed roads will not hold up under the traffic.

You will encourage Tecumseh business men to continue to give bargain days by swamping them with business on Dollar Day Saturday. It is a business proposition on both sides—the customer gets the saving, the merchant gets the cash to take advantage of buying opportunities. He saves, you save. Make Dollar day a hummer.

ENJOY JOINT MEETING ON ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Banquet and Program of Exceptional Merit — Timely Topics Discussed.

Grange Hall was a cozy place Monday with the pretty decorations of green, when the Grange and Farmer's Union gave a St. Patrick's banquet. Festoons of green draped the ceiling, Green shades covered the lamps and the table decorations and favors also were in honor of Ireland's great saint. Some 110 were seated at the tables and did justice to the splendid cooking of those farmer's wives.

A. O. Howard acted as toastmaster and he lived up to his enviable reputation in this line. First he announced the receipt of of a dispatch from Mrs. Dora Stockman, of Lansing, who had been placed on the program, saying that again must she disappoint a Tecumseh audience on account of sickness. Mrs. Stockman is a nominee on the Republican ticket for member of the agricultural board and is a talented speaker, but a fine program was given in spite of her absence.

The Baptist quartette, composed of Rev. W. R. Curtis, J. W. Camp Ira Ashley and Ernest Harris, sang. Toastmaster Howard introduced the speakers with various terse jokes on each which they were not slow in answering and among the ministers on the program was the usual good-natured bantering.

Rev. W. A. Rex took for his topic appropriately "The real St. Patrick," and showed his honest admiration for the revered character.

A talk on the beer and wine amendment was given by Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy. She opened the eyes of the audience when she related the condition which will certainly exist should this amendment pass, and it is only by its defeat that we can keep our state clean of the influences of the wide open saloon. Mrs. Hardy is doing an invaluable work over the county in this regard. An instrumental duet on trombone and piano was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron.

"The League of Nations" was the topic discussed by Rev. W. R. Curtis and Rev. C. M. Thompson. Rev. Curtis seemed greatly opposed to such a league and voiced his reasons plainly. Rev. Thompson is just as heartily in favor and sanctioned in no uncertain terms the very ideas to which Rev. Curtis is opposed. One great and splendid feature of our clergy is that they are plain spoken and state their ideas concisely. After another selection by the quartette, the program was closed by the singing of "America" by the audience.

Previous to the program was held a short business session of the Grange when plans were made for the meeting to he held Saturday of this week. It was decided to invite Representative Evans to give a talk on the good roads amendment.

Mrs. Mary Ives was in charge in the kitchen, Mrs. Mary Benedict was chairman of the decorating committee and Mrs. James Kennedy had arranged the program.

MRS. EARL McNIEL

Passed Away in Adrian This Morning.

Mrs. Earl McNeil passed away this morning at her home in Adrian, after a week's illness with pleura-pneumonia. Mrs. Amenza VanValkenburg, her mother, Mrs. Helen McNeil, Mr. McNeil's mother, and the two nurses, Misses Beth Satterthwaite and Jennie Gillespie, have given the patient the best of care, but of no avail as she was desperately ill from the first. A little girl was born on Sunday but never breathed. The little form was placed in the morgue, as the condition of the mother was so low that the doctors even then believed they could not save her. Both will be buried in one grave.

Mr. McNeil is principal of mathematics in the Adrian high school and with him is left little two year old Charles.

The funeral will be held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Valkenburg, Saturday at 2 p. m.

Hard Coal

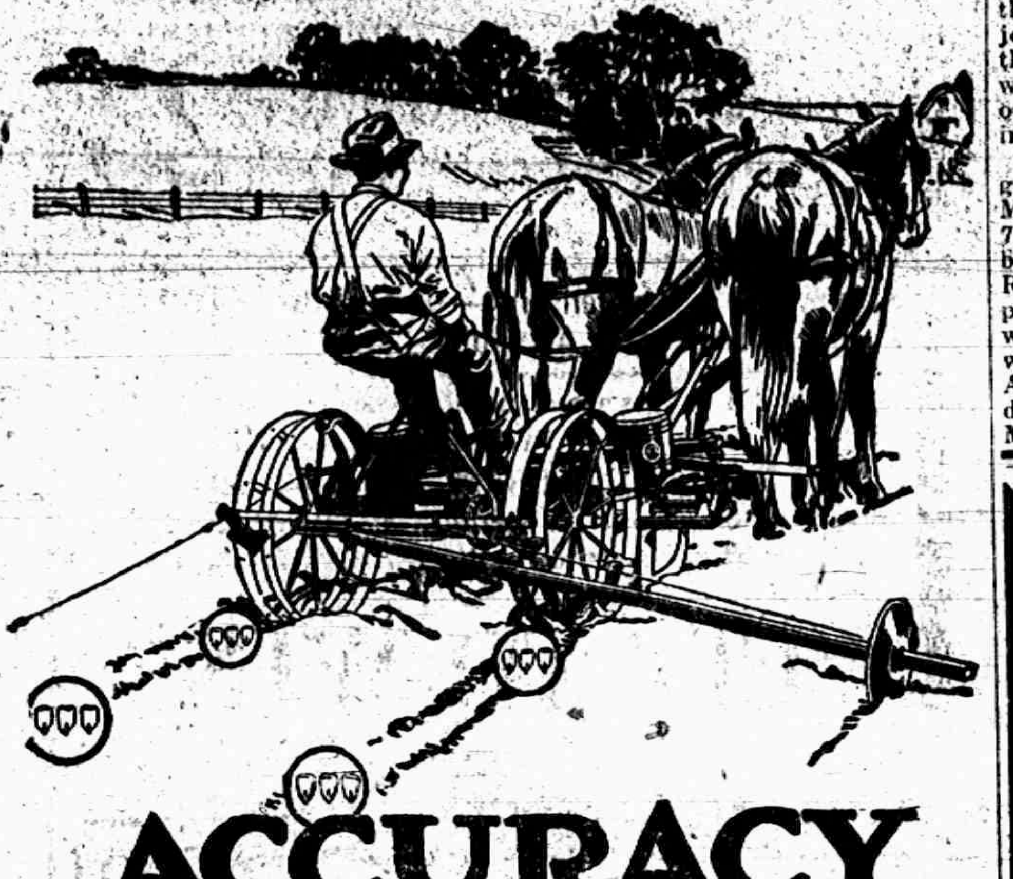
We are very much pleased to state that we are now able to obtain that old Plymouth Hard Coal we have sold since 1910. You know the quality is much better than the regular run of hard coal.

The summer prices are established now, and coal will be ten cents higher per month beginning May first.

We suggest you get your coal early in order to avail yourself of the advantage of price. No one can foretell whether it will be scarce or not. The price for the year is a fact and is guaranteed to be no lower.

Call and talk it over with us.

Have you any hay to sell? If so, get in touch withus.



ACCURACY

BEFORE buying a corn planter consider this fact—accuracy is essential to the biggest yields. An inaccurate planter covers up its mistakes. It does hit-and-miss work. It is a "thief in the field" and you don't realize how much it has stolen until the corn plants are above the ground and you compare the results with those obtained by using an accurate planter. If it misses only fifteen kernels in every 100 hills there is a loss of five bushels per acre in the yield.

You can buy from us a planter the accuracy of which is proven before it leaves the factory. That planter is the

JOHN DEERE
999 Corn Planter

The Accurate "Natural Drop" Planter

The same accuracy you would get if you painstakingly counted out the kernels of corn and dropped them by hand—that is the accuracy of the John Deere No. 999 Planter.

Each kernel enters the cell in the seed plate in a natural position. The sloping hopper bottom feeds the corn to the cells whether the hopper is full or nearly empty. It is the most simple, yet most effective planting mechanism ever used on a corn planter.

YOU CONTROL THE NUMBER OF KERNELS PER HILL

When soil in the same field varies—rich, medium and poor—corn should be planted accordingly—two kernels to the hill in poor soil, three in medium soil and four in rich soil.

Without changing seed plates or even stopping the team you can, with the John Deere No. 999, plant 2, 3 or 4 kernels in the hill, whichever number you decide the land will sustain. Merely shifting the foot lever varies the number dropped and you can change the drop as frequently as you desire. The variable drop mechanism of this planter is just as perfect and well protected as the gears on the best automobiles.

You can also drill corn with the John Deere Planter. Change from hilling to drilling or back to hilling is made instantly by means of a foot drop lever. Not necessary to get off the seat or stop the team. The 999 Planter gives nine different drilling distances without changing seed plates.

THIS PLANTER IS ON DISPLAY IN OUR STORE

Stop in the first time you are in town and inspect it. Remember, we also handle a high grade line

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Whelan and Donald were callers at Dr. Tuttle's office in Clinton Friday p. m. The doctor lanced Donald's throat, which gave him much relief.

Friday it was winter, Sunday spring burst upon us. Killdeer were soaring over head uttering their triumphant "killdee," as if almost bursting with the joy of it. Robins and blue-birds were singing in the apple trees. A great flock of rusty black birds winged over and away, twittering. These birds, rusty black birds, have begun their migration to their breeding grounds, the mysterious northland. They will be with us for a few weeks and will then dissappear, to reappear only next fall, for a few weeks.

The advances on the war map of Prohibition was so rapid that it was getting more difficult to locate the battle line than it was to dig it out of the official communiques last year.

"Does your wife drive a car." "Not exactly," replied Mr. Chuggins. "She doesn't do the actual work, but when she's in the car she decides which way it is going every time."

Fred—"How's things?" Ned—"Breaking badly." Fred—"Never mind. We must not repine at the slings and arrows of Fortune." Ned—"But She's using a machine gun on me."

Smoke Made of Use

Smoke is a valuable weapon in this war; it is extensively used on both sides to mask military and naval movements and elaborate means have been devised to throw up clouds of smoke. The Scientific American says: "During a poisonous gas attack smoke is employed to ward off the fumes. Being considerably heavier than the poison gases generally employed, a barrage of smoke causes the dangerous fumes to pass over trenches and dugouts and to dissipate themselves in the higher regions."

KIDNEYS WEAKENING? LOOK OUT!

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow slowly but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1696 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

MORSE AT ARMISTICE MEETING AT SPA

Writes Interestingly of the Great Doings in Paris and Elsewhere.

The following is an extract from a letter written by Sergeant Charles J. Morse, dated December 11 at Spa, Belgium, to his mother, Mrs. Alphonsine Morse at Wenatchwee, Wash. Sergt. Morse is a great nephew of Dr. L. G. North.

"We came here to do orderly duty for the International Armistice Commission. There are 14 of us, including Sergeant "Dinty" Moore (from home) and myself. He has charge of the orderlies and I am acting top sergeant of the whole detachment which consists of 52 men. There are several other sergeants here who have charge of their own men so my duties are not so hard. We are living in a beautiful chateau owned by a Belgian lady. Spa was the German's great headquarters and this chateau was Von Hindenburg's headquarters. He had a bomb proof dugout built in the basement. It has never been changed since the Germans left. There are chairs, a table, and electric stove, electric lights and a telephone.

"Sergeant Moore and I have a fine big room, heated, electric lighted, beds with springs and mattresses, a dresser with a large mirror, a wonderful carpet on the floor and a bath room, and two doors away hot and cold water at all hours. It is a grand home. I cannot begin to discribe its beauties; the furnishings and paintings are wonderful, there are large grounds with hedges, flowers, lawns, green pastures for the horses and lots of trees and pines at that. It makes one homesick as the surrounding country looks a great deal like the Cascades.

"Now to tell of the trip up here. We left St. Aignan on Wednesday, December 4, at 11 a. m., arrived in Paris that night, put up at the Y. M. C. A., stayed there that night, the next day and night and believe me we had some time. Paris is certainly a grand place. The King of Belgium was there and there was a grand celebration and parade. We left there on the morning of the 6th, arriving in Nancy the same day. I saw Jack Howard. He has a job on the Stars and Stripes in Paris and is a sergeant, first class, looks just the same.

"We left Nancy the next morning at 9 o'clock, arrived in Metz at 12:30, looked the city over and it is nice, too, lots of Germans (civilians) still there. At 4:30 the same day we caught a truck to Luxemburg, arriving there at 9 p. m., stayed there all night, but did not get to see much of the town. We left there with three Ford trucks the next morning (no railroad transportation up this far) on the last leg of our trip, which is 95 miles, arrived here Sunday, December 8, at 6 p. m. We had a fine trip and a great time. Captain Stone came with us and returned the next day. We will go back as soon as this is over; don't know how long that will be. One thing I do know, we are all pefectly contented and satisfied."

GEMS IN THE ROUGH

Thoughts Expressed in Rhyme Over Half Century Ago.

The following verses were written by James Getty February 14, 1864, and presented to John F. Temple on the return to him of a borrowed Chambers Encyclopedia of English literature. The verses were found by Erwin Getty, grandson of the author, who forwarded a copy to Frank J. Temple, son of the original recipient. While the rhyme may not be the finished product of a highly educated poet, it nevertheless expresses fine sentiment and thought from a man who had no extensive educational advantages. Older residents who will call to memory the two characters, will appreciate the worth of the rhyme, which follows:

I promised, John, to write you,
To thank you for the book you lent me;
But leisure hours are very few,
So toil, and care, seem to prevent me.
The children now are gone to rest,
And naught disturbs me round the fire;
I've all my potent peers suppressed,
Then what can poet more desire?

The muse has always smiled on me,
When e'er I've assayed to court her;
As zephyrs kiss the flowery lee,
And seem to make life's journey shorter,
When I would either read, or write,
I steal an hour from evening's close,
For moments claim the dead of night,
And leads me then to sweet repose.

I've thought your rural life,
A life of philosophic ease;
Amongst your smiling babes and wife,
Amongst your berries and your bees.
I've often figured to myself,
Your opportunities for reading,
Which is the poet's dearest pelf,
All other riches far exceeding.

So read, my friend, but why should I
Suggest the authors you should read;
For wit, and scrutiny, discry
And you're the better judge, indeed.
My reading is composed of no
One branch of scientific lore,
Each partial tennet I forgo,
Tho, committed in days of yore.

There's no religious saints promulge,
That's not the finger post to heaven,
All willingly in guilt indulge
And then we seem to be forgiven.
If culpable of vile omission,
Oh why, should mankind so forget?
But bark, they say, for all transgression
A savior, sure, will pay thy debt.

But Chambers' brief biography
Describe another class of men
Whose classic loves, typography
Has introduced to human ken—
Whose writings fascinate the mind
From Chambers down to Rob't Burns,
If all whose genius so inclined
To labor, and to read, by turns.

Oh, with what pleasure does my mind,
Revisit oft my youthful haunts,
Where wisdom's jem, I hoped to find,
Unconscious of all other wants.
There 'neath the health-clad grassy hill,
And 'neath the willows' shading boughs,
I've often sat and read at will,
From noon-time,' till evening's close.

But all the pleasing scenes of youth,
Like every pleasure disappears;
While wisdom, justice, love and truth,
Abide the storm of passing years,
So time and toil may make me gray,
And yet succumb with care,
While hope may point a brighter day,
But let me ask you, when, and where.

Say, is this life a veil of tears,
Obscured by murkey clouds of woe?
If so, in brief and fleeting years,
'Tis we, ourselves, who make it so.
The path-way of science is the way
On which our weary feet should plod,
The beacon light by which we may
See nature, and see nature's God.
Then let us, like the immortal hume
Behold, the brighter side of things,
And never let us dare presume
To abuse the gift, that fortune brings.
'Tis only folly thus to fret
At what we know we can't prevent,
At real misfortune why regret?
Then let us live and die content.

According to a consular report 23,918 persons in British India, died from snake bite in 1917. India needs another St. Patrick.

A Friend Recommended Them.

J. N. Tohill, clerk Lottie Hotel, Evansville, Ind., writes: "For six weeks I suffered constantly with pains in the muscles of my thigh. Upon recommendation of a friend I tried Foley Kidney Pills and began to get relief almost immediately." They stop backache, rheumatic pains, soreness and stiffness. Sold everywhere in Tecumseh—adv.

Wood & Rathbun,

THE WAR SAVINGS MOVEMENT AND ITS MANIFOLD BENEFITS.

By Elijah G. Poxson, Vice Director, Michigan War Savings Committee

In th year 1917 the United States Government appropriated $21,000,000,000 to be used for goods and services necessary to support our army at the front. It is very difficult to visualize what $21,000,000,000 means. It has been said it is equal in amount to three times all the money in the United States. In 126 years in which our government has been in operation it has cost only $26,000,000,000 for all the expenses of conducting our government. This includes all our wars, pensions, Panama canal, and all expenses of any nature in the running of affairs.

The value of the manufactured products of this nation during the year 1915, when the nation was speeded up in production of materials for England and France, amounted to $24,000,000,000. It can be readily seen from this fact that it was a physical impossibility to produce the $21,000,000,000 worth of goods and service plus the $24,000,000,000 of products normally used in peace times. It, therefore, became imperative that we eliminate every possible nonessential in order to release three essential commodities, namely capital, labor, and material for the use of the Government, and only in so far as we did eliminate the purchase of non-essentials did we refrain from competing directly with the Government. This is the fundemental principle underlies the War Savings Stamp plan.

The Government took two means of obtaining these results. In the first place the government requested the manufacturer to curtail his output of non-essentials and convert that part of his plant which was set free to the production of war supplies. In the second place, and the part which has to do with the War Savings stamp plan, was an appeal to the people of every class to refrain from the use of non-essentials and thus to further liberate capital, labor, and material for the use of the government in the prosecution of the great war. On the face of it, it might appear this plan would hurt business, but as a matter of actual fact, based upon the experience of France and England, business during the war was increased. The extra demand for war materials caused a fuller employment of labor and a more active distribution of capital.

H. Gordon Selfridge, formerly a Chicago merchant, is now proprietor of the largest store in London. Of his 3,500 employes, a thousand were called to colors. The others have bought $1,000,000 worth of War Savings certificates. In spite of the fact that Mr. Selfridge has been a leader in promoting the thrift campaign in England and has persistently advocated the elimination of non-essentials, he increased his business in the year 1917 two and one-half million dollars.

With the war over, but the bill not paid, we have set out to organize a War Savings Stamp society in every institution in this state. The schools were partly organized a year ago. The factories are being appealed to, and are very largely organized. The office building and retail stores are next, and the organization work among the stores and office building is well under way, and will continue during 1919. The idea of the Thrift club is simply this: A person joining that club pledges himself to refrain from the purchase of non-essentials and divert that capital into War Savings stamps and encourage others to do the same.

In each club organization there is one member appointed, generally known as the secretary, who makes a weekly canvass of each person in that club, for the purpose of selling War Savings and Thrift stamps. It is well known that the people of Michigan are the most responsive people in the land on all war activities; and the Thrift club is serving the purpose of making known to the people the War Savings stamp plan. As soon as the details of the War Savings stamp plan is known there is the most active interest displayed in them, and the buying of stamps begins.

It is interesting to know that the Thrift club originated in England and that today more than 50,000 of these thrift clubs are operating with clock-like precision in the British Isles.

In the early part of the War Savings Stamp campaign, because of the fact that the schools and children were the first to be organized, the general impression prevailed that they were designed for the children, but when we stop to realize the state's quota for these stamps, it is quite clear that they are not only for children, but are for everyone, and unless every person purchases War Savings Stamps in 1919 according to his or her ability to do so, this stamp plan must necessarily fail.

The War Savings stamp method of financing our war is the most democratic and efficient method yet devised. When Germany defeated France in the year of 1870, she imposed so severe an indemnity upon her that the nations of the world felt it would be impossible for France to ever recover from the burden, and Germany herself declared she had tied a millstone about the neck of France from which she should not free herself. It was this incident which brought to light the War Savings stamp plan worked out by the French financiers to meet the emergency of the hour. By means of this system France paid off her indemnity in an unprecedented short length of time, and at once the other nations of the world recognized her great capacity as a thrifty nation.

Early in this war, President Poincare said it was by virtue of the War Savings stamp plan that France was able to carry on this war from a dollar and cents point of view. She was the richest nation in the world at that time in per capita savings, and when her first great loans were offered to the people they were absorbed with no undue interruptions in business. It is hoped by our government when the people of this nation are acquainted with the War Savings stamp plan to eventually finance our war on this same basis and eliminate the bond. Of course, this does not mean that we will not have another bond issue, and it may not mean that we will ever be free from bond issues. Only in so far as the War Savings stamp plan meets with success will it be used for its great purpose. The present outlook is that it will succeed and that it will eventually supplant bonds.

It is very startling evidence to compare the per capita per annum savings of the people of the various nations of Europe with those of the people of the United States. We, as a nation, have not stood up under the hardest test of all, namely, the test of prosperity. Instead of being a thrift nation we are a spendthrift nation. Poor litttle Sweden with her thin soil and rigorous winters has a per capita per annum savings of $250, New Zealand, a per capita per annum savings of $28. The U. S. has a per capita per annum savings of $50. This is true in spite of the fact that we are the richest nation in the world in man power and raw materials. President Wilson has said: "I suppose not many fortunate by-products can come out of this war, but if this country can learn something about saving it will be worth the cost of the war. I mean the literal cost of it in money and resources."

Do you know that the War Savings stamp is the most desirable United States security obtainable today?

1. Because it may be redeemed for cash at any time necessary with interest to date.
2. Because it cannot fluctuate in value except as it increases in value.
3. Because it may be purchased at any time and in amount from 25c to $1,000.
4. Because it is not taxable.
5. Because it is so desirable the law limits an individual or corporation to one thousand dollars' worth of stamps at maturity value.

There is one feature of the War Savings stamp plan which it is imperative that all understand. The government has placed a limit of one thousand dollars at maturity value as being the maxmum amount of War Savings stamps that any one person can lawfully own. This is due to the fact that the War Savings stamp is so desirable, the big money centers would immediately absorb it and defeat the purpose for which it was designated, namely, for ALL the people.

Red Cross Call!

Mr. H. A. Fee, Chairman Lenawee Co. Chapter,
Adrian, Michigan.

My Dear Mr. Fee:

SUBJECT: CHAPTERS TO COLLECT SECOND-HAND CLOTHING.

The AMERICAN RED CROSS representatives abroad and Herbert Hoover, head of the European Relief Administration, have cabled that an immediate supply of every kind of clothing is absolutely vital to the health and very life of millions of men, women and children now freed from the German yoke.

Relief of this nature is needed in Northern France, Belgium, Italy, Roumania, Serbia, Greece, Montenegro, Albania, Czecho-Slovakia, Poland and Palestine.

Accordingly a campaign is now being organized to collect used clothing, shoes and blankets through the agency of the branches. Collection will be made just at a time when practically the whole country is discarding winter clothing much of which would never again be donned by owners. Thus at a minimum of sacrifice, the American people will be able to show in a most substantial way their brotherhood to those who still suffer.

At least TEN THOUSAND TONS of clothing is required for shipment.

Yours very truly,
HOWARD W. FENTON,
Manager Central Division.

Department of Development.

The Lenawee County Chapter has therefore prepared to answer this CALL and has issued instructions to all of its Branches to make this collection from

Monday, March 17th, to Monday, March 31st

Take your donations to your Local Branch who will see that it is forwarded.

DETAILED PLAN FOR

Collection of Used Clothing

FOR LIBERATED COUNTRIES

PLAN

The plan which will be followed is the one which has been so successful in the collection of clothing for Belgium. On previous occasions, the Red Cross has been responsible only for the collection of clothing and the delivery of the packed goods to the railroads. In this campaign the Red Cross will assume entire charge of operations from the time of collection to the time when the baled clothing is delivered to sips of the European Relief Administration which will transport it to Europe. The distribution of this clothing in Europe will be entirely under American supervision. The ARC Commissions will supervise it in those countries where they are at work and in those places where we have no organization. Mr. Hoover has offered to have his food representatives take charge of the distribution. Thus the responsibility for the campaign will be on the Red Cross from the time of the collection of the clothing to the time of the ultimate distribution in Europe.

DATE

THE CAMPAIGN WILL BE HELD IN THE WEEKS OF MARCH 17TH TO THE 31ST, 1919.

ALLOTMENT

The minimum quota for Lenawee County is 10,000 pounds.

ORGANIZATION

It is believed that organization is the Keystone of the success of this campaign. People in general are only too glad to contribute their discarded clothing, if they are asked to do so and understand the need. Therefore, the problem of collecting this clothing becomes one of organizing an active committee of workers in each Branch.

THE KIND OF GARMENTS NEEDED

Every kind of garment, for all ages and both sexes, is urgently needed. In addition, piece goods, light, warm canton flannel, and other kinds of cloth from which to make garments for new born babies, ticking, sheetings, and blankets, woolen goods of any kind—and shoes of every size are asked for. Scrap leather is needed for repairing footwear.

Since the clothes will be subjected to the hardest kind of wear, only garments of strong and durable materials should be sent. It is useless to offer to any afflicted population garments of FLIMSY MATERIAL. Make the gifts practical.

Garments need not be in perfect condition. Many thousand destitute women in the occupied regions are eager to earn a small livelihood by repairing gift clothing and making new garments adapted to needs with which they are familiar.

LIST OF GARMENTS WHICH MUST NOT BE SENT—VERY IMPORTANT

Many garments and many other personal belongings are utterly useless for relief purposes, and should not be included in any parcel. Packing such articles as high hats, ball dresses, shoe trees, collars, etc., is useless and wasteful, because.

1. It increases the cost of handling, as such articles have to be picked out at the central collection point.
2. It causes useless expenditure of money for freight on articles which cannot be sent abroad.

The Red Cross is paying the freight and Chapter workers should be certain that every cent paid the railroads is helping to forward some useful articles to the stricken countries of Europe.

A number of each of the articles listed below were received by the C. R. B. in the campaign which we conducted for them in September.

DO NOT SEND

Ball Dresses, Flimsy Dresses, High Hats, Straw Hats, Derby Hats, Trimming for Hats, Feathers, Umbrellas, Matresses, Clocks, Glassware, Carpets Toys, Collars, Neckties, Shoe Trees, Crutches, Canes, Parasols, Pillows, Crockery, Rugs.

Obituary — Nathaniel Jackson. 'Nathaniel Jackson died Sunday, March 2, 1919, at his home in Clinton township from a cancerous affection. Mr. Jackson had been to Ann Arbor, where he had undergone two operations a year ago. Mr. Jackson had been a resident of Lenawee county for more than forty years, a prosperous farmer, due to his own energy and ability, dependent upon his own resources from boyhood, having been left an orphan at the age of 11 years.

Mr. Jackson was born in the city of Baltimore, Md., Feb. 20, 1851, and was the son of Peter and Sarah (Boyce) Jackson, both natives of Ireland.

Nathaniel Jackson received his education in the public schools and while but a lad began to make his own way in the world. In 1870 he came to Lenawee county, Michigan, where by hard work and self denial he saved $1,000. In 1884 he purchased the present farm of forty acres in Clinton township. He was affiliated with Tecumseh Lodge, No. 69, F. & A. M. and a member of the Baptist church.

On Sept. 3, 1896, Mr. Jackson was married to Miss Gertrude May Smith of Seneca township, daughter of Wm. H. and Lucy (Onweller) Smith. To this union three children were born—Sarah Lucy, born April 25, 1898, who died in infancy; Lela May, born Sept 9, 1902; and Nathaniel Winfield, born April 30, 1906.

The funeral was held Tuesday March 11, at one o'clock from the home, Rev. Curtis of the Tecumseh Baptist church officiating.

The bearers were Dr. John Murphy, Leslie Van Doren, S. W. Boyce, John T. Boyce, Alva Spayde and Will S. Dickinson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Johnson and daughter, Mrs. Glen Sparks of Seward Ohio, Mrs. Libbie Borton of Morenci, Mrs. Bert Staup and daughter Miss Louise Munson of Adrian, attended from away.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends for their kindness during our recent bereavement, for the use of the autos and for the beautiful flowers from the friends and relatives and the school children and teacher of the Service school, also the beautiful wreath from the Masonic order and the members of the Baptist Ladies' Aid. We wish also to thank Rev. Curtis for his comforting words and Miss Louise Munson of Adrian for singing.

Mrs. Nathaniel Jackson,
And Children.

Suffered For Eight Years.

Rheumatic pains, lame back, sore muscles and stiff joints often are due to overworked, weak or disordered kidneys. Daisy Bell, R. F. D. No. 3, Box 234, Savannah, Ga., writes: "I suffered eight years with pain in the back and could not do any of my work, but since taking Foley Kidney Pills, I can do all of my work." Corp. Harold J. Zitzelberger of Detroit, representing the Burgess Battery Co., was in town Tuesday. Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Bertine Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rogers of Holloway, and Elwood Comfort, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Comfort. He has returned to his former position in the accounting department in the Ford office in Detroit to which city he will take his bride. The lady is also well known in Tecumseh.

More than ever this spring is the lack of modernly equipped houses felt in Tecumseh. Any real estate agent will tell you that he has calls daily for modern homes. The workmen are better paid today than ever before and are well able to pay for the conveniences, yet it is safe to say, there is not a house in the village with bath unrented. One agent reports ten applications for such a house when the fact became known that the present occupant had bought another home. The people want these good houses and are willing to pay the price, yet there is a woeful lack of such rentable property in Tecumseh.

HON. CHAS. EVANS TALKS BEFORE TECUMSEH GRANGE

Advises Voting For Fifty Million State Bonding Proposition and Encourages County Road System—Vote "No" on Beer and Wine Amendment and "No" on Amendment Regarding Officers' Salary.

A rattling good talk was given Saturday afternoon in Grange hall by Hom. Chas. Evans, representative to the state legislature from this district, who spoke upon and explained the good roads amendment, the county road system, the amendment regarding the increase of state officials' salaries, and took a sharp dig at the wine and beer amendment.

Previously to the address the members of the Grange enjoyed one of their famous basket dinners, an affair that gave considerable pleasure to the participants.

At 2:30 Master Geo. Sanford called the meeting to order and turned the program over to the Grange lecturer, Wm. Wilson. Mr. Wilson first introduced Miss Lillis Howard, who cleverly rendered a piano solo that was much appreciated by the audience, then introducing our representative, Hon. Charles Evans of Tipton.

Mr. Evans' introductory remarks showed his appreciation of the support the people of his district have given him and of the confidence the people seem to hold in him—a confidence he sincerely hoped to retain. Many people feel that the office of representative is rather unimportant and he assured them of their mistake, as there is no more important official than the lawmaker of the state. Some consider the representatives nothing but politicians but upon politics everything is determined — roads, streets, justice of life, amount of taxes paid, how the public funds are expended, etc. We should all awaken to our keenest senses when selecting a man for the state legislature.

Mr. Evans first spoke of the wine and beer amendment, stating there never was a time when there was greater responsibility resting upon the voter, especially the women. The men turned over to the women a dry state and responsibility now rests upon the women. Any woman that does not register and vote on April 7 is not doing her duty as an American citizen.

He next called attention to and read the amendment regarding the raising of salaries of public officers. The amendment is camouflaged—the real intent is hidden. If you vote "yes" on that amendment you increase the salary of supreme justices. There are seven of them, the term of office is eight years and the salary now is $7,000 a year. Mr. Evans thought this large enough, as one of the judges admitted to him that he could easily save from $30,000 to $35,000 during the term.

Coming to the road question, the speaker said the greatest road building plan ever attempted by the state of Michigan is being mapped out. The people are asked to vote to bond the state for fifty million dollars to carry out the plans. Voters should not think that the state is planning to go right to work to borrow the fifty million. That is not so; the amendment gives the legislature power to borrow a sum of money from year to year as it is needed.

To secure federal aid in road building we must match dollar for dollar with the federal government. We can get federal aid of seven million dollars a year, but we've got to provide dollar for dollar if we get any federal money. As to the burden, providing it is voted to issue $50,000,000 worth of bonds to run to 1940, the tax would be only 50c on a thousand valuation if paid all in one year. If the bonding amendment did not pass the legislature would raise money by direct taxation.

Under the new ruling Federal aid can be secured on the road going through the village of Tecumseh, which could not be obtained under the old law. Tecumseh can get fifty per cent of the cost up to 20 feet wide from the Federal aid. The township of Ridgeway can do better; she can get 50% from the federal government and 10% from the state, leaving only 40% of the cost to the township. Franklin and Cambridge would get 50% Federal and 20% state money, leaving 30 percent to be raised by the township. This is on roads going to leading markets, and the state aid is determined upon township valuation and mileage of trunk lines.

Coming to the county road system, Mr. Evans said: "To vote against the county road system is voting entirely against your own interests." Sixty-one counties in the state are operating on the county system and not one of them would go back on this system. We have got to have highways and it is to everybod's advantage to vote for the bonding and the county road system.

Mr. Evans paid State Highway Commissioner Rogers a high compliment by crediting him as the most efficient official in any department of the state. "We have the greatest highway commissioner in the country. The overhead expense of his office is less than 4%, while few others are running at less than 10%. He is performing a great service to the state at a salary of $3,500, when it would be cheap at $25,000."

The speaker stated that Mr. Rogers would be in the county next Sunday and had offered to speak at any place that would be provided. Mr. Evans wanted to give Tecumseh first chance.

A motion was made by H. W. Stevens that Mr. Rogers be invited to speak in Tecumseh next Sunday evening. The motion was seconded and carried unanimously. Rev. Thompson, president of the local ministerial association, stated that he felt certain that the regular community service would be at Mr. Rogers' disposal.

Mr. Evans stated that he had heard that Tecumseh would vote almost solidly against the county road proposition. He sincerely hoped there is no truth in the statement. He urged every man and woman to vote for both the bonding proposition and county road system.

The question was asked if a township heavily bonded would get credit for what had been done. This was answered in the affirmative.

Another question if good roads were not a matter of national protection. Mr. Evans answered that good roads saved civilazation at Marne and Verdun. At St. Mihiel the good roads saved thousands of our American boys. The American forces never retreated when it was possible to go ahead and the good roads made this possible. At Argonne there were good roads part of the way, but while our engineers were building extensions our boys were compelled to take German slugs and shells fired upon them. The road proposition is the next of importance to the beer and wine amendment. You can't interest money to better advantage than in better highways; it increases the value of your property.

Mr. Evans also touched upon veneral diseases, stating the saloon has been responsible for the spread in a great measure. "Remember," he said, "you are not voting for yourself, not only for the boys and girls of today, but for those not yet born. If you are in doubt as to the meaning of any amendment don't vote until you receive information."

The value of the patrol system for maintaining highways was also spoken of.

County Surveyor John Richard was next introduced. He wanted to know why we should refuse aid when extended to us, and spoke in favor of the county road system, telling of the advantage of road building through a county board.

It was asked how long it would take to get under the county system. Mr. Richard replied that if voted work under the county system would be begun this summer. Another question asked was whether the Covert petitions would be dropped if the county system is adopted. This question was answered in the affirmative and it was added that if the county system was not adopted it would be necessary to bond townships.

Rev. C. M. Tompson again reminded the people to vote "No" on the wine and beer amendment and the program closed with another musical selection.

A business meeting of the Grange followed the program.

KENNETH PENNINGTON

Macon Soldier Returns From Overseas After Fifteen Months' Service.

Kenneth Pennington, son of Mr. and Mrs B. F. Pennington, of Macon, arrived here Friday after 15 months in the service. He enlisted Dec 12, 1917 and after a few days at Columbus Barracks, was sent to Fort Winfield Scott, San Francisco, where he was placed in the coast artillery. After six months he was sent across and made a motor cycle rider in the 52nd Ammunition Train.

Over there one day his machine skidded and he was thrown under a great army truck. All that saved his life was the fact that he fell into a nice soft French mud hole and his leg was pushed into the mess.

Kenneth left Brest February 23d for home after two months in hospitals. He was mustered out at Camp Sherman Thursday.

Board of Education Contracts for Drop Curtains and Stage Settings.

The Board of Education has just contracted with the Twin City Scenic Co. of Minneapolis and Detroit for a drop curtain for the High school stage. Also there is to be a "Garden drop" for rear of stage, a box parlor set, with kitchen scene painted on back of same.

These scenes together with the necessary wings, drapery and sky border will put the school stage in excellent condition for future school entertainments.

The company has promised to have this equipment ready for installation early in April—probably in time for the coming Junior entertainment.

THOMAS BROOKS FLETCHER

OHIO NEWSPAPER MAN AND LECTURER

Scores Two Big Hits in Tecumseh—Brings Messages That Should Tend to Improve Community and Humanity Welfare.

At the little get together supper given at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening for the purpose of promoting a parent-teacher organization, Thomas Brooks Fletcher, Ohio newspaper man and lecturer, pointed out in a subtle manner a number of things that Tecumseh neede in the line of community welfare. He brought his message in an entertaining and at times dramatic manner, mixing his telling hot shots with pleasantries that kept his audience at a point of keen expectancy every minute.

The supper prepared by the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society, while not elaborate, was well prepared, appetizing and touched the right spot.

Supt. W. L. Reed, introducing the speaker, explained that the parent-teacher organization, supposed to be responsible for the meeting had not yet been formed, but it was hoped that an organization would soon be perfected.

Mr. Fletcher began his talk by introducing himself not as a politician, but as a newspaper man. He did not come to tell the people something, but came to learn from them. He wanted to find out something about Tecumseh, but here seemed to exist a clever scheme of pussy-footing that was baffling.

In his travels he found out many things about towns, a general condition being that it was nearly always necessary to appeal to the intelligence below the belt to get people together. He found towns where preachers could not get together, where the town was divided. It seemed easy enough to get leaders, but difficult to secure followers. He pictured the busy little business man that had no time away from his business as one of no value to a community. But the war has fixed things so a man can't live alone any more. It was the speaker's endeavor to make it easier for preachers and editors whose greatest handicap in progressive work is the indifference and self satisfaction of citizens.

Modern business men have found that religion is necessary to successful business. He has got to be on the level and do the square thing. He must put a part of himself into his business; he has to be good to the people.

He has found towns prejudiced against farmers. The old idea of every one for himself and the devil take the hind one is obsolete. The biggest word is co-operation—men have got to love one another in self defense.

Relating experiences of his travels and observations, he pictured the advantages of organized towns, where pavements and modern conveniences have been secured, over the unorganized community where every one lives for his little self.

Mr. Fletcher paid a glowing tribute to President Wilson and his mission in France, and termed him as the hope of the world, trying to dramatize imagination. Ex-President Taft was also favorably mentioned in this connection.

"The high cost of hate based on misunderstanding is too expensive a luxury," is one of the expressions fired by the speaker.

Summing up the lecturer's message, we cull the folowing things that every town should have.

First, co-operation.

Environments conducive to healthy minds and healthy bodies.

Organizations, both business and social, that will do some good.

Summer play ground for children.

Elimination of the town's biggest monstrosity—the self satisfied selfish man.

The biggest asset of a town are the children; the souls of these little children should not be destroyed. We must make democracy safe for the world. The place to begin is in the minds of the children.

"Tecumseh needs not so much your money as some of you; when you give you, you will have accomplished something."

Parent-Teacher Association.

At the close of the lecture, Rev. Rex asked the speaker if the time was not opportune for forming a parent-teacher organization.

Prof. Reed said the committee had not outlined any definite course of procedure, but the intention was to organize soon.

L. E. Temple moved that Prof. Reed appoint a committee to nominate an executive committee with authority to form an organization.

An amendment offered that the existing committee act as nominating committee was adopted.

The committee reported the following selections: Rev. W. A. Rex, Prof. W. L. Reed, Prof. Laidlaw, Mrs. F. B. Wood, Mrs. J. H. Smith and Mrs. Chas. Williamson. The committee is to select its own chairman.

TWO KINDS OF FOOLS.

Thomas Brooks Fletcher at High School Lecture Course.

With less than an hour intervening, Thomas Brooks Fletcher again faced a Tecumseh audience at the High school auditorium, where he delivered his second lecture of the evening to a good sized audience. His subject here was two kinds of fools, the one martyred for what he thinks and the fool martyred by what he thinks.

In the first class Mr. Fletcher placed the martyred geniuses of the world—the great inventors—men and women who dared to express new ideas — men who brought great good to the world, but received the sneers of their fellows and were classed as fools.

In the second class he placed those who nourished fool thoughts into action, habit and destiny.

Many illustration was graphically related where a fool thought led to sin, crime and destruction. "Someone, sometime, somewhere must always pay for fool thoughts that lead to action," was the text that was frequently demonstrated by incidents of life.

Mr. Fletcher's intense earnestness held his audience spellbound for two hours, almost incapable of applause, so that between the graphic descriptions of the two kinds of fools the speaker gave a moment for relaxation.

The two lectures were fine and contained wholesome messages that the community should profit by.

LIBERTY LOAN CHAIRMEN ENTERTAINED

PLANS DISCUSSED FOR LAST LOAN DRIVE.

County Chairman and Mrs. H. S. Temple Open Beautiful Home for Occasion—Feeling For Victory Growing.

Last evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Temple gathered a number of township chairmen to meet C. H. Corrigan, state director, and Theodore Millington, district director, acting for the Federal Reserve bank, and Mrs. Mills also assisting in the great work of putting the Fifth Liberty Loan drive over the top [illegible]

A splendid dinner had been prepared for the men and the hospitality of this home was thoroughly enjoyed.

After the feast the coming drive was discussed from every angle. Mrs. Mills addressed the men first, pledging to them the loyal support of the women of the state. Her motto is "Let's finish the job." The address by this loyal lady was inspiring. Mrs. Mills then left to consult with a committee of Tecumseh ladies at the home of Mrs. E. E. Hendershot.

Theodore Millington, a gentleman who has had much experience in drives and public welfare service, spoke next and he certainly enthused the spirits of those present, making the task seem more easy of accomplishment.

State Director C. H. Corrigan, a young man sparkling with efficiency, has been put on the job to bring Lenawee across, and if his advice is followed this county is going to make good.

Chairman H. S. Temple also made remarks that displayed his loyal enthusiasm and determination that the thing has got to be done and will be done.

Township chairmen present were John Ladd of Macon, W. P. VanTuyle of Clinton, Arthur Green of Raisin, Joseph Platt and W. C. Fisher of Franklin, and Harry Temple of Britton.

The sentiment expressed was the boys were drafted and did their part; the people who remained at home should finish the job without waiting to be politely asked.

He went over in the 85th, Co. H, 338 Infantry. In France he was placed in Co. C, 38th Infantry, 3rd Division. In the battle of Argonne Meuse Mr. Brenner was wounded in the ankle. As he was being carried on a stretcher from the field a German sniper up in a tree shot into the stretcher, the ball entering his thigh. For several weeks the Lenawee county boy wouldn't have given a cent for his life, and now regards himself as very fortunate to be home.

While in Tecumseh before the war he was with Karl A. Braman in the jewelry store and left about the time Mr. Braman did, but has not seen the latter since leaving Camp Custer.

Editorial Comment

A gentleman, who can safely be considered pretty good authority, told The Herald that the business men of Tecumseh as a whole did a greater volume of cash business last Saturday (the first Dollar Day) than any other Saturday in years. This statement was quite encouraging to The Herald, for it is substantial evidence that the influence of the home paper has and is steadily on the gain. It should also prove conclusively to the merchants of Tecumseh that the people read their weekly announcements and that they are ready to take advantage of good shopping opportunities.

Dollar Day in Tecumseh brought purchasers from quite a distance and the stores were kept busy all day and some of the merchants and clerks felt quite a relief when at night things quieted down and they could get a breathing spell.

It would probably be untrue to say that the merchants made more profit on Dollar Day than on previous Saturdays, because many goods where sold at actual cost or less. But the ready cash for new purchases is an important factor in business life and this certainly was passed over the counters of our stores.

Several ladies informed The Herald that they made enough saving on their Dollar Day purchases to more than pay for the yearly subscription, and they have become close readers of the advertising columns.

Many merchants have voluntarily declared their appreciation of the results of the Dollar Day plan and are ready to repeat [illegible] to have the event a monthly occurrence.

To do this or to accomplish anything worth while in Tecumseh or any other place the business men should get together more often, not necessarily to feast, but to talk things over. If the Commerce club is the spokesman of Tecumseh business interests there should be regular monthly meetings. Every business man should be a member. He should attend every meeting and avoid above everything being a slacker. One night a month is little enough to talk over community welfare. Meetings should be regularly conducted so we can keep in close touch with every advantage possible to our town and the surrounding territory. The business men would be surprised at the results should each one make up his mind that such a meeting is necessary and that it is incumbent upon him to be present. It's united work in a community that counts, and there is plenty of such work to do here.

Tecumseh village, Tecumseh, Franklin, Ridgeway and other townships and villages through which traverses the Monroe turnpike have a golden opportunity to secure a state trunk improved highway leading to desirable market centers that should not pass by unheeded by the citizens of the villages and townships involved. It is an opportunity to have this improvement made with the Federal government paying half the cost.

Tecumseh village will have the opportunity to have Chicago street improved its entire length through the village with the government footing half the bill of cost. She just comes within the population limit to have this advantage, and it will be wise for every one to get busy now to have the work done before we outgrow that limit, for Tecumseh is surely going to grow.

Lenawee county lost money and opportunity by turning down the county road system a few years ago. At that time farmers and village residents had the idea that Adrian city was trying to put something over on them, and residents of cities had the opposite idea. Geo. B. Horton, former master of the State Grange, used his utmost influence to defeat the proposition at that time and this year he again has out his little hammer. Mr. Horton owns something like 1500 acres of land in Lenawee county — probably more than any other five men. He has a reason and you can bet on it that it is not an entirely unselfish one. His influence this year will have little bearing on the situation and The Herald believes we have enough progressive voters in Lenawee to adopt up-to-date systematic methods in highway construction and with the help of the women, who do not despise good roads, the measure will carry and Lenawee will be building roads under the county system plan this summer. Every one realizes that traffic conditions are entirely different than they were a few years ago and highways are going to be subjected to the severest tests during the coming years. Farmers realize the value of good roads to markets, and two that we know were unable to make a sale this winter because of the condition of roads passing their farms.

There are few if any people in this vicinity that have not the utmost confidence in Representative Charles Evans of this district. The people know that Mr. Evans is strictly honorable and that he has given his best to the service of his district and state. He has shown more than ordinary keenness in scrutinizing bills that were presented to the legislature for passage. He always made sure that such bills were what the people wanted and that they were as represented before he voted for them. The people of the northern townships know that Mr. Evans is conscientious to a fine point and that he will not betray his constituents.

Mr. Evans, as a member of the bridges and roads committee has studied the proposed plan of bonding the state of Michigan for fifty million dollars for roads building. He has studied the county road system. He advises the people of his district to vote for both propositions — bonding and county road system. In his address before the Grange Saturday he assured the people that it is the best and cheapest method of building and taking care of highways. He assured the people that the state would not step out immediately and borrow, should the bonding measure carry, the entire fifty million dollars in a lump sum. Only such sums as are needed to obtain the annual seven million dollar Federal aid for Michigan would be borrowed from year to year. He wants Michigan to have that seven million dollars and he wants farmers to have good highways leading to markets. He sees that transportation problems will find their solution in good highways.

That Mr. Evans has perfect confidence in the efficiency of our state highway department was amply proved by his eloquent tribute to Mr. Rogers' ability and efficiency. No one doubts Mr. Evans, and it is confidently felt that the people of his district will follow his advice and vote for the bonding and county roads system and against the beer and wine amendment and the camouflaged amendment regarding the raising of state officials salaries.

Eight letters of shopmen read at the community service Sunday evening favored paved main streets and five favored a community house. This shows good community welfare spirit among our factory men. One was against oiling streets and favored stone roads. He says "forget oiling." The Herald says forget stone roads if you wish to be dustless, for stone roads give forth the most disagreeable and penetrating dust unless surfaced with a tarva preparation.

Tecumseh people shouldn't forget the dust problem if they wish to have a healthy population. It does not advertise a town advantageously when its local newspaper is obliged to publish deaths beyond normal ratio as happened last fall. We do not wish to intimate that dust was responsible for the many deaths last fall, but we do wish to ever keep before the people of our fair town the danger in flying dust. Dust is the most insidious conveyor of tubercular and other disease germs.

Several letters Sunday night complained of high retail prices—one making a statement that it is difficult to make ends meet with Detroit prices and Tecumseh wages. We believe this is an injustice to our merchants. We believe they are selling at as close a margin as in other places, quality and service considered. At least Detroit people take every available opportunity in Tecumseh and other small towns to buy supplies for their table.

Perhaps these men get their ideas from city stores advertisements, which are oftimes misleading when you see the goods advertised. Some things may be higher priced in Tecumseh than in cities, but we can bank on it that as a whole things will average up favorably for Tecumseh.

Don't forget to register, ladies, if you have not already done so. You know the misery the saloon has brought to many a family. Vote to keep it banished from our state.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Earl W. McNeil.

Lila Florence McNeil, daughter of Amenzo and Mary VanValkenburg, was born in Franklin township April 9, 1885, and died at her home in Adrian Mar 20, 1919, making her nearly 34 years of age. She was united in marriage to Earl W. McNeil Sept. 30, 1915. To this union two children were born, Chas. Winslow aged 2½ years and Mary Helen, infant daughter, who is laid to rest with her mother. All of her life has been spent in the vicinity of Tecumseh except one year in Eaton Rapids and two years in Adrian. She united with the Baptist church in Tecumseh in her girlhood, where she was always a willing and efficient worker, having taught a Sunday school class for a number of years. In that capacity she showed a zeal that produced a conspicuous success, many of her scholars giving their hearts to the Saviour and joining the church. In the B. Y. P. U. her faculty of leadership equalled her zeal and together made that organization an efficient supporter of the church and its work. Her work was always accomplished with out friction and no ostentation or display. We are sure no member of the Baptist circle of workers would be more missed or mourned.

Though gone from us, her influence is yet upon us and will remain for aye.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. Earl W. McNeil and son, Mr. and Mrs. A. VanValkenburg and family desire to thank their many friends for their kind sympathy and floral offerings extended to them during their recent sad bereavement, They especially desire to thank the friends of Adrian and members of the High School for their deeds of kindness, Rev. Curtis for his comforting words, and Mrs. Robert Moore for singing. -3-27

TECUMSEH MAN HONORED IN OHIO

A. B. Boyce Elected President of Columbus Dry Goods Company.

Tecumseh people are always pleased to learn of former residents making good in the world. News reached this office last week that at the recent meeting of the directors of the Columbus Dry Goods company, A. B. Boyce, was elected president of the company.

Mr. Boyce, who managed the business of the Webster Anderson Co.'s store in Tecumseh before going to Columbus, took the management of the big Ohio store, and his success in that capacity undoubtedly brought him the additional honorable recognition.

Mr. Boyce also took part on the program of the Retail Dry Goods association at their annual convention, held in Columbus March 12, taking part in the discussing: "Shall we allow manufacturers and jobbers to reduce discounts and shorten terms?"

Suffered For Eight Years.

Rheumatic pains, lame back, sore muscles and stiff joints often are due to overworked, weak or disordered kidneys. Daisy Bell, R. F. D. No. 3, Box 234, Savannah, Ga., writes: "I suffered eight years with pain in the back and could not do any of my work, but since taking Foley Kidney Pills, I can do all of my work." SHOP MEN FAVOR OF PAVEMENTS

ANSWER QUESTIONS AT COMMUNITY SERVICE

Eight Letters Favor Pavement, Five a Community House, Four Lamented the Failure of Home Influence Taking Care of Children and Three Objected to Retail Prices.

That advertizing pays is proven by the crowds which each Sunday night fill our churches for the community services. Especially do the people flock to the Presbyterian church when Rev. W. A. Rex announces a "Tecumseh Night." Last Sunday night the shop men had written the letters and because they are working in a shop six days a week, they are by no means asleep to Tecumseh's needs or advantages. The questions were changed in this series to the following:

1. Wherein is Tecumseh above the average?
2. What is worthy of especial mention in the town?
3. Wherein is Tecumseh below the average?
4. What could be done to improve the town?

Rev. Rex in opening said we do not half appreciate the men who work in our shops and have charge of our industries. He has been accused of not reading all the letters and of reading names as given in these letters. He has carefully omitted reading slurs on individuals and naturally left out all names and that he will continue to do.

In several letters our sanitation was spoken of, the position of the town giving us natural drainage in addition to our splendid sewerage system. Many lauded our school, as second to none in the state, our good factories, employing many men and paying them good wages. One man put it this way: "We are in the best county in the United States, in the best little village. Our women are way up in G, intellectually and morally and the men following after in a close second.' All conceded our village above the average for a town of its size, in the water, and sewerage system with excellent fire protection. One said "The town's all right. If I didn't think so, I'd move." Several spoke of the good churches of town and the service rendered by the preachers, but one big Protestant church was emphasized frequently. The Red Cross was given as a leveler of social bars and the High School cadets and Boy Scouts commended.

Among the things we lack is a place to entertain the young people. A sort of community center, and so leave the high school gym free for the scholars. This [illegible] mention, as one man put it: "To do away with those places where our young men spend so much time." Another thing badly needed received frequent mention. That is pavement from depot to depot and on Chicago street from Pearl to Ottawa streets. Some advocated oiling the streets with others against it, but all conceded the folly of drawing gravel on to the streets all summer and hauling it off in the spring as mud. The food prices came in for their knocking, one saying it was hard to pay Detroit prices with Tecumseh wages, but if they could be brought down to a reasonable figure, it would materially cut the mail order business of the town. A community store was advocated. There is a chance here for more factories and we could have them if we made the effort. Our present factories could be enlarged. The Quaker Oats Co., is willing to do much for the town if given the glad hand. Our flouring mills received special mention. The addition of some place in which the workmen could eat their dinner and a coffee urn would certainly be appreciated.

In several communications it was said our social and moral influences could be improved and that our town was divided into cliques was deplored, and that reason given for the non-attendance at church of many. That if one's clothes were not good enough he was unwelcome.

One hit our police force in this way. "That they must be inoculated with every form of germ, as they had not been able to catch anything."

The resorts of disreputable women were not forgotten, one man suggesting the location of such place.

The trouble with so many little folks on the street at all hours of night was laid at the door of the parents. That we need a curfew law and to have the same enforced. That our boys and girls need more supervised play.

A number of special needs were reported. That our library be kept open seven days and evenings a week. Get teachers who have had eight or ten years experience and pay what they are worth. A good teacher at a high salary is cheaper than a poor teacher at any salary. Yet the home training of our children is the ground on which our town's welfare stands. "Let's educate rather than legislate our people good." One insists our telephone system is fierce, another that we need gas for cooking. Another suggests a hospital—"A suite of rooms properly furnished, to be kept in readiness with a physician in charge." That we have a God-given location, but the people are not progressive; they will never set the world afire. Another advocates the general manager form of government. Another our lack of decent homes for renting.

One man was surely all out of sorts when he wrote the following "Tecumseh is going to the bad pretty rapidly. The moral condition of the young was much better when we had saloons than now. The whole fault is at home. The parents ought not to allow 8-year-old kids on the street at 10 o'clock. Gambling is rampant in many places. The town never stood back of her local industries. The picture show given tonight will produce fore venereal disease than cure it."

Another waded into Rev. Rex: "What particular good do you think you are doing by these sermons? How much better did you conduct yourself when out of town? Clean up your church back yard before you begin on the town. How much of the slush you read can you prove?" Rev. Rex answered he was just an ordinary lad, probably worse than many. His inquisitor might go to Tiffin, O., and find out. Then he'd show any one how he acted out of town if they'd accompany him and pay the bills. That he gave up trying to clean up the church's backyard and started on the town.

Some spoke of how attractive our town was to the retired farmers, but they were often a drag. They don't lend a hand to boost the town, and underbid laborers.

As a summary Rev. Rex said he had received eight letters asking for paved streets, five spoke of the need of a community house and four of the parents allowing the children to run loose, three objected to the high retail prices.

Next Sunday night the topic will be "Good Roads" the services held at the Baptist church and Representative Evans and Frank Rogers, state highway commissioner, to speak.

Rev. Rex announced there would be two more Tecumseh nights and at the next our prosperous formers would be the preachers.

Think of All the Rubs You Give the Clothes by Hand

Did you ever stop to think what a tremendous amount of energy you expend when you do the washing by hand?

Take a sheet — fully twenty-five rubs down and the same back—fifty altogether. Six sheets—three hundred rubs.

A tablecloth—also fifty rubs—say you have three in the wash. There are a hundred and fifty rubs.

Your towels—twenty rubs apiece. A dozen and a half in the wash—that is three hundred and sixty rubs.

The handkerchiefs—about ten rubs apiece—which makes two hundred and forty rubs for a couple of dozen.

You put in two of your wash dresses and give them twenty-five rubs each—there you have fifty more rubs.

So you can go through the list—every wash day—and fifty-two times a year. Just think of giving many of your clothes such treatment fifty-two times, Even if you wash them only once in two weeks—think what they must get in a year.

And the THOR Electric Washer will save all of it—all the wear, all the work.

Let us demonstrate this machine to you in your own home.

In appreciation of the people who have attended his winter dances, W. L. Coller last Thursday evening gave a free party, and they surely had a good time. There were over 100 couples present, and, had the roads been good, the hall would not have held the crowd.

The Misses Mary and Minnie Cupples of Detroit and Richard Cupples of St. Thomas, Ont., were with the Orr and Cupples families Monday and Tuesday, coming for the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Weir. Mr. Cupples had not been here only for one day in the past 35 years and found but few of his boyhood cronies.

That women are coming into their own in Tecumseh is proven by a visit over at Uncle Sam's domains. There is Mrs. Albert Benedict as rural carrier, making her 29 miles daily through rain and shine as bravely as the men. Then, too, Mrs. Florence Osborn as substitute is assisting in the office. Both passed their civil service examinations with high per cent.

In a letter to Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Heesen received last week Henry VanDuser enclosed a picture of himself, which shows him in the best of health. He writes he has gained 1½ inches in height and now weighs 145 lbs. He is attached to the general headquarters at Chaumont. The picture has been in the Sunbeam gallery window this week and Henry's many friends were mightily pleased to see it.

Kenneth Hay has just installed in his bakery a butter-kist pop corn popper. The machine pops the corn and automatically butters and salts it. It also roasts peanuts and in one chamber keeps salted peanuts warm. Electricity is the power used and the machine is even equipped with lights. It is very intricate and makes quite a study for the public. Mr. Hay has placed the machine in his front window and it is attracting much attention.

Mrs. H. H. Hammell writes from Detroit that she received a cablegram Thursday from the doctor saying he was on his way home. She planned to go to meet him but is ill in bed with influenza. Saturday morning she had two letters from him telling how he spent the leave due him for his 18 months' service in a delightful visit to the Isle of Wight. On his return to France he found awaiting him his order to return home. They will probably arrive here about May 1st and a happy welcome they will receive from their friends.

The Herald acknowledges receipt of several copies of Florida newspapers sent by our own Justice S. P. Hosmer, who is wintering in the sunny south—Florida. The newspapers were interesting especially the last one received, the Daytona Daily News, which contained a graphic account of the death of Major Peterson, the American noted ace who downed 23 boches over European battlefields during the war. Major Peterson, with Lieut. F. T. Paverish, was making a flight when the army plane in which he was rising skyward crushed to the beech near the Clarendon hotel at Seabreeze Sunday, March 16.

NEW GOODS OF ALL KINDS ARE ARRIVING DAILY READY FOR YOUR INSPECTION. YARDS AND YARDS OF THE DAINTIEST WASH GOODS ARE NOW ON DISPLAY AT OUR BIG AND BUSY STORE.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SELECT THAT SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS WHILE THE ASSORTMENT IS COMPLETE.

Women's Suits That Spell Smartness But Do Not Yell It!

The opening of each new season finds women keenly interested in the suit question. Will the silhouette be slender? Will the skirt be longer and narrow? Will the box coat, or the demi-tailored model predominate?

Once selected the suit becomes the dominant factor of the wardrobe, and so it must be chosen with discrimination.

Here are uncommonly smart assortments of Conde creations which make selections as satisfactory as they are delightful—for only the best of the new is represented.

The model sketched is as suitable for afternoon as for street wear. To be had in navy and in new tones of tan termed beaver, nutria and raccoon.

Every wise suit seeking a dressy effect this season appreciates what a waist-coat will do for its appearance, and a more useful fashion has not been created in several seasons. Several Conde models demonstrate the effectiveness of charmingly simple 1919 vests developed in Moonglo crepe, Roshanara crepe and Empire Wash crepe.

Obituary — Elizabeth Catherine Adams-Ackley.

Sunday morning, May 16, Elizabeth Catherine Adams-Ackley fell asleep, remaining thus until she passed away at 2:30 Monday afternoon, death being due to her advanced age. She was born near Winchester, Ky., Dec. 22, 1838, and at the time of her death was 80 years, 2 months, 25 days old.

Fifty-three years ago she was united in marriage to Norman H. Ackley who preceded her to the better land, a little over three years ago. To this happy union two daughters, Mary A. King of Adrian and Martha E. Gorham, of this place, were born and they with nine grandchildren and one great-grand child, survive and mourn the departure of one, who while health permitted was a loving mother, sharing ever in their joys and cheering them in sorrow. She was one of a family of fifteen and is survived, also, by one brother, Thomas Adams, of Winchester, Ky., and two half brothers, James and Caleb Adams of Illinois.

When twenty-three years old she came to Michigan with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adams, with whom she had lived since childhood and where she remained until married. She and her companion were pioneer settlers doing what they could not only to rear a pleasant home, but by example and precept helped in making the world better. She enjoyed social activities, entering heartily in them and was a charter member of the L. O. T. M. lodge here. In youth she gave her heart to the service of the master and for over forty years was a member of the Christian church, later transferring her membership to the M. P. church, where, as long as she was able, she did all that she could and her passing over was but in answer to the summons, "Well done, faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gorham, and were conducted by Rev. Sam'l Tamblyn, assisted by Rev. J. C. DeRemer. Burial was in Ridgeway cemetery. Those present from away attending the services were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Blouch, Norman Blouch. Will Feldman and family, of Maybee; Mrs. Elmer Wagoner, of Plymouth, Mrs. J. B. King and children, Roy, Mabel and Alice, of Adrian, and Mrs. Will Palmer, of Milan.

By the example, she has set forth it is hoped that others who haven't registered will do so, and also help to vote "right."

Freight Wreck Delays Traffic.

Wabash engine No. 2050, making her first trip, and four freight cars were derailed here in Main street crossing, Sunday evening. No one was hurt excepting Brakeman Brown, who received a slight injury to one of his knees. The road was cleared for traffic early Monday morning and wreckage was entirely cleared away by the middle of the afternoon.

OBITUARY

Mrs. John Mitchell.

Mrs. John Mitchell passed away at her home in Raisin township Friday at 11:15 a. m. after an illness lasting since mid-winter when she had influenza. A liver trouble developed, but she had only been confined to her bed a few weeks.

Emma Prelipp was born 33 years ago west of Tecumseh on the town line road. Seventeen years ago she married John Mitchell and to them have been born five children. A little son died in infancy, the four remaining being Gladys, Marvin, Bertine and Burton, beside the two step sons, Clyde in service with the Marines, and Clarence of Adrian.

Six years ago Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell bought the old Sherrard farm, 1½ miles north of Holloway and have lived there since.

Beside the family are left the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Prelipp, of Wellsville, five brothers and one sister, Will, Fred, Arthur, Joseph and Alvin Prelipp, all living in Deerfield township and Miss Margaret Prelipp, of Detroit.

The funeral services were conducted from the home by Rev. Edw. Escolme Monday afternoon with burial at Brookside.

The family are well known in the village and Mr. Mitchell and little ones have the sympathy of the Tecumseh friends.

Let Them Call It What They May It's Right Narne Is—Saloon

COUNTLESS ATTEMPTS have been made in this and in other states to fool the people into voting for acts and amendments that will bring back the saloon with all its attendant evils and dangers

THE USUAL PROCEDURE is to give such legislation harmless sounding titles but by a tricky use of words—a camouflage of language—slip a joker into the text that will give it, when enacted, the opposite power and effect to that which appears in the title

A MORE VICIOUS use—or rather abuse—of the intentions of voters cannot be imagined—but what can you expect from a business founded as was the saloon on the weakness and cupidity of the weaker members of the race?

RIGHT NOW IN MICHIGAN a last desperate attempt is being made to do just that sort of thing.

UNDER A TITLE that sounds like one thing an amendment that means just the opposite is up for your decision

IT IS CALLED the "Beer and Wine" amendment. When the "Wets" speak of it they use the term "Light wines, etc.," but as a matter of fact the word "light" does not appear in title or text—and a heavier weapon was never used by the advocates of a befuddled world!

FOR IF YOU WILL READ this latest attempt to nullify Michigan's best piece of legislation—the "Dry" act—you will find that it means just this—bringing back the Saloon in its worst form and with its most harmful accessories

CALL IT WHAT THEY MAY—word it as they may to conceal its true intent—this "Beer and Wine" amendment's right name is "The Saloon Amendment."

DON'T BE DECEIVED by the wheedling of those who have always advised only for their own profit—and your loss

READ CAREFULLY weigh every word and make up your own mind what the saloon interests are trying to get you to do.

JUST AS AN EXAMPLE of the difference between what they say about it and what they say in it:—

THEY ARE SOLICITIOUS—Oh so feelingly solicitous!—lest the poor farmer be denied the privilege of making cider from his own apples. That would be a great hardship you will agree. They weep real tears over his predicament.

VERY WELL—Read that amendment and you will find cunningly concealed in verbiage, yet clearly stated, that if that "Beer and Wine" amendment were passed the farmer could neither make nor sell cider without first taking out a license—same as a saloon or a brewery

CAN YOU BEAT THAT for double dealing? Yet they fondly hope that enough Michigan voters will be fooled by the title and by their propaganda to vote for this thing that would put the saloon back even stronger than it was

OH, WINES ARE HARMLESS" they say. Verily! Wine is the standby of the "Side Door" and the Cabaret. And the Cabaret and the "family entrance" are the most vicious phases of the Saloon—they ruin women as well as men and degrade both.

WHY, SOME FOREIGN WINES have almost as great an alcoholic content as the strongest whiskey—and create a worse form of intoxication.

"AND BEER" they used to tell us—"why in Germany even the children drink beer. Beer drinking is universal there."

WELL, WE HAVE SEEN what Beer will do when universally used! Was ever a people more degraded—more brutalized—more deadened to the difference between right and wrong?

MAKE THE BRAIN SODDEN—render it, by constant soaking in beer, only half active—and you have a being more akin to a brute than a man. Tractable? Yes—but never dependable

NO—WE NO LONGER hold a beer soaked people up as examples of—anything

AMERICAN GENERALS found that men who went over the top sober were better, able to do their part and take care of themselves—especially if wounded—than were soldiers who had grog served to them to lend an artificial, momentary courage

THEY EVEN TRY—the Saloon propagandists—to make you think our soldier boys resent the abolition of the saloon

WHAT AN INSULT to those brave boys and to your intelligence

AS IF EVERY AMERICAN SOLDIER were a toper so addicted to his booze that, like a dope fiend he would fight if deprived of it

THAT'S THE VERIEST ROT of course. They know it is—else why do they not dare say just what this "Beer and Wine" Amendment really means?

WHY DO THEY TRY TO HIDE its real intent under an innocent sounding title and hide its meaning again by a tricky use of words. Why?

BECAUSE THEY KNOW that the people who voted Michigan dry still want it dry. And they know too that the votes of the men will now be supported and augmented by the votes of Michigan women—and they know what that vote will say

THEIR ONLY CHANCE to get the saloon back is to make you think they want something else. For they know you want no more of the saloon

IT IS THEIR LAST forlorn hope—their last dying kick. The saloon is gone never to return. The longer we are without it the less we miss it—the less does anyone want it back

THEY'D LIKE TO DRIVE a wedge in the Federal act by getting this amendment through in Michigan. That is the big significance of this attempt—that is why so much outside money is being spent in propaganda here

TRUTH TO TELL there isn't much Michigan money being spent—Michigan breweries and Saloonists look upon it as a dead issue. They are making other plans and are not sending more good money after bad

BUT OUTSIDERS are still frantically trying to get Michigan back in the wet column so as to prevent nation-wide prohibition and the utter dismantling of every brewery and distillery in this country

FOR THAT KIND OF PROHIBITION does prohibit—no more chance for disgraceful scenes like that recently between Toledo and Detroit

THEY HAVE EVEN TRIED to make this appear a religious issue—their propaganda says some denominations are against a dry state

IT'S NOTHING OF THE KIND—a few men of all denominations favor a Wet condition. But the vast majority of all religious denominations are for a dry state and a dry nation

THIS ISN'T A MATTER of religion; of sect; of nationality. It is just a matter of decency and sanity and good citizenship as against rowdyism

WATCH THIS THING—It is counterfeit. It does not mean what it says. Its title is a misnomer. Its intent is vicious. It dresses in the guise of liberty—"personal liberty"—its effect would be to enslave again

IT IS CALLED THE Beer and Wine Amendment"—its real name is the Saloon.

DO YOU WANT the saloon back?

IF NOT—vote NO April 7th to the so-called "Beer and Wine" Amendment.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

FROM RUSSIA

Earl Coller Writes Father — Hopes to be Home by Mid-Summer.

Russia
Jan. 8, 1919.

My Dear Father:

A few lines to let you know that I am pretty well and hope this finds you well and doing your bit. We are all wondering just what is going on at "Custer." I suppose that most of the boys from that section will be brought back there to be mustered out. We will be the last to reach there although we are all living in hopes of being there by spring or late summer as the port of Archangel will be closed to the outside world during April, May and June.

Things are a little quiet with us now, but no telling just when a little excitement will start.

I wish you wouldn't have my letters published as I have been getting some letters with pictures of cows enclosed.

(In one of his letters Earl wrote that even a picture of a Michigan cow would look good to him. He evidently got the pictures.—Ed.)

We received some mail Christmas eve and also New Years eve so that helped to take the curse off the two days. The only Tecumseh boys with us in Russia are Lieut. Mills and a Kay boy. They are at some other point. Our company is still all together. Lost a few boys with the "Influ" at the beginning. Captain and Lieutenant's are fine—all are making the best of our time. Plenty of work for all and then some. We all hope to be home by midsummer and trust that you will have the band out to meet us.

Must go back to work—a more lengthy letter next time. My love to all. Keep writing.

Your boy

The Tecumseh Herald,
Tecumseh, Mich.

Sirs:

Am sending you a copy of a short poem that appeared a few months ago in the "Navy Life", a magazine published here at the Naval base. As nearly everybody knows it around here and I consider it to be the truth, am sending the copy for you to publish in your paper if you care to. My parents forward their copy of the "Herald" to me each week and I sure do enjoy them and am always looking for the same.

The poem is as follows:

The Volunteer.

Why didn't I wait to be drafted,
And led to the train by a band;
Or put in a claim for exemption,
Why did I hold up my right hand?

Why didn't I wait for the banquet?
Why didn't I wait for the cheer?
A drafted man gets all the credit
And I am only a volunteer.

There was no one to give me a banquet,
Or even to say one kind word;
The puff and the grind of the engine,
Was all the good-bye that I heard.

Then off to the merchant ship hustled,
To save her from the submarine fear;
In the time of the draft quite forgotten,
I was only a volunteer.

Now perhaps some day in the future,
Will a little boy sit on my knee,
And ask what I did in the conflict,
While his baby eyes gaze up at me.

And I'll have to look into those eyes
That at me so trustfully peer,
And confess that I wasn't a draftee
But—only a volunteer.

Yours truly,
Amos D. Wilson

FRANKLIN

Donald Whelan improves slowly.

S. N. Wisner is on the sick list.

Mrs. E. J. Whelan visited Mrs. Otis Whelan Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Harrison, his mother, and Mrs. Fagan and other relatives were in Adrian Wednesday, celebrating Mrs. Ann Jenkins' birthday. Mrs. Jenkins' health is much improved.

Wilford Allen has purchased a horse of Albert Radant.

Milton Sackett and his bride were given a kitchen shower last Saturday night at their home by about 60 of their relatives and neighbors. Refreshments were served and all present enjoyed a jolly good time.

Sam Thompkins and wife moved in the C. L. Wisner's tenant house last week, and he has begun his year's work.

Dr. Tuttle was called to Mrs. Otis Whelan's last week. Mrs. Whelan had fainting spells but is up and around the house.

There was a good crowd out Saturday night at Grange hall, Tipton, to listen to the speech of Hon. Charles Evans, our district representative. After the calling of the Grange program the house was turned over to Mr. Evans, who talked on the three amendments which are to be submitted to the people at the spring election. Mr. Evans wanted every one to vote according to the dictates of their conscience, but he wanted all to understand just what the amendments mean. Seventy per cent of the inmates of our asylums were the offspring of drunken parents. In his capacity as representative he had visited them. The records carefully kept prove it.

Earl Allen and wife, Mrs. A. B. Wisner and S. N. Wisner were Tecumseh visitors Friday.

Wilford Allen and family drove to Adrian Friday p. m. returning Saturday. They visiting relatives in the city.

Jay Pawson, Herbert Munger, Mrs. A. B. Wisner and S. N. Wisner visited the county seat Friday.

Mrs. Emmet Brighton of Newburg was calling on Mrs. C. L. Wisner Sunday. They drove up to their old home after a load of goods.

Harry Daniels and family visited at S. N. Wisner's Sunday.

Mrs. Lelia May, who has been ill with ulcers of the stomach is much better. She spent a few days last week with her father's people, Bert Billington, in Adrian. She reports her father as quite poorly. Some time ago he was so ill they believed he had a stroke, but on examination with an x-ray, he also was found to be suffering with ulcers of the stomach.

BASKET BALL

Both Teams Lost in Their Games From Home Friday.

The basket ball teams had most delightful trips the last of the week. Friday morning the boys, accompanied by O. J. Duguid as coach, Lee McAdam, Harold Sisson and Harold Blesing of Detroit went to Hastings for a game. They found the hosts mighty nice fellows and some fine players, only having been defeated twice during the entire season, so when the score stood 3 to 35 in favor of Hastings, the visitors did not feel so bad.

The gym up there is about the size of ours, with the school building surpassing ours in many ways, but Hastings is a city much larger than Tecumseh.

Bernard Goodrich, our former principal, teaches there and entertained the visitors at dinner, and some over night.

Saturday the boys saw Kalamazoo, Camp Custer and Battle Creek, staying in Jackson that night and returning home Sunday.

Friday morning the girls' team went to Monroe for a return game. They were not beaten so badly this time, the score standing 32 to 16. After the game a dancing party was held and each of the girls was entertained by one of the Monroe girls.

ANOTHER 85th BOY HOME

Part of the time he spent at a training camp at Coetquidan where they were first supplied with the fire works. It was at this camp he saw Lieut R. K. Anderson. Later he ran across Joe Satterthwaite, the only two Tecumseh men he saw in Europe. His battery had just reached the first line when the armistice was signed.

MRS. JENNIE WEIR

One of Tecumseh's Best Known Ladies Passed Away Saturday.

Mrs. Jennie Weir, one of the best known ladies of the town, passed away Saturday at the home of her sister, the Misses Mary and Minnie Cupples, in Detroit. Realizing that her health was failing, Mrs. Weir last fall broke up her home here and went to her sisters in Detroit where since she has been growing steadily worse. Bright's disease and a heart effection were the cause of illness.

The lady came from one of the old and prominent families of the town, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cupples, and born here June 5, 1859. She married Chester J. Weir at Jackson June 20, 1881, and to them one son, James Linton Weir, was born. He is now a captain in the ordnance department.

Mr. Weir died April 13, 1891, and Mrs. Weir, some 16 years ago, returned to the home town to be with her friends and of those there are a host. Her happy disposition and quaint remarks made her company a pleasure and as a friend she was loyal and true.

Besides the sisters and son is left one brother, Richard Cupples, of St. Thomas, Ont.

The remains were brought to Tecumseh Monday and the funeral held that afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Orr. Rev. W. A. Rex conducted the services and the bearers were four cousins of the deceased, John, Charles and Robert Orr and James Cupples; also Leon Rosacrans and Lester Heesen. The remains were laid beside those of the husband at Brookside.

Capt. James Weir, the Misses Cupples of Detroit and Richard Cupples of St. Thomas were here for the funeral.

WIT AND WISDOM

Picnic Supper and Program at the Home of Mrs. F. D. Rector.

The home of Mrs. F. D. Rector was the gathering place of the Wit and Wisdom Club Monday evening for their "Author's Night." At 6:30 was served a fine picnic supper, as usual enjoyed by a full turnout of club members. Mrs. Rector was leader of the program, which was excellent, the papers being as follows:

English Authors—Mrs. J. F. Rector
Tolstoi—Mrs. A. J. Bigelow
American Writers—Mrs. A. O. Howard
Reading, Bret Harte's "John Burns at Gettysburg"—Miss Mildred Boyce

Discussion, "Which has had the more influence, fiction writers or poets," led by Rev. C. M. Thompson in favor of the fiction writers and Dr. L. G. North for the poets. A general discussion followed.

Roll Call, "Something new worth reading" brought out much information.

FRANK ROGERS ON GOOD ROADS

SYSTEMATIC CONSTRUCTION MOST ECONOMICAL

County System Equalizes Taxation Instead of Burdening Farmers — Next Community Service at Methodist Church.

The Community service Sunday evening was not as well attended as some of the others, both owing to the storm and the general mixup as to time. Some reached the church at 7 o'clock as advertized, but the service did not begin until 8 o'clock, as arranged by the ministers on Saturday.

During the opening services Rev. W. A. Rex read the scripture lesson, Rev. Escolme offered prayer and the announcements were made. For next Sunday night Rev. Thompson announced the services to be held at the M. E. church and he will preach on the Sabbath question.

Rev. W. R. Curtis then said Representative Evans was to be present to talk in the Good Roads amendment, but had been detained through the illness of his wife, but State Highway Commissioner Frank Rogers was introduced and treated the subject well. He started in by saying the women of the county ought to know how to vote on this amendment without being told for as the little boy said "Pa gets behind the steering gear and ma sits on the back seat and takes the bumps." Mr. Rogers said he had frequently talked from pulpits on the subject but never before had he the privilege of preaching a real Sunday night sermon on the theme so to make it a bona fide sermon he took the following text from Isaiah 40:4: "Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight and the rough places plain." Then he proceeded to show the people their duty in voting for better roads—to level the hills, make straight the crooked roads and smooth the rough places, infact to vote for good roads.

Although he has a warm place in his heart for his old home county, he admitted she was left far behind in this regard. The ways and means to secure the good roads is the question to think over. We admit we want them.

He told of the county road system as planned and of the benefit we would gain by voting it in. He also explained the Federal money we are to receive and state award and he is fully capable to cover the ground by his 13 years experience in his present office.

He remarked that "A dry atmosphere is good for roads," and to think the matter of both amendments over.

Rev. Curtis in the course of a few remarks aptly put it that we seem to have two problems: getting to town and getting back.

The service closed with the benediction by Rev. C. M. Thompson.

M. ADDIE GOODING

Invalid Lady Passed Away Last Thursday.

Miss M. Addie Gooding passed away Thursday afternoon at the home of her niece, Mrs. L. E. Temple, where she has resided for the past twelve years. For some half dozen years she has been an invalid, confined to her chair practically all the time for three years.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at the Temple home, Rev. J. E. Somers, of Dundee, officiating, with burial at Macon. Miss Lillian Kennedy sang two beautiful selections. The bearers were old neighbors from Macon. Howard Hand, Fred Allen and George Hendershot, Cassius Mills, Wesley Pennington and Joseph Osborn.

Howard Hand, of Adrian, Clyde Knight and family and Fred Allen, of Clinton, were present for the services.

Mary Adeliza Gooding was born July 3rd, 1838, near the village of Canandaigua, New York. She was the second of a family of ten children born to Chester and Lauricia Gooding. Of this family she was at the time of her death the last surviving member.

In 1864 at the age of twenty-five, she came to Michigan with her parents and settled in Macon. Here she lived with them until after their death, giving to them and her younger brothers and sisters, a faithful, loving service that never faltered.

In 1895 she came to Tecumseh with her neice who had always made her home with her and to whom she was like a mother.

After her niece's marriage she made her home with her and there she passed away March 27, at the age of eighty. She was always gentle and unselfish and her patience nuring her last illness was a marvel to those who cared for her. She has left behind her the memory of a gentle presence that will always linger with us.

The menu consisted of the following: Oysterettes, wafers, roast pork with dressing, mashed potatoes, brown gravy, pineapple salad pickles, olives, rolls, angel food cake, pie and coffee.

Comfort-Rogers.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Rogers of Holloway at 4:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Mar. 29, when their daughter, Bertine C., was united in marriage to Elwood Comfort of Detroit. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. B. Hawkins of Lansing, a former pastor of the Presbyterian church of Holloway, using the double ring service.

At the appointed hour Miss Winnifred Mitchell sang "I Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. Frank Palmer, who also played the wedding march as the bridal party, preceded by the ring bearer, little Jane Hawkins, who carried the rings in a basket of sweet peas, took their places before an embankment of house plants and flowers in the bay window. The bride was dressed in white satin with a veil prettily arranged with orange blossoms, and carried a large bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. After the ceremony refreshments were served to the many guests by the Misses Martha Comfort and Lucile Fowler.

The bride received many useful gifts among which were linen, cut glass, silverware and money.

The young couple are very well known and popular in the communities from which they come.

There were over fifty in the party and the supper was served at tables bearing boquets of hyacinths. The ladies were given the names of states and the men the names of capitals. These were to be matched up to provide the partners for supper and caused much merriment, making the party informal from the start. After the bountiful supper the president, Mrs. J. J. [illegible] called the company to order and announced the following program: Welcoming address, Miss Kyle; response, S. C. Cutting; readings from Paul Lawrence Dunbar's "Lyrics of Lowly Life," Rev. Curtis to tell of the cantonment at Custer. He took his subject from the side of life lived there, the good of the "Y" work for the boys and how the boys are changed so materially after arriving. He pays a loyal tribute to the Red Cross and the brave women in that grand organization.

The final number was a piano selection by Miss Geraldine Westcott. Later a committee served refreshments.

SPLENDID MUSICALE GIVEN BY THE MONDAY CLUB

That good music is appreciated in Tecumseh was evidenced Tuesday evening by the rapt attention given by the audience at the musicale given by the Monday Club. It was formerly the custom for these ladies to entertain their gentlemen once yearly. This year they were more generous with the pleasure and made the agair public and the Baptist church was filled with music lovers who certainly enjoyed the delightful music given by the home folks—and we have splendid musicians right in our little home town.

The ladies this year have studied France so made their program of French composers. A settings of ferns ornamented the platform. The program had been aranged by Mrs. F. B. Wood and Mrs. R. S. Moore and was given as published in our last issue.

Editorial Comment

After sitting quietly one solid hour in a pew in the Baptist church Sunday evening awaiting the opening of the community service, one is likely to wonder why people don't get into the game of life right and why of all institutions the churches should fall down on the changing of time and go contrary to what they advertised.

Sunday morning at 2 o'clock was the time specified by the government to set clocks ahead one hour. As far as we know this order was promptly observed and, as before, people immediately forgot about it and adopted the one time. That is as it should be and we regret very much the confusion that occurred unnecessarily in Tecumseh.

"Pull Michigan out of the mud" is the slogan adopted by good roads advocates. One doctor informs us that only last week he had to have assistance—a team to pull his machine out of the mud while making a professional call to Tipton. Such an incident would not have been very pleasant had it occurred at midnight and the patient's life depended upon the speedy arrival of the physician. There are so many advantages of good roads that every citizen of the state should heed the slogan and help pull Michigan out of the mud

The farmers, as a rule, want good roads and will vote for them. Business men know the advantages of good roads and the expense of keeping up makeshifts. They will vote for good roads. Occasionally we run across a farmer who is afraid of the tax. One the other day made the ridiculous statement that if the bond issue and county road system carried a tax of $10 per acre would be placed upon farms.

A few years ago the people of the county refused aid in road building by voting down the county system. Many of the farmers of the county have felt the effects by getting a good stiff assessment against their property. Now we are again offered aid, not only through the county system, but through a state bond issue so as to enable us to get some of the federal aid money. The United States government will pay half the cost of all roads leading to main markets. Are we going to turn it down again?

Many people naturally have a horror for bonding, yet the majority of them never would have had anything without going in debt at some time.

The government will not only pay half of the cost of our main market roads, but will also furnish to us its expert engineers and road builders as well as a portion of its eqipment for road building. The Federal government can only be interested in our main market roads and such roads as may be used for national defense and for the carrying of the mail and parcel post By the construction of such the various townships will be given more time and attention to lateral roads and the time will soon come when we shall have a perfect network of well built roads.

As to the $50,000,000 bonding proposition. The legislature have by resolution provided that only five million bonds shall be issued in any one year. This will give ten million for two years from the state and ten million from the Federal government. Every man who wants labor in Michigan will find it and plenty of it.

With the Federal government paying half of the entire cost, Wayne county paying one-third of the other half and the cities and villages paying 65 per cent it looks as if the farmer is getting a good end of the bargain and not $10 per acre.

The questions are shall we refuse this aid and shall we refuse to build roads in a systematic, economical way that the county system provides?

If we don't take advantage of this help is Michigan going to remain in the mud? Not on your life. There will be another way provided, for Michigan must progress with other states, but it may be a way that will be more burdensome to the taxpayers of Lenawee county and Michigan.

If you don't know how to vote on the amendments next Monday have one of the election inspectors instruct you before you mark your ballot. Our representative, Charles Evans, advises to vote "No" on the beer and wine amendment, "No" on the amendment regarding raising salaries of officials, "Yes" on the county road system and "Yes" on the bonding amendment. If you follow his advice you can't go wrong very far.

Read what Bishop Williams has to say on the beer and wine amendment in another column

Thomas Brooks Fletcher told us last week that it required no brains to vote a straight party ticket. Many people do not even pretend to use brains on election day.

State Highway Commissioner Rogers made a good point in his address Sunday night when he referred to the saving on equipment the county road system has over the smaller unit—township road building. Also the advantage of having a continuous board instead of an in-and-out highway official and the hiring of expert road builders by the county board.

The dust problem in Tecumseh does not look overly cheerful. We are informed solicitors were unable to raise enough money to pay for sprinkling the business section with water. Here is another instance where Tecumseh lacks co-operation and community spirit. If every business man sticks it out to paddle his own canoe and the dust problem is not solved, the trade outlook for Tecumseh this summer is not exactly bright. Shall we get together here, or shall we wait until "we gather at the river?"

On another page will be found the annual financial statement of Tecumseh township as compiled by Clerk Hanna. The report is well gotten up, an evidence that we have an efficient township clerk. You should read it

WINE AND BEER AMENDMENT

DIAGNOSIS BY BISHOP CHARLES D. WILLIAMS

Some of the Vicious Points of Camouflaged Amendment Revealed by Head of Episcopal Church.

The following communication appeared in a recent issue of the Detroit Free Press, written by Bishop D. Williams, who has been literature:

"To the Editor: May I call your attention to an exceedingly subtle camouflage in the proposed "wine and beer (so-called) amendment" to be submitted at the spring election on April 7, 1919?

"The name chosen is a great "vote catcher." It appeals strongly to that large and respectable class, the reasonable, well balanced men and women who see no moral wrong in the moderate and temperate use of light wines and beers, and who feel perhaps that the prohibition fanatics are apt to go too far in their interference with individual liberty. I am much inclined to this position myself. Furthermore this appeal is greatly strengthened by our late experience of the saturnalia which broke out upon the recent decision of the supreme court of the state, declaring unconstitutional the statue which prevented the importation of liquor from neighboring states. Upon witnessing such scenes as occurred on the roads between Detroit and Toledo after that decision, many people are inclined to say: "We are asking too much of human nature in legislating absolute prohibition. If we can keep out the alcoholic liquors, the whisky and brandy that raise the devil, let us permit the thirsty masses to have their comparatively harmless light wine and beer." On some such ground many have doubtless made up their minds to vote for the amendment.

"If so, they have not read the amendment. The "vote-catching" name ("wine and beer" amendment) is an exceedingly subtle and skillful camouflage which hides as dishonest and vicious a piece of legislation as was ever palmed off on a guileless and thoughtless public.

Observe some of its most vicious points:

"1. It does not specify "light wines and beer" or even specify the percentage of alcohol allowable in any of the beverages it makes lawful. "Cider, wines, beer, ale and porter" are listed. We all know that hard cider may contain a large percent of alcohol and one can get as gloriously or devilishly drunk on it as on rotgut whiskey. And, furthermore, if whiskey can be disguised as "cold tea," an easier disguise could be found in any of these listed and legalized beverages.

"2. (And this is most important.) Every safeguard or restriction heretofore thrown about the saloon and the liquor trade is abolished by this amendment.

"It makes it 'forever lawful in this state to import, transport, manufacture, use, buy sell, keep for sale, give away, barter or furnish' the aforesaid beverages.'

"It repeals all previously enacted restrictions on such traffic.

"It gives the legislature only the power, by general laws to 'license reasonably the manufacture of, and reasonably license and regulate the sale and keeping of, vinous, malt, brewed or fermented liquors.'

"This at one stroke abolishes every safeguard and restraint hitherto put about the saloon.

"The saloon may be located next door to any church or school.

"It may sell to minors, little children, women, habitual drunkards, insane, feeble-minded, in fact, anybody 'without let or hindrance.'

"It establishes the saloon in an impregnable citadel above the reach of the law or the legislature and so fortified, it could practice any abuse it choses.

"3. The amendment, if enacted, would make the saloon and liquor trade generally more potent and pernicious as a concealed power in politics than they were even in the 'good old days' before the state went dry.

"Are the people of Michigan going to be fooled by this camouflage —

"CHAS. D. WILLIAMS.
Bishop of Diocese of Michigan.
Detroit, March 7, 1919."

PROGRESSIVE PARTY

Friends Sunday School Class Enjoy Fine Time.

The "Friends Successful class" of the Friends Sunday school enjoyed a progressive party Thursday evening which was delightful in its novelty. First the young people gathered at the home of Miss Anna Satterthwaite where light refreshments were served they held a business session. Then they went to the Bert Nixon home and an hour was spent happily in games and singing. From there they wended their way out to see Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hanley where and the usual good time enjoyed, which they always have at the Hanley home. The party broke up at a late hour and every one reports one of the most happy evenings the class has had.

Prepare to Invest in the Victory Liberty Loan

What are the American people going to do about it? Are they going to sit by and let the deficit bloat and putrefy and make a bad smell in the credit atmosphere? Are the American people going to let our national credit become a scandal in the financial markets of the world? Are the people going to let merchants and manufacturers "walk the floor" and worry about their money—the money that they honestly deserve—money due them for goods they delivered to the Government to win the war?

Are the American people going to "lie down" on their bills? Are they going to "run a charge account" and then "welsh" on the payment? After the eternal glory of giving the finishing "punch" in the greatest fight of all time, is America going to higgle and piggle about paying for the powder? Well, hardly!

"MISS BLUE EYES" AT THE BRADLEY THIS WEEK FRIDAY

"Miss Blue Eyes," billed as a "musical show that is different," will be at the Bradley opera house this week, Friday, April 4th. This attraction was originally booked here for Monday, April 7th, but being impossible to make connections in railroading the date was changed to Friday (tomorrow).

"Miss Blue Eyes" is a first class New York production, the company numbers nearly 40 people and a 60-ft. car load of scenery and electrical effects is carried for the production. If you are at all acquainted with attractions playing such cities as Detroit and Chicago you will readily understand what it means when we say the music for "Miss Blue Eyes" was written by Silvio Hein who composed the music for the New York Casino success "Flo-Flo" and the play itself was written by Geo. V. Hobart, author of "Experience," "The Ziegfeld Follies," etc. The company coming here Friday night is on the road under the management of Harvey D. Orr, who has had nothing but first class attractions in Tecumseh on former occasions when he presented "The Million Dollar Dolls" and "There She Goes," both of the better class of musical comedy productions.

"Miss Blue Eyes" is carrying the complete scenic production exactly as used for an entire season at the 39th Street theatre, New York. The costumes are said to be excellent and the chorus, which can both sing and dance, are making the music of the piece wonderfully popular with such hits as "Blue Eyes," "Honeysuckle Inn," "A Sort of Subtle Feeling," and these are only a few of the twenty numbers introduced during the action of the play.

Taken all in all, "Miss Blue Eyes" is one of the exceptional attractions coming to the Bradley and patrons of this thearte can look forward to an evening of exceptional entertainment. The seat sale opened at Hay's this morning with every indication of a capacity house.

Take it easy
you climb the silo

When you feed silage someone has to climb the silo—either father, the boys or the hired man.

You know what a disagreeable job it is climbing most silos on a cold, raw, winter day, how difficult it is to climb the skimpy ladder, and then after you get up to the top the door sticks, binds and sometimes freezes, and how difficult it is to open. Well, most silo doors are alike, but not so with the Famous Ladder Hinge—

HINGE-DOOR (LADDER HINGE) COPYRIGHTED SILOS

are easy to climb—and easy to open

The big steel hinges on the door form a perfect ladder with steps 15 inches apart, and a 7-inch clearance from the side of the door. You can climb the Ladder-Hinge Door with perfect ease and safety, and one operation of the lever opens and closes the big roomy, air tight door.

Let me tell you about this wonderful patented Ladder-Hinge-Door, and also about all the exclusive features of the Larco Vitrified Tile Silo and the Ladder-Hinge-Door Wood Stave Silo.

It will take me only a few minutes to show you where the Silo will net you greater profits than any similar improvement you can place on your farm. Call me on the phone or drop a card, and I'll make it a point to see you.

Ship Stock by Auto Truck

I wish to call the attention of farmers and stock buyers to the fact that my auto truck makes two trips a week to Toledo, each Tuesday and Thursday, and that there are a number of advantages in using the auto truck in shipping your stock to the Toledo market.

By using this method your stock is taken direct to market. There is no side-tracking delay, consequently no feeding expense. You save the shrinkage due to shunting and side-track delay. Farmers and stock buyers are using the auto truck in other places and are pleased with the new method. Try it yourself.

Carter, Henry Sheldon, and Mrs. Henry Sheldon, whose christian name is unknown to plaintiffs, Lenawee County Savings Bank, and Mrs. Jeanette Cannon.

Defendants.

At a session of said court, held at the Court House in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 8th day of March, A. D. 1919.

Present, Honorable Burton L. Hart, Circuit Judge.

Upon reading and filing the Bill of Complaint in this cause, duly sworn to by the plaintiffs, from which it satisfactorily appears that the defendants hereto have some titles, interests, claims, liens, or possible rights to the premises described in said Bill of Complaint and hereinafter described; and said plaintiffs averring that all the titles, interests, claims, liens, or possible rights of said defendants and each of them are barred by the open, notorious, exclusive, and continuous possession of said plaintiffs, or their grantors, for more than fifteen years last past, and for more than fifteen years since the several rights to the possession thereof accured in said defendants, and that such possession has been during all of said time and still is adverse and hostile to the titles, interests, claims, liens or possible rights of the respective defendants and their predecessors in title; that plaintiffs have not been able to ascertain whether the said above named defendants, excepting Lenawee County Savings Bank and Mrs. Jeanette Cannon, and their several unknown heirs devisees, legatees, and assigns, or any of them, are living or dead, or where they or any of them reside, if living, or whether the title, interest, claim, lien, or possible rights of said parties, or any of them has been by them, or any of them, assigned to any person or persons, or if dead, whether they or any of them have personal representatives or heirs living, or where they, or any of them reside, or whether such title, interest, claim, lien or possible rights, which they or any of them may have has been disposed of, by will, although they have made diligent search and inquiry.

On motion of Earl C. Michener, attorney for plaintiffs, it is ordered that the above named defendants, or their several unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, and assigns, cause their several appearances to be entered herein in the manner provided by law, on or before three months from the date hereof.

It is further ordered that this order be published or served as required by law.

Burton L. Hart.
Circuit Judge.

Examined, Countersigned, and entered by me,
Emery B. Root,
Clerk of said Court.
Earl C. Michener, Adrian Michigan, Attorney for plaintiff

Oakland, 1918 Touring; looks brand new.

Saxon Four Roadster; a real bargain.
